ABN AMRO Clearing Contracts with Trading Technologies to Distribute the TT® Platform

LONDON and AMSTERDAM, June 6, 2017 – ABN AMRO Clearing Bank N.V. and Trading Technologies International, Inc. (TT), a global provider of high-performance professional trading software, today announced ABN AMRO Clearing has contracted to make available the TT trading platform to ABN AMRO Clearing's customers globally. This agreement furthers the long-standing partnership between Trading Technologies and ABN AMRO Clearing, which is also a distributor of TT's legacy X_TRADER® platform.

In the fourth quarter of 2017, professional traders who obtain software through ABN AMRO Clearing will have access to TT's fully integrated suite of trading tools, including Autospreader®, charting and analytics, block trading and TT Desktop, TT's highest-performing user interface for complex workspaces that span across up to 16 monitors.

"We are pleased to offer ABN AMRO Clearing customers access to TT's professional trading tools and enhanced execution services," said James Fairweather, Global Director of Global Execution Services at ABN AMRO Clearing. "Additionally, TT's ease of deployment, on-the-go access and global connectivity will deliver great value to our international network of professional traders and derivatives brokers."

Steven Stewart, Managing Director, EMEA Sales for Trading Technologies, commented, "We are excited to bring our latest and best technology to ABN AMRO Clearing customers and provide their users with a robust, streamlined trading experience. Orders entered through TT will execute through our co-located data centers, providing users with extreme low-latency performance, regardless of the trader's location."

The TT platform delivers unmatched power and speed with secure, go-anywhere market access and trade execution through the software-as-a-service (SaaS) delivery model. Designed specifically for professional trading, TT incorporates a diverse range of customizable tools to accommodate trading styles that range from manual point-and-click trading to automated order entry.
