

The Junkyard Tales Audio Advent Calendar Day 10. Late at night by the Beaver Pond, Fredland the Moose wakes from a powerful dream — a dream that shows him his Junkyard friends need his help! So off he goes, through the snow and wind, until he hears two familiar voices in the distance.

The trip from the Beaver Pond to the Junkyard is long and windy. There are many things the animals encounter, from Blueberry Hill to the Gopher's Garden to the Trail through the Woods. Can you draw the path as you think it might look?
