

Michiel Lap

Date of birth: 23 August 1962

Nationality: Dutch

Mr. Lap graduated from Harvard University in Cambridge, Massachusetts in 1984 with a B.A. in Economics. Mr Lap has more than 25 years of experience as a banker at JP Morgan, Morgan Stanley and, latterly, Goldman Sachs. In addition, he was an executive board member at Orange S.A.. He served on the Leadership Council of the Lessons for Life Foundation, was a member of the Advisory Committee to the Endowment Fund of the Concertgebouw, and was a Non-Executive Director and Chairman of the Property & Investment Committee of the Royal Brompton & Harefield Hospitals Charity. Until the end of 2018, Mr Lap was a member of the Supervisory Board at Stichting Bewaarbedrijf Abete of Janlvo Holding.

Education:

- Bachelor of Art, Economics, Harvard University (June 1984)

Current positions:

- Director at Rijn Capital B.V. (since October 2018)
- Vice Chairman and member of the Supervisory Board and Audit and Risk Committee at Arcadis N.V. (Since May 2015)
- Industrial Advisor at EQT Partners (since (August 2014)

Former positions:

Executive

- Managing Director and Partner and Head of Northern European Investment Banking activities at Goldman Sachs Inc. in London (2004 – 2014)
- Executive Vice President and member of the Executive Board of Orange SA in London (2001 – 2003)
- Managing Director, Investment Banking Division at Morgan Stanley & Co in London (1988 – 2001)
- Assistant Vice President, Corporate Banking at JP Morgan in London and New York (1984 – 1988)

Non-executive

- Non-Executive Director and Chairman of the Property & Investment Committee at Royal Brompton & Harefield Hospitals Charity (2012 – 2016)
- Member of the Advisory Committee to the Endowment Fund of the Concertgebouw (2010 – 2016)
- Member of the Leadership Council of the Lessons for Life Foundation (2010 – 2016)