

Annerie Vreugdenhil

Date of birth: 6 November 1963

Nationality: Dutch

Annerie Vreugdenhil was appointed to the Executive Board as Chief Commercial Officer Personal & Business Banking of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. on 1 March 2022 for a period of four years. Her current term of appointment ends at the close of the annual general meeting in 2026.

Annerie has over 30-year experience in the financial sector. She started her career at British Petroleum Maatschappij Nederland B.V., but soon thereafter she started in the financial sector at the Nederlandse Credietbank N.V., subsequently acquired by Credit Lyonnais Bank Nederland B.V., as an assistant account manager for large corporates.

In April 1992, Annerie joined ING. In the following years, she held various positions. She was appointed Head of Commercial Banking in the Netherlands in 2010 and became a member of the executive team of ING Netherlands. In this role, she was responsible for strategy towards and for all business client relationships of ING in the Netherlands (covering the full range from SME to large corporates) as well as the products lease and commercial finance. From 2016 until 2018 she was Global Head Real Estate Finance at ING Wholesale Banking managing international teams in Europe, USA, Asia and Australia.

In 2018, Annerie was appointed as Head of Innovation at ING Wholesale Banking and in 2020 as Head of ING Neo and Chief Innovation Officer at ING. In this role, she was responsible for creating impact with innovations, through a buy, build or partner concept.

Education:

2006	IMD, Lausanne, Switzerland, Booster programme
2003	Insead, Fontainebleau, France, Inter-Alpha Banking programme
1988	International law, University of Amsterdam, focus EU-law (not completed)
1987	Master in Dutch Law, University of Amsterdam, specialized in corporate law
1987	Political Science, University of Amsterdam, focus International Relations (not completed)

Other positions:

- Member of the Board of the Dutch Banking Association