News release

ABN AMRO Clearing offers investment funds an international podium

On the 19th and 20th March 2019, ABN AMRO Clearing will be hosting the Amsterdam Investor Forum \(AIF\) at its head office. Now in its 8th year, the forum will welcome 250+ Institutional investors, fund managers and industry participants to debate and discuss the most important challenges and opportunities facing our industry in 2019. On the 20th March will include panel sessions and key notes as well as the AIF Factor.

The AIF Factor is a competition where 5 shortlisted funds are given the floor for a 3 minute pitch, to present their proposition to 250+ professional investors and managers. Delegates then cast their votes, appointing the most convincing pitch as the 2019 AIF Factor winner. The competition is open to all funds regardless of size, location, investment strategies. Participants are required to register their submission via the event website by Friday 8 February 2019.

Opportunity to raise managers' profile

"The Amsterdam Investor Forum is a unique opportunity for institutional investors, fund managers and asset allocators to meet and debate on market developments, trends, regulatory landscape and investment strategies. This year again, the forum will welcome some of the most talented managers and important investors in alternatives. Through the AIF Factor, we want to give the opportunity to fund managers to raise their profile and present their strategy to an audience of investors, asset allocators and peers" comments Delphine Amzallag, Global Head of Prime at ABN AMRO Clearing.

8th edition AIF

The Amsterdam Investor Forum, organized by ABN AMRO Clearing has gained wide recognition as the leading alternative investment event in the Netherlands. In its 8th edition, the AIF will again deliver a global line-up of prominent speakers and panelists that are active in the alternatives industry including Fund Management, Asset Management, Investment and Asset allocation.

The AIF is a non-profit event, attendees are invited to make a donation to one of the proposed charities/foundations when registering. This year, ABN AMRO Clearing will support the below charities.
