

COURSE OUTCOMES

After the completion of their masters in English, the students will be able to :

1. Get considerable knowledge of English poetry, prose, fiction and drama along with their technicalities.
2. Appreciate and analyse a literary artefact in a better manner.
3. Have a sound understanding of various periods in the history of English language and literature.
4. View literary canon of English spread across the world with a critical perspective.
5. Get acquainted with modern English grammar.
6. Understand salient features of literary schools and movements from English.
7. Achieve basic skills of teaching English language.
8. Have an overview of Indian, African, American literature in English.
9. Be proficient to take a help of critical theories for a sound and critical understanding of a literary text.