Radisson Blu Reussen

The 4-star hotel Radisson Blu Reussen is situated vis-à-vis the Gotthard Residences, where it can be reached directly and under cover. Set around the central gathering space of Piazza Gotthardo, the apartment buildings have helped to shape the village atmosphere of Andermatt. The architecture is reminiscent of the grand Alpine hotels of the 19th century, designed to shelter guests from the mountain wind and snow.

The Radisson Blu Reussen comprises around 180 rooms and suites, a restaurant, an inviting hotel bar with an open fireplace, and an event and conference area. The showcase Andermatt Concert Hall, which can accommodate up to 650 guests, is the cultural focal point. The Gotthard Lofts are located exclusively on the sixth floor of the hotel, where the privacy of the owners is a foremost priority.

Andermatt Reuss

With snow-covered Alps in winter and flowering pastures in summer, Andermatt embodies the soul of Switzerland. Nestled in the idyllic Ursern Valley, Andermatt is like no other Swiss mountain village, surrounded by a pristine Alpine landscape, yet excellently connected to major national and international traffic routes. As a year-round destination, Andermatt offers a wide range of sports and leisure activities, from summer through to winter.

The apartment buildings and hotels of Andermatt Swiss Alps combine contemporary architecture with the character of a traditional Swiss Alpine village. Each building tells its own story, grown out of its unique relationship with its surroundings.

Piazza Gottardo, at the centre of Andermatt Reuss, is a gathering place for guests and locals alike. Here you can meet for an aperitif, to peruse the shops and boutiques, or a meal in one of the restaurants or bars

Whether as a residential or holiday destination, a primary or secondary residence: Andermatt Reuss is a sought-after address for those seeking an exceptional and uniquely balanced way of life amidst timeless Alpine scenery.
