PHASE TWO

OXFORD'S NEW DESTINATION
FOR MID-TECH, R&D AND OFFICE SPACE

AEROX-OXFORD.COM

NEW FLEXIBLE MID-TECH, OFFICE AND R&D UNITS

AEROX is an exciting new development comprising five high-quality buildings designed to provide flexible mid-tech, office, and R&D accommodation. Units range from approximately 7,500 sq ft to 50,000 sq ft.

Phase One, a 22,769 sq ft building, has been successfully completed and is now fully let.

With planning consent secured for the remaining four buildings, we are now launching pre-let opportunities for AEROX 2, 3, 4, and 5, offering businesses the chance to secure bespoke space within this highly sought-after development.

Each building provides highly flexible mid-tech space, with dedicated ground floor R&D facilities complemented by Grade A offices at first floor level.

BEST IN CLASS SPECIFICATION

AEROX has been designed to meet the highest sustainability standards, incorporating features such as 25% EV charging provision, photovoltaic (PV) panels, and centrally located open amenity space.

Each building is designed to achieve best-in-class sustainability credentials, targeting EPC A ratings and a BREEAM 'Very Good' certification.
