

Qatar Foundation: Unlocking Human Potential

- Qatar Foundation (QF) is a non-profit organization that is supporting Qatar on its journey to becoming a sustainable and diversified economy, investing in the nation's future and contributing to a better world by:
 - Offering world-class, holistic education and lifelong learning opportunities
 - Fostering a culture of research and innovation that generates solutions to real-world challenges
 - Empowering the community of Qatar through social engagement
- QF was established in 1995 by His Highness Sheikh Hamad bin Khalifa Al Thani, the Father Amir, and Her Highness Sheikha Moza bint Nasser, Chairperson of QF.
- QF's core mission areas are: Pre-University Education; Higher Education; Research, Development, and Innovation; and Community Development. It has also established several global initiatives, including the World Innovation Summit for Education and the World Innovation Summit for Health.
- Education City, QF's flagship development, spans a 12 square kilometer site in the Al Rayyan area of Doha. It is home to:
 - Several QF schools, including Qatar Academy Doha, one of five Qatar Academy schools.
 - Hamad Bin Khalifa University (HBKU), QF's homegrown higher education institution, and its five colleges.
 - Seven international QF partner universities (with an eighth based elsewhere in Doha).
 - Three national research institutes – all part of HBKU – focusing on energy and environment, computing, and biomedicine.

- Qatar Science & Technology Park – Qatar’s premier innovation hub
- Sidra Medicine, a state-of-the-art women’s and children’s hospital and center for medical research and education.
- Community facilities including Oxygen Park, Mathaf: Arab Museum of Modern Art, and Al Shaqab equestrian center.
- The Education City Mosque
- Qatar National Convention Centre
- Qatar Foundation Headquarters
- Education City also houses Qatar National Library, the Education City Stadium, and the Education City Golf Club.
- The QF community includes students and staff of over 100 nationalities, a 5,000- strong workforce, and 98 member organizations.