SITUATION

Kintbury is a popular village, first chronicled as Kentbury, in 931 A.D. on the south bank of the River Kennet. There is a good mix of property from larger houses to terraces of pretty period cottages. The Norman church of St Mary's is in the heart of the village, surrounded by areas of open space left in Trust for the benefit of the village. There is a good selection of shops within walking distance. The larger centres of Hungerford and Newbury are within 4 and 7 miles respectively. Communications are good either by train from the village (Paddington via Newbury and Reading) or by car on the M4 (Junction 13 and 14) and the A34 dual carriageway to Oxford and the south. Sporting amenities include golf at Newbury and Marlborough, fishing on the River Kennet and village bowls and tennis club.
