

Hire the best people anywhere, in any way

Whether you need full-time employees, temporary workers or contractors, we help you grow your team around the world quickly and compliantly—no entity required.

Hire any type of worker

The best person for the job may be a contractor, full-time, temporary or contingent worker—whatever the classification, we have a solution to help you hire them.

Offer competitive contracts

We'll guide you on requirements for today's most sought-after employment terms—such as flexible, cross-border work options and attractive benefits and salary packages.

Onboard quickly

Top talent moves quickly and so do we. Go from offer letter to start date in as little as two weeks with our streamlined onboarding process.

Minimize compliance risk

You don't have to be an expert in foreign labor laws because we are. Our in-country HR teams help you comply with benefits, payroll tax withholdings and other requirements.

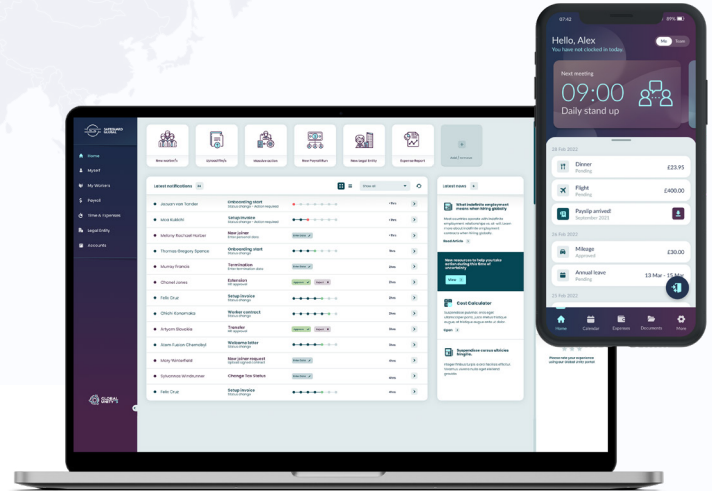

Support your global team

No matter where your workers live, they'll get the local HR support they need—in their home language and in their time zone—to feel like they're part of the global team.

Manage your global workers from any device

GDPR and SOC 1 compliant

Streamline onboarding

Move from offer letter to start date in a matter of days.

Track time and attendance

Workers can clock in and out, right from their phone.

Request, approve and manage expenses

Customize reimbursement processes to ensure local compliance.

Securely store employment documents

Contracts, payslips and other files are just a click away.

Access local HR support

Connect with in-country experts.

Gain valuable workforce insights

View labor costs and other data across countries in our Global Unity Analytics platform.

“We are a small company ... but we can operate as a global company, which is very important to us.”

Ståle Hansen

Founder, CEO and Principal Cloud Architect at CloudWay