INTERPRETATION

Translation of strategic themes and insights into tangible outcomes.

A CONNECTED PORTFOLIO

A connected portfolio of initiatives focused on strengthening national capabilities in emissions accounting, natural capital and biodiversity reporting, secure data sharing, and long-term climate intelligence. Underpinned by the development of shared digital infrastructure and standards designed to reduce complexity, improve interoperability, and deliver greater value to producers and supply chains.

PARTICIPATION

As a not-for-profit, AIA invites industry and stakeholder participation in initiatives, recognising the pivotal role that seed investment, in-kind expertise, and valuable network connections can play in amplifying impact and accelerating delivery.

By partnering with AIA, stakeholders have the opportunity to help shape nationally significant, cross-sectoral work, leverage shared momentum, and help unlock greater value for industry.
