Department of Aviation, Airport Partners Hosting Career Expo for Job Seekers

Harry Reid International Airport (LAS) will play a critical role in welcoming the world to Southern Nevada for large special events in the coming year. On June 1, the Clark County Department of Aviation (DOA), along with more than 20 airport partners, is hosting a Career Expo to fill vacancies across many different operations. This is the perfect opportunity for those seeking employment to join the airport team and be part of Las Vegas history.

WHEN: Thursday, June 1, 2023
9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

WHERE: Las Vegas Convention Center – West Hall
300 Convention Center Drive, Las Vegas, NV 89119

With representation from the DOA, food and beverage, retail groups, ground support and bag handlers and airlines, this expo will allow career seekers to learn about the exciting opportunities available to them with many of the various entities that operate at LAS.

Many of the employers participating will be conducting on-the-spot interviews and will be able to make job offers contingent on applicants successfully passing applicable background checks.

Attendees should make sure to bring a current resume and two forms of ID (including one photo ID) to prepare for a potential background check.

Employers to be present include: Clark County Department of Aviation, Alclear, Alvest Equipment Services, ANB Concessions, Ayala's Concession Group, Bags to Go, Centurion Lounge, Ethel M Chocolates, HMS Host, JBS Aircraft Executive Detailing, M.R. Whitsett, LSG Sky Chefs, Prospect, The Grove, Marshall Retail Group, National Aviation Services, SB Specialties, Signature Flight Support, Swissport, Southwest Airlines, Village Pub, Worldwide Flight Services and Zero Level Fitness.
