THE PROPERTY

A handsome detached period farmhouse occupying an elevated position on the edge of the highly sought-after village of Colerne, commanding far-reaching views across the beautiful Wiltshire countryside.

Sydney Farmhouse is an attractive stone-built residence of considerable character and charm, offering well-proportioned accommodation arranged over three floors. Recently refurbished throughout to a high standard, the property successfully combines the character and appeal of a traditional period home with the convenience and comfort of modern family living.

The accommodation comprises two elegant reception rooms, a spacious kitchen/dining room, four bedrooms, and three bathrooms, providing versatile living space ideally suited to family life and entertaining.

Outside, the rear garden enjoys magnificent south-facing panoramic rural views. Thoughtfully arranged with a terrace and lawn, it provides an exceptional setting for outdoor dining, relaxation, and enjoying the surrounding countryside. The property's elevated position offers a rare combination of village convenience and rural tranquillity.

Parking is provided adjacent to the house, with off-street space for two vehicles.

EPC Exempt with a formal registration. Council Tax Band F (please see Wiltshire Council website for current cost)
