

2022 Creative Expression Grants

Organization	Purpose	Amount
Arts Council of Pendleton	To support Art Rocks Teens (A.R.T), an arts and music program for teens ages 13-18 offered after school and all summer.	$10,000
Broadway Rose Theatre Company	To support Broadway Rose Teen Summer Workshop.	$5,000
Caldera	To support arts and nature programming for 100 youth in Portland.	$15,000
Children's Healing Art Project, Inc.	To support equity-centered capacity building by expanding partnerships with the BIPOC community and artists of color.	$10,000
Confluences	To support Confluence in the Classroom, an arts-infused education program delivered by Native artists and educators for 1,250 K-12 students and teachers in Oregon.	$10,000
Global Works Community Fund	To support Unity Through Arts youth program, which engages BIPOC and lower-income youth.	$7,500
High Desert Museum	To support a yearlong arts program for 50 fourth grade students from Metolius Elementary in Madras.	$5,000
Lion Speaks	To support training opportunities in the film industry for 15-20 BIPOC individuals during filming of Outdoor School: The Movie	$15,000
Literary Arts	To support Writers in the Schools (WITS) semester-long creative writing residencies and supplemental activities for high school students in Multnomah County during Fall 2022.	$10,000
Metropolitan Youth Symphony	To support Music Access Program breaking down barriers to music education for lower-income youth.	$10,000
Michael Allen Harrison's Play It Forward	To provide no-cost, in school group piano and guitar lessons at Dr. Martin Luther King Elementary School.	$5,000
Teatro Milagro/Miracle Theatre Group	To support bilingual arts-integrated residencies for Nellie Muir and Heritage Elementary in Woodburn.	$5,000
North Pole Studio Project	To support employment and community engagement programs for transition-aged youth with disabilities.	$5,000
Oregon Ballet Theatre	To support the expansion of OBT LAB, a free arts integration program for 700 students in Portland.	$10,000
Oregon Children's Theatre Company	To support arts-based residency programs for regional schools serving 10,000 young people.	$10,000
Oregon East Symphony	To support a comprehensive classical music education program for rural eastern Oregon youth.	$10,000
Oregon Symphony	To support in-person and digital arts education programs reaching more than 40,000 students across Oregon.	$10,000
Portland Art Museum (Year 1 of 3-year $75,000 commitment)	To support the construction of the Rothko Pavilion, which will improve accessibility, provide functional space for education and enhance community partnerships.	$25,000

2022 Creative Expression Grants

Organization	Purpose	Amount
Portland Center Stage	To support the free Young Playwrights program, serving 90-130 metro area teens.	$10,000
Portland Opera Association, Inc.	To support Portland Opera to Go arts education tour featuring an original opera inspired by the life of Beatrice Morrow Cannady, a prominent leader in Oregon's civil rights movement of the early 1900s.	$10,000
Portland Playhouse	To support the Social Justice Theatre Project to bring theatre education to students in Portland.	$10,000
Portland Youth Philharmonic Association	To support Middle School Coaching Project (MSCP) providing musical and social-emotional outcomes for youth in Portland, Beaverton and Gresham.	$5,000
Steps for Youth	To support dance education programs, including Youth Day of Dance, BIPOC Youth and DanceAbility.	$5,000
Warm Springs Boys & Girls Club	To support free cultural arts education for 125 Native youth on the Warm Springs Indian Reservation.	$7,500
Washington County Historical Society	To support community-based partnerships during museum reopening, prioritizing access to arts education for Native youth and families, foster youth and family reunification, and older adults facing isolation.	$13,000
White Bird	To support development of free arts-based curriculum and dance performance for 2,800 Portland Public School students.	$10,000
World Affairs Council of Oregon	To support access to K-12 Culture Box Program which provides hands-on, authentic treasures and lessons about art, culture and daily life of people from nearly every continent.	$5,000
Write Around Portland	To support free creative writing workshops that build social and emotional skills for young people impacted by poverty, racial injustice, education gaps and COVID-19.	$7,500
Yamhill Enrichment Society	To support Junior Orchestra of Yamhill County (JOY) music program serving grades K-5	$10,000
Young Audiences (Year 4 of 4-year commitment)	To support Right Brain Initiative, an arts integration and teacher professional development program engaging 32,500 K-8 tri-county students.	$25,000
TOTAL		$295,500