THE PROPERTY

Situated in central north Oxford and within walking distance of Summertown, this airy two-bedroom apartment offers a large open plan kitchen/sitting room with dual aspect windows. Decorated neutrally throughout, the kitchen/sitting room is open and bright and benefits from a desk area complemented by a window, along with integrated white goods to provide spacious and versatile accommodation. Two well-proportioned double bedrooms lead off from the entrance hall, both with useful in-built wardrobes. Both are particularly light and generous with one bedroom having an ensuite shower room, as well as the tiled family bathroom with bath-shower. With an allocated parking space. The property benefits from being repainted and having new carpets.

Cox's Ground is situated in the popular Waterways development, which is located in central north Oxford to the west of the Banbury Road. The shops, restaurants, wine bars and many amenities of Summertown are within a few minutes' walk, and buses run frequently into the city centre. The Oxford Parkway railway station is a short distance away whilst the Oxford rail station and city centre can also be accessed via a walk along the Oxford Canal.

Available from end of November 2026 on an unfurnished basis.
