SITUATION

Prairie View is situated in a very quiet and private location in a small lane in this popular village just west of Newbury. Hamstead Marshall is a small village on the former Craven Estate in a particularly sought after area to the west of Newbury. It is within 5 miles of Newbury town centre with excellent shops and main line station to Paddington. The market town of Hungerford is 5 miles to the west and Andover about 15 miles to the south. Communications are good, the A4 and A34 are both close at hand, whilst the M4 intersection at Chieveley (Junction 13) is within 8 miles.

DESCRIPTION

Prairie view is an interesting and individual property that offers accommodation of almost 1600 ft.² and offers an opportunity of being extended and improved to create a larger property, subject to the usual planning permission. On the ground floor there are two reception rooms, and a large kitchen/dining room. There is also an integral garage which could easily be converted to create additional living space. Upstairs there are two double bedrooms and a large family bathroom. From the principal rooms there are lovely views over the garden and the adjoining farmland.

A UNIQUE PROPERTY SITUATED IN A VERY QUIET YET ACCESSIBLE LOCATION WITH A LARGE, DETACHED GARAGE/WORKSHOP AND 1.37 ACRES OF GARDEN AND GROUNDS. NO ONWARD CHAIN.

OUTSIDE

Outside the 1.37 acres is a real feature of the house and it offers enormous scope for the house to be extended without reducing the size of the garden significantly. A drive providing access and off-road parking leads to a substantial detached building which is arranged as a double garage with workshop one side and mezzanine floor above and additional storage.
