Breeze resumes nonstop summer seasonal service to San Francisco and San Diego

Erlanger, Ky. (May 6, 2026) — Starting tomorrow (May 7), CVG travelers have more nonstop options for reaching the West Coast, as Breeze Airways resumes its seasonal service from Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport to San Diego (SAN) and San Francisco (SFO).

The return of these nonstop routes offers convenient access to two of California's most popular leisure and business destinations. Breeze's nonstop service to San Francisco will operate through Jan. 3, 2027, while nonstop flights to San Diego will run through Jan. 4, 2027. Both routes will pause during the winter and are scheduled to resume in May 2027.

Breeze's flights to California will operate three times a week, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays.

The resumption of seasonal service is just the beginning for Breeze this summer. Seasonal service to Hartford (BDL) resumes on May 7, and to Providence (PVD) on May 28. And starting July 3, Breeze launches flights to two brand new nonstop destinations: CVG to Portland ME (PWM), and CVG to Greenville-Spartanburg SC (GSP.)

Flights can be booked directly through flybreeze.com.
