NEWS RELEASE

TIFF ENHANCES ACCESS FOR 2018 FESTIVAL GOERS WITH ASSIGNED SEATING IN TWO ADDITIONAL VENUES

Ticket packages for the 43rd Toronto International Film Festival go on sale starting May 23

TORONTO — The 2018 Toronto International Film Festival® is quickly approaching, and this year TIFF is adding more convenience for filmgoers by increasing the number of assigned ticket venues from two to four. TIFF successfully added reserved seating at Roy Thomson Hall and The Visa Screening Room at The Princess of Wales Theatre and this year ticket buyers will be able to choose their seats at the Elgin and Winter Garden Theatres as well.

Additionally, TIFF offers even more flexibility by introducing three-tiered ticket prices at all venues with reserved seats ensuring a variety of ticket buying options are available; the first tier starts at a new lower price of $18 for regular tickets ($25 premium tickets). In addition, TIFF is happy to announce the return of the $10 ticket for Film lovers under 25 who can take advantage of this lower ticket price on daytime screenings, Monday through Friday.
