

premier executive services

When it comes time to relocate, your executive team members need a partner that is 100% dedicated to their unique needs and expectations—both on the job and at home. With Premier Executive ServicesSM, your organizational leaders can rest easy knowing that their experienced executive specialist has their back 24/7, allowing them to focus on both their professional and personal priorities.

don't sweat the small stuff—that's our job

We assign executive specialists—our most tenured and accomplished consultants—to manage your executive's every relocation consideration while meticulously taking into account their one-of-a-kind needs and family situation. We also hire and train best-in-class suppliers to provide the same high-touch service and attention to detail.

time is on your side

Our executive specialists are available 24/7/365 to discuss any relocation topic whenever it's convenient for your executive and their family—nights, weekends, and holidays included. We afford them the time to ensure they can be there for your leaders not only when they need support but for as long as they need it, too.

refresh your mind, not your inbox

An overburdened mind is as wearisome as an overloaded inbox. Not only do our executive specialists anticipate and carry out task lists, but they support mental and emotional well-being by clearing your executive's relocation journey of extraneous administrative work and logistical obstacles. From liaising with suppliers to filing expedited expenses, our executive specialists free your executives to unleash productivity and embrace the adventure that awaits them.

"I can't say enough good things about my consultant. She was absolutely perfect for me and my family for this transition. How thorough she is in her explanation of the process and spot on in every detail—she treated us like we were a part of her family as well. She is an absolute saint, angel, but most importantly, an invaluable asset to the Cartus team."

-Relocating Executive

"Our consultant was friendly, supportive, and easy to work with. She answered my calls day and night, and at weekends; regardless of what I needed, she had an answer or got one immediately. I would highly recommend her—anyone who is fortunate to have her as a consultant is very lucky!"

-Relocating Executive

premier executive services

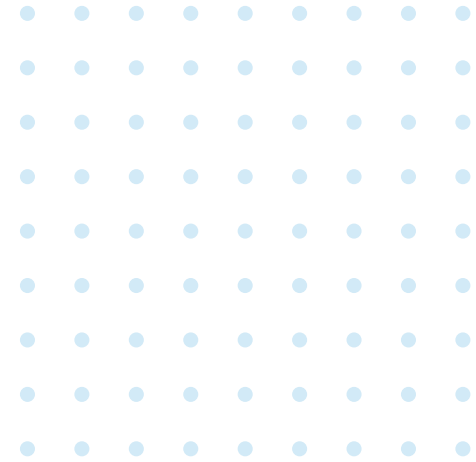

we treat your executives like family so they can spend more time with theirs

Cartus' executive specialists treat every move like it's their own. However, when it comes to the exceptional service requirements of your key business leaders, our Premier Executive ServicesSM specialists are in a class by themselves.

To ensure your executives and their families receive the exact relocation support they need, we also offer à la carte and enhanced services, including enclosed car carrier, maid service, destination services, premier temporary living, enhanced immigration support, on-site move manager, and premium school placement.

premier executive advantage

Creates and manages expense reimbursements	✓
24/7/365 tailored program management*	✓
Tenured mobility expert	✓
Average of 20 hours in saved productivity	✓
Direct supplier coordination	✓
High-touch delivery and single point of accountability	✓
Reduced caseload	✓
Fast Track resolution with our supply chain	✓
Live video chats/conference calls	✓
Highest rated suppliers selected	✓

*Extended hours support where allowed

"There has not been one single professional that has come anywhere close to delivering the levels of service in terms of understanding, availability, speed of response, query resolution and being able to find solutions that my Cartus consultant has been able to deliver."

-Relocating Executive

"Everything went way above and beyond our expectations. We were not sure how it would be going into the relocation but every step went so smooth and we were surrounded by just the best people."

-Relocating Executive

For more information, contact your Cartus representative or email cartussolutions@cartus.com.

