

Ferdinand Vaandrager

Date of birth: 15 February 1970

Nationality: Dutch

It is proposed that Ferdinand Vaandrager will be appointed as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of ABN AMRO Bank N.V. effective from the closing of the extraordinary general meeting held on 16 November 2023. On 1 May 2023, Ferdinand Vaandrager was appointed as interim CFO, after former CFO Lars Kramer stepped down to pursue another career opportunity outside ABN AMRO. He will be responsible for Finance, including Financial Accounting, Asset & Liability Management, Controlling, Tax, Treasury and Investor Relations.

Ferdinand has more than 25 years of experience in the financial sector, both in the United Kingdom and in the Netherlands. Since 2020, Ferdinand has been Head of Investor Relations at ABN AMRO Bank N.V. Prior to that, he held various commercial leadership positions with particular expertise in corporate and institutional banking and financial markets at ABN AMRO, Royal Bank of Scotland and Citigroup. He has also been a member of the Supervisory Board of the joint venture ABN AMRO – ODDO-BHF B.V.

Education:

- MSc Business Economics, Erasmus University, Rotterdam School of Management (1996)

Ancillary functions:

None