RECOMMENDED SUPPORTER AREA

Supporters are recommended to gather in Athens City Centre which boasts plenty of bars, restaurants, and cultural attractions, and provides convenient access to the meeting point for the mandatory coaches at the Panathenaic Stadium.

HOW TO GET TO THE STADIUM

All fans must use the mandatory coaches arranged for travel to and from the stadium. Fans should meet at the Panathenaic Stadium (Old Olympic Stadium), where match tickets will be checked, and police will guide fans onto the coaches.

Supporters are strongly advised not to travel to the match via the metro due to safety concerns. The stop for the stadium is located at the opposite end from the away section and is a prominent area for home fans.

Coaches will leave together under convoy, taking fans directly to the stadium (approx. 45-minute journey). Supporters should arrive at the Panathenaic Stadium for 17:30 local time, with coaches departing at 18:15.

There are no toilet facilities on the coaches, and no alcohol is permitted.

After the match, there will be a holdback in the stadium, fans will then be escorted back to the coaches for a safe return to the original meeting point.

USEFUL INFORMATION

Protecting your belongings

- Thefts of passports, wallets and handbags are common on the metro and in crowded tourist places, particularly in central Athens. Carry your valuables in different bags and pockets and keep a copy of your passport photo page somewhere safe.

Public offences

- The Greek police will arrest you for any behaviour they find rowdy or indecent, especially where excessive drinking is involved.
- Possession of even small quantities of illegal drugs can lead to a long prison sentence.
- You may need to time stamp your ticket on public transport for it to be valid. If you are found with an unvalidated ticket, you could get a fine. Check with local providers.

EVERYONE ANYONE

Across the continent, the Rangers support are renowned for their incredible backing both in noise and in colour, and that backing can again make all the difference against Panathinaikos and beyond.

Supporters are, however, reminded the club remains under a suspended stand closure sanction. That means should there be any repeat of what UEFA deems as 'racist and/or discriminatory behaviour', it could lead to further sanctions and a full stand closure.

That will mean thousands of fellow Rangers supporters will be deprived of the opportunity to attend a potentially key game, while the players on the pitch will lose a significant proportion of that amazing support you provide.

Discriminatory behaviour includes (but is not limited to) illicit singing, chanting or the displaying of banners.

Ahead of this match, and indeed the season, the club also reminds supporters the throwing of objects onto the pitch is unacceptable, illegal, and will lead to serious consequences for the club and the potential arrest of the individuals responsible.

We are at the beginning of a new era for our great club, and we must take every opportunity to show the very best of it to the watching world.
