WOODHEAD ROAD, TINTWISTLE

A 4 Bedroom detached house requiring refurbishment, occupying a prominent position along the A628 Woodhead Road, the property benefits from a well-connected yet semi-rural setting on the edge of the Peak District National Park, offering an attractive balance between accessibility and countryside living.

Tintwistle is a popular village located to the west of Glossop, providing a range of local amenities including a primary school, village shops and public houses, with more extensive facilities available in nearby Glossop. The location offers excellent access to the surrounding Peak District countryside, renowned for its walking, cycling and outdoor recreation.

The property is well placed for connectivity, with the A628 providing direct links eastwards towards Sheffield and westwards to the M67/M60 motorway network, facilitating convenient travel into Greater Manchester and beyond. Rail services are available from Glossop, providing regular connections into Manchester city centre.

Overall, the property enjoys a desirable position combining semi-rural surroundings with strong transport links, making it suitable for a range of purchasers seeking accessibility without compromising on lifestyle setting.
