

Serena Fioravanti

Date of birth: 19 June 1973

Nationality: Italian and Swiss

It is proposed that Serena Fioravanti will be appointed as member of the Executive Board and Chief Risk Officer of ABN AMRO Bank N.V., effective as of 1 October 2024. The proposed appointment is subject to the approval of the European Central Bank.

Serena has been active in banking for almost 25 years. She is a senior professional with a demonstrated track record across various areas in the banking industry, specifically in risk management, treasury, liquidity risk and balance sheet management, corporate finance, consulting and audit. She served as CRO at Credit Suisse Switzerland for almost four years.

Serena Fioravanti has a technical background, holds an MBA from INSEAD, a Financial Risk Manager certificate from the Global Association of Risk Professionals and a Master in Theoretical Physics from the University of Rome La Sapienza.

Education:

- MBA Programme certificate, INSEAD, France (2004)
- Financial Risk Manager (FRM) certificate, Global Association of Risk Professionals (2004)
- Master in Theoretical Physics, University of Rome "La Sapienza", Italy (1998)

Ancillary positions:

- Lecturer at the University of Zurich
- Member of the board of directors of the Swiss Risk Association