Builder's Yard:

A former builder's yard situated in the north-eastern corner of the Property, set away from the guest accommodation. The builder's yard is approximately 0.54 acres and comprises a biomass boiler shed extending to approximately 1,390 sq ft. This element of the Property offers potential for development (STPP) and is being sold subject to a development overage (detailed further in these marketing particulars).

Land:

The grass paddocks extend to approximately 1.92 acres, and are separated by post-and-rail fencing, making this area well-suited to equestrian grazing.

Location

Nassington is located six miles north-east of the market town of Oundle, eight miles south of Stamford and 10 miles west of Peterborough. The rural surroundings offer ample walking trails around the area, particularly along the Nene Valley Railway.

Referred to as the "Notswolds", the attractive limestone buildings and undulating countryside in this eastern part of Northamptonshire bears striking resemblance to the Cotswolds, proving popular with both local residents and tourists alike.

Local public schooling options are outstanding, including Oundle, Stamford, Uppingham and Oakham Schools.

The Property benefits from good transport links, with the A1 and A14 roads situated in close proximity, providing access to London and the wider road network. Peterborough railway station provides direct rail services to London Kings Cross in under 1 hour.

Nassington village benefits from a range of amenities, including a tearoom, pub, cricket club and butcher shop.

Method of Sale

For sale by private treaty as a whole.

Tenure & Possession

The freehold of the site is being sold with vacant possession. The Property and trading business is to be sold as a going concern, inclusive of the company’s trading website and furnishings of the business accommodation. A detailed schedule of contents with which the Property is to be sold will be provided by the Vendor upon agreement of Heads of Terms.

Access

The Property benefits from three access points off Northfield Lane: Frog Hall driveway, Lily Pad cottages driveway and the builder’s yard. The Eco Lodge is currently accessed via the builder’s yard.

Planning

Planning consent restricts the use of Lily Pad cottages and the Eco Lodge to tourist accommodation.

Alternative uses and development of the Property will be subject to achieving the necessary planning consents.

Previous planning application reference numbers include:

- 20/00490/VAR
- 14/01971/FUL
- 13/01015/FUL
- 13/00523/LBC

Listing Status

Frog Hall is a Grade II listed Property, first listed on 12 October 1988.

Overage

The builder’s yard is being sold subject to a development overage of 30% for a term of 30 years, to be triggered by the implementation of planning permission (or deemed planning permission) or permitted development rights for any development other than agricultural use, payable within 1 month of the implementation of such relevant permission.

Services

The Property benefits from 2 mains water supplies. This is unmetered to Frog Hall, and metered to Lily Pad cottages and the Eco Lodge.

Mains electricity is supplied via a 100-amp single-phase supply to Frog Hall. The annexe and stables are on separate meters.

The electric car charging point is powered by a 100-amp three-phase power supply. This electricity is then distributed to all other units, including the Eco Lodge and biomass boiler.

The 200kW biomass boiler generates an income of approximately £17,000 per annum from government subsidies. Central heating is provided to Frog Hall via the biomass boiler, however there is the option for this to also be provided by the oil-fired boiler which is connected.

Both the Eco Lodge and holiday cottages benefit from air-source heat pumps, providing central and underfloor heating.

Frog Hall and the annexe are connected to mains drainage. The remainder of the Property benefits from a 65-person Klargester septic tank with a pump (installed in 2011) located in the builder’s yard.

The Eco Lodge benefits from 11kW of solar panels on the roof.

Wi-Fi is provided to the Property via Gigaclear, a 500mb fibreoptic connection with firewall protection.

Wayleaves, Easements & Rights of Way

The Property is to be sold subject to, and with the benefit of, all existing wayleaves, easements, covenants and rights of way, whether or not disclosed.

A public footpath crosses part of the driveway between Frog Hall and Lily Pad cottages.

Health & Safety

All viewings are carried out at the sole risk of the viewer and neither the selling Agent nor the Vendor takes responsibility.

VAT

Any guide prices quoted or discussed are exclusive of VAT. In the event that the sale of the Property becomes a chargeable supply for the purposes of VAT, such tax will be payable (or become payable by the purchaser) in addition to the purchase price.

Sporting, Timber & Mineral Rights

To be included in the sale.
