

Femke de Vries

Date of birth: 20 September 1972

Nationality: Dutch

Femke de Vries was appointed to the Supervisory Board of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. as member effective 29 June 2023 for a period of four years. Her current term of appointment will expire upon the closing of the annual general meeting in 2027.

Femke is a well-known and respected professional in the risk and compliance domain. She has worked for DNB and AFM for 15 years. In various senior roles, she supervised all areas of the financial services spectrum. From 2018 until 1 March, Femke worked at &samhoud, an organisational consultancy firm, as (Managing) Partner. Femke advised (financial) organizations within and outside the Netherlands; particularly in the field of risk management and behaviour. She currently works as an independent advisor.

Next to her consulting activities, Femke is a professor by special appointment in Supervision at the University of Groningen. She has also obtained experience as independent chair of the initiative "Climate Commitment Financial Services Sector" (Commissie Klimaatcommitment Financiële sector). Further, Femke is Vice-Chair of the BNG Bank's Supervisory Board.

Education:

- PhD research, thesis 'The administrative fine in the Customs Act', Erasmus University Rotterdam (2005)
- Criminal law, Erasmus University Rotterdam (2001)
- Policy and governance in international organisations, University of Groningen (1996)

Other ancillary positions:

- Vice-Chair of the Supervisory Board, BNG Bank N.V.
- Board member and owner, private consultancy firm
- Chair of the Advisory Board, Authority for Nuclear Safety and Radiation Protection
- Member of the Advisory Board, Human Environment and Transport Inspectorate (ILT)
- Regular author of expert contribution to the Dutch financial daily gazette (Het Financieele Dagblad)
- Member of the Advisory Council of the Nederlandse Zorgautoriteit