SITUATION

Belmont occupies an enviable central position in the historic Hampshire village of Kingsclere, with the village's everyday amenities within easy walking distance. Kingsclere is an attractive and well-established village situated between Newbury and Basingstoke, surrounded by open countryside and close to the North Wessex Downs and Watership Down. The village has a good range of facilities including independent shops, post office, primary school, health centre, public houses, churches and the Fieldgate Community Centre, together with a number of sports clubs. Sandford Springs Golf Club is also close by. For commuters, the location is particularly convenient. Newbury and Basingstoke provide direct mainline services to London Paddington and London Waterloo respectively. The A34, M3 and M4 are also readily accessible, making Belmont well placed for both road and rail travel.

DESCRIPTION

Belmont is an attractive Grade II listed detached house dating from circa 1720 and retains considerable period character while providing a comfortable and practical home. The timber-framed entrance hall provides access to the principal ground-floor rooms.

A BEAUTIFULLY PRESENTED GRADE II LISTED DETACHED VILLAGE HOUSE DATING FROM CIRCA 1720, COMBINING PERIOD CHARACTER WITH COMFORTABLE MODERN LIVING. SET IN THE HEART OF HISTORIC KINGSCLERE, BELMONT ENJOYS A PRIVATE LANDSCAPED GARDEN, DETACHED GARDEN OFFICE AND UNUSUALLY GENEROUS SECURE GATED PARKING.

The sitting room is a particularly attractive feature, spanning the length of the house and benefiting from dual aspect windows and French doors opening directly onto the garden. An open hearth adds further character to the adjoining study/snug. The dining room has a beamed ceiling and a stable door leading to the side return, while the kitchen is positioned at the rear of the property and also has a stable door providing direct access to the garden. A separate utility room adds useful practical space. On the first floor, the galleried landing leads to the principal bedroom, which is positioned at the rear of the house and has fitted storage together with an ensuite shower room. There are three further bedrooms, all with storage, served by a separate bathroom and shower room. The accommodation provides a good balance between the character expected of a house of this age and the flexibility required for modern family life.

OUTSIDE

One of Belmont's most appealing features is the sense of privacy and tranquillity found to the rear of the property, particularly surprising given its central village position. The landscaped garden has been designed to be both attractive and relatively low maintenance, with a paved circular seating area forming the focal point, surrounded by mature trees, established planting and borders. A detached garden office with French doors provides a dedicated and peaceful workspace away from the main house and could equally be used as a studio or hobby room. To the side of the house is a garage, linked to the useful utility room. Secure off-street parking is an exceptional feature for a property in the heart of the village. The gated, block-paved driveway provides parking for several cars and is accessed through wooden gates, offering both convenience and security.
