The Issuer, may, however, take in to account for the purposes of such adjustments the value a third party on arms' length terms would be willing to pay for the relevant Affected Fund Interest (or the portion of a hypothetical derivative contract in so far as it relates to the relevant Affected Fund Interest and does not take into account the creditworthiness of any party thereto).

14.1 Condition 25.6 shall be deemed to be deleted in its entirety.

14.2 The following new Condition 25A shall be inserted immediately after Condition 25.7:

"25A CALCULATIONS AND DETERMINATIONS

The Determination Agent will make the calculations and determinations as described in these Conditions in such a manner as the Determination Agent determines is appropriate acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner (having regard in each case to the criteria stipulated in the Conditions).

Notwithstanding that certain calculations, determinations and adjustments in these Conditions may be expressed to be made on a certain date, the Determination Agent may make such calculations, determinations and adjustments in respect of that date on a date after that date determined by it in its reasonable discretion

Pursuant to these Conditions the Determination Agent has a number of discretions. These are necessary since in certain circumstances it is not reasonably practicable or otherwise not appropriate for certain valuations to be carried out in relation to relevant reference assets and in these circumstances the Determination Agent also may exercise certain discretions.

The provisions of the second paragraph of this Condition 25A (Calculations and Determinations) will not apply to the calculation of the Final Redemption Amount or Early Redemption Amount.

Where the Conditions provide that the Issuer or the Determination Agent may make determinations, modifications or adjustments in or at its discretion (or any similar wording) that relate to the essential characteristics (interpreted as set out below) of the Securities, the Issuer or the Determination Agent will make such determinations, modifications or adjustments acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and in such a manner that such determinations, modifications or adjustments do not create a significant imbalance (interpreted as set out below) between the rights and obligations of the Issuer compared to the Securityholders to the detriment of the Securityholders.

Notwithstanding anything else in the Conditions (but excluding any modification of the Conditions pursuant to Condition 26), the Issuer or the Determination Agent, as the case may be, may only modify or adjust the terms of the Securities in accordance with the Conditions (other than modifications or adjustments that do not relate to essential characteristics of the Securities) or redeem the Securities prior to their Maturity Date in accordance with the Conditions, where such modification, adjustment or redemption is effected in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Belgian Code of Economic Law (Wetboek van economisch recht/Code de droit économique) dated 28 February 2013 (as amended and/or supplemented from time to time, the "CEL"), especially those pertaining to unfair contract terms.

Terms and Conditions of the Securities
Part 3: Supplementary Provisions for Belgian Securities

The Issuer and the Determination Agent will comply with the provisions of the CEL applicable to the Securities especially those pertaining to unfair contract terms, in the application of the Conditions of the Securities. In such case, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Conditions but without prejudice to the penultimate paragraph of this Condition 25A (Calculations and Determinations) below, any provisions of the Conditions which are deemed unfair in whole or in part pursuant to the CEL shall not apply to the extent deemed unfair.

The Securityholders may not be charged any costs for the modification or adjustment of the Conditions and for the early redemption of the Securities before their Maturity Date.

For the purposes of these Belgian Supplemental Conditions and, where applicable, the Conditions, the questions (a) whether a determination, modification or adjustment referred to in this Condition 25A (Calculations and Determinations) relates to the essential characteristics of the Securities, (b) whether the manner of making a determination, modification or adjustment creates a significant imbalance between the rights and obligations of the Issuer compared to the Securityholders to the detriment of the Securityholders, (c) whether a modification, adjustment or redemption referred to in this Condition 25A (Calculations and Determinations) is effected in compliance with the provisions of the CEL, especially those pertaining to unfair terms, (d) whether any provisions of the Conditions are deemed unfair in whole or in part and whether the Issuer or the Determination Agent has complied with provisions of the CEL especially those pertaining to unfair contract terms, in the application of the Conditions of the Securities will be made in accordance with applicable Belgian law, in particular the CEL. Save as provided in the preceding sentence all other provisions of these Belgian Supplemental Condition and the Conditions and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in relation to them shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. If any part(s) of the Conditions or of any determination, modification or adjustment referred to in this Condition 25A (Calculations and Determinations) are found to be (i) inapplicable, (ii) prohibited, (iii) unfair or (iv) otherwise non-compliant with Belgian law, including the CEL, in any applicable judicial proceeding for reasons referred to in this Condition 25A (Calculations and Determinations) (each an "Invalid Provision"), then each part of such Invalid Provision which is found to be (i) inapplicable, (ii) prohibited, (iii) unfair or (iv) otherwise non-compliant with Belgian law shall be deemed to be removed and all remaining part(s) of the provisions of the Conditions or the relevant determination, modification or adjustment following such removal shall remain operative and binding on the Issuer and the Securityholders.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, all calculations made by the Issuer or the Determination Agent under the Conditions shall, in the absence of manifest error, be final, conclusive and binding on Securityholders. Neither the Issuer nor the Determination Agent assumes any obligation or relationship of agency or trust or of a fiduciary nature for or with any Securityholder."

15. Amendments to the definition of Inconvertibility Event in Condition 33.3 (Definitions):

The definition of Inconvertibility Event in Condition 33.3 (Definitions:) shall be deemed to be deleted and replaced with the following:

"An "Inconvertibility Event" shall be deemed to have occurred if from (and including) the Trade Date to (and including) the Maturity Date, any event or circumstance occurs that generally makes it, in the reasonable discretion of the Determination Agent, impossible or unlawful for the Issuer, the Determination Agent or any of its Affiliates for any reason beyond their reasonable control:

Use of Proceeds
(For Section 2 of Additional Terms and Conditions)

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds of each issue of Securities will be used by the relevant Issuer either (i) for general corporate purposes and/or, in connection with hedging its obligations under the Securities, or (ii) for any other particular identified use of proceeds, all as stated in the applicable Issue Terms.

In respect of each issue of Securities by MSBV, at least 95% of the proceeds will be invested (uitzetten) within the group of which it forms part.

MSFL intends to lend the net proceeds from its issuances of the Securities to Morgan Stanley. Morgan Stanley intends to use the proceeds from such loans (i) for general corporate purposes, or (ii) in the case of Notes which constitute Sustainable Bonds, to finance or refinance, in whole or in part, Eligible Projects as described below.

In the case of Notes which constitute Sustainable Bonds, an amount equal to the gross proceeds raised by way of Sustainable Bonds issued pursuant to the Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework dated January 2025 (the "Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework") will be allocated to the financing or refinancing, in whole or in part, of new or existing green or social loans, investments and expenditures ("Eligible Projects"), that Morgan Stanley or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, considers consistent with the eligibility criteria in the Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework, and which together form the "Eligible Portfolio". Under this Base Prospectus, Sustainable Bonds may only be issued by Morgan Stanley or by MSFL. Neither MSBV, MSES or MSI plc will issue Sustainable Bonds under this Base Prospectus.

"Sustainable Bonds" include green bonds ("Green Bonds"), social bonds ("Social Bonds") and sustainability bonds ("Sustainability Bonds"), in accordance with the Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework.

If the applicable Issue Terms specify that the Notes are "Green Bonds", an amount equal to the gross proceeds raised will be allocated to green Eligible Projects ("Green Eligible Projects") within the Eligible Portfolio.

If the applicable Issue Terms specify that the Notes are "Social Bonds", an amount equal to the gross proceeds raised will be allocated to social Eligible Projects ("Social Eligible Projects") within the Eligible Portfolio.

If the applicable Issue Terms specify that the Notes are "Sustainability Bonds", an amount equal to the gross proceeds raised will be allocated to Green Eligible Projects and Social Eligible Projects within the Eligible Portfolio.

To qualify for the Eligible Portfolio, a Green Eligible Project must meet the eligibility criteria for at least one of the following project categories: Renewable Energy, Energy Storage, Green Buildings, Clean Transportation and/or Sustainable Water & Wastewater Management, all as further described in the Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework and in the applicable Issue Terms.

To qualify for the Eligible Portfolio, a Social Eligible Project must meet the eligibility criteria for at least one of the following project categories: Affordable Housing and Access to Education, all as further described in the Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework and the applicable Issue Terms.

In the case of insufficient Eligible Projects in the Eligible Portfolio, Morgan Stanley will hold the balance of the unallocated amount in cash, cash equivalents and/or other high quality liquid assets in a segregated account established for tracking purposes until the amount and proceeds therefrom can be allocated to the Eligible Portfolio.

The Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework further describes, in addition to the eligibility criteria, the management of proceeds, the reporting and the external reviews (second party opinion and external assurance) applicable for the relevant Sustainable Bonds.

On an annual basis until the outstanding Green, Social, and Sustainable Bonds have matured, Morgan Stanley will publicly disclose on its website at www.morganstanley.com or in its ESG report:

- the total amount of sustainable instruments outstanding pursuant to the Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework;
- the reported amounts of the assets in the Eligible Portfolio determined in accordance with U.S. GAAP;

Use of Proceeds
(For Section 2 of Additional Terms and Conditions)

---

- the amount of unallocated proceeds, if any; and
- the breakdown of the Eligible Portfolio by Eligible Category.

The Issuer will apply processes for project evaluation and selection, management of proceeds and reporting which are aligned to the Green Bond Principles ("GBP") 2021, the Social Bond Principles ("SBP") 2023 and the Sustainability Bond Guidelines ("SBG") 2021 (collectively, the "Principles"), as administered by the International Capital Market Association. The Principles are voluntary process guidelines designed to encourage transparency and disclosure, and to promote integrity in the development of the green bonds, social bonds, and sustainability bonds markets by clarifying the approach for the issuance of these bonds. Alignment with these Principles means that the Issuer intends to follow the guidelines outlined in the four core components of the GBP, SBP, and SBG, namely: the use of proceeds, the process for project evaluation and selection, the management of proceeds, and reporting.

Morgan Stanley has appointed an independent second-party opinion provider to review the Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework and attest to the alignment to the Principles. A second party opinion (the "Second Party Opinion") on the alignment of the Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework to the appropriate standards, as well as the Morgan Stanley Sustainable Issuance Framework, is available on Morgan Stanley's website (<https://www.morganstanley.com/about-us/sustainability-reports-research>).

United States Taxation

This discussion is limited to the U.S. federal tax issues addressed below. Additional issues may exist that are not addressed in this discussion and that could affect the federal tax treatment of an investment in the Securities. Investors should seek their own advice based upon their particular circumstances from an independent tax adviser.

A non-U.S. investor should review carefully the section entitled "United States Federal Taxation" in the Base Prospectus.

The following discussion applies to Securities issued by Morgan Stanley or MSFL that pay periodic coupons and provide for a payment at maturity or upon early settlement (other than the stated coupon) that is determined by reference to the performance of a Relevant Underlying and thus may be lower or higher than their issue price. The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Securities is unclear due to the absence of statutory, judicial or administrative authorities that directly address the Securities or similar securities, and no ruling is being requested from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") with respect to the Securities. Significant aspects of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities are uncertain, and no assurance can be given that the IRS or a court will agree with the tax treatment described herein. Accordingly, investors should consult their tax adviser regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities (including possible alternative treatment thereof).

A non-U.S. investor should expect that a withholding agent will treat any coupon payments as subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30 per cent., unless the non-U.S. investor establishes an exemption under the "other income" provision of a Qualifying Treaty (as defined below) or, to the extent that any portion of a coupon payment is treated as interest for U.S. federal income tax purposes, an exemption under the "portfolio interest exemption" rules as described below.

An income tax treaty between a non-U.S. jurisdiction and the United States is a "Qualifying Treaty" if it provides for a 0 per cent. rate of tax on "other income" earned by a resident of the non-U.S. jurisdiction from sources within the United States. Accordingly, if a non-U.S. investor is a resident of a non-U.S. jurisdiction that qualifies for benefits under such a Qualifying Treaty, it should generally be eligible for an exemption under the "other income" provision referred to above if the non-U.S. investor complies with the certification requirement described in the section entitled "United States Federal Taxation—Tax Treatment of the Securities—Other Income Coupons" in the Base Prospectus. However, because most income tax treaties contain complex eligibility rules and limitations, a non-U.S. investor should consult its tax adviser about its eligibility for this exemption. To demonstrate eligibility for the "other income" exemption to the Issuer or an applicable withholding agent, a non-U.S. investor generally will be required to provide a properly completed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E certifying that it is not a U.S. person and that it is eligible for the benefits of the "other income" article of a Qualifying Treaty (or, if the non-U.S. investor holds its Securities through certain intermediaries, it may be permitted to provide alternative documentation in lieu of the appropriate Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E to establish that it is not a U.S. person and that it is eligible for the benefits of the "other income" article of a Qualifying Treaty) as discussed in the section entitled "United States Federal Taxation—Tax Treatment of the Securities—Other Income Coupons" in the Base Prospectus.

Notwithstanding the discussion above, because the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Securities is unclear, any coupon payments on such Securities could alternatively be treated in whole or part as payments of interest. Nonetheless, even if the coupon payments are treated in whole or in part as interest and thus not eligible for the "other income" exemption described above, under current law and administrative practice a non-U.S. investor may qualify for the "portfolio interest exemption" with respect to the coupon payments if the investor has timely provided certifications to establish that it is not a U.S. person and certain other conditions are met, as discussed in the section entitled "United States Federal Taxation—Tax Treatment of the Securities—Interest" in the Base Prospectus.

As described in "United States Federal Taxation" in the Base Prospectus, U.S. withholding may also be imposed in other circumstances, such as under FATCA, the U.S. backup withholding rules or Section 871(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

If withholding is so required, the relevant Issuer will not be required to pay any additional amounts with respect to the amounts so withheld.]

United States Taxation

This discussion is limited to the U.S. federal tax issues addressed below. Additional issues may exist that are not addressed in this discussion and that could affect the federal tax treatment of an investment in the Securities. Investors should seek their own advice based upon their particular circumstances from an independent tax adviser.

A non-U.S. investor should review carefully the section entitled "United States Federal Taxation" in the Base Prospectus.

The following discussion applies to Securities issued by Morgan Stanley or MSFL that pay periodic coupons and provide for a payment at maturity or upon early settlement (other than the stated coupon) that is determined by reference to the performance of a Relevant Underlying and thus may be lower or higher than their issue price. The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Securities is unclear due to the absence of statutory, judicial or administrative authorities that directly address the Securities or similar securities, and no ruling is being requested from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") with respect to the Securities. Significant aspects of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities are uncertain, and no assurance can be given that the IRS or a court will agree with the tax treatment described herein. Accordingly, investors should consult their tax adviser regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of an investment in the Securities (including possible alternative treatment thereof).

A non-U.S. investor should expect that a withholding agent will treat any coupon payments as subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30 per cent., unless the non-U.S. investor establishes an exemption under the "other income" provision of a Qualifying Treaty (as defined below) or, to the extent that any portion of a coupon payment is treated as interest for U.S. federal income tax purposes, an exemption under the "portfolio interest exemption" rules as described below.

An income tax treaty between a non-U.S. jurisdiction and the United States is a "Qualifying Treaty" if it provides for a 0 per cent. rate of tax on "other income" earned by a resident of the non-U.S. jurisdiction from sources within the United States. Accordingly, if a non-U.S. investor is a resident of a non-U.S. jurisdiction that qualifies for benefits under such a Qualifying Treaty, it should generally be eligible for an exemption under the "other income" provision referred to above if the non-U.S. investor complies with the certification requirement described in the section entitled "United States Federal Taxation—Tax Treatment of the Securities—Other Income Coupons" in the Base Prospectus. However, because most income tax treaties contain complex eligibility rules and limitations, a non-U.S. investor should consult its tax adviser about its eligibility for this exemption. To demonstrate eligibility for the "other income" exemption to the Issuer or an applicable withholding agent, a non-U.S. investor generally will be required to provide a properly completed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E certifying that it is not a U.S. person and that it is eligible for the benefits of the "other income" article of a Qualifying Treaty (or, if the non-U.S. investor holds its Securities through certain intermediaries, it may be permitted to provide alternative documentation in lieu of the appropriate Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E to establish that it is not a U.S. person and that it is eligible for the benefits of the "other income" article of a Qualifying Treaty) as discussed in the section entitled "United States Federal Taxation—Tax Treatment of the Securities—Other Income Coupons" in the Base Prospectus.

Notwithstanding the discussion above, because the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Securities is unclear, any coupon payments on such Securities could alternatively be treated in whole or part as payments of interest. Nonetheless, even if the coupon payments are treated in whole or in part as interest and thus not eligible for the "other income" exemption described above, under current law and administrative practice a non-U.S. investor may qualify for the "portfolio interest exemption" with respect to the coupon payments if the investor has timely provided certifications to establish that it is not a United States person and certain other conditions are met, as discussed in the section entitled "United States Federal Taxation—Tax Treatment of the Securities—Interest" in the Base Prospectus.

As described in "United States Federal Taxation" in the Base Prospectus, U.S. withholding may also be imposed in other circumstances, such as under FATCA, the U.S. backup withholding rules or Section 871(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

If withholding is so required, the relevant Issuer will not be required to pay any additional amounts with respect to the amounts so withheld.]

possible that the final payment could be significantly lower than the Note's issue price), excluding Securities that pay periodic coupons at a fixed rate with no possible upside payment at maturity or upon early settlement.

ISSUE TERMS AND DRAWDOWN PROSPECTUSES

In this section the expression "necessary information" means, in relation to any Tranche of Securities, the information with regard to the Issuer and the Securities, which according to the particular nature and circumstances of the Issuer and the type of Securities, is material to investors for making an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the Issuer and, if applicable, the Guarantor and of the rights attaching to the Securities and the reasons for the issuance and its impact on the Issuer. In relation to the different types of Securities which may be issued under the Program, the Issuer and the Guarantor have included in this Base Prospectus all of the necessary information except for information relating to the Securities which is not known at the date of this Base Prospectus and which can only be determined at the time of an individual issue of a Tranche of Securities.

Any information relating to the Securities which is not included in this Base Prospectus and which is required in order to complete the necessary information in relation to a Tranche of Securities will be contained in the relevant Issue Terms.

For a Tranche of Securities which is the subject of Issue Terms, those Issue Terms will, for the purposes of that Tranche only, complete this Base Prospectus and must be read in conjunction with this Base Prospectus. The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Securities which is the subject of Issue Terms are the Conditions described in the relevant Issue Terms as completed to the extent described in the relevant Issue Terms.

The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Securities which is the subject of a Drawdown Prospectus will be the Conditions as completed, amended and/or replaced to the extent described in the relevant Drawdown Prospectus. In the case of a Tranche of Securities which is the subject of a Drawdown Prospectus, each reference in this Base Prospectus to information being specified or identified in the relevant Issue Terms shall be read and construed as a reference to such information being specified or identified in the relevant Drawdown Prospectus unless the context requires otherwise.

Each Drawdown Prospectus will be constituted either (1) by a single document containing the necessary information relating to the Issuer and the Guarantor and the relevant Securities or (2) by a Registration Document containing the necessary information relating to the Issuer and the Guarantor, a securities note (the "Securities Note") containing the necessary information relating to the relevant Securities and, if necessary, a summary note.

FORMS OF SECURITIES

Morgan Stanley, MSI plc, MSBV, MSFL and MSESE may issue Securities in registered form ("Registered Securities"). Registered Securities may be in either individual certificate form or global certificate form. In addition (i) MSBV, MSI plc and MSESE may also issue Securities in dematerialised and uncertificated book-entry form with a Nordic central securities depository ("Nordic Securities"), and (ii) MSBV, MSI plc and MSESE may also issue Securities in uncertificated registered form ("Uncertificated Securities").

Registered Securities

Registered Securities will be in the form of either individual Security Certificates in registered form ("Individual Security Certificates") or a global Security in registered form (a "Global Security Certificate"), in each case as specified in the relevant Issue Terms. Each Global Security Certificate will either be: (a) in the case of a Registered Security which is not to be held under the New Safekeeping Structure (defined below), registered in the name of a common depository (or its nominee) for the Relevant Clearing System and the relevant Global Security Certificate will be deposited on or about the issue date with the common depository and will be exchangeable in accordance with its terms; or (b) in the case of a Registered Security to be held under the new safekeeping structure ("New Safekeeping Structure" or "NSS"), be registered in the name of a common safekeeper (or its nominee) for the Relevant Clearing System and the relevant Global Security Certificate will be deposited on or about the issue date with the common safekeeper for the Relevant Clearing System and will be exchangeable for Individual Security Certificates in accordance with its terms.

If the relevant Issue Terms specify the form of Securities as being "Individual Security Certificates", then the Securities will at all times be in the form of Individual Security Certificates issued to each Securityholder in respect of their respective holdings.

If the relevant Issue Terms specify the form of Registered Securities as being "Global Security Certificate exchangeable for Individual Security Certificates", then the Securities will initially be in the form of a Global Security Certificate which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Individual Security Certificates:

- (a) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Issue Terms; or
- (b) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Issue Terms; or
- (c) if the relevant Issue Terms specify "in the limited circumstances described in the Global Security Certificate", then if (a) the Relevant Clearing System is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 21 (Events of Default) occurs.

Whenever the Global Security Certificate is to be exchanged for Individual Security Certificates, the Issuer shall procure that Individual Security Certificates will be issued (i) in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Security Certificate (in the case of Notes) or (ii) for an aggregate number of Securities equal to the number of Securities represented by the Global Security Certificate (in the case of Certificates) within five business days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered holder of the Global Security Certificate to the Registrar of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual Security Certificates (including, without limitation, the names and addresses of the persons in whose names the Individual Security Certificates are to be registered and the principal amount (in the case of Notes) or the number of Securities (in the case of Certificates) of each such person's holding) against the surrender of the Global Security Certificate at the specified office of the Registrar.

Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Issue and Paying Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Securities scheduled thereto and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder, but against such indemnity as the Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Registered Securities

The terms and conditions applicable to any Individual Security Certificate will be endorsed on that Individual Security Certificate and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under "Terms and Conditions of the Securities" above and the provisions of the relevant Issue Terms which complete those terms and conditions. The terms and conditions applicable to any Global Security Certificate that represents a Security will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Security were it in individual form to the extent described under "Summary of Provisions relating to the Securities while in Global Form" below.

Nordic Securities

Securities issued by MSBV, MSI plc or MSESE and designated as "Finnish Securities" or "Swedish Securities" in the applicable Issue Terms will be issued in uncertificated and dematerialised book-entry form in accordance with the Finnish or, as applicable, Swedish legislation and all other applicable local laws, regulations and operating procedures applicable to and/or issued by the Finnish or, as applicable, Swedish central securities depository from time to time (the "NCS D Rules") designated as registrar for the Nordic Securities in the relevant Issue Terms (the "NCS D"). Payments of principal, interest (if any) or any other amounts on any Nordic Security will be made through the relevant NCS D in accordance with the NCS D Rules.

Uncertificated Securities

Uncertificated Securities will be held in uncertificated form in accordance with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001, including any modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force (the "Regulations"). The Uncertificated Securities are participating securities for the purposes of the Regulations. Title to the Uncertificated Securities is recorded on the relevant Operator register of eligible debt securities (as defined in the Regulations) and the relevant "Operator" (as such term is used in the Regulations) in Euroclear UK & International Limited or any additional or alternative operator from time to time approved by the Issuer and the Registrar and in accordance with the Regulations. Securities in definitive registered form will not be issued (either upon issue or in exchange for Uncertificated Securities).

The Euroclear Registrar will make all payments in respect of Uncertificated Securities.

Eurosystem Eligibility

Registered Securities in global form which are to be held under the New Safekeeping Structure may be issued with the intention that such Securities be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem, either upon issue or at any or all times during their life. Such recognition will depend upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria as specified by the European Central Bank. However, there is no guarantee that such Securities will be recognised as eligible collateral. Any other Securities are not intended to be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intraday credit operations by the Eurosystem.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE SECURITIES WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

Clearing System Accountholders

In relation to any Registered Securities (or any Tranche thereof) represented by a Global Security Certificate, references in the "Terms and Conditions of the Securities" above to "Securityholder" are references to the person in whose name such Global Security Certificate is for the time being registered in the Register which, for so long as the Global Security Certificate is held by or on behalf of a depositary or a common depositary for the Relevant Clearing System, will be that depositary or common depositary or a nominee for that depositary or common depositary.

Each of the persons shown in the records of the Relevant Clearing System as being entitled to an interest in a Global Security Certificate (each an "Accountholder") must look solely to the Relevant Clearing System (as the case may be) for such Accountholder's share of each payment made by the relevant Issuer to the holder of such Global Security Certificate and in relation to all other rights arising under such Global Security Certificate, including any right to exchange any exchangeable Securities or any right to require the relevant Issuer to repurchase such Securities. The respective rules and procedures of the Relevant Clearing System from time to time will determine the extent to which, and the manner in which, Accountholders may exercise any rights arising under the Global Security Certificate and the timing requirements for meeting any deadlines for the exercise of those rights. For so long as the relevant Securities are represented by a Global Security Certificate, Accountholders shall have no claim directly against the relevant Issuer in respect of payments due under the Securities and such obligations of the relevant Issuer will be discharged by payment to the holder of such Global Security Certificate.

Exchange of Global Security Certificates

Whenever a Global Security Certificate is to be exchanged for Individual Security Certificates, the Issuer shall procure that Individual Security Certificates will be issued (i) in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Security Certificate (in the case of Notes) or (ii) for an aggregate number of Securities equal to the number of Securities represented by the Global Security Certificate (in the case of Certificates) within five business days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the holder of the Global Security Certificate to the Registrar of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual Security Certificates (including, without limitation, the names and addresses of the persons in whose names the Individual Security Certificates are to be registered and the principal amount (in the case of Notes) or number of Securities (in the case of Certificates) of each such person's holding) against the surrender of the Global Security Certificate at the specified office of the Registrar. Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Issue and Paying Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Securities scheduled thereto and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder, but against such indemnity as the Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

If:

- (a) Individual Security Certificates have not been delivered by 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after they are due to be issued and delivered in accordance with the terms of the Global Security Certificate; or
- (b) any of the Securities represented by a Global Security Certificate (or any part of it) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Securities or the date for final redemption of the Securities has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the holder of the Global Security Certificate in accordance with the terms of the Global Security Certificate on the due date for payment, then at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (a) above) or at 5.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (b) above) each Accountholder shall acquire the right under the Morgan Stanley Deed of Covenant, the MSI plc Deed of Covenant, the MSBV Deed of Covenant, the MSFL Deed of Covenant and the MSESE Deed of Covenant (the "Deeds of Covenant"), as the case may be, or any Additional Deed of Covenant to enforce against the Issuer, the Issuer's obligations to the Securityholder in respect of the Securities represented by the Global Security Certificate, including the obligation of the Issuer to make all payments and deliveries when due at any time in respect of such Securities as if such Securities had been duly presented and (where required by the Conditions) surrendered on the due date in accordance with the Conditions. Each Accountholder shall acquire such right without prejudice to any other rights which the Securityholder may have under the Global Security Certificate and the Deeds of Covenant. Notwithstanding the rights that each Accountholder may acquire under the Deeds of Covenant, payment or delivery to the Securityholder in respect of any Securities represented by the Global Security Certificate shall constitute a discharge of the Issuer's obligations to the extent of any such payment or delivery and nothing in the Deed of Covenant shall oblige the Issuer to make any payment or delivery under the Securities to or to the order of any person other than the Securityholder.

Conditions Applicable to Global Securities

Each Global Security Certificate will contain provisions which modify the terms and conditions set out in "Terms and Conditions of the Securities" as they apply to the Global Security Certificate. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

Payments: All payments in respect of the Global Security Certificate, which, according to the Terms and Conditions of the Securities, require presentation and/or surrender of a Security Certificate will be made against presentation and (in the case of payment of principal in full with all interest accrued thereon) surrender of the Global Security Certificate at the Specified Office or to the order of any paying agent and will be effective to satisfy and discharge the corresponding liabilities of the relevant Issuer in respect of the Securities.

Any such notice will be irrevocable and may not be withdrawn.

Partial Exercise of Call Option: In connection with an exercise of the option contained in Condition 16.5 (Redemption at the Option of the Issuer) of the Terms and Conditions of the Securities in relation to some but not all of the Securities, the Global Security Certificate may be redeemed in part in the principal amount (in the case of Notes) or number of Securities (in the case of Certificates) specified by the Issuer in accordance with the Conditions and the Securities to be redeemed will not be selected as provided in the Conditions but in accordance with the rules and procedures of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg as either a pool factor or a reduction in principal amount (in the case of Notes) or number of Securities (in the case of Certificates), at their discretion).

Notices: Notwithstanding Condition 28 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the Securities while all the Securities are represented by a Global Security Certificate and the Global Security Certificate is deposited with a common depository for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system or a common safekeeper, notices to Securityholders may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and, in any case, such notices shall be deemed to have been given to the Securityholders in accordance with Condition 28 (Notices) of the Terms and Conditions of the Securities, on the date of delivery to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, except that, for so long as the Securities are listed on any stock exchange or are admitted to trading by another relevant authority, any notice to Securityholders shall be published in accordance with the rules and regulations of each such stock exchange or other relevant authority.

- (iii) in any other case, any day which is a day on which dealings in foreign currencies may be carried on in the Principal Financial Centre of the currency of payment and in each (if any) Additional Business Centre.

Registered Securities

Notwithstanding Condition 17 (

Payments - Registered Securities), each payment in respect of any Global Security Certificate shall be made to the person shown in the Register as the registered holder of the Securities represented by such Global Security Certificate at the close of business (in the relevant clearing system) on the Clearing System Business Day before the due date for such payment (the "Record Date") where the "Clearing System Business Day" means a day on which each clearing system for which the Global Security Certificate is being held is open for business.

Description of the MS Dynamic Fund Allocation Index Family

1. Overview

This Index Description sets out a description of the essential characteristics of the rules and procedures applicable to the determination of the value of the Index. Prospective investors should read the entire Index Description and Risk Factor 9.8(g) (Securities linked to proprietary indices) before making any investment decisions. Defined terms used in the summary are defined in sections 2, 3 and 5 below.

General Overview

The Index is a quantitative and rules-based multi-asset index, representing exposure to the performance of eight Index Components across Fixed Income, and Equities. The eight Index Components are "Ashmore SICAV - Emerging Markets Short Duration" Fund, "BlueBay Investment Grade Bond" Fund, "Allianz Strategy 50" Fund, "Morgan Stanley Investment Funds - US Advantage" Fund, "Nordea 1 SICAV - Alpha 15 MA" Fund, "PIMCO GIS US High Yield Bond" Fund, "Robeco Capital Growth Funds - Robeco Global Consumer Trends Equities" Fund, and "Merian Global Investors Series PLC - Merian Global Equity Absolute Return" Fund (each an "Index Component" or "Asset"). On each business day, the level of the Index reflects the return of the eight Index Components less fees and costs associated with the Index.

The weightings of each Index Component are rebalanced weekly with reference to performance and realised volatility of each Index Component and correlation of the Index Components. The target volatility level for the combined portfolio is 4%. The combined maximum weight of all Index Components is capped in order to limit the overall leverage when volatility has been particularly low.

Volatility refers to the degree of variance in the price level of a particular asset (in this case an Index Component) over a given time period. The greater the range of fluctuations in the price over the relevant period the higher the volatility. Realised volatility refers to the actual observed volatility of an asset (in this case an Index Component) over a given time period.

Key features of the Index

The Index provides exposure to the performance of a notional portfolio consisting of the eight Index Components. The Index allocation takes into account the diverse risk/return profiles of the eight Index Components by risk and performance-based weighting each Index Component based on the 3-month performance (the "Performance") and the 3-month realised volatility levels (the "Realised Volatility") of each Index Component and correlation between the Index Components. By risk-weighting each Index Component the Index aims to target an overall volatility of 4%. Risk and performance-based weighting means the strategy tends to reduce exposure to the more volatile and historically worse performing Index Components and increase exposure to the less volatile and historically better performing Index Components. In general, all other things being equal, this means that as an Index Component experiences a declining historical volatility and increasing historical performance with respect to the other Index Components it will tend to have an increased weight in the Index. Section 5.3 describes the Index calculation and weighting mechanism in full detail.

Index performance

The Index Level is calculated on each Index Calculation Day. The change in Index Level on each Index Calculation Day represents the return of the Index Components since the previous Index Calculation Day.

The weighting of each Index Component is rebalanced weekly based on Performance and Realised Volatility of each Index Component. Therefore an Index Component with a relatively high Realised Volatility will have a lower allocation at the Rebalance Date compared to an Index Component with a relatively low Realised Volatility if they have the same volatility target. An Index Component with a relatively low Performance will have a lower volatility target at the Rebalance Date compared to an Index Component with a relatively high Performance. However, as the levels of both Performance and Realised Volatility are subject to changes, it is expected that the allocation of the individual Index Component will also be subject to changes during the life of the Index.

The Index volatility that occurs after a Rebalancing Date may not be exactly matching the Target Volatility, since the future Realised Volatility for each Index Component and the correlation between Index Components will not necessarily exactly match the historic volatility used when determining the weights. Additionally, the level of Realised Volatility does not represent the expected return for that Index Component. As such, the weight of an Index Component could increase (decrease) since the previous weekly rebalance, resulting from falling (rising) volatility but in either case can have a positive or negative effect on the performance of the Index.

The Index performance reflects the positive and negative performance of each Index Component. In general if an Index Component has a positive performance it will contribute to a positive Index performance, whereas negative performance of an Index Component will contribute to a negative Index performance.

The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any underlying Index Component of the Index and/or the Index.

4. Index data

The Index is calculated on the basis of publicly available third party data. In particular, the Index will utilise the official levels for the following reference underlying assets referenced in section 5.2, as published on Bloomberg.

5. Index Composition and Calculation

This section outlines the key steps in constructing and calculating the Index, including weighting, scheduled review timetable and timing of the daily Index level publication.

5.1 Index Calculation Days, Rebalancing and Rolling

Index Calculation Days

The initial Index Level was set at 100 on the Index Base Date, which was also the first Rebalance Date. Following the Index Base Date, the Index Level is calculated on each Index Calculation Day. An Index Calculation Day is a weekday that is also a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London, New York, Luxembourg, Frankfurt and Dublin.

Rebalancing

The Index rebalances weekly every Wednesday. If a Wednesday is not an Index Calculation Day, then the Index rebalances on the following Index Calculation Day.

5.2 Inputs

For the Index Level calculation which is described in section 5.3, several input numbers are required. This section explains and states these input numbers.

Asset Prices

The Index consists of Assets  $i = 1, \dots, n$ .

The variable  $p_i(t)$  refers to the level of the relevant Index Component  $i$  at time  $t$ . For all Index Components, a daily published NAV is used, provided that the Index Calculation Agent may determine the level at a different time on such Index Calculation Day if, acting in good faith, the Index Calculation Agent determines that the daily published NAV is not indicative of the prevailing market level.

Below are the Bloomberg tickers used to obtain input data:

$p_1(t)$ : Ashmore SICAV - Emerging Markets Short Duration Fund (Bloomberg Ticker: AEMSRAE LX Index)

$p_3(t)$ : Allianz Strategy 50 Fund (Bloomberg Ticker: ALSFFCT LX Index)

$p_4(t)$ : Morgan Stanley Investment Funds - US Advantage Fund (Bloomberg Ticker: MORAMAH LX Index)

$p_5(t)$ : Nordea 1 SICAV - Alpha 15 MA Fund (Bloomberg Ticker: NMAPBPE LX Index)

$p_6(t)$ : PIMCO GIS US High Yield Bond Fund (Bloomberg Ticker: PIMHEHD ID Index)

$p_7(t)$ : Robeco Capital Growth Funds - Robeco Global Consumer Trends Equities Fund (Bloomberg Ticker: RGCCGED LX Index)

$p_8(t)$ : Merian Global Investors Series PLC - Merian Global Equity Absolute Return Fund (Bloomberg Ticker: OMEAEHA ID Index)

Index Target Volatility

The Index has a Target Volatility of:

$$\text{targetVol} = 4\%$$

Target Volatility Contribution

Each Asset is targeted to contribute a certain proportion to the overall Index volatility, which is determined by its past performance. The Volatility Contributions for the Assets with performance ranked 1,...,8 are:

$$\omega_{RANK=1} = 0.30$$

$$\omega_{RANK=2} = 0.25$$

$$\omega_{RANK=3} = 0.20$$

$$\omega_{RANK=4} = 0.15$$

$$\omega_{RANK=5} = 0.10$$

$$\omega_{RANK=6} = 0.00$$

$$\omega_{RANK=7} = 0.00$$

$$\omega_{RANK=8} = 0.00$$

Index Fee

The Index includes an annualised Index Fee which is deducted from the Index Level on a daily basis. The level of the Index Fee will be specific for each Index in the MS Dynamic Fund Index Family. The Index Fee will be specified in the applicable Issue Terms in respect of the Securities.

Overall Weight Cap

The sum of weights of all Asset is capped to prevent position sizes growing too large in low volatility environments. The cap for the sum of overall weights is:

$$\text{leverageCap} = 2.0$$

Funding Cost Adjustments

Returns of the Assets are adjusted by an interest rate plus a spread due to funding requirements. Funds typically require cash to purchase. The rate plus any spread for each Index Component are specified below, provided that the Index Calculation Agent may determine a different spread if, acting in good faith, the Index Calculation Agent determines that the levels below are not sustainable given prevailing market circumstances:

$$\text{rate}_1(t) : \text{EUR 3-Month EURIBOR (Bloomberg Ticker: EUR003M Index)} + 65\text{bps}$$

$$\text{rate}_2(t) : \text{EUR 3-Month EURIBOR (Bloomberg Ticker: EUR003M Index)} + 65\text{bps}$$

$$\text{rate}_3(t) : \text{EUR 3-Month EURIBOR (Bloomberg Ticker: EUR003M Index)} + 65\text{bps}$$

$$\text{rate}_4(t) : \text{EUR 3-Month EURIBOR (Bloomberg Ticker: EUR003M Index)} + 65\text{bps}$$

$$\text{rate}_5(t) : \text{EUR 3-Month EURIBOR (Bloomberg Ticker: EUR003M Index)} + 65\text{bps}$$

$$\text{rate}_6(t) : \text{EUR 3-Month EURIBOR (Bloomberg Ticker: EUR003M Index)} + 65\text{bps}$$

$$\text{rate}_7(t) : \text{EUR 3-Month EURIBOR (Bloomberg Ticker: EUR003M Index)} + 65\text{bps}$$

$$\text{rate}_8(t) : \text{EUR 3-Month EURIBOR (Bloomberg Ticker: EUR003M Index)} + 65\text{bps}$$

(b) *Index Level Calculation

The Index Level on an Index Calculation Day is determined by adding the weighted returns since last Rebalance Date of each Index Component to the Index Level from the previous Rebalance Date and deducting the Index Fee. Thus, the Index Level is calculated as:

- The Index Level on the previous Rebalance Date
- multiplied by

1 plus the sum over each Assets' product of Effective Weight and Return since last Rebalance Date
- minus the Index Fee since last Rebalance Date
- rounded to 9 decimal places

As a formula:

$$Index(t) = ROUND \left( Index(PRD(t)) \times \left( 1 + \sum_{i=1}^n EW_i(t) \times R_i(t) \right) - IF(t), 9 \right)$$

For the avoidance of doubt, 64 Index Calculation Days are required for the Effective Weights  $EW_i(t)$  to be determined. As such, the Initial Index Level of 100 is determined on the Index Base Date, which is the 65th Index Calculation Date.

(e) Calculation of Asset Returns

For the calculation of the Index Level above, it is necessary to compute the return of each Asset since last Rebalance Date,  $R_i(t)$ . The return can take into account a number of factors including price movements and funding costs. The first step is to determine the Daily Asset Returns  $DAR_i$  for each Asset.

Daily Asset Return

The Daily Asset Return calculates the change in asset prices since the previous Index Calculation Day. It is calculated as:

- The current asset price divided by previous Index Calculation Day's asset price
- minus 1

As a formula:

$$DAR_i(t) = \frac{p_i(t)}{p_i(t-1)} - 1$$

Asset Return since last Rebalance Date

From the Daily Asset Return, the Asset Return since last Rebalance Date  $AR_i(t)$  can be calculated. If the last Index Calculation Day was a Rebalance Date then the Asset Return since last Rebalance Date is the Daily Asset Return  $DAR_i(t)$ , otherwise it is calculated as:

- 1 plus the Asset Return since last Rebalance Date of the previous Index Calculation Day
- multiplied by

1 plus the Daily Asset Return

As a formula:

$$AR_i = \begin{cases} DAR_i(t), & \text{if } t-1 = PRD(t) \\ (1 + AR_i(t-1)) \times (1 + DAR_i(t)) - 1, & \text{otherwise} \end{cases}$$

Return since last Rebalance Date

To get to the Return since last Rebalance Date  $R_i(t)$ , the Asset Returns since last Rebalance Date  $AR_i(t)$  may need to be adjusted by a Funding Cost. The funding cost adjustment is relevant for Fund Assets as a Fund Asset requires cash to purchase. The Return since last Rebalance Date  $R_i(t)$  is calculated as:

- The Asset Return since last Rebalance Date minus the Funding Costs since last Rebalance Date

As a formula:

$$R_i(t) = (AR_i(t) - FC_i(t))$$

Funding Costs since last Rebalance Date

To take into account the effect of funded investments a funding cost adjustment is required. The Funding Costs are based on the interest rates stated in section 5.2 under the heading Funding Cost Adjustments.

If the last Index Calculation Day was a Rebalance Date, Funding Costs since last Rebalance Date  $FC_i(t)$  are calculated as:

- The interest rate at previous Index Calculation Day
- multiplied by the number of accrued days between current and previous Index Calculation Day divided by 360 and if the last Index Calculation Day was not a Rebalance Date:

- The interest rate at previous Index Calculation Day
- multiplied by the number of accrued days between current and previous Index Calculation Day divided by 360
- multiplied by
  - 1 plus the Asset Return since last Rebalance Date on the previous Index Calculation Day plus the Funding Cost since last Rebalance Date on the previous Index Calculation Day
- plus the Funding Cost since last Rebalance Date on the last Index Calculation Day

As a formula:

$$FC_i(t) = \begin{cases} rate_i(t-1) \times \frac{ACCR(t, t-1)}{360}, & \text{if } t-1 = PRD(t) \\ FC_i(t-1) + (1 + AR_i(t-1) + FC_i(t-1)) \times rate_i(t-1) \times \frac{ACCR(t, t-1)}{360}, & \text{otherwise} \end{cases}$$

(d) Calculation of Asset Weights

Apart from the Returns since last Rebalance Date, the Effective Weights  $EW_i(t)$  for each Asset is required to calculate the Index Level. The Effective Weights change on a weekly basis as part of the rebalancing process. To calculate the Effective Weights there are several steps including consideration of the performance, volatility and correlation of the Index Components. Firstly, the Volatility Contributions  $VC_i(t)$  are calculated based on the past performance of Asset  $i$ .

Volatility Contributions

Each Asset is targeted to contribute a certain proportion  $VC_i(t)$  to the overall Index volatility, which is determined by its performance over a fixed past observation period.

As the Returns of the Fund Assets are on a funded basis, the return from the funding rate needs to be deducted. The performance of a Fund Asset is calculated over an observation period  $N$ . The observation period  $N$  will be specific for each Index in the MS Dynamic Fund Allocation Index Family.

- The sum over the most recent  $N$  values of:
  - The Daily Asset Return
  - minus

The interest rate at previous Index Calculation Day multiplied by the number of accrued days between current and previous Index Calculation Day divided by 360

As a formula:

$$PERF_i(t) = \sum_{j=1}^N \left( DAR_i(t-j) - rate_i(t-1-j) \times \frac{ACCR(t-j, t-1-j)}{360} \right)$$ for  $i = 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8$ .

Description of the MS Dynamic Fund Allocation Index Family

The performance numbers from all assets can then be ranked. The volatility contribution  $VC_i(t)$  of Asset  $i$  is then the weight according to its rank (see 4.2 under Target Volatility Contribution):

$$VC_i(t) = \omega_{RANK(PERF_i(t))}$$

Initial Weights

As a next step, the Initial Weights  $IW_i(t)$  are calculated, which do not yet take into account correlations between the Assets.

- The Target Volatility of the Index
- multiplied by the volatility proportion of the relevant Asset  $w_i$  (see section 5.2)
- divided by the Asset price volatility of the last 63 Index Calculation Days

As a formula:

$$IW_i(t) = \frac{\text{targetVol} \times VC_i(t)}{VOL63_i(t)}$$

Scale Factor

If Asset Returns among the portfolio are not perfectly positively correlated, then the Portfolio Volatility calculated from the Initial Weights will be less than the Index Target Volatility. Hence, the Initial Weights are scaled by the Scale Factor  $SF(t)$  in order to reach the Index Target Volatility. To constrain leverage below the desired Overall Weight Cap, the Scale Factor is constrained by the ratio of leverage cap to the sum of the Initial Weights. The Scale Factor is calculated as the minimum of:

- The Target Volatility of the Index divided by the maximum of (i) the 21-day Portfolio Volatility and (ii) the 63-day Portfolio Volatility
- Overall Weight Cap leverageCap divided by the sum of Initial Weights

As a formula:

$$SF(t) = \min\left(\frac{\text{targetVol}}{\max(PVOL21(t), PVOL63(t))}, \frac{\text{leverageCap}}{\sum_i IW_i(t)}\right)$$

The consideration of two different lookback periods (21 and 63 days) for the Portfolio Volatility is intended to make the weight allocation more conservative and decrease the likelihood that the Index Volatility Target will be exceeded.

Effective Weights

From the Initial Weights and the Scale Factor, the Effective Weight for each Asset can be calculated. The Effective Weight is the product of Scale Factor and Initial Weight, capped if the weight exceeds the limit defined for each Index Component. If the last Index Calculation Day was a Rebalance Date, then the Effective Weight is calculated as:

- The product of the Scaling Factor at the previous Rebalance Date and the Initial Weight at previous Rebalance Date
- rounded to 3 decimal places

and if the last Index Calculation Day was not a Rebalance Date, then the Effective Weight at the current Index Calculation Day equals the Effective Weight from the previous Index Calculation Day.

As a formula:

$$EW_i(t) = \begin{cases} ROUND(SF(t-3) \times IW_i(t-3), 3), & \text{if } t-1 = PRD(t) \\ EW_i(t-1), & \text{otherwise} \end{cases}$$

Asset Volatility Calculations

This section describes the calculation of the asset volatilities that are used in the calculation of the Initial Weights and the Scaling Factor.

$VOL63_i(t)$  is the volatility of Asset  $i$ 's previous 62 daily returns  $DAR_i(t)$  (which are calculated from the last 63 prices on Index Calculation Days). It is calculated as the annualised standard deviation of the previous 62 Daily Asset Returns. In the theoretical case that prices have not moved in the last 63 Index Calculation Days the volatility would be zero. As a zero volatility would cause an error in calculating the Initial Weights, the volatility is set to 0.01% in that case.

As a formula:

$$VOL63'_i(t) = \sqrt{\frac{1}{61} \sum_{j=1}^{62} (DAR_i(t-j) - \mu_{63,i})^2} \times \sqrt{252}$$

and

$$VOL63_i(t) = \begin{cases} VOL63'_i(t), & \text{if } VOL63'_i(t) > 0 \\ 0.0001, & \text{otherwise} \end{cases}$$

where  $\mu_{63,i}$  is the mean of the last 62 Daily Asset Returns, calculated as:

$$\mu_{63,i} = \frac{1}{62} \sum_{k=1}^{62} (DAR_i(t-k))$$

The 21-day volatility is defined as the annualised standard deviation of the last 20 Daily Asset Returns, similar to the 63-day volatility:

$$VOL21'_i(t) = \sqrt{\frac{1}{19} \sum_{j=1}^{20} (DAR_i(t-j) - \mu_{21,i})^2} \times \sqrt{252}$$

and

$$VOL21_i(t) = \begin{cases} VOL21'_i(t), & \text{if } VOL21'_i(t) > 0 \\ 0.0001, & \text{otherwise} \end{cases}$$

where  $\mu_{21,i}$  is the mean of the last 20 Daily Asset Returns, calculated as:

$$\mu_{21,i} = \frac{1}{20} \sum_{k=1}^{20} (DAR_i(t-k))$$

Portfolio Volatility Calculations

To calculate the volatility of the portfolio of Assets the volatility of each Asset and the correlations between the Assets are required. For the purposes of calculating the Effective Weights both the 21 day and 63 day Portfolio Volatility is required.

The mathematical rules for matrix multiplication are applied to determine the Portfolio Volatilities. The 21-day portfolio volatility is calculated as the square root of the product of vector (a), matrix (c) and vector (b). The 63-day Portfolio Volatility is calculated as the square root of the product of vector (a), matrix (d) and vector (b), where

- (a) is a row vector that includes the Initial Weight for each Asset
- (b) is a column vector that includes the Initial Weight for each Asset
- (c) is the covariance matrix for the last 21 Index Calculation Days. The matrix has  $n$  rows and  $n$  columns, where  $n$  is the number of assets. The item in row  $i$  and column  $j$  in the matrix is the product of (i), (ii) and (iii), where:
  - (i) equals the price volatility of Asset  $i$  of the last 21 days
  - (ii) equals the price volatility of Asset  $j$  of the last 21 days
  - (iii) equals the correlation between Asset  $i$  and Asset  $j$  of the last 21 days
- (d) is the covariance matrix for the last 63 Index Calculation Days. The matrix has  $n$  rows and  $n$  columns, where  $n$  is the number of assets. The item in row  $i$  and column  $j$  in the matrix is the product of (i), (ii) and (iii), where:
  - (i) equals the price volatility of Asset  $i$  of the last 63 days
  - (ii) equals the price volatility of Asset  $j$  of the last 63 days
  - (iii) equals the correlation between Asset  $i$  and Asset  $j$  of the last 63 days

Expressed as formulas, the Portfolio Volatilities are calculated as follows:

$$PVOL21(t) = \sqrt{x'Ax}$$

and

$$PVOL63(t) = \sqrt{x'Bx}$$

where  $x$  is a  $n \times 1$  vector consisting of the initial weights:

$$x = \begin{bmatrix} IW_1(t) \\ \vdots \\ IW_n(t) \end{bmatrix}$$ and  $x'$  is the transposed vector of  $x$ .  $A$  and  $B$  are the covariance matrices for 21 and 63 days respectively, with dimension  $n \times n$ :

$$B = \begin{bmatrix} CORR63_{11}(t) \times VOL63_1(t) \times VOL63_1(t) & \cdots & CORR63_{1n}(t) \times VOL63_1(t) \times VOL63_n(t) \\ \vdots & \ddots & \vdots \\ CORR63_{n1}(t) \times VOL63_n(t) \times VOL63_1(t) & \cdots & CORR63_{nn}(t) \times VOL63_n(t) \times VOL63_n(t) \end{bmatrix}$$

Correlations between Asset  $i$  and Asset  $j$  for 21 days and 63 days are calculated as:

$$CORR21_{ij}(t) = \frac{252 \times \sum_{k=1}^{20} (DAR_i(t-k) - \mu_{21,i}) \times (DAR_j(t-k) - \mu_{21,j})}{19 \times VOL21_i(t) \times VOL21_j(t)}$$

and

$$CORR63_{ij}(t) = \frac{252 \times \sum_{k=1}^{62} (DAR_i(t-k) - \mu_{63,i}) \times (DAR_j(t-k) - \mu_{63,j})}{61 \times VOL63_i(t) \times VOL63_j(t)}$$

(e) Index Fee

An Index Fee is deducted from the Index Level on a daily basis.  $IF(t)$  is the Index Fee that has accrued since last Rebalance Date. It is calculated as:

- The annual Index Fee  $m$
- multiplied by the number of days accrued since last Index Calculation Day divided by 365
- multiplied by the Index Level on the previous Index Calculation Day
- plus the Index Fee at previous Index Calculation Date, if the previous Index Calculation Day was not a Rebalance Day, and 0 otherwise

As a formula:

$$IF(t) = \begin{cases} m \times \frac{ACCR(t, t-1)}{365} \times Index(t-1), & \text{if } t-1 = PRD(t) \\ m \times \frac{ACCR(t, t-1)}{365} \times Index(t-1) + IF(t-1), & \text{otherwise} \end{cases}$$

6. Calculation Time and Precision

The Index Level is typically disseminated by the Index Calculation Agent on the next Index Calculation Day. The published Index Levels are rounded to 3 decimal places.

7. Adjustment and Disruption Provisions

The Index is calculated on the basis of algorithmic formulas and therefore no discretion can be exercised by the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent in the calculation of the Index.

However, on occasions, there may be situations requiring adjustments to the Index that are outside the scheduled adjustments and rebalances. Such adjustments might be made by Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent by having recourse to discretionary decisions. Any discretion will be used in a commercially reasonable manner and exclusively in order to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the value of the Index Components in the sole determination of the Index Sponsor.

Adjustment Events

The Index Calculation Agent will determine whether a circumstance relating to any underlying Index Component has a dilutive, concentrative or other effect on the theoretical value of the underlying Index Components and, if so, will (1) make the corresponding adjustment, if any, to the weights or Asset Price for such underlying Index Components and/or any of the other provisions hereof as the Index Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for that dilutive, concentrative or other effect; and (2) determine the effective date of that adjustment. As a result of the foregoing adjustments, the total number of underlying Index Components may, on a given Index Calculation Day, increase or decrease.

In respect of a Fund, the occurrence of any event below will also constitute an Adjustment Event:

- (i) A subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of the relevant number of Fund Units, or a free distribution or dividend of any such Fund Units to existing holders by way of bonus, capitalisation or similar issue; or
- (ii) Any distribution, issue or dividend (other than an ordinary cash dividend) to existing holdings of Fund Units of:
  - (a) an additional amount of such Fund Units;

---

- (b) other share capital or securities granting the right to payment of dividends and/or the proceeds of liquidation of the Fund equally or proportionately with such payments to holders of such Fund Units;
- (c) share capital or other securities of another issuer acquired or owned (directly or indirectly) by the Fund as a result of a spin-off or other similar transaction, or
- (d) any other type of securities, rights or warrants or other assets, in any case for payment (cash or other consideration) at less than the prevailing market price (as determined by the Index Calculation Agent in its sole discretion); or
- (iii) Any extraordinary or bonus dividend or other cash distribution which is not an ordinary cash dividend of any Fund; or
- (iv) A repurchase by the Fund of relevant Fund Units whether the consideration for such repurchase is cash, securities or otherwise; or
- (v) Any other event that may have a dilutive or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the relevant Fund Units.

In calculating the dilutive, concentrative or other effect of any Adjustment Event, the Index Calculation Agent will adjust the amount or value of the potential adjustment event by such amount as it determines appropriate to take account of any tax, duty, withholding, deduction or other charge whatsoever arising as a result of the Adjustment Event (including but not limited to any tax, duty, withholding, deduction or other charge sustained or incurred by Morgan Stanley and/or any of its affiliates as the hypothetical holder of the relevant Component(s), or which would be sustained or incurred by Morgan Stanley and/or any of its affiliates were any of them the holder of the relevant Index Component(s)).

Disruption Events

Each of the following is a "Disruption Event":

- (i) A Material Change in Index Component Methodology occurs if the Index Sponsor determines that there has been a material change to the methodology used to calculate an Index Component or there has been a material change in the constituents of an Index Component, including change of listed issuance schedule, hours of continuous market trading and publication of bid and ask prices.
- (ii) A Termination of Data License occurs if the Index Sponsor determines there has been a termination, revocation or suspension of any third-party license agreement or permission pursuant to which data are supplied to compile or calculate the Index or an Index Component.
- (iii) A Price Source Disruption occurs if the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent determines that any of the source data required to calculate the Index (a "Source Data") is not available. This may include the published level of an underlying Index Component or data provided by a third party vendor. A Price Source Disruption may also include any permanent cancellation or prolonged suspension of any underlying Index Component.

For the avoidance of doubt, a Price Source Disruption will occur if:

- any person fails to announce or publish any Source Data (or the information necessary for determining any Source Data), including where previously such Source Data was published on or by more than one price source or data provider, and is not published on all such sources for such day and the Index Calculation Agent determines any such non-publication(s) material; or
- any Source Data is discontinued or becomes unavailable (whether temporarily or permanently).
- (iv) A Disappearance of Price occurs if the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent determines the:

- disappearance of, or trading in, the relevant Index Component; or
  - the disappearance or permanent discontinuance or unavailability of a price, notwithstanding the availability of the related price source or the status of trading in the relevant Index Component.
- (v) A Change in Law occurs if there has been a change in applicable law or regulation that prevents the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent from calculating, publishing or hedging the Index.
- (vi) A Hedging Disruption occurs if the Index Sponsor determines that Morgan Stanley or any of its affiliates would be unable after using commercially reasonable efforts to: a) acquire, establish, re-establish, substitute, maintain, unwind or dispose of any transactions or instruments deemed necessary to hedge its position in relation to any relevant transactions relating to or calculated by reference to the Index; or b) realise, recover or remit the proceeds of any such transactions or instruments.
- (vii) A Force Majeure Event occurs if the Index Sponsor determines that an event or circumstance has occurred that is beyond the reasonable control of the Index Sponsor and, as a result of which, the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent is unable to calculate, publish or take any other necessary action in relation to the Index. Such event or circumstance may include (without limitation) a systems failure, fire, building evacuation, natural or man-made disaster, act of state, armed conflict, act of terrorism, riot or labour disruption.
- (viii) FX Event: (a)(i) The declaration of a banking moratorium or the suspension of payments by banks, in either case, in the country of any currency underlying the Index or (ii) the declaration of capital and/or currency control (including, without limitation, any restriction placed on assets in or transactions through any account through which a non-resident of the country of any currency used to determine the currency exchange rate may hold assets or transfer monies outside the country of that currency, and any restriction on the transfer of funds, securities or other assets of market participants from, within or outside of the country of any currency used to determine the applicable exchange rate); (b) the method of calculating the value of any currency underlying the Index is changed in a material respect, or is in any other way modified so that the conventional market quotation does not, in the opinion of the Index Sponsor, fairly represent the value of such currency; or (c) the Index Sponsor determines that there is a material difference in the exchange rate for a currency underlying the Index, as determined by reference to the rate source for the relevant currency and any other market source.

- (ix) Holding Ratio: Means the reduction of the Fund's aggregate Net Asset Value under an amount that, in the reasonable opinion of the Index Calculation Agent, after instruction from the Index Sponsor, has, or is likely to have, a significant effect on the management conditions of the Fund and/or its operating expenses or would increase the proportion of Fund Units held, or likely to be held, by a Hypothetical Replicating Party, to such extent that the full redemption in one single Valid Order the Fund Units notionally held by a Hypothetical Replicating Party or funds managed by the same, is likely to be impaired;
- (x) Delisting: Means, in respect of a Fund, where there is or was intended to be an exchange in respect of such Fund that such exchange announces that pursuant to the rules of such exchange, such Fund cease (or will cease or will never) being listed or publicly quoted on the exchange for any reason and are not immediately re listed or re quoted on an exchange or quotation system located in the same country as the exchange (or, where the exchange is within the European Union, in any Member State of the European Union);

- (xii) Fund Settlement Disruption: Means a failure by the Fund to pay in cash the full amount of the redemption proceeds on the date by which the Fund was scheduled to have paid such amount, or the suspension or restriction of subscription orders in the Fund, and which, in the determination of the Index Calculation Agent, after instruction from the Index Sponsor, makes it impossible or impracticable to determine the Net Asset Value of such Fund, including without limitation due to (i) the transfer of all illiquid assets of such Fund to a dedicated fund, account or structure pending the liquidation of such assets for the benefit of existing holders of the Fund Units (side pocket), (ii) the restriction on the amount or number of redemption orders that the Fund (or the Fund Service Provider generally in charge of accepting redemption orders) will accept in relation to a single date on which such Fund normally accepts redemption orders (a gate), (iii) the suspension or restrictions for any reason of the subscription or redemption orders by the Fund (or the Fund Service Provider generally in charge of accepting subscription and redemption orders) or (iv) the postponement of the payment of the balance of redemption proceeds to a date occurring after the financial statements of the Fund have been reviewed by its statutory auditors (holdback), in each case whether these events are imposed by the Fund without being envisaged in the Fund Documents on the Index Live Date, or are so envisaged by the Fund Documents on the Index Live Date and are wholly implemented by the Fund after such date;
- (xiii) Fund Hedging Disruption: Means that The Index Sponsor determines that a Hypothetical Replicating Party is unable or it is impractical for a Hypothetical Replicating Party, after using commercially reasonable efforts, to (i) acquire, establish, re-establish, substitute, maintain, unwind or dispose of any Hypothetical Hedge Positions or (ii) realize, recover or remit the proceeds of any such Hypothetical Hedge Positions, without limitation, where such inability or impracticality has arisen by reason of: (A) the transfer of all illiquid assets of the Fund being all or part of the Hedge Positions to a dedicated fund, account or structure pending the liquidation of such assets for the benefit of existing holders of the Fund Units (side pocket), (B) the restriction on the amount or number of redemptions or subscriptions that the Fund (or the Fund Service Provider generally in charge of accepting the redemption or subscription orders) will accept in relation to a single date on which the Fund normally accepts redemption orders (a gate), (C) the suspension for any reason of the subscription or redemption orders by the Fund (or the Fund Service Provider generally in charge of accepting the subscription and redemption orders), (D) the postponement of the payment of the balance of redemption proceeds to a date occurring after the financial statements of the Fund have been reviewed by the Fund's statutory auditors (holdback), or increase in charges or fees imposed by the relevant Fund or (E) any mandatory redemption, in whole or in part, of such Fund Unit imposed by the relevant Fund, in each case whether these events are imposed by the Fund without being envisaged in the Fund Documents on the Index Live Date, or are so envisaged by the Fund Documents on the Index Live Date and are wholly implemented by the Fund after such date;

- (xxiii) Strategy Breach: Means (i) any breach or violation of any strategy or investment guidelines stated in the related Fund Documents that is reasonably likely to affect the value of the Fund Units or the rights or remedies of any holders thereof, in each case, as determined by the Index Calculation Agent, after instruction from the Index Sponsor or (ii) any material modification, as determined by the Index Calculation Agent, after instruction from the Index Sponsor, of the risk profile of the Fund from its risk profile prevailing on the Index Live Date by reason of, but not limited to, the modification of the proportions, or reduction of diversification, of the type of assets in which the Fund invests or a reduction of the average liquidity of the assets of the Fund.

Potential Actions

In the event that the Index Sponsor determines that a Disruption Event or a Fund Extraordinary Event has occurred, the Index Sponsor may in its sole discretion:

- (i) Substitute the relevant underlying Index Component with a replacement instrument, provided that such replacement is similarly representative of the existing Index Component;
- (ii) Reallocate all or a portion of the Index exposure to cash or cash equivalents;
- (iii) Make such determinations or adjustments to the terms of the Index methodology or the underlying Index Components as it deems necessary including sourcing data from alternative providers;
- (iv) Defer, or direct the Index Calculation Agent to defer, the availability of the Index until the next Index Calculation Day on which there is no Disruption Event;

- (v) Provide or instruct the Index Calculation Agent to use data from alternative public sources (including Reuters, Bloomberg and/or the relevant Fund Service Provider, as the case may be) to determine the relevant price of the relevant Component;
- (vi) Determine the Index Level, the Asset Price of any Component or any Component level affected by the Disruption Event to be, in its sole and absolute discretion, either its estimate of such level or price or the last available level or price for such Component;
- (vii) Direct the Index Calculation Agent to make such determinations and/or adjustments as it considers appropriate to determine the Index Level by reference to the prevailing market conditions and the last available traded or published price of the affected Index Component;
- (viii) Postpone any day on which calculations or valuations were scheduled to be made, as the case may be, to another date as determined by the Index Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion.
- (ix) Trigger an unscheduled Rebalance Date;
- (x) Instruct the Index Calculation Agent to cease to calculate and make available the Index permanently.

Increased costs

If at any time following the Index Live Date, due to the adoption of or any change in any applicable law or regulation (including without limitation any tax law relating to a common system of financial transaction tax in the European Union or otherwise), or any event outside of its control, the Index Sponsor determines in good faith that a party would incur an increased cost in effecting transactions in the underlying Index Components to reflect the notional exposure to the Index Performance, the Index Sponsor retains the right to make any adjustments to the Index methodology outlined herein so that the Index Performance takes account of such increased costs.

Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process

If any modification or adjustment is made to the calculation of the Index and/or its description in accordance to this paragraph, the Index Sponsor will make such modifications or adjustments based on market conditions and other relevant factors, as in the judgment of the Index Sponsor, are necessary to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it is designed to represent.

Wherever practicable, any adjustments to the calculation of the Index, other than a pre-determined rebalancing, will be announced to the relevant interested parties or investors. Such announcement will be made in a timely fashion and, when reasonably possible, prior to the date in which the changes are due to become effective. Based on the depth and breadth of the use of the Index as well as on the materiality of the change, the Index Sponsor will consider whether a formal or informal consultation is appropriate.

For the purposes of determining the materiality of the change, the Index Sponsor shall consider a change to be material when it may have a potentially material effect on the future level of the Index.

If the Index Sponsor determines that a consultation with the relevant interested parties or investors is appropriate, it will inform them of the procedures applicable to the consultation. The consultation procedures will be designed to ensure that such parties receive advance notice of the consultation and are offered a timeframe sufficient for them to analyse and comment on the proposal.

8. *Errors

The Index Sponsor reserves the right to make adjustments to the Index Level to correct any erroneous calculation or publication of the Index Level. The Index Sponsor will determine whether such error requires a change in the composition or calculation of the Index and, if so, the procedures under 7.1 will apply.

9. Updates

This Index Methodology may be updated from time to time, including in accordance with the requirements of the Regulation. The most recent version will be available on request to the Index Sponsor, subject to such distribution restrictions and other requirements as may apply.

10. Governance

Morgan Stanley has adopted the "Principles for Financial Benchmarks" published by the International Organization of Securities Commissions ("IOSCO") on 17 July 2013 (the "Principles") on a proportionate basis.

The Index and its calculation methodology have been approved in accordance with and are subject to the internal governance procedures implemented by Morgan Stanley in compliance with the Principles and managed by an internal oversight committee (the "Index Committee").

The Index Committee will review the Index and its calculation methodology on a regular basis in accordance with Morgan Stanley internal policies applicable to the Index, to ensure that it still continues to reflect the economic interests it intends to measure.

Information on the systems and controls applied by Morgan Stanley in relation to financial benchmarks is available on request.

11. Discontinuation

The Index Sponsor may, in its sole discretion, after consultation with the Index Committee, discontinue calculating and publishing the Index at any time upon the occurrence of, but not limited to, any of the following:

- if as a result of a market disruption event, fund extraordinary event or an adjustment event, an adjustment to and/or calculation of the Index is no longer reasonably possible or practical, in the determination of the Index Sponsor; or
- the Index Sponsor or its successor terminates its Index publication business operations, is declared insolvent or is subject to winding-up proceedings; or
- the Index Sponsor or its successor determines that it is no longer in its commercial interests to continue publishing the Index; or
- any other condition occurs which makes the Index no longer representative of the economic interests it was intended to reflect.

Upon any such discontinuance, the Index Sponsor will use commercially reasonable efforts to publicly announce such discontinuance as soon as is reasonably practicable prior to the effective date.

The Index Sponsor shall determine if a credible alternative Index is available for stakeholders to transfer their investment into and, to the extent reasonably possible, it shall maintain the original Index in existence in order to facilitate an orderly transition of the stakeholders' investment.

If Index Sponsor determines that a consultation with the stakeholders is appropriate based on the depth and breadth of the use of the Index, it will inform the stakeholders of the procedures applicable to the consultation. The consultation procedures will be designed to ensure that the stakeholders receive advance notice of the consultation and are offered a timeframe sufficient for them to analyse and comment on the proposal.

12. Important Information

Index Performance Data – Retrospective Index Calculation

All prospective investors should be aware that any retrospective calculation of the Strategy means that no actual investment existed at any time during the period of the retrospective calculation and as such, its performance is purely hypothetical. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a guide to future performance. The methodology and the Strategy used for the calculation and retrospective calculation of the Strategy have been developed with the advantage of hindsight. In reality, it is not possible to invest with the advantage of hindsight and therefore this past performance is purely theoretical.

Prior to making an investment decision in respect of any instrument or fund, the return on which links to the performance of the Index, prospective investors should understand fully all of the information set out in this document including the Important Information below.

2. Overview

This section provides an overview of a number of features of the Index. There are aspects of the Index to which this section does not refer. Prospective investors should read the entire Description, including (without limitation) the section "Risk Factors and Investment Considerations" under Risk Factor 9.8(i), before making any investment decision. Capitalised terms not otherwise defined shall have the meaning given to them elsewhere in this Description.

Summary

The Index aims to provide exposure to the Index Components and to maintain the volatility of the Index at a specified level through the use of the volatility target mechanism which adjusts the Effective Exposure if the predicted volatility of the Index exceeds the volatility target by a pre-specified trigger threshold.

An Index Level is calculated in relation to each Index Business Day by the Index Calculation Agent. This will be used in connection with one or more Financial Products issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Generally, only a Financial Product issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group is permitted to use or reference the Index (directly or indirectly) but other Financial Products issued or entered into by financial services providers other than members of the Morgan Stanley Group may be permitted to use or reference the Index with the consent of a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. A Financial Product Investor has no ownership or other rights to or in respect of Index Components in its capacity as a Financial Product Investor or any other assets which are from time to time comprised in the Index.

The Index references a "notional" or synthetic exposure to the Index Component and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership. The Index merely identifies the Index Component and a rules-based strategy, the performance of which is used as a reference point for calculating Index Levels.

This Section 2 (Overview) is subject to, and qualified by, the remainder of this Description.

3. Index Sponsor

The Index has been developed by Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc ("MSIP"). The Index is administered by the index sponsor or any successor thereto (the "Index Sponsor"). The initial Index Sponsor is MSIP.

The Index Sponsor controls the creation and operation of the Index administrative process, including all stages involved in the production and dissemination of the Index. The Index Sponsor also is responsible for the manner in which the Index is calculated and constructed, and is the final authority on the Index and the interpretation and application of this Description. Notwithstanding that the Index relies on information from third party sources, the Index Sponsor has primary responsibility for all aspects of the Index administration and determination process.

Although the Index Sponsor will obtain information for inclusion in or for use in the calculation of the Index from sources which the Index Sponsor considers reliable, the Index Sponsor will not independently verify such information and does not guarantee the accuracy and/or the completeness of the Index or any data included therein.

The Index Sponsor is not acting as a manager or an investment advisor in relation to the Index and has no relationship of agency or trust or any fiduciary duty to any person in respect of the Index and is not required to take the interests of any person into account in making any determination or calculation in relation to the Index.

The Index Sponsor makes no warranty or representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

No Financial Product is sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by MSIP or the Index Sponsor, and neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor makes any express or implied representations or warranties as to (a) the advisability of purchasing or assuming any risk in connection with any Financial Product, (b) the levels at which the Index stands at any particular time on any particular date, (c) the results to be obtained by the issuer or obligor of any Financial Product, or any Financial Product Investor, or any other person or entity from the use of the Index or any data included therein in connection with any licensed rights or for any other use or (d) any other matter. Neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor make any express or implied representations or warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose with respect to the Index or any data included therein.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, and without limiting any of the foregoing, in no event shall MSIP/ or the Index Sponsor have any liability (whether in negligence or otherwise) to any person for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, consequential or any other damages (including lost profits) even if notified of the possibility of such damages.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor accepts any legal liability to any person for publishing or not continuing to publish for any period of time any Index Level at any particular place or any particular time.

MSIP may in its sole and absolute discretion delegate and/or transfer any of its obligations and/or functions in relation to the administration and determination of the Index to one or more third parties as it deems appropriate from time to time. MSIP in exercising such right is not required to take into account the interests of any Financial Product Investors or transactions linked in whole or in part to the Index.

4. Index Calculation Agent

The Index is calculated by MSIP (or any successor thereto) (the "Index Calculation Agent").

The Index Calculation Agent is responsible for compiling and calculating the Index pursuant to this Description. The Index Sponsor retains the discretion to terminate the appointment of the Index Calculation Agent and to appoint an alternative Index Calculation Agent.

Subject as provided by applicable law and regulation, the Index Calculation Agent expressly disclaims all liability for any inaccuracy in calculations and the publication of the Index, the information used for making adjustments to the Index and the actual adjustments, as well as for the quality, accuracy, timeliness or completeness of the information contained in the Index or this Description or for delays, omissions, interruptions in the delivery of the Index or information related to it. No liability to any person shall attach to the Index Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of any powers, duties or discretions.

The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

The Index Calculation Agent's calculations and determinations in relation to the Index shall be binding on all persons in the absence of manifest error. The term "manifest error" as used herein shall mean an error that is plain and obvious and can be identified from the results of the calculation or determination itself without (i) recourse to the underlying data or (ii) any application or re-application of any formulae. No person (whether a Financial Product Investor or otherwise) will be entitled to proceed (and shall be deemed to have agreed to waive proceedings) against the Index Calculation Agent in connection with any such calculations or determinations or any failure to make any calculations or determinations in relation to the Index.

For so long as the Index Calculation Agent constitutes and calculates the Index, the Index Calculation Agent does not accept any liability for loss or damage of any kind (including, without limitation, any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages (including loss of profits)) arising from the use of such information in any such calculation or determination. The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index itself and disclaims all warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or use with respect to the Index or any information in connection with it.

5. *Index Data

The Index is calculated on the basis of publicly available third party data. In particular, the Index will utilise the Index Component Value, the Index Funding Rate and the Funding Rate in respect of each Index Component as published on the relevant Index Component Price Source in respect of such Index Component.

No assurance can be given that any such Index Component Values, Index Funding Rate or Funding Rate will be published on the relevant Index Component Price Source, on the Index Funding Rate Screen Page or on the Funding Rate Screen Page accurately, in a timely manner or at all and the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent have relied on, and will rely on, such Index Component Values and Funding Rate as they are published on the relevant Index Component Price Source or Funding Rate Screen Page. 6.8 Miscellaneous

Each Index Level shall be published by the Index Calculation Agent (rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 being rounded upwards), as set out in Section 7 (Publication).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Index Level is tracked without rounding by the Index Calculation Agent, and all calculations in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) are based on the unrounded Index Level, while the rounded level is disseminated for publication.

The methodology described in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) is subject to the provisions set out in Section 7 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions).

6.9 Index Live Date and Retrospective Calculations

The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent since the Index Live Date on a live basis.

Index performance in respect of the period from (and including) the Index Base Date to (but excluding) the Index Live Date (the "Back-test Period") has been simulated and is not actual performance. Accordingly the Index has been calculated retrospectively by the Index Calculation Agent on a hypothetical basis with the Index having an Index Level equal to the Initial Index Level on the Index Base Date.

The Index was launched by the Index Sponsor on the Index Live Date. The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent for the period from (and including) the Index Base Date. All prospective investors should be aware that any retrospective calculation of the Index means that no actual investment existed at any time during the period of the retrospective calculation and as such, the performance of the Index is purely hypothetical. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a guide to future performance.

The methodology and the strategy used for the calculation and retrospective calculation of the Index have been developed with the advantage of hindsight. In reality, it is not possible to invest with the advantage of hindsight and therefore past performance is purely theoretical.

The market conditions which existed during the Back-test Period are not necessarily representative of the market conditions which may exist in the future. In addition, the market conditions in the Back-test Period do not reflect the effect on the relevant markets of the launch of the Index and of the delivery of exposures to the Index through Financial Products, which may include any hedging by the provider or issuer of such Financial Products. Where the Index has been developed to identify and to monetise a particular opportunity in the relevant markets, it should be noted that corresponding investments made by market participants, including any hedging by the providers of Financial Products, may erode such an opportunity, and therefore the hypothetical Index performance in respect of the Back-test Period may overstate the actual performance of any Financial Product.

7. Publication

Subject to Section 7 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) below, the Index Calculation Agent will make available (i) the Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day as soon as reasonably practicable after 8 am London time (the "Index Publication Time") on the second Index Business Day immediately following such Index Business Day or where, in the sole discretion of the Index Calculation Agent, publication on such Index Business Day is not possible or practicable, the immediately following Index Business Day on the Bloomberg Page or such other source as the Index Sponsor may select from time to time at its reasonable discretion and (ii) details of any adjustments made to the Index as described in Section 7 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) to Financial Product Investors.

Subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor accepts no liability to any person for any publication, suspension of publication or non-publication of the Index Level for any period or in any place.

Any publication described in this Section 7 (Publication) may be restricted, except as otherwise provided by law, by means determined as appropriate for such purpose by the Index Sponsor in its reasonable discretion including, without limitation, restricting access to a limited set of persons in accordance with arrangements agreed between MSIP and such persons.

- (i) substitute any Index Component or the Funding Rate (as applicable) which is affected by such Adjustment Event with a replacement component or rate (as applicable), provided that such replacement has substantially similar characteristics to the affected component or rate (as applicable), having regard to the manner in which the affected component or rate (as applicable) is used in the calculation of the Index (as determined by the Index Sponsor in its sole and absolute discretion) and, if so, will (I) determine the effective date of such substitution and (II) make such adjustment(s) to the terms of the Index as it deems appropriate to account for the effect on the Index of such substitution; and/or
- (ii) provide data from alternative but comparable sources to the Index Calculation Agent, in each case for such period as it determines appropriate;
- (iii) determine that the Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component which is affected by such Adjustment Event in respect of each Index Business Day following the Index Business Day on which such Adjustment Event occurred (the "Relevant Day") shall be equal to the Index Component Value in respect of such Relevant Day;
- (iv) reallocate the portion of the Index exposed to any Index Component which is affected by such Adjustment Event to the cash until the next Index Business Day on which it determines that no Adjustment Event exists (and make such adjustment(s) to the terms of the Index as it deems appropriate to account for the effect on the Index of such reallocation);
- (v) make such determinations and/or adjustments to the terms of the Index as it considers appropriate to determine any part of the Index (including, without limitation, the value of any Index Component) or calculate the Index Level in respect of an Index Business Day; and/or
- (vi) delay calculating and making available the Index Level until the next Index Business Day on which it determines that no Adjustment Event exists; and/or
- (vii) cancel the Index and permanently cease to calculate the Index Level.

9.2 Determinations made by the Index Sponsor in respect of Fund Potential Adjustment Events and Fund Events may have an adverse effect on the value of a Financial Product

Upon the determination by the Index Sponsor that a Fund Potential Adjustment Event has occurred, the Index Sponsor shall determine whether such Fund Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the relevant Fund Interest and, if so, whether the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply, or if an Extraordinary Event has occurred the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply which may, in each case, adversely affect the Index Level and, therefore, the value of a Financial Product.

Fund Potential Adjustment Events include, amongst other things (a) a sub-division, consolidation or re-classification of Fund Interests, (b) an extraordinary dividend, (c) a repurchase by the relevant Fund of the relevant Fund Interests or (d) any event having a dilutive or concentrative effect on the value of the relevant Fund Interest. Fund Events include, amongst other things, (1) a nationalisation of the relevant Fund Interest, (2) the occurrence of one or fund insolvency events, (3) a breach of strategy by the relevant Fund and (4) a force majeure event in respect of the relevant Fund Interests.

9.3 Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process

The Index is calculated on the basis of algorithmic formulas and therefore no discretion can be exercised by the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent in the calculation of the Index. The Index Sponsor will, subject as provided below, employ the methodology set out in this Description to calculate the Index. While the Index Sponsor currently employs this methodology, no assurance can be given that fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances will not arise that would, in the view of the Index Sponsor, necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description.

However, on occasion, there may be situations, outside the pre-defined adjustments and rebalances, which may make an adjustment of the methodology appropriate or necessary to ensure that the Index continues to achieve its objectives. These situations may include fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances that was not anticipated to occur when the Index was launched.

The Index Sponsor may decide that these situations necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description. Any such decision will however be taken in a commercially reasonable manner and exclusively in order to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it was designed to represent in the sole determination of the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent.

The Index Sponsor may make any amendment to this Description (a "Change") which in its determination is not material to Financial Product Investors, including if it is of a formal, minor or technical nature or to correct a manifest error. In this case the Index Sponsor is not required to consult with Financial Product Investors. Details of the Change will be made available by the Index Sponsor in accordance with Section 7 (Publication). For the purposes of determining the materiality of a Change, the Index Sponsor shall consider a change to be material if it may have a potentially material effect on any future level of the Index.

In relation to any Change to this Description other than as described in the immediately preceding paragraph (a "Material Change") the Index Sponsor will give prior notice to Financial Product Investors that a Material Change is proposed. Details of the Material Change will then be available upon request to the Index Sponsor to allow Financial Product Investors to give any comments on the proposed Material Change.

The Index Sponsor is required to give at least ten Index Business Days' notice of a Material Change before making this, provided that it may reduce this notice period to not less than one Index Business Day in the case of a Material Change which is required to ensure that the Index may be fully hedged on an effective basis by or on behalf of any member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Modifications or adjustments which the Index Sponsor may make include, without limitation, amendments to the methodology, and substitution or removal of underlying Index Components from the Index, which, in each case, may have a negative impact on the performance of the Index.

Any comments from Financial Product Investors and the Index Sponsor's responses to these will be made accessible to Financial Product Investors upon request to the Index Sponsor, except where the comment provider has requested confidentiality. However any such comments and responses may not be available prior to the Material Change being made.

Subject as provided in the MS Benchmark Statement, if any modification or adjustment is made to the composition or calculation of the Index in accordance with Section 9.3 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process), the Index Sponsor will make such modifications or adjustments based on market conditions and other relevant factors as in the judgment of the Index Sponsor are necessary to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it is designed to represent.

9.4 Consequences of Fund Events

If the Index Sponsor determines that a Fund Event has occurred in respect of a Fund (a "Relevant Fund"), then the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply. Any such adjustments made in accordance with the foregoing may include adjustments to account for the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund instead of the Underlying Fund Price and, if relevant, an amount determined by the Index Sponsor in respect of interest (compounded on a daily basis) on the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund accrued at an overnight rate relating to the Index Currency selected by the Index Sponsor from (and including) the date on which any replacement of the Relevant Fund is effective.

Where it is required to determine a valuation of the Relevant Fund for the purposes of this Section 9.4 (Consequences of Fund Events) by reference to the Underlying Fund Price of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund, the Index Sponsor shall determine the mechanics for calculating such valuation of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund (which valuation may be zero) by reference to such sources as it considers appropriate including, but not limited to, the value that a third party on arms' length terms would be willing to pay for the transfer to it of such Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund (or the portion of a hypothetical derivative contract in so far as it relates to the Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund and does not take into account the creditworthiness of any party thereto).

10. Errors and Corrections

If:

- (i) any Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component or other variable, input or other parameter that is used to calculate the Index is subsequently changed or corrected and the change or correction is published by the relevant Index Component Price Source or other data source (as applicable); or
- (ii) the Index Calculation Agent identifies an error or omission in any of its calculations or determinations with respect to the Index Level in respect of any Index Business Day (including, without limitation, following an incorrect implementation of the methodology set out in this Description, an error in data entry, or a manual or system error),

then, in each case, the Index Sponsor may correct and restate any published Index Level in respect of any relevant Index Business Day (including, without limitation, a correction and restatement of the Index Level published for any relevant Index Business Day with retrospective effect) and/or each subsequent Index Business Day. Upon the occurrence of such event, the Index Calculation Agent shall inform the Index Sponsor and MSIP promptly.

The Index Sponsor will determine whether such error requires a change in the composition or calculation of the Index and, if so, the procedures under Section 9.3 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process) will apply.

11. Governance

Morgan Stanley has adopted the "Principles for Financial Benchmarks" published by the International Organization of Securities Commissions ("IOSCO") on 17 July 2013 (the "Principles") on a proportionate basis.

The Index and this Description have been approved in accordance with and are subject to the internal governance procedures implemented by Morgan Stanley in compliance with the Principles and managed by an internal oversight committee (the "Index Committee").

The functions of calculation and valuation of the Index on each Index Business Day, as described in this Description, are carried out by a separate team at Morgan Stanley which is organisationally independent from the Index Sponsor.

The remuneration of the team which carries out the function of the Index Calculation Agent is not linked to the performance of the Index.

12. Discontinuation

Notwithstanding Section 7 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), the Index Sponsor may, in its sole discretion, after consultation with the Index Committee (except where, in the circumstances set out under (iii) below, such consultation is not possible), discontinue calculating and publishing the Index at any time upon the occurrence of any of the following:

- (i) as outlined in Section 7 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), as the result of an Adjustment Event;
- (ii) the Index Sponsor and/or, where no successor to it is available in the determination of the Index Sponsor, the Index Calculation Agent terminates its index/strategy publication or calculation (as applicable) business;
- (iii) the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent is subject to a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or institutes or has instituted against it, by a regulator, supervisor or other similar official, a proceeding seeking a judgment of insolvency or bankruptcy or other similar;
- (iv) subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor determines that it shall no longer continue to publish the Index; and/or
- (v) the Index Sponsor determines in its sole and absolute discretion that the Index is or will be no longer representative of the economic reality it was intended to measure.

Upon any such discontinuance, the Index Sponsor will use commercially reasonable efforts to publicly announce such discontinuance as soon as is reasonably practicable prior to the effective date.

The Index Sponsor shall determine if a commercially reasonable alternative index, the sponsor of which is a member of the Morgan Stanley Group, is available for use as an alternative to the Index and, to the extent reasonably possible, it shall maintain the original Index in existence in order to facilitate an orderly transition to the alternative index.

OVERVIEW of the MS 12% Risk Control ER Index linked to Nordic Multi-Asset Fund

This section provides a narrative, non-technical explanation of the intended investment objective of the Index and its calculation methodology. The information in this section is by way of explanation of information appearing in the Index Rules. The Index is governed by the Index Rules and therefore a full understanding of the Index can only be achieved with a full reading of that section.

What is the Index?

The Index is a rules-based strategy denominated in SEK which aims to provide exposure to a weighted basket of one equity mutual fund, as described below (the "Basket"), whilst maintaining a volatility at or around 12% (the "Target Volatility"). To pursue this objective, the Index implements a daily "Risk Control Mechanism" which adjusts the exposure of the Index in response to the increases or decreases of the volatility of the Basket. When volatility increases, the Index reduces exposure to Basket and invests in a notional, non-interest bearing, cash investment. When the volatility decreases, the Index increases exposure to the Basket, up to a maximum exposure of 150%, and reduces its exposure to cash.

When the Index's exposure to the Basket is higher than 100%, the Index uses a "leveraged" exposure to the underlying funds. Leverage refers to the practice of using debt to amplify potential returns, by allocating more than 100% of the Index to the underlying funds. The maximum leverage the Index can employ is capped at 150%.

Does the Index represent a physical investment in the Basket?

The Index can be described as a "notional" investment in the Basket or as a "synthetic portfolio" as there is no actual asset held in respect of the Index. The Index simply reflects a strategy calculated using the value of a theoretical investment in each of the relevant components.

What does "Excess Return" mean?

The Index is construed as an "Excess Return" asset. This means that the level of the Index is determined net of costs, such as the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the notional assets that make up the Basket. In practical terms, an Excess Return investment represents the returns of a hypothetical investment in an asset, where such investment is funded with borrowed cash, thus incurring running interest. This is to be opposed to a Total Return investment which assumes that such investment is fully funded.

What does "Decrement" mean?

The Index is calculated by deducting a 1.00% per annum* percentage rate (the "Decrement") applied daily pro rata to the Index value. This deduction will impact negatively the performance of the Index over time, meaning that the Index annual performance would be on average 1.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without such deduction.

*Per annum refers to a period of 360 calendar days.

How does the Risk Control Mechanism Work?

The Index targets a volatility at or around 12% by allocating exposure to the Basket based on the realised volatility of the Basket itself. The target weight assigned by the Index to the Basket on any business day is the ratio of 12% to the realised volatility of the Basket. The realised volatility of the Basket is measured using its returns within a 20-business day period ending 2 days prior to the time of calculation.

The realised volatility is a measure of the magnitude of changes in price of a given financial instrument. When the Fund experiences higher volatility, it means greater changes in its price. In such environment, exposure to the Fund can produce unpredictable results. Volatility can anticipate both a decline or a rebound in the Fund. A "volatility target" mechanism aims to achieve a target volatility so that, as volatility increases beyond the target, the Index reduces exposure to the Fund. In practical terms, when exposure to the Fund is reduced, the level of the Index is less sensitive to the volatility of such Fund and therefore will suffer less from a decline in the performance of the Fund. A "volatility target" mechanism can however also hinder the ability to participate in any increase in the value of the Fund when high volatility is associated with underlying value increase.

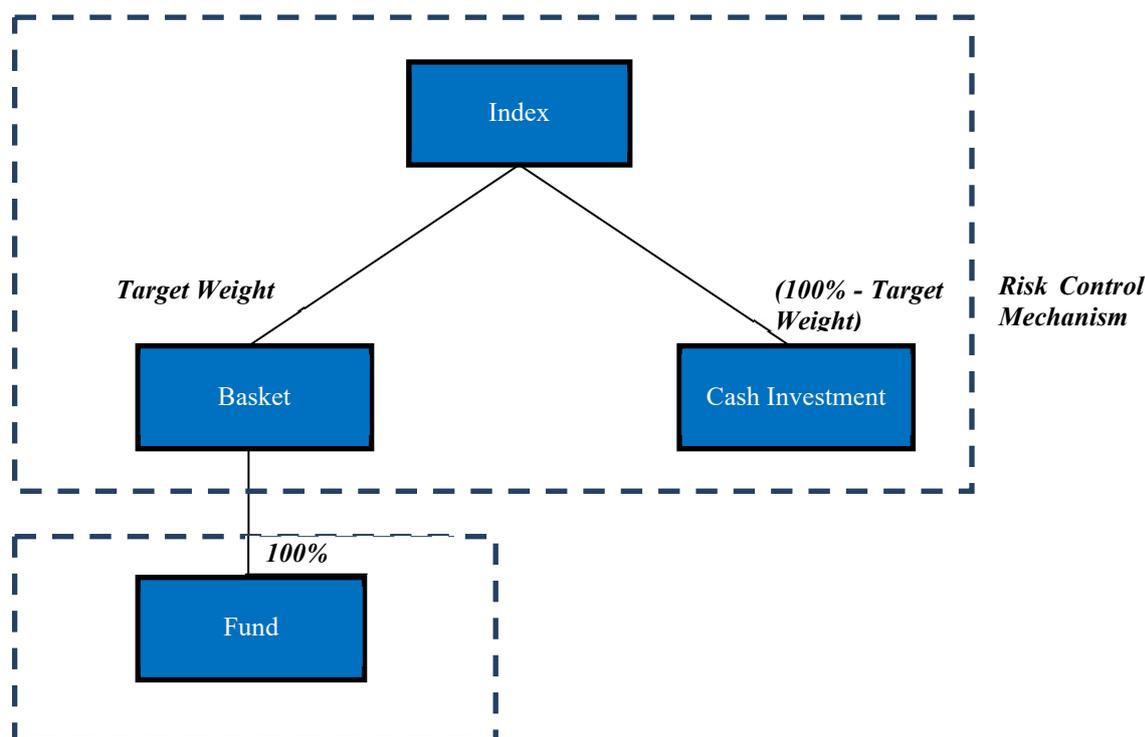

It should be highlighted that the minimum exposure to the Basket is 0% even when the Basket volatility has reached a level higher than the Target Volatility. As a result, exposure to the Basket cannot be negative.

Representation of the Index in Diagram

In the above diagram, the target weight represents the percentage weight assigned by the Index to the Basket which is determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

What impacts the level of the Index?

The main driver of the level of the Index is the performance of the underlying Funds. In general terms, if the Funds increase in value, the Index level will increase as well and vice versa proportionally to the allocation percentage assigned by the Index to such Funds as determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

However, the Index level is impacted by a number of other components as follows:

- The Index is determined by deducting the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the Funds that make up the Basket. This cost is represented by the Stockholm Interbank 3-month rate. The higher the borrowing rates, the lower the performance of the Index. In an environment where borrowing rates are significant, the Index may exhibit material underperformance when compared to a direct investment in the underlying Funds.
- The Index is calculated by deducting a 1.00% per annum decrement percentage rate, which is deducted daily pro rata. This means that the Index annual performance would be on average 1.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without such decrement.

2. Overview

This section provides an overview of a number of features of the Index. There are aspects of the Index to which this section does not refer. Prospective investors should read the entire Description, including (without limitation) the section "Risk Factors and Investment Considerations" under Risk Factor 9.8(i), before making any investment decision. ### Summary

The Index aims to provide exposure to the Index Component and to maintain the volatility of the Index at a specified level through the use of the volatility target mechanism which adjusts the Effective Exposure if the predicted volatility of the Index exceeds the volatility target by a pre-specified trigger threshold.

An Index Level is calculated in relation to each Index Business Day by the Index Calculation Agent. This will be used in connection with one or more Financial Products issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Generally, only a Financial Product issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group is permitted to use or reference the Index (directly or indirectly) but other Financial Products issued or entered into by financial services providers other than members of the Morgan Stanley Group may be permitted to use or reference the Index with the consent of a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. A Financial Product Investor has no ownership or other rights to or in respect of Index Components in its capacity as a Financial Product Investor or any other assets which are from time to time comprised in the Index.

The Index references a "notional" or synthetic exposure to the Index Component and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership. The Index merely identifies the Index Component and a rules-based strategy, the performance of which is used as a reference point for calculating Index Levels.

This Section 3 (Overview) is subject to, and qualified by, the remainder of this Description.

3. Index Sponsor

The Index has been developed by Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc ("MSIP"). The Index is administered by the index sponsor or any successor thereto (the "Index Sponsor"). The initial Index Sponsor is MSIP.

The Index Sponsor controls the creation and operation of the Index administrative process, including all stages involved in the production and dissemination of the Index. The Index Sponsor also is responsible for the manner in which the Index is calculated and constructed, and is the final authority on the Index and the interpretation and application of this Description. Notwithstanding that the Index relies on information from third party sources, the Index Sponsor has primary responsibility for all aspects of the Index administration and determination process.

Although the Index Sponsor will obtain information for inclusion in or for use in the calculation of the Index from sources which the Index Sponsor considers reliable, the Index Sponsor will not independently verify such information and does not guarantee the accuracy and/or the completeness of the Index or any data included therein.

The Index Sponsor is not acting as a manager or an investment advisor in relation to the Index and has no relationship of agency or trust or any fiduciary duty to any person in respect of the Index and is not required to take the interests of any person into account in making any determination or calculation in relation to the Index.

The Index Sponsor makes no warranty or representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

No Financial Product is sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by MSIP or the Index Sponsor, and neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor makes any express or implied representations or warranties as to (a) the advisability of purchasing or assuming any risk in connection with any Financial Product, (b) the levels at which the Index stands at any particular time on any particular date, (c) the results to be obtained by the issuer or obligor of any Financial Product, or any Financial Product Investor, or any other person or entity from the use of the Index or any data included therein in connection with any licensed rights or for any other use or (d) any other matter. Neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor make any express or implied representations or warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose with respect to the Index or any data included therein.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, and without limiting any of the foregoing, in no event shall MSIP/ or the Index Sponsor have any liability (whether in negligence or otherwise) to any person for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, consequential or any other damages (including lost profits) even if notified of the possibility of such damages.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor accepts any legal liability to any person for publishing or not continuing to publish for any period of time any Index Level at any particular place or any particular time.

MSIP may in its sole and absolute discretion delegate and/or transfer any of its obligations and/or functions in relation to the administration and determination of the Index to one or more third parties as it deems appropriate from time to time. MSIP in exercising such right is not required to take into account the interests of any Financial Product Investors or transactions linked in whole or in part to the Index.

4. *Index Calculation Agent

The Index is calculated by MSIP (or any successor thereto) (the “Index Calculation Agent”).

The Index Calculation Agent is responsible for compiling and calculating the Index pursuant to this Description. The Index Sponsor retains the discretion to terminate the appointment of the Index Calculation Agent and to appoint an alternative Index Calculation Agent.

Subject as provided by applicable law and regulation, the Index Calculation Agent expressly disclaims all liability for any inaccuracy in calculations and the publication of the Index, the information used for making adjustments to the Index and the actual adjustments, as well as for the quality, accuracy, timeliness or completeness of the information contained in the Index or this Description or for delays, omissions, interruptions in the delivery of the Index or information related to it. No liability to any person shall attach to the Index Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of any powers, duties or discretions.

The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

The Index Calculation Agent’s calculations and determinations in relation to the Index shall be binding on all persons in the absence of manifest error. The term “manifest error” as used herein shall mean an error that is plain and obvious and can be identified from the results of the calculation or determination itself without (i) recourse to the underlying data or (ii) any application or re-application of any formulae. No person (whether a Financial Product Investor or otherwise) will be entitled to proceed (and shall be deemed to have agreed to waive proceedings) against the Index Calculation Agent in connection with any such calculations or determinations or any failure to make any calculations or determinations in relation to the Index.

For so long as the Index Calculation Agent constitutes and calculates the Index, the Index Calculation Agent does not accept any liability for loss or damage of any kind (including, without limitation, any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages (including loss of profits)) arising from the use of such information in any such calculation or determination. The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index itself and disclaims all warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or use with respect to the Index or any information in connection with it.

5. *Index Data

The Index is calculated on the basis of publicly available third party data. In particular, the Index will utilise the Index Component Value and the Funding Rate in respect of each Index Component as published on the relevant Index Component Price Source in respect of such Index Component.

No assurance can be given that any such Index Component Values or Funding Rate will be published on the relevant Index Component Price Source or on the Funding Rate Screen Page accurately, in a timely manner or at all and the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent have relied on, and will rely on, such Index Component Values and Funding Rate as they are published on the relevant Index Component Price Source or Funding Rate Screen Page. Neither the Index Sponsor nor the Index Calculation Agent has independently verified the information extracted from such sources and accepts no responsibility or liability in respect thereof.

6. Calculation of the Index

6.1 Index Level

The Index Level in respect of the Index Base Date shall be equal to the Initial Index Level.

The Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day (each an “Index Business Day t”) from (but excluding) the Index Base Date shall be an amount, expressed in the Index Currency, calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

max, followed by amounts (or values) inside brackets, means whichever is the greater of the amounts (or values) separate by a semi-colon inside such brackets;

Index Level(t-1) means the Index Level in respect of the Index Business Day immediately preceding Index Business Day t;

Exposure(t-1) means the Exposure in respect of Index Business Day t-1;

Basket(t) means the Basket Mechanism in respect of Index Business Day t;

Basket(t-1) means the Basket Mechanism in respect of the Index Business Day immediately preceding Index Business Day t;

Rate(t-1) means the Funding Rate in respect of the Index Business Day immediately preceding Index Business Day t;

$\Delta t$  means the number of calendar days from (and including) the Index Business Day immediately preceding Index Business Day t to (but excluding) Index Business Day t;

DayCount means 360; and

RunningCost(t) means, in respect of Index Business Day t, an amount calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{RunningCost}(t) = \text{Index Level}(t - 1) \times \left[ \frac{\Delta t}{\text{DayCount}} \times \text{Running Rate} \right]; \text{ and}$$

Running Rate means 2.00 per cent

(a) Calculation of the Exposure

The exposure (the “Exposure”) in respect of an Index Business Day shall be an amount calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula set out below:

IF  $|\text{TheoreticalExposure}(t) - \text{Exposure}(t)| > \text{Threshold}$  THEN

$\text{Exposure}(t) = \text{Theoretical Exposure}(t)$  ELSE

$\text{Exposure}(t) = \text{Exposure}(t - 1)$

Where:

maxExposure means 150 per cent

VolTarget means 13 per cent

Threshold means 5 per cent

Lag means 2

Realised Volatility (t-Lag) means the Realised Volatility in respect of Index Business Day (t-Lag)

(b) Calculation of the Realised Volatility

The Realised Volatility in respect of an Index Business Day shall be an amount calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula set out below:

$$\text{Realised Volatility (t)} = \sqrt{\frac{252}{20} \times \sum_{k=t-19}^t \ln\left(\frac{\text{Basket (k)}}{\text{Basket (k-1)}}\right)^2}$$

(c) Calculation of the Basket Mechanism

The basket mechanism (the “Basket Mechanism”) in respect of an Index Business Day shall be an amount calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Basket}(t) = \text{Spot}(t)$$

Where:

Spot(t) means, in respect of an Index Business Day, the Index Component Value in respect of the Index Component in respect of such Index Business Day.

6.2 Miscellaneous

Each Index Level shall be published by the Index Calculation Agent (rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 being rounded upwards), as set out in Section 8 (Publication).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Index Level is tracked without rounding by the Index Calculation Agent, and all calculations in this Section 7 (Calculation of Index) are based on the unrounded Index Level, while the rounded level is disseminated for publication.

The methodology described in this Section 7 (Calculation of the Index) is subject to the provisions set out in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions).

6.3 Index Live Date and Retrospective Calculations

The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent since the Index Live Date on a live basis.

Index performance in respect of the period from (and including) the Index Base Date to (but excluding) the Index Live Date (the “Back-test Period”) has been simulated and is not actual performance. Accordingly the Index has been calculated retrospectively by the Index Calculation Agent on a hypothetical basis with the Index having an Index Level equal to the Initial Index Level on the Index Base Date.

The Index was launched by the Index Sponsor on the Index Live Date. The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent for the period from (and including) the Index Base Date. All prospective investors should be aware that any retrospective calculation of the Index means that no actual investment existed at any time during the period of the retrospective calculation and as such, the performance of the Index is purely hypothetical. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a guide to future performance.

The methodology and the strategy used for the calculation and retrospective calculation of the Index have been developed with the advantage of hindsight. In reality, it is not possible to invest with the advantage of hindsight and therefore past performance is purely theoretical.

The market conditions which existed during the Back-test Period are not necessarily representative of the market conditions which may exist in the future. In addition, the market conditions in the Back-test Period do not reflect the effect on the relevant markets of the launch of the Index and of the delivery of exposures to the Index through Financial Products, which may include any hedging by the provider or issuer of such Financial Products. Where the Index has been developed to identify and to monetise a particular opportunity in the relevant markets, it should be noted that corresponding investments made by market participants, including any hedging by the providers of Financial Products, may erode such an opportunity, and therefore the hypothetical Index performance in respect of the Back-test Period may overstate the actual performance of any Financial Product.

7. Publication

Subject to Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) below, the Index Calculation Agent will make available (i) the Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day as soon as reasonably practicable after 8 am London time (the “Index Publication Time”) on the second Index Business Day immediately following such Index Business Day or where, in the sole discretion of the Index Calculation Agent, publication on such Index Business Day is not possible or practicable, the immediately following Index Business Day on the Bloomberg Page or such other source as the Index Sponsor may select from time to time at its reasonable discretion and (ii) details of any adjustments made to the Index as described in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) to Financial Product Investors.

Subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor accepts no liability to any person for any publication, suspension of publication or non-publication of the Index Level for any period or in any place.

Any publication described in this Section 8 (Publication) may be restricted, except as otherwise provided by law, by means determined as appropriate for such purpose by the Index Sponsor in its reasonable discretion including, without limitation, restricting access to a limited set of persons in accordance with arrangements agreed between MSIP and such persons.

and, in each case, the determination by the Index Sponsor that (A) such event has had a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of any Fund Interest and (B) if so, that a change in the composition or calculation of the Index is required to account for such diluting or concentrative effect (provided that no adjustments shall be made to account solely for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relative to such Fund Interest).

"Principles" has the meaning given to it in Section 12 (Governance).

"Redemption Notice Date" means, in respect of a Fund Interest, the last date on which a Hypothetical Investor in such Fund Interest would be permitted, pursuant to the Fund Documents of the related Fund, to submit a redemption notice that would be timely for a redemption as a Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date

"Redemption Proceeds" means, in respect of the relevant amount of Fund Interests, the redemption proceeds that in the determination of the Index Sponsor would be paid by the relevant Fund to a Hypothetical Investor who, as of the relevant Redemption Valuation Date, redeems such amount of Fund Interests and (for the avoidance of doubt after deduction of any tax, levy, charge, assessment or fee of any nature that, in the determination of the Index Sponsor, would (or would be very likely to) be withheld or deducted from such amount); provided that (i) any such proceeds that would be paid in property other than cash shall be deemed to have a value of zero and (ii) if the Hypothetical Investor would be entitled to elect payment of such redemption proceeds to be made either in the form of cash or other property, then the Hypothetical Investor shall be deemed to have elected cash payment.

"Redemption Valuation Date" means, in respect of a Fund Interest and any Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date, the date as of which the relevant Fund (or its Fund Service Provider that generally determines such value) determines the net asset value of Fund Interests for purposes of calculating the redemption proceeds to be paid to a Hypothetical Investor that has submitted a valid notice for redemption on or before the related Redemption Notice Date.

"Relevant Fund" has the meaning given to such term in Section 10.3 (Consequences of Fund Events).

"Removal Value" means, in respect of a Relevant Fund and the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund, the value calculated by the Index Sponsor in the same manner as would be used in determining the Underlying Fund Price of Fund Interests in the related Fund. Where the Removal Value is required to be converted into the Index Currency it shall be so converted by the Index Sponsor at such time and by reference to such sources as it deems appropriate.

"Reported Net Asset Value" means, in respect of any Fund Interest and a Fund Reporting Date relating to such Fund Interest, the official net asset value per Fund Interest as of the related Fund Valuation Date or, if the related Fund reports only its aggregate net asset value, the portion of such Fund's aggregate net asset value relating to a Fund Interest as of the related Fund Valuation Date, in each case as reported on the Fund Reporting Date relating to such Fund Valuation Date by the Fund Service Provider that generally reports such value on behalf of the Fund to its investors or a publishing service.

"Scheduled Fund Valuation Date" means, in respect of a Fund Interest, the date as of which the related Fund (or its Fund Service Provider that generally determines such value) is scheduled, according to its Fund Documents (without giving effect to any gating, deferral, suspension or other provisions permitting the Fund to delay or refuse redemption of Fund Interests), to determine the value of such Fund Interest or, if the related Fund only reports its aggregate net asset value, the date as of which such Fund determines its aggregate net asset value.

"Scheduled Redemption Payment Date" means, in respect of a Fund Interest and any Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date, the date by which the related Fund is scheduled to have paid, according to its Fund Documents, all or a specified portion of the Redemption Proceeds to an investor that has submitted a timely and valid notice requesting redemption of such Fund Interest as of such Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date.

"Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date" means, in respect of a Fund Interest and any relevant day, the date as of which the related Fund (or its Fund Service Provider that generally determines such value) is scheduled, according to its Fund Documents (without giving effect to any gating, deferral, suspension or other provisions permitting the Fund to delay or refuse redemption of Fund Interests), to determine the net asset value of such Fund Interest for the purposes of calculating the redemption proceeds to be paid to an investor that has submitted a valid and timely notice for redemption of Fund Interests based on the value determined as of the Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date for which the Scheduled Redemption Payment Date falls on or immediately prior to such day.

"Successor Source" means, in relation to any display page, other published source, information vendor or provider:

- (i) the successor display page, other published source, information vendor or provider that has been officially designated by the sponsor of the original page or source; or
- (ii) if the sponsor of the original page or source has not officially designated a successor display page, other published source, service or provider (as the case may be), the successor display page, other published source, service or provider, if any, designated by the relevant information vendor or provider (if different from such sponsor).

"TARGET2 Settlement Day" means a day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-time Gross Settlement Express Transfer system (TARGET2) is open.

"Termination of Data Licence" means the occurrence of a termination, revocation or suspension of any third-party license agreement or permission pursuant to which data is supplied to compile or calculate the Index.

"Theoretical Exposure" has the meaning given to it in Section 7.1.3.

"Underlying Fund Disrupted Day" means, in respect of a Fund, any day on which an Underlying Fund Disruption Event has occurred or is continuing.

"Underlying Fund Disruption Event" means, in respect of a Fund, any of the following events:

- (i) in respect of any Fund Interest, the failure of (i) an Index Business Day to be a Fund Valuation Date or any continued postponement or suspension of such Fund Valuation Date; and/or (ii) there to be a Fund Reporting Date and/or Reported Net Asset Value relating to the relevant Fund Valuation Date;
- (ii) in respect of any Fund Interest (a) there is a failure by the Fund to pay the full amount (whether expressed as a percentage or otherwise) of the Redemption Proceeds in the Fund Interest Currency with respect to the relevant amount of such Fund Interest scheduled to have been paid on or by such day according to the Fund Documents (without giving effect to any gating, deferral, suspension or other provisions permitting the Fund to delay or refuse redemption of such Fund Interests) or (b) a Hypothetical Investor which had submitted a valid redemption notice in respect of such Fund Interest on the last date permitted pursuant to the relevant Fund Documents would, in the reasonable opinion of the Index Sponsor, not have received in full the Redemption Proceeds in respect of such redemption(s) on or before the date it was scheduled to do so in accordance with the Fund Documents; and/or
- (iii) any closure other than for ordinary public holidays and/or any restriction or suspension in trading of foreign exchange markets or money markets in a relevant Fund Interest Currency or Index Currency that, in the opinion of the Index Sponsor, would have a material effect on the ability market participants to effect transactions in such markets, provided that if any event would otherwise be both an Underlying Fund Disruption Event and Fund Event, such event shall be treated solely as a Fund Event.

"Underlying Fund Exchange" means, in respect of a Fund Interest, the principal exchange or quotation system for such Fund Interest, as determined by the Index Sponsor, and any successor to such exchange or quotation system or any substitute exchange or quotation system to which such Fund Interest have temporarily relocated.

“Underlying Fund Price” means, in respect of a Fund Interest and the Underlying Fund Valuation Time on any relevant day, the Reported Net Asset Value of such Fund Interest for the related Fund Valuation Date falling on such day.

9. Adjustment Provisions

9.1 Adjustment Events

Subject as provided in Section 10.2 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process), if the Index Sponsor determines in its reasonable discretion that an Adjustment Event has occurred or may occur, the Index Sponsor may act in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner:

- (i) substitute any Index Component or the Funding Rate (as applicable) which is affected by such Adjustment Event with a replacement component or rate (as applicable), provided that such replacement has substantially similar characteristics to the affected component or rate (as applicable), having regard to the manner in which the affected component or rate (as applicable) is used in the calculation of the Index (as determined by the Index Sponsor in its sole and absolute discretion) and, if so, will (I) determine the effective date of such substitution and (II) make such adjustment(s) to the terms of the Index as it deems appropriate to account for the effect on the Index of such substitution; and/or
- (ii) provide data from alternative but comparable sources to the Index Calculation Agent, in each case for such period as it determines appropriate;
- (iii) determine that the Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component which is affected by such Adjustment Event in respect of each Index Business Day following the Index Business Day on which such Adjustment Event occurred (the “Relevant Day”) shall be equal to the Index Component value in respect of such Relevant Day;
- (iv) make such determinations and/or adjustments to the terms of the Index as it considers appropriate to determine any part of the Index (including, without limitation, the value of any Index Component) or calculate the Index Level in respect of an Index Business Day; and/or
- (v) delay calculating and making available the Index Level until the next Index Business Day on which it determines that no Adjustment Event exists; and/or
- (vi) cancel the Index and permanently cease to calculate the Index Level.

9.2 Determinations made by the Index Sponsor in respect of Fund Potential Adjustment Events and Fund Events may have an adverse effect on the value of a Financial Product

Upon the determination by the Index Sponsor that a Fund Potential Adjustment Event has occurred, the Index Sponsor shall determine whether such Fund Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the relevant Fund Interest and, if so, whether the procedures under Section 10.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply, or if an Extraordinary Event has occurred the procedures under Section 10.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply which may, in each case, adversely affect the Index Level and, therefore, the value of a Financial Product.

Fund Potential Adjustment Events include, amongst other things (a) a sub-division, consolidation or re-classification of Fund Interests, (b) an extraordinary dividend, (c) a repurchase by the relevant Fund of the relevant Fund Interests or (d) any event having a dilutive or concentrative effect on the value of the relevant Fund Interest. Fund Events include, amongst other things, (1) a nationalisation of the relevant Fund Interest, (2) the occurrence of one or more fund insolvency events, (3) a breach of strategy by the relevant Fund and (4) a force majeure event in respect of the relevant Fund Interests.

9.3 Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process

The Index is calculated on the basis of algorithmic formulas and therefore no discretion can be exercised by the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent in the calculation of the Index. The Index Sponsor will, subject as provided below, employ the methodology set out in this Description to calculate the Index.

However, on occasion, there may be situations, outside the pre-defined adjustments and rebalances, which may make an adjustment of the methodology appropriate or necessary to ensure that the Index continues to achieve its objectives. These situations may include fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances that was not anticipated to occur when the Index was launched.

The Index Sponsor may decide that these situations necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description. Any such decision will however be taken in a commercially reasonable manner and exclusively in order to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it was designed to represent in the sole determination of the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent.

The Index Sponsor may make any amendment to this Description (a “Change”) which in its determination is not material to Financial Product Investors, including if it is of a formal, minor or technical nature or to correct a manifest error. In this case the Index Sponsor is not required to consult with Financial Product Investors. Details of the Change will be made available by the Index Sponsor in accordance with Section 8 (Publication). For the purposes of determining the materiality of a Change, the Index Sponsor shall consider a change to be material if it may have a potentially material effect on any future level of the Index.

In relation to any Change to this Description other than as described in the immediately preceding paragraph (a “Material Change”) the Index Sponsor will give prior notice to Financial Product Investors that a Material Change is proposed. Details of the Material Change will then be available upon request to the Index Sponsor to allow Financial Product Investors to give any comments on the proposed Material Change.

The Index Sponsor is required to give at least ten Index Business Days’ notice of a Material Change before making this, provided that it may reduce this notice period to not less than one Index Business Day in the case of a Material Change which is required to ensure that the Index may be fully hedged on an effective basis by or on behalf of any member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Modifications or adjustments which the Index Sponsor may make include, without limitation, amendments to the methodology, and substitution or removal of underlying Index Components from the Index, which, in each case, may have a negative impact on the performance of the Index.

Any comments from Financial Product Investors and the Index Sponsor's responses to these will be made accessible to Financial Product Investors upon request to the Index Sponsor, except where the comment provider has requested confidentiality. However any such comments and responses may not be available prior to the Material Change being made.

Subject as provided in the MS Benchmark Statement, if any modification or adjustment is made to the composition or calculation of the Index in accordance with Section 10.2 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process), the Index Sponsor will make such modifications or adjustments based on market conditions and other relevant factors as in the judgment of the Index Sponsor are necessary to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it is designed to represent.

9.4 Consequences of Fund Events

If the Index Sponsor determines that a Fund Event has occurred in respect of a Fund (a “Relevant Fund”), then the procedures under Section 10.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply. Any such adjustments made in accordance with the foregoing may include adjustments to account for the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund instead of the Underlying Fund Price and, if relevant, an amount determined by the Index Sponsor in respect of interest (compounded on a daily basis) on the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund accrued at an overnight rate relating to the Index Currency selected by the Index Sponsor from (and including) the date on which any replacement of the Relevant Fund is effective.

Where it is required to determine a valuation of the Relevant Fund for the purposes of this Section 10.3 (Consequences of Fund Events) by reference to the Underlying Fund Price of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund, the Index Sponsor shall determine the mechanics for calculating such valuation of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund (which valuation may be zero) by reference to such sources as it considers appropriate including, but not limited to, the value that a third party on arms’ length terms would be willing to pay for the transfer to it of such Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund (or the portion of a hypothetical derivative contract in so far as it relates to the Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund and does not take into account the creditworthiness of any party thereto).

10. Errors and Corrections

If:

- (i) any Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component or other variable, input or other parameter that is used to calculate the Index is subsequently changed or corrected and the change or correction is published by the relevant Index Component Price Source or other data source (as applicable); or
- (ii) the Index Calculation Agent identifies an error or omission in any of its calculations or determinations with respect to the Index Level in respect of any Index Business Day (including, without limitation, following an incorrect implementation of the methodology set out in this Description, an error in data entry, or a manual or system error),

then, in each case, the Index Sponsor may correct and restate any published Index Level in respect of any relevant Index Business Day (including, without limitation, a correction and restatement of the Index Level published for any relevant Index Business Day with retrospective effect) and/or each subsequent Index Business Day. Upon the occurrence of such event, the Index Calculation Agent shall inform the Index Sponsor and MSIP promptly.

The Index Sponsor will determine whether such error requires a change in the composition or calculation of the Index and, if so, the procedures under Section 10.2 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process) will apply.

11. Governance

Morgan Stanley has adopted the “Principles for Financial Benchmarks” published by the International Organization of Securities Commissions (“IOSCO”) on 17 July 2013 (the “Principles”) on a proportionate basis.

The Index and this Description have been approved in accordance with and are subject to the internal governance procedures implemented by Morgan Stanley in compliance with the Principles and managed by an internal oversight committee (the “Index Committee”).

The functions of calculation and valuation of the Index on each Index Business Day, as described in this Description, are carried out by a separate team at Morgan Stanley which is organisationally independent from the Index Sponsor.

The remuneration of the team which carries out the function of the Index Calculation Agent is not linked to the performance of the Index.

12. Discontinuation

Notwithstanding Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), the Index Sponsor may, in its sole discretion, after consultation with the Index Committee (except where, in the circumstances set out under (iii) below, such consultation is not possible), discontinue calculating and publishing the Index at any time upon the occurrence of any of the following:

- (i) as outlined in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), as the result of an Adjustment Event;
- (ii) the Index Sponsor and/or, where no successor to it is available in the determination of the Index Sponsor, the Index Calculation Agent terminates its index/strategy publication or calculation (as applicable) business;
- (iii) the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent is subject to a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or institutes or has instituted against it, by a regulator, supervisor or other similar official, a proceeding seeking a judgment of insolvency or bankruptcy or other similar;
- (iv) subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor determines that it shall no longer continue to publish the Index; and/or
- (v) the Index Sponsor determines in its sole and absolute discretion that the Index is or will be no longer representative of the economic reality it was intended to measure.

Upon any such discontinuance, the Index Sponsor will use commercially reasonable efforts to publicly announce such discontinuance as soon as is reasonably practicable prior to the effective date.

The Index Sponsor shall determine if a commercially reasonable alternative index, the sponsor of which is a member of the Morgan Stanley Group, is available for use as an alternative to the Index and, to the extent reasonably possible, it shall maintain the original Index in existence in order to facilitate an orderly transition to the alternative index.

OVERVIEW OF THE MS NORDIC EQUITY FUND 13% INDEX

This section provides a narrative, non-technical explanation of the intended investment objective of the Index and its calculation methodology. The information in this section is by way of explanation of information appearing in the Index Rules. The Index is governed by the Index Rules and therefore a full understanding of the Index can only be achieved with a full reading of that section.

What is the Index?

The Index is a rules-based strategy denominated in SEK which aims to provide exposure to a weighted basket of one equity mutual fund, as described below (the “Basket”), whilst maintaining a volatility at or around 13% (the “Target Volatility”). To pursue this objective, the Index implements a daily “Risk Control Mechanism” which adjusts the exposure of the Index in response to the increases or decreases of the volatility of the Basket. When volatility increases, the Index reduces exposure to Basket and invests in a notional, non-interest bearing, cash investment. When the volatility decreases, the Index increases exposure to the Basket, up to a maximum exposure of 150%, and reduces its exposure to cash.

When the Index’s exposure to the Basket is higher than 100%, the Index uses a “leveraged” exposure to the underlying funds. Leverage refers to the practice of using debt to amplify potential returns, by allocating more than 100% of the Index to the underlying funds. The maximum leverage the Index can employ is capped at 150%.

Does the Index represent a physical investment in the Basket?

The Index can be described as a “notional” investment in the Basket or as a “synthetic portfolio” as there is no actual asset held in respect of the Index. The Index simply reflects a strategy calculated using the value of a theoretical investment in each of the relevant components.

What does “Excess Return” mean?

The Index is construed as an “Excess Return” asset. This means that the level of the Index is determined net of costs, such as the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the notional assets that make up the Basket. In practical terms, an Excess Return investment represents the returns of a hypothetical investment in an asset, where such investment is funded with borrowed cash, thus incurring running interest. This is to be opposed to a Total Return investment which assumes that such investment is fully funded.

What does “Running Rate” mean?

The Index is calculated by deducting a 2.00% per annum* percentage rate (the “Running Rate”) applied daily pro rata to the Index value. This deduction will impact negatively the performance of the Index over time, meaning that the Index annual performance would be on average 2.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without such deduction.

*Per annum refers to a period of 360 calendar days.

How does the Risk Control Mechanism Work?

The Index targets a volatility at or around 13% by allocating exposure to the Basket based on the realised volatility of the Basket itself. The target weight assigned by the Index to the Basket on any business day is the ratio of 13% to the realised volatility of the Basket. The realised volatility of the Basket is measured using its returns within a 20-business day period ending 2 days prior to the time of calculation.

The realised volatility is a measure of the magnitude of changes in price of a given financial instrument. When the Fund experiences higher volatility, it means greater changes in its price. In such environment, exposure to the Fund can produce unpredictable results. Volatility can anticipate both a decline or a rebound in the Fund. A “volatility target” mechanism aims to achieve a target volatility so that, as volatility increases beyond the target, the Index reduces exposure to the Fund. In practical terms, when exposure to the Fund is reduced, the level of the Index is less sensitive to the volatility of such Fund and therefore will suffer less from a decline in the performance of the Fund. A “volatility target” mechanism can however also hinder the ability to participate in any increase in the value of the Fund when high volatility is associated with underlying value increase.

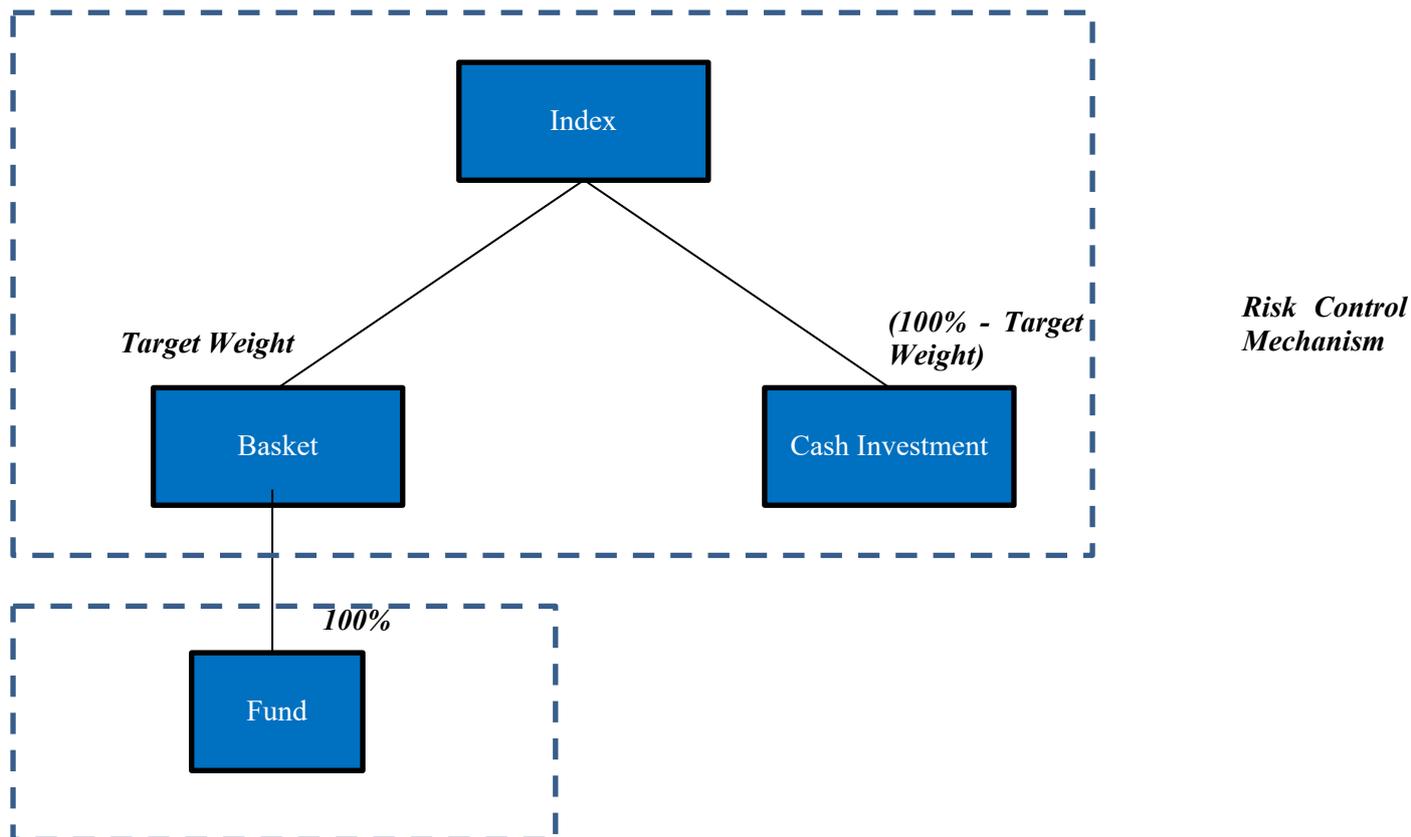

It should be highlighted that the minimum exposure to the Basket is 0% even when the Basket volatility has reached a level higher than the Target Volatility. As a result, exposure to the Basket cannot be negative.

Representation of the Index in Diagram

In the above diagram, the target weight represents the percentage weight assigned by the Index to the Basket which is determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

What impacts the level of the Index?

The main driver of the level of the Index is the performance of the underlying Funds. In general terms, if the Funds increase in value, the Index level will increase as well and vice versa proportionally to the allocation percentage assigned by the Index to such Funds as determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

However, the Index level is impacted by a number of other components as follows:

- The Index is determined by deducting the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the Funds that make up the Basket. This cost is represented by the Stockholm Interbank 3-month rate. The higher the borrowing rates, the lower the performance of the Index. In an environment where borrow rates are significant, the Index may exhibit material underperformance when compared to a direct investment in the underlying Funds.

Description of the MS Index Rules – MS Nordic Equity Fund 13% Index

- The Index is calculated by deducting a 2.00% per annum Running Rate percentage rate, which is deducted daily pro rata. This means that the Index annual performance would be on average 2.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without such Running Rate.

Simulated Historical Track Record of the Index

2. Overview

This section provides an overview of a number of features of the Index. There are aspects of the Index to which this section does not refer. Prospective investors should read the entire Description, including (without limitation) the section "Risk Factors and Investment Considerations" under Risk Factor 9.8(i), before making any investment decision. Capitalised terms not otherwise defined shall have the meaning given to them elsewhere in this Description.

Summary

The Index aims to provide exposure to the Index Components and to maintain the volatility of the Index at a specified level through the use of the volatility target mechanism which adjusts the Effective Exposure if the predicted volatility of the Index exceeds the volatility target by a pre-specified trigger threshold.

An Index Level is calculated in relation to each Index Business Day by the Index Calculation Agent. This will be used in connection with one or more Financial Products issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Generally, only a Financial Product issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group is permitted to use or reference the Index (directly or indirectly) but other Financial Products issued or entered into by financial services providers other than members of the Morgan Stanley Group may be permitted to use or reference the Index with the consent of a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. A Financial Product Investor has no ownership or other rights to or in respect of Index Components in its capacity as a Financial Product Investor or any other assets which are from time to time comprised in the Index.

The Index references a "notional" or synthetic exposure to the Index Component and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership. The Index merely identifies the Index Component and a rules-based strategy, the performance of which is used as a reference point for calculating Index Levels.

This Section 2 (Overview) is subject to, and qualified by, the remainder of this Description.

3. Index Sponsor

The Index has been developed by Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc ("MSIP"). The Index is administered by the index sponsor or any successor thereto (the "Index Sponsor"). The initial Index Sponsor is MSIP.

Each Index Level shall be published by the Index Calculation Agent (rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 being rounded upwards), as set out in Section 7 (Publication).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Index Level is tracked without rounding by the Index Calculation Agent, and all calculations in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) are based on the unrounded Index Level, while the rounded level is disseminated for publication.

The methodology described in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) is subject to the provisions set out in Section 9 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions).

6.9 Index Live Date and Retrospective Calculations

The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent since the Index Live Date on a live basis.

Index performance in respect of the period from (and including) the Index Base Date to (but excluding) the Index Live Date (the "Back-test Period") has been simulated and is not actual performance.

Accordingly the Index has been calculated retrospectively by the Index Calculation Agent on a hypothetical basis with the Index having an Index Level equal to the Initial Index Level on the Index Base Date.

The Index was launched by the Index Sponsor on the Index Live Date. The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent for the period from (and including) the Index Base Date. All prospective investors should be aware that any retrospective calculation of the Index means that no actual investment existed at any time during the period of the retrospective calculation and as such, the performance of the Index is purely hypothetical. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a guide to future performance.

The methodology and the strategy used for the calculation and retrospective calculation of the Index have been developed with the advantage of hindsight. In reality, it is not possible to invest with the advantage of hindsight and therefore past performance is purely theoretical.

The market conditions which existed during the Back-test Period are not necessarily representative of the market conditions which may exist in the future. In addition, the market conditions in the Back-test Period do not reflect the effect on the relevant markets of the launch of the Index and of the delivery of exposures to the Index through Financial Products, which may include any hedging by the provider or issuer of such Financial Products. Where the Index has been developed to identify and to monetise a particular opportunity in the relevant markets, it should be noted that corresponding investments made by market participants, including any hedging by the providers of Financial Products, may erode such an opportunity, and therefore the hypothetical Index performance in respect of the Back-test Period may overstate the actual performance of any Financial Product.

7. Publication

Subject to Section 9 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) below, the Index Calculation Agent will make available (i) the Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day as soon as reasonably practicable after 8 am London time (the "Index Publication Time") on the second Index Business Day immediately following such Index Business Day or where, in the sole discretion of the Index Calculation Agent, publication on such Index Business Day is not possible or practicable, the immediately following Index Business Day on the Bloomberg Page or such other source as the Index Sponsor may select from time to time at its reasonable discretion and (ii) details of any adjustments made to the Index as described in Section 9 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) to Financial Product Investors.

Subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor accepts no liability to any person for any publication, suspension of publication or non-publication of the Index Level for any period or in any place.

Any publication described in this Section 7 (Publication) may be restricted, except as otherwise provided by law, by means determined as appropriate for such purpose by the Index Sponsor in its reasonable discretion including, without limitation, restricting access to a limited set of persons in accordance with arrangements agreed between MSIP and such persons.

9.3 Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process

The Index is calculated on the basis of algorithmic formulas and therefore no discretion can be exercised by the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent in the calculation of the Index. The Index Sponsor will, subject as provided below, employ the methodology set out in this Description to calculate the Index. While the Index Sponsor currently employs this methodology, no assurance can be given that fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances will not arise that would, in the view of the Index Sponsor, necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description.

However, on occasion, there may be situations, outside the pre-defined adjustments and rebalances, which may make an adjustment of the methodology appropriate or necessary to ensure that the Index continues to achieve its objectives. These situations may include fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances that was not anticipated to occur when the Index was launched.

The Index Sponsor may decide that these situations necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description. Any such decision will however be taken in a commercially reasonable manner and exclusively in order to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it was designed to represent in the sole determination of the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent.

The Index Sponsor may make any amendment to this Description (a "Change") which in its determination is not material to Financial Product Investors, including if it is of a formal, minor or technical nature or to correct a manifest error. In this case the Index Sponsor is not required to consult with Financial Product Investors. Details of the Change will be made available by the Index Sponsor in accordance with Section 7 (Publication). For the purposes of determining the materiality of a Change, the Index Sponsor shall consider a change to be material if it may have a potentially material effect on any future level of the Index.

In relation to any Change to this Description other than as described in the immediately preceding paragraph (a "Material Change") the Index Sponsor will give prior notice to Financial Product Investors that a Material Change is proposed. Details of the Material Change will then be available upon request to the Index Sponsor to allow Financial Product Investors to give any comments on the proposed Material Change.

The Index Sponsor is required to give at least ten Index Business Days' notice of a Material Change before making this, provided that it may reduce this notice period to not less than one Index Business Day in the case of a Material Change which is required to ensure that the Index may be fully hedged on an effective basis by or on behalf of any member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Modifications or adjustments which the Index Sponsor may make include, without limitation, amendments to the methodology, and substitution or removal of underlying Index Components from the Index, which, in each case, may have a negative impact on the performance of the Index.

Any comments from Financial Product Investors and the Index Sponsor's responses to these will be made accessible to Financial Product Investors upon request to the Index Sponsor, except where the comment provider has requested confidentiality. However any such comments and responses may not be available prior to the Material Change being made.

Subject as provided in the MS Benchmark Statement, if any modification or adjustment is made to the composition or calculation of the Index in accordance with Section 9.3 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process), the Index Sponsor will make such modifications or adjustments based on market conditions and other relevant factors as in the judgment of the Index Sponsor are necessary to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it is designed to represent.

9.4 Consequences of Fund Events

If the Index Sponsor determines that a Fund Event has occurred in respect of a Fund (a "Relevant Fund"), then the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply. Any such adjustments made in accordance with the foregoing may include adjustments to account for the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund instead of the Underlying Fund Price and, if relevant, an amount determined by the Index Sponsor in respect of interest (compounded on a daily basis) on the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund accrued at an overnight rate relating to the Index Currency selected by the Index Sponsor from (and including) the date on which any replacement of the Relevant Fund is effective.

Where it is required to determine a valuation of the Relevant Fund for the purposes of this Section 9.4 (Consequences of Fund Events) by reference to the Underlying Fund Price of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund, the Index Sponsor shall determine the mechanics for calculating such valuation of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund (which valuation may be zero) by reference to such sources as it considers appropriate including, but not limited to, the value that a third party on arms' length terms would be willing to pay for the transfer to it of such Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund (or the portion of a hypothetical derivative contract in so far as it relates to the Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund and does not take into account the creditworthiness of any party thereto).

10. Errors and Corrections

If:

- (i) any Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component or other variable, input or other parameter that is used to calculate the Index is subsequently changed or corrected and the change or correction is published by the relevant Index Component Price Source or other data source (as applicable); or
- (ii) the Index Calculation Agent identifies an error or omission in any of its calculations or determinations with respect to the Index Level in respect of any Index Business Day (including, without limitation, following an incorrect implementation of the methodology set out in this Description, an error in data entry, or a manual or system error),

then, in each case, the Index Sponsor may correct and restate any published Index Level in respect of any relevant Index Business Day (including, without limitation, a correction and restatement of the Index Level published for any relevant Index Business Day with retrospective effect) and/or each subsequent Index Business Day. Upon the occurrence of such event, the Index Calculation Agent shall inform the Index Sponsor and MSIP promptly.

The Index Sponsor will determine whether such error requires a change in the composition or calculation of the Index and, if so, the procedures under Section 9.3 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process) will apply.

11. Governance

Morgan Stanley has adopted the "Principles for Financial Benchmarks" published by the International Organization of Securities Commissions ("IOSCO") on 17 July 2013 (the "Principles") on a proportionate basis.

The Index and this Description have been approved in accordance with and are subject to the internal governance procedures implemented by Morgan Stanley in compliance with the Principles and managed by an internal oversight committee (the "Index Committee").

The functions of calculation and valuation of the Index on each Index Business Day, as described in this Description, are carried out by a separate team at Morgan Stanley which is organisationally independent from the Index Sponsor.

The remuneration of the team which carries out the function of the Index Calculation Agent is not linked to the performance of the Index.

12. Discontinuation

Notwithstanding Section 9 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), the Index Sponsor may, in its sole discretion, after consultation with the Index Committee (except where, in the circumstances set out under (iii) below, such consultation is not possible), discontinue calculating and publishing the Index at any time upon the occurrence of any of the following:

- (i) as outlined in Section 9 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), as the result of an Adjustment Event;
- (ii) the Index Sponsor and/or, where no successor to it is available in the determination of the Index Sponsor, the Index Calculation Agent terminates its index/strategy publication or calculation (as applicable) business;
- (iii) the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent is subject to a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or institutes or has instituted against it, by a regulator, supervisor or other similar official, a proceeding seeking a judgment of insolvency or bankruptcy or other similar;
- (iv) subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor determines that it shall no longer continue to publish the Index; and/or
- (v) the Index Sponsor determines in its sole and absolute discretion that the Index is or will be no longer representative of the economic reality it was intended to measure.

Upon any such discontinuance, the Index Sponsor will use commercially reasonable efforts to publicly announce such discontinuance as soon as is reasonably practicable prior to the effective date.

The Index Sponsor shall determine if a commercially reasonable alternative index, the sponsor of which is a member of the Morgan Stanley Group, is available for use as an alternative to the Index and, to the extent reasonably possible, it shall maintain the original Index in existence in order to facilitate an orderly transition to the alternative index.

OVERVIEW OF THE MS 13% RISK CONTROL ER INDEX LINKED TO NORDIC DIVERSIFIED EQUITIES FUND

This section provides a narrative, non-technical explanation of the intended investment objective of the Index and its calculation methodology. The information in this section is by way of explanation of information appearing in the Index Rules. The Index is governed by the Index Rules and therefore a full understanding of the Index can only be achieved with a full reading of that section.

What is the Index?

The Index is a rules-based strategy denominated in SEK which aims to provide exposure to one equity mutual fund, as described below (the "Fund"), whilst maintaining a volatility at or around 13% (the "Target Volatility"). To pursue this objective, the Index implements a daily "Risk Control Mechanism" which adjusts the exposure of the Index in response to the increases or decreases of the volatility of the Fund. When volatility increases, the Index reduces exposure to Basket and invests in a notional, non-interest bearing, cash investment. When the volatility decreases, the Index increases exposure to the Fund, up to a maximum exposure of 200%, and reduces its exposure to cash.

When the Index's exposure to the Fund is higher than 100%, the Index uses a "leveraged" exposure to the underlying fund. Leverage refers to the practice of using debt to amplify potential returns, by allocating more than 100% of the Index to the underlying fund. The maximum leverage the Index can employ is capped at 200%.

Does the Index represent a physical investment in the Basket?

The Index can be described as a "notional" investment in the Fund or as a "synthetic portfolio" as there is no actual asset held in respect of the Index. The Index simply reflects a strategy calculated using the value of a theoretical investment in each of the relevant components.

What does "Excess Return" mean?

The Index is construed as an "Excess Return" asset. This means that the level of the Index is determined net of costs, such as the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the notional assets that make up the Fund. In practical terms, an Excess Return investment represents the returns of a hypothetical investment in an asset, where such investment is funded with borrowed cash, thus incurring running interest. This is in contrast to a Total Return investment which assumes that such investment is fully funded.

What does "Decrement" mean?

The Index is calculated by deducting a 1.00% per annum* percentage rate (the "Decrement") applied daily pro rata to the Index value. This deduction will impact negatively the performance of the Index over time, meaning that the Index annual performance would be on average 1.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without the Decrement.

*Per annum refers to a period of 360 calendar days.

How does the Risk Control Mechanism Work?

The Index targets a volatility at or around 13% by allocating exposure to the Fund based on the realised volatility of the Fund itself. The target weight assigned by the Index to the Fund on any business day is the ratio of 13% to the realised volatility of the v. The realised volatility of the Fund is measured using its returns within a 20-business day period ending 2 days prior to the time of calculation.

The realised volatility is a measure of the magnitude of changes in price of a given financial instrument. When the Fund experiences higher volatility, it means greater changes in its price. In such environment, exposure to the Fund can produce unpredictable results. Volatility can anticipate both a decline or a rebound in the Fund. A "volatility target" mechanism aims to achieve a target volatility so that, as volatility increases beyond the target, the Index reduces exposure to the Fund. In practical terms, when exposure to the Fund is reduced, the level of the Index is less sensitive to the volatility of the Fund and therefore will suffer less from a decline in the performance of the Fund. A "volatility target" mechanism can however also hinder the ability to participate in any increase in the value of the Fund when high volatility is associated with underlying value increase.

It should be highlighted that the minimum exposure to the Fund is 0% even when the Fund volatility has reached a level higher than the Target Volatility. As a result, exposure to the Fund cannot be negative.

Representation of the Index in Diagram

In the above diagram, the target weight represents the percentage weight assigned by the Index to the Fund which is determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

What impacts the level of the Index?

The main driver of the level of the Index is the performance of the underlying Fund. In general terms, if the Fund increases in value, the Index level will increase as well and vice versa proportionally to the allocation percentage assigned by the Index to the Fund as determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

However, the Index level is impacted by a number of other components as follows:

- The Index is determined by deducting the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the Fund. This cost is represented by the Stockholm Interbank 3-month rate. The higher the borrowing rates, the lower the performance of the Index. In an environment where borrowing rates are high, the Index may exhibit material underperformance when compared to a direct investment in the Fund.

- The Index is calculated by deducting the Decrement, which is deducted daily pro rata. This means that the Index annual performance would be on average 1.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without the Decrement.

2. Overview

*This section provides an overview of a number of features of the Index. There are aspects of the Index to which this section does not refer. Prospective investors should read the entire Description, including (without limitation) the section "Risk Factors and Investment Considerations" under Risk Factor 9.8(i), before making any investment decision. ### Summary

The Index aims to provide exposure to the Index Components and to maintain the volatility of the Index at a specified level through the use of the volatility target mechanism which adjusts the Effective Exposure if the predicted volatility of the Index exceeds the volatility target by a pre-specified trigger threshold.

An Index Level is calculated in relation to each Index Business Day by the Index Calculation Agent. This will be used in connection with one or more Financial Products issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Generally, only a Financial Product issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group is permitted to use or reference the Index (directly or indirectly) but other Financial Products issued or entered into by financial services providers other than members of the Morgan Stanley Group may be permitted to use or reference the Index with the consent of a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. A Financial Product Investor has no ownership or other rights to or in respect of Index Components in its capacity as a Financial Product Investor or any other assets which are from time to time comprised in the Index.

The Index references a "notional" or synthetic exposure to the Index Component and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership. The Index merely identifies the Index Component and a rules-based strategy, the performance of which is used as a reference point for calculating Index Levels.

This Section 2 (Overview) is subject to, and qualified by, the remainder of this Description.

3. Index Sponsor

The Index has been developed by Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc ("MSIP"). The Index is administered by the index sponsor or any successor thereto (the "Index Sponsor"). The initial Index Sponsor is MSIP.

The Index Sponsor controls the creation and operation of the Index administrative process, including all stages involved in the production and dissemination of the Index. The Index Sponsor also is responsible for the manner in which the Index is calculated and constructed, and is the final authority on the Index and the interpretation and application of this Description. Notwithstanding that the Index relies on information from third party sources, the Index Sponsor has primary responsibility for all aspects of the Index administration and determination process.

Although the Index Sponsor will obtain information for inclusion in or for use in the calculation of the Index from sources which the Index Sponsor considers reliable, the Index Sponsor will not independently verify such information and does not guarantee the accuracy and/or the completeness of the Index or any data included therein.

The Index Sponsor is not acting as a manager or an investment advisor in relation to the Index and has no relationship of agency or trust or any fiduciary duty to any person in respect of the Index and is not required to take the interests of any person into account in making any determination or calculation in relation to the Index.

The Index Sponsor makes no warranty or representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

No Financial Product is sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by MSIP or the Index Sponsor, and neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor makes any express or implied representations or warranties as to (a) the advisability of purchasing or assuming any risk in connection with any Financial Product, (b) the levels at which the Index stands at any particular time on any particular date, (c) the results to be obtained by the issuer or obligor of any Financial Product, or any Financial Product Investor, or any other person or entity from the use of the Index or any data included therein in connection with any licensed rights or for any other use or (d) any other matter. Neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor make any express or implied representations or warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose with respect to the Index or any data included therein.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, and without limiting any of the foregoing, in no event shall MSIP/ or the Index Sponsor have any liability (whether in negligence or otherwise) to any person for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, consequential or any other damages (including lost profits) even if notified of the possibility of such damages.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor accepts any legal liability to any person for publishing or not continuing to publish for any period of time any Index Level at any particular place or any particular time.

MSIP may in its sole and absolute discretion delegate and/or transfer any of its obligations and/or functions in relation to the administration and determination of the Index to one or more third parties as it deems appropriate from time to time. MSIP in exercising such right is not required to take into account the interests of any Financial Product Investors or transactions linked in whole or in part to the Index.

4. *Index Calculation Agent

The Index is calculated by MSIP (or any successor thereto) (the "Index Calculation Agent").

The Index Calculation Agent is responsible for compiling and calculating the Index pursuant to this Description. The Index Sponsor retains the discretion to terminate the appointment of the Index Calculation Agent and to appoint an alternative Index Calculation Agent.

Subject as provided by applicable law and regulation, the Index Calculation Agent expressly disclaims all liability for any inaccuracy in calculations and the publication of the Index, the information used for making adjustments to the Index and the actual adjustments, as well as for the quality, accuracy, timeliness or completeness of the information contained in the Index or this Description or for delays, omissions, interruptions in the delivery of the Index or information related to it. No liability to any person shall attach to the Index Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of any powers, duties or discretions.

The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

The Index Calculation Agent's calculations and determinations in relation to the Index shall be binding on all persons in the absence of manifest error. The term "manifest error" as used herein shall mean an error that is plain and obvious and can be identified from the results of the calculation or determination itself without (i) recourse to the underlying data or (ii) any application or re-application of any formulae. No person (whether a Financial Product Investor or otherwise) will be entitled to proceed (and shall be deemed to have agreed to waive proceedings) against the Index Calculation Agent in connection with any such calculations or determinations or any failure to make any calculations or determinations in relation to the Index.

For so long as the Index Calculation Agent constitutes and calculates the Index, the Index Calculation Agent does not accept any liability for loss or damage of any kind (including, without limitation, any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages (including loss of profits)) arising from the use of such information in any such calculation or determination. The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index itself and disclaims all warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or use with respect to the Index or any information in connection with it.

5. *Index Data

The Index is calculated on the basis of publicly available third party data. In particular, the Index will utilise the Index Component Value, the Index Funding Rate and the Funding Rate in respect of each

Index Component as published on the relevant Index Component Price Source in respect of such Index Component.

No assurance can be given that any such Index Component Values, Index Funding Rate or Funding Rate will be published on the relevant Index Component Price Source, on the Index Funding Rate Screen Page or on the Funding Rate Screen Page accurately, in a timely manner or at all and the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent have relied on, and will rely on, such Index Component Values and Funding Rate as they are published on the relevant Index Component Price Source or Funding Rate Screen Page. Neither the Index Sponsor nor the Index Calculation Agent has independently verified the information extracted from such sources and accepts no responsibility or liability in respect thereof.

6. Calculation of the Index

6.1 Total Return Index Level

The Total Return Index Level in respect of the Index Base Date shall be equal to the Initial Index Level.

The Total Return Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day (each an "Index Business Day t") from (but excluding) the Index Base Date shall be an amount, expressed in the Index Currency, calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

$$TRIndex_t = \text{Max} \left( 0, TRIndex_{t-1} \times \left[ 1 + \text{Effective Exposure}_{t-1} \times \left( \frac{Basket_t}{Basket_{t-1}} - 1 \right) + (1 - \text{Effective Exposure}_{t-1}) \times \text{Rate}_{t-1} \times \frac{\Delta t}{\text{DayCount}} \right] - TC_t \right) \times (1 - AF_t)$$

max, followed by amounts (or values) inside brackets, means whichever is the greater of the amounts (or values) separate by a semi-colon inside such brackets;

TRIndex Level(t-1) means the Total Return Index Level in respect of the Index Business Day immediately preceding Index Business Day t;

Effective Exposure(t-1) means the Effective Exposure in respect of Index Business Day t-1, calculated as per paragraph 7.3 below;

Basket(t) means the Basket Level in respect of Index Business Day t, calculated as per paragraph 7.7 below;

Basket(t-1) means the Basket Level in respect of the Index Business Day immediately preceding Index Business Day t;

Rate(t-1) means the Index Funding Rate in respect of the Index Business Day immediately preceding Index Business Day t;

DayCount means 360;

TC(t) means the Transaction Cost in respect of Index Business Day t and is an amount calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

$$TC_t = |Nb \text{ Shares Basket}(t) - Nb \text{ Shares Basket}(t-1)| \times Basket(t) \times RC$$

Where RC is the Rebalancing Cost and has the meaning given to it in the Annex

$AF(t)$  means, the Accrued Fee in respect of Index Business Day  $t$ , an amount calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

Decrement Rate has the meaning given to it in the Annex

6.2 Excess Return Index Level

The Excess Return Index Level in respect of the Index Base Date shall be equal to the Initial Index Level.

The Excess Return Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day (each an "Index Business Day t") from (but excluding) the Index Base Date shall be an amount, expressed in the Index Currency, calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

6.3 Calculation of the Exposure

The theoretical exposure (the "Theoretical Exposure") in respect of an Index Business Day shall be an amount calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula set out below:

$$TheoreticalExposure_t = Min \left[ maxExposure, UnconstrainedExposure_t \right]$$

Where:

$$UnconstrainedExposure_t = \frac{Vol Target}{Realised Volatility (t)}$$

The exposure (the "Exposure") in respect of an Index Business Day shall be an amount calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula set out below:

- Where Rebalance Rule is set as "ABSOLUTE" in the Annex:

$$Exposure_t = \begin{cases} TheoreticalExposure_t & \text{if } |TheoreticalExposure_t - Exposure_{t-1}| > Threshold \\ Exposure_{t-1}, & \text{Otherwise} \end{cases}$$

- Where Rebalance Rule is set as "RELATIVE INVERSE" in the Annex:

6.8 Miscellaneous

Each Index Level shall be published by the Index Calculation Agent (rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 being rounded upwards), as set out in Section 7 (Publication).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Index Level is tracked without rounding by the Index Calculation Agent, and all calculations in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) are based on the unrounded Index Level, while the rounded level is disseminated for publication.

The methodology described in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) is subject to the provisions set out in Section 7 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions).

6.9 Index Live Date and Retrospective Calculations

The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent since the Index Live Date on a live basis.

Index performance in respect of the period from (and including) the Index Base Date to (but excluding) the Index Live Date (the "Back-test Period") has been simulated and is not actual performance. Accordingly the Index has been calculated retrospectively by the Index Calculation Agent on a hypothetical basis with the Index having an Index Level equal to the Initial Index Level on the Index Base Date.

The Index was launched by the Index Sponsor on the Index Live Date. The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent for the period from (and including) the Index Base Date. All prospective investors should be aware that any retrospective calculation of the Index means that no actual investment existed at any time during the period of the retrospective calculation and as such, the performance of the Index is purely hypothetical. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a guide to future performance.

The methodology and the strategy used for the calculation and retrospective calculation of the Index have been developed with the advantage of hindsight. In reality, it is not possible to invest with the advantage of hindsight and therefore past performance is purely theoretical.

The market conditions which existed during the Back-test Period are not necessarily representative of the market conditions which may exist in the future. In addition, the market conditions in the Back-test Period do not reflect the effect on the relevant markets of the launch of the Index and of the delivery of exposures to the Index through Financial Products, which may include any hedging by the provider or issuer of such Financial Products. Where the Index has been developed to identify and to monetise a particular opportunity in the relevant markets, it should be noted that corresponding investments made by market participants, including any hedging by the providers of Financial Products, may erode such an opportunity, and therefore the hypothetical Index performance in respect of the Back-test Period may overstate the actual performance of any Financial Product.

7. Publication

Subject to Section 7 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) below, the Index Calculation Agent will make available (i) the Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day as soon as reasonably practicable after 8 am London time (the "Index Publication Time") on the second Index Business Day immediately following such Index Business Day or where, in the sole discretion of the Index Calculation Agent, publication on such Index Business Day is not possible or practicable, the immediately following Index Business Day on the Bloomberg Page or such other source as the Index Sponsor may select from time to time at its reasonable discretion and (ii) details of any adjustments made to the Index as described in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) to Financial Product Investors.

Subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor accepts no liability to any person for any publication, suspension of publication or non-publication of the Index Level for any period or in any place.

Any publication described in this Section 7 (Publication) may be restricted, except as otherwise provided by law, by means determined as appropriate for such purpose by the Index Sponsor in its reasonable discretion including, without limitation, restricting access to a limited set of persons in accordance with arrangements agreed between MSIP and such persons.

9.1 Adjustment Events

Subject as provided in Section 9.3 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process), if the Index Sponsor determines in its reasonable discretion that an Adjustment Event has occurred or may occur, the Index Sponsor may acting in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner:

- (i) substitute any Index Component or the Funding Rate (as applicable) which is affected by such Adjustment Event with a replacement component or rate (as applicable), provided that such replacement has substantially similar characteristics to the affected component or rate (as applicable), having regard to the manner in which the affected component or rate (as applicable) is used in the calculation of the Index (as determined by the Index Sponsor in its sole and absolute discretion) and, if so, will (I) determine the effective date of such substitution and (II) make such adjustment(s) to the terms of the Index as it deems appropriate to account for the effect on the Index of such substitution; and/or
- (ii) provide data from alternative but comparable sources to the Index Calculation Agent, in each case for such period as it determines appropriate;
- (iii) determine that the Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component which is affected by such Adjustment Event in respect of each Index Business Day following the Index Business Day on which such Adjustment Event occurred (the "Relevant Day") shall be equal to the Index Component Value in respect of such Relevant Day;
- (iv) reallocate the portion of the Index exposed to any Index Component which is affected by such Adjustment Event to the cash until the next Index Business Day on which it determines that no Adjustment Event exists (and make such adjustment(s) to the terms of the Index as it deems appropriate to account for the effect on the Index of such reallocation);
- (v) make such determinations and/or adjustments to the terms of the Index as it considers appropriate to determine any part of the Index (including, without limitation, the value of any Index Component) or calculate the Index Level in respect of an Index Business Day; and/or
- (vi) delay calculating and making available the Index Level until the next Index Business Day on which it determines that no Adjustment Event exists; and/or

(vii) cancel the Index and permanently cease to calculate the Index Level.

9.2 *Determinations made by the Index Sponsor in respect of Fund Potential Adjustment Events and Fund Events may have an adverse effect on the value of a Financial Product

Upon the determination by the Index Sponsor that a Fund Potential Adjustment Event has occurred, the Index Sponsor shall determine whether such Fund Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the relevant Fund Interest and, if so, whether the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply, or if an Extraordinary Event has occurred the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply which may, in each case, adversely affect the Index Level and, therefore, the value of a Financial Product.

Fund Potential Adjustment Events include, amongst other things (a) a sub-division, consolidation or re-classification of Fund Interests, (b) an extraordinary dividend, (c) a repurchase by the relevant Fund of the relevant Fund Interests or (d) any event having a dilutive or concentrative effect on the value of the relevant Fund Interest. Fund Events include, amongst other things, (1) a nationalisation of the relevant Fund Interest, (2) the occurrence of one or fund insolvency events, (3) a breach of strategy by the relevant Fund and (4) a force majeure event in respect of the relevant Fund Interests.

9.3 *Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process

The Index is calculated on the basis of algorithmic formulas and therefore no discretion can be exercised by the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent in the calculation of the Index. The Index Sponsor will, subject as provided below, employ the methodology set out in this Description to calculate the Index. While the Index Sponsor currently employs this methodology, no assurance can be given that fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances will not arise that would, in the view of the Index Sponsor, necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description.

However, on occasion, there may be situations, outside the pre-defined adjustments and rebalances, which may make an adjustment of the methodology appropriate or necessary to ensure that the Index continues to achieve its objectives. These situations may include fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances that was not anticipated to occur when the Index was launched.

The Index Sponsor may decide that these situations necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description. Any such decision will however be taken in a commercially reasonable manner and exclusively in order to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it was designed to represent in the sole determination of the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent.

The Index Sponsor may make any amendment to this Description (a "Change") which in its determination is not material to Financial Product Investors, including if it is of a formal, minor or technical nature or to correct a manifest error. In this case the Index Sponsor is not required to consult with Financial Product Investors. Details of the Change will be made available by the Index Sponsor in accordance with Section 7 (Publication). For the purposes of determining the materiality of a Change, the Index Sponsor shall consider a change to be material if it may have a potentially material effect on any future level of the Index.

In relation to any Change to this Description other than as described in the immediately preceding paragraph (a "Material Change") the Index Sponsor will give prior notice to Financial Product Investors that a Material Change is proposed. Details of the Material Change will then be available upon request to the Index Sponsor to allow Financial Product Investors to give any comments on the proposed Material Change.

The Index Sponsor is required to give at least ten Index Business Days' notice of a Material Change before making this, provided that it may reduce this notice period to not less than one Index Business Day in the case of a Material Change which is required to ensure that the Index may be fully hedged on an effective basis by or on behalf of any member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Modifications or adjustments which the Index Sponsor may make include, without limitation, amendments to the methodology, and substitution or removal of underlying Index Components from the Index, which, in each case, may have a negative impact on the performance of the Index.

Any comments from Financial Product Investors and the Index Sponsor's responses to these will be made accessible to Financial Product Investors upon request to the Index Sponsor, except where the comment provider has requested confidentiality. However any such comments and responses may not be available prior to the Material Change being made.

Subject as provided in the MS Benchmark Statement, if any modification or adjustment is made to the composition or calculation of the Index in accordance with Section 9.3 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process), the Index Sponsor will make such modifications or adjustments based on market conditions and other relevant factors as in the judgment of the Index Sponsor are necessary to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it is designed to represent.

9.4 Consequences of Fund Events

If the Index Sponsor determines that a Fund Event has occurred in respect of a Fund (a "Relevant Fund"), then the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply. Any such adjustments made in accordance with the foregoing may include adjustments to account for the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund instead of the Underlying Fund Price and, if relevant, an amount determined by the Index Sponsor in respect of interest (compounded on a daily basis) on the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund accrued at an overnight rate relating to the Index Currency selected by the Index Sponsor from (and including) the date on which any replacement of the Relevant Fund is effective.

Where it is required to determine a valuation of the Relevant Fund for the purposes of this Section 9.4 (Consequences of Fund Events) by reference to the Underlying Fund Price of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund, the Index Sponsor shall determine the mechanics for calculating such valuation of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund (which valuation may be zero) by reference to such sources as it considers appropriate including, but not limited to, the value that a third party on arms' length terms would be willing to pay for the transfer to it of such Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund (or the portion of a hypothetical derivative contract in so far as it relates to the Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund and does not take into account the creditworthiness of any party thereto).

10. Errors and Corrections

If:

- (i) any Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component or other variable, input or other parameter that is used to calculate the Index is subsequently changed or corrected and the change or correction is published by the relevant Index Component Price Source or other data source (as applicable); or
- (ii) the Index Calculation Agent identifies an error or omission in any of its calculations or determinations with respect to the Index Level in respect of any Index Business Day (including, without limitation, following an incorrect implementation of the methodology set out in this Description, an error in data entry, or a manual or system error),

then, in each case, the Index Sponsor may correct and restate any published Index Level in respect of any relevant Index Business Day (including, without limitation, a correction and restatement of the Index Level published for any relevant Index Business Day with retrospective effect) and/or each subsequent Index Business Day. Upon the occurrence of such event, the Index Calculation Agent shall inform the Index Sponsor and MSIP promptly.

The Index Sponsor will determine whether such error requires a change in the composition or calculation of the Index and, if so, the procedures under Section 9.3 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process) will apply.

11. Governance

Morgan Stanley has adopted the "Principles for Financial Benchmarks" published by the International Organization of Securities Commissions ("IOSCO") on 17 July 2013 (the "Principles") on a proportionate basis.

The Index and this Description have been approved in accordance with and are subject to the internal governance procedures implemented by Morgan Stanley in compliance with the Principles and managed by an internal oversight committee (the "Index Committee").

The functions of calculation and valuation of the Index on each Index Business Day, as described in this Description, are carried out by a separate team at Morgan Stanley which is organisationally independent from the Index Sponsor.

The remuneration of the team which carries out the function of the Index Calculation Agent is not linked to the performance of the Index.

12. Discontinuation

Notwithstanding Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), the Index Sponsor may, in its sole discretion, after consultation with the Index Committee (except where, in the circumstances set out under (iii) below, such consultation is not possible), discontinue calculating and publishing the Index at any time upon the occurrence of any of the following:

- (i) as outlined in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), as the result of an Adjustment Event;
- (ii) the Index Sponsor and/or, where no successor to it is available in the determination of the Index Sponsor, the Index Calculation Agent terminates its index/strategy publication or calculation (as applicable) business;
- (iii) the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent is subject to a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or institutes or has instituted against it, by a regulator, supervisor or other similar official, a proceeding seeking a judgment of insolvency or bankruptcy or other similar;
- (iv) subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor determines that it shall no longer continue to publish the Index; and/or
- (v) the Index Sponsor determines in its sole and absolute discretion that the Index is or will be no longer representative of the economic reality it was intended to measure.

Upon any such discontinuance, the Index Sponsor will use commercially reasonable efforts to publicly announce such discontinuance as soon as is reasonably practicable prior to the effective date.

The Index Sponsor shall determine if a commercially reasonable alternative index, the sponsor of which is a member of the Morgan Stanley Group, is available for use as an alternative to the Index and, to the extent reasonably possible, it shall maintain the original Index in existence in order to facilitate an orderly transition to the alternative index.

The Index is governed by the Index Rules and therefore a full understanding of the Index can only be achieved with a full reading of that section.

What is the Index?

The Index is a rules-based strategy denominated in SEK which aims to provide exposure to an equally weighted basket of 8 equity mutual funds, as described below (the "Basket"), whilst maintaining a volatility at or around 14% (the "Target Volatility"). To pursue this objective, the Index implements a daily "Risk Control Mechanism" which adjusts the exposure of the Index in response to the increases or decreases of the volatility of the Basket. When volatility increases, the Index reduces exposure to Basket and invests in a notional, non-interest bearing, cash investment. When the volatility decreases, the Index increases exposure to the Basket, up to a maximum exposure of 150%, and reduces its exposure to cash.

When the Index's exposure to the Basket is higher than 100%, the Index uses a "leveraged" exposure to the underlying funds. Leverage refers to the practice of using debt to amplify potential returns, by allocating more than 100% of the Index to the underlying funds. The maximum leverage the Index can employ is capped 150%.

The Basket is invested in each of the 8 underlying Funds with equal weighting (12.5% in each Fund). As the daily performance of each Fund fluctuates, the effective weight of each Fund within the Basket will vary from the weight it was originally assigned. As a result, the Basket operates at the end of each calendar month a re-weighting of the Funds to their original weights.

Does the Index represent a physical investment in the Basket?

The Index can be described as a "notional" investment in the Basket or as a "synthetic portfolio" as there is no actual asset held in respect of the Index. The Index simply reflects a strategy calculated using the value of a theoretical investment in each of the relevant components.

What does "Excess Return" mean?

The Index is construed as an "Excess Return" asset. This means that the level of the Index is determined net of costs, such as the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the notional assets that make up the Basket. In practical terms, an Excess Return investment represents the returns of a hypothetical investment in an asset, where such investment is funded with borrowed cash, thus incurring running interest. This is to be opposed to a Total Return investment which assumes that such investment is fully funded.

What does "Decrement" mean?

The Index is calculated by deducting a 1.50% per annum* percentage rate (the "Decrement") applied daily pro rata to the Index value. This deduction will impact negatively the performance of the Index over time, meaning that the Index annual performance would be on average 1.50% lower than what it would otherwise be without such deduction.

*Per annum refers to a period of 360 calendar days.

How does the Risk Control Mechanism Work?

The Index targets a volatility at or around 14% by allocating exposure to the Basket based on the realised volatility of the Basket itself. The target weight assigned by the Index to the Basket on any business day is the ratio of 14% to the realised volatility of the Basket. The realised volatility of the Basket is measured using its returns within a 20-business day period ending 2 days prior to the time of calculation.

The realised volatility is a measure of the magnitude of changes in price of a given financial instrument. When the Funds experience higher volatility, it means greater changes in their price. In such environment, exposure to the Funds can produce unpredictable results. Volatility can anticipate both a decline or a rebound in the Funds. A "volatility target" mechanism aims to achieve a target volatility so that, as volatility increases beyond the target,

Description of the MS 14% Risk Control ER Index Linked to Diversified Basket of Equity Funds

the Index reduces exposure to the Funds. In practical terms, when exposure to the Funds is reduced, the level of the Index is less sensitive to the volatility of such Funds and therefore will suffer less from a decline in the performance of the Funds. A "volatility target" mechanism can however also hinder the ability to participate in any increase in the value of the Fund when high volatility is associated with underlying value increase.

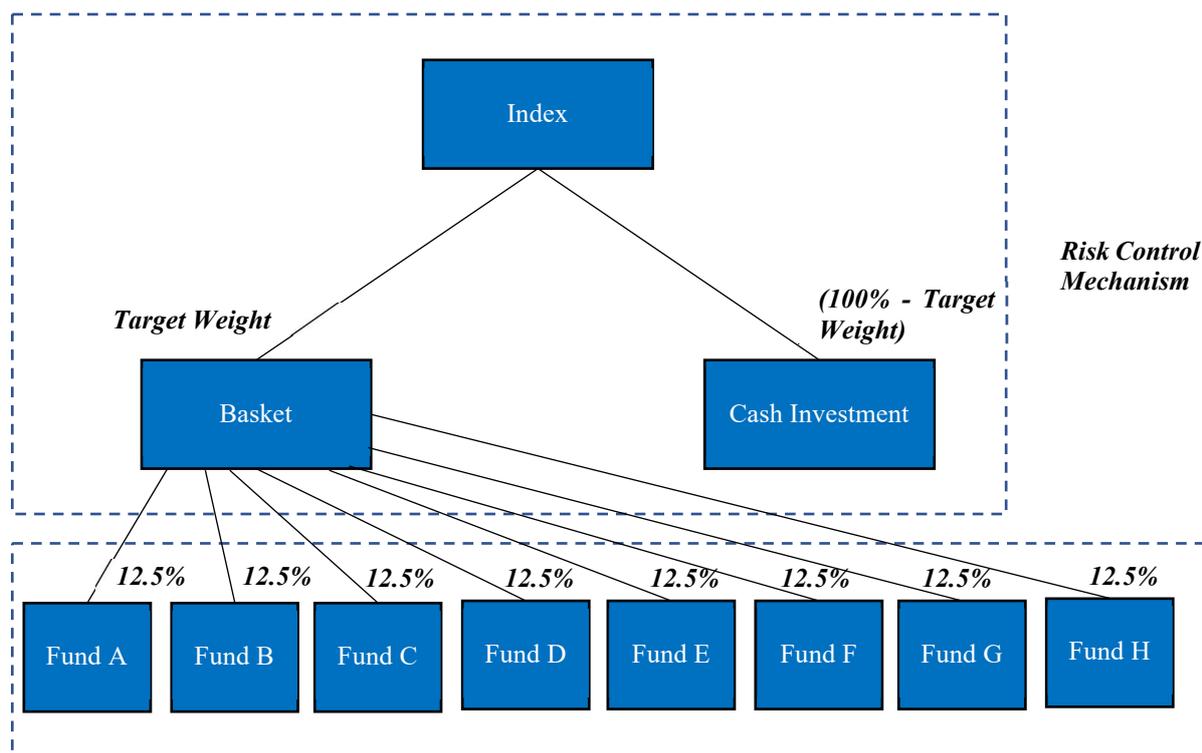

It should be highlighted that the minimum exposure to the Basket is 0% even when the Basket volatility has reached a level higher than the Target Volatility. As a result, exposure to the Basket cannot be negative.

Representation of the Index in Diagram

In the above diagram, the target weight represents the percentage weight assigned by the Index to the Basket which is determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

What impacts the level of the Index?

The main driver of the level of the Index is the performance of the underlying Funds. In general terms, if the Funds increase in value, the Index level will increase as well and vice versa proportionally to the allocation percentage assigned by the Index to such Funds as determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

However, the Index level is impacted by a number of other components as follows:

- The Index is determined by deducting the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the Funds that make up the Basket. This cost is represented by the Stockholm Interbank 3-month rate. The higher the borrowing rates, the lower the performance of the Index. In an environment where borrowing rates are significant, the Index may exhibit material underperformance when compared to a direct investment in the underlying Funds.
- The Index is calculated by deducting a 1.50% per annum decrement percentage rate, which is deducted daily pro rata. This means that the Index annual performance would be on average 1.50% lower than what it would otherwise be without such decrement.

*This section provides an overview of a number of features of the Index. There are aspects of the Index to which this section does not refer. Summary

The Index aims to provide exposure to the Index Components and to maintain the volatility of the Index at a specified level through the use of the volatility target mechanism which adjusts the Effective Exposure if the predicted volatility of the Index exceeds the volatility target by a pre-specified trigger threshold.

An Index Level is calculated in relation to each Index Business Day by the Index Calculation Agent. This will be used in connection with one or more Financial Products issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Generally, only a Financial Product issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group is permitted to use or reference the Index (directly or indirectly) but other Financial Products issued or entered into by financial services providers other than members of the Morgan Stanley Group may be permitted to use or reference the Index with the consent of a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. A Financial Product Investor has no ownership or other rights to or in respect of Index Components in its capacity as a Financial Product Investor or any other assets which are from time to time comprised in the Index.

The Index references a "notional" or synthetic exposure to the Index Component and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership. The Index merely identifies the Index Component and a rules-based strategy, the performance of which is used as a reference point for calculating Index Levels.

This Section 2 (Overview) is subject to, and qualified by, the remainder of this Description.

Where:

N is the number of Index Components within the Basket as defined in the Annex

Where:

$$FundingBalance_t^{CCY} = - \sum_{i=1}^N Units_t^{i|Funded \cap CCY} \times CL_t^{i|Funded \cap CCY}$$

$i|Funded \cap CCY$  means the Basket Component  $i$ , where such Basket Component is specified as Funded in the Annex and is denominated in currency  $CCY$  provided that such currency is other than the Index Currency

Where:

$HC_i$  is the Holding Cost for Basket Component  $i$  as specified in the Annex.

6.7.6 Calculation of the Number of Units of Basket Components

On the Initialisation Date, the Number of Units invested in the Basket Component  $i$  per unit of the Basket is calculated by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with the following formula:

$$N_{i,t=0} = 0$$

In respect of any Index Business Day thereafter:

- If  $t$  is a Scheduled Basket Rebalancing Day:

$$N_{i,t} = \frac{W_i \times Basket_{Max(0,t-BasketUnitLag)}}{CL_{i,Max(0,t-BasketUnitLag)} \times FX_{i,Max(0,t-BasketUnitLag)}}$$

- Otherwise

$$N_{i,t} = N_{i,t-1}$$

Where:

$W_i$  means the Weight for Basket Component  $i$  as defined in the Annex

6.8 Miscellaneous

Each Index Level shall be published by the Index Calculation Agent (rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 being rounded upwards), as set out in Section 7 (Publication).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Index Level is tracked without rounding by the Index Calculation Agent, and all calculations in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) are based on the unrounded Index Level, while the rounded level is disseminated for publication.

The methodology described in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) is subject to the provisions set out in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions).

6.9 Index Live Date and Retrospective Calculations

The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent since the Index Live Date on a live basis.

Index performance in respect of the period from (and including) the Index Base Date to (but excluding) the Index Live Date (the "Back-test Period") has been simulated and is not actual performance. Accordingly the Index has been calculated retrospectively by the Index Calculation Agent on a hypothetical basis with the Index having an Index Level equal to the Initial Index Level on the Index Base Date.

The Index was launched by the Index Sponsor on the Index Live Date. The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent for the period from (and including) the Index Base Date. All prospective investors should be aware that any retrospective calculation of the Index means that no actual investment existed at any time during the period of the retrospective calculation and as such, the performance of the Index is purely hypothetical. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a guide to future performance.

The methodology and the strategy used for the calculation and retrospective calculation of the Index have been developed with the advantage of hindsight. In reality, it is not possible to invest with the advantage of hindsight and therefore past performance is purely theoretical.

The market conditions which existed during the Back-test Period are not necessarily representative of the market conditions which may exist in the future. In addition, the market conditions in the Back-test Period do not reflect the effect on the relevant markets of the launch of the Index and of the delivery of exposures to the Index through Financial Products, which may include any hedging by the provider or issuer of such Financial Products. Where the Index has been developed to identify and to monetise a particular opportunity in the relevant markets, it should be noted that corresponding investments made by market participants, including any hedging by the providers of Financial Products, may erode such an opportunity, and therefore the hypothetical Index performance in respect of the Back-test Period may overstate the actual performance of any Financial Product.

7. Publication

Subject to Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) below, the Index Calculation Agent will make available (i) the Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day as soon as reasonably practicable after 8 am London time (the "Index Publication Time") on the second Index Business Day immediately following such Index Business Day or where, in the sole discretion of the Index Calculation Agent, publication on such Index Business Day is not possible or practicable, the immediately following Index Business Day on the Bloomberg Page or such other source as the Index Sponsor may select from time to time at its reasonable discretion and (ii) details of any adjustments made to the Index as described in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) to Financial Product Investors.

Subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor accepts no liability to any person for any publication, suspension of publication or non-publication of the Index Level for any period or in any place.

Any publication described in this Section 7 (Publication) may be restricted, except as otherwise provided by law, by means determined as appropriate for such purpose by the Index Sponsor in its reasonable discretion including, without limitation, restricting access to a limited set of persons in accordance with arrangements agreed between MSIP and such persons.

"Scheduled Redemption Payment Date" means, in respect of a Fund Interest and any Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date, the date by which the related Fund is scheduled to have paid, according to its Fund Documents, all or a specified portion of the Redemption Proceeds to an investor that has submitted a timely and valid notice requesting redemption of such Fund Interest as of such Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date.

"Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date" means, in respect of a Fund Interest and any relevant day, the date as of which the related Fund (or its Fund Service Provider that generally determines such value) is scheduled, according to its Fund Documents (without giving effect to any gating, deferral, suspension or other provisions permitting the Fund to delay or refuse redemption of Fund Interests), to determine the net asset value of such Fund Interest for the purposes of calculating the redemption proceeds to be paid to an investor that has submitted a valid and timely notice for redemption of Fund Interests based on the value determined as of the Scheduled Redemption Valuation Date for which the Scheduled Redemption Payment Date falls on or immediately prior to such day.

- (ii) in respect of any Fund Interest (a) there is a failure by the Fund to pay the full amount (whether expressed as a percentage or otherwise) of the Redemption Proceeds in the Fund Interest Currency with respect to the relevant amount of such Fund Interest scheduled to have been paid on or by such day according to the Fund Documents (without giving effect to any gating, deferral, suspension or other provisions permitting the Fund to delay or refuse redemption of such Fund Interests) or (b) a Hypothetical Investor which had submitted a valid redemption notice in respect of such Fund Interest on the last date permitted pursuant to the relevant Fund Documents would, in the reasonable opinion of the Index Sponsor, not have received in full the Redemption Proceeds in respect of such redemption(s) on or before the date it was scheduled to do so in accordance with the Fund Documents; and/or

9.1 Adjustment Events

Subject as provided in Section 9.2 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process), if the Index Sponsor determines in its reasonable discretion that an Adjustment Event has occurred or may occur, the Index Sponsor may acting in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner:

- (i) substitute any Index Component or the Funding Rate (as applicable) which is affected by such Adjustment Event with a replacement component or rate (as applicable), provided that such replacement has substantially similar characteristics to the affected component or rate (as applicable), having regard to the manner in which the affected component or rate (as applicable) is used in the calculation of the Index (as determined by the Index Sponsor in its sole and absolute discretion) and, if so, will (I) determine the effective date of such substitution and (II) make such adjustment(s) to the terms of the Index as it deems appropriate to account for the effect on the Index of such substitution; and/or
- (ii) provide data from alternative but comparable sources to the Index Calculation Agent, in each case for such period as it determines appropriate;
- (iii) determine that the Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component which is affected by such Adjustment Event in respect of each Index Business Day following the Index Business Day on which such Adjustment Event occurred (the "Relevant Day") shall be equal to the Index Component Value in respect of such Relevant Day;
- (iv) reallocate the portion of the Index exposed to any Index Component which is affected by such Adjustment Event to the cash until the next Index Business Day on which it determines that no Adjustment Event exists (and make such adjustment(s) to the terms of the Index as it deems appropriate to account for the effect on the Index of such reallocation);
- (v) make such determinations and/or adjustments to the terms of the Index as it considers appropriate to determine any part of the Index (including, without limitation, the value of any Index Component) or calculate the Index Level in respect of an Index Business Day; and/or
- (vi) delay calculating and making available the Index Level until the next Index Business Day on which it determines that no Adjustment Event exists; and/or

- (vii) cancel the Index and permanently cease to calculate the Index Level.

9.2 Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process

Upon the determination by the Index Sponsor that a Fund Potential Adjustment Event has occurred, the Index Sponsor shall determine whether such Fund Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the relevant Fund Interest and, if so, whether the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply, or if an Extraordinary Event has occurred the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply which may, in each case, adversely affect the Index Level and, therefore, the value of a Financial Product.

Fund Potential Adjustment Events include, amongst other things (a) a sub-division, consolidation or re-classification of Fund Interests, (b) an extraordinary dividend, (c) a repurchase by the relevant Fund of the relevant Fund Interests or (d) any event having a dilutive or concentrative effect on the value of the relevant Fund Interest. Fund Events include, amongst other things, (1) a nationalisation of the relevant Fund Interest, (2) the occurrence of one or fund insolvency events, (3) a breach of strategy by the relevant Fund and (4) a force majeure event in respect of the relevant Fund Interests.

9.3 Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process

The Index is calculated on the basis of algorithmic formulas and therefore no discretion can be exercised by the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent in the calculation of the Index. The Index Sponsor will, subject as provided below, employ the methodology set out in this Description to calculate the Index. While the Index Sponsor currently employs this methodology, no assurance can be given that fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances will not arise that would, in the view of the Index Sponsor, necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description.

However, on occasion, there may be situations, outside the pre-defined adjustments and rebalances, which may make an adjustment of the methodology appropriate or necessary to ensure that the Index continues to achieve its objectives. These situations may include fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances that was not anticipated to occur when the Index was launched.

The Index Sponsor may decide that these situations necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description. Any such decision will however be taken in a commercially reasonable manner and exclusively in order to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it was designed to represent in the sole determination of the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent.

The Index Sponsor may make any amendment to this Description (a "Change") which in its determination is not material to Financial Product Investors, including if it is of a formal, minor or technical nature or to correct a manifest error. In this case the Index Sponsor is not required to consult with Financial Product Investors. Details of the Change will be made available by the Index Sponsor in accordance with Section 7 (Publication). For the purposes of determining the materiality of a Change, the Index Sponsor shall consider a change to be material if it may have a potentially material effect on any future level of the Index.

In relation to any Change to this Description other than as described in the immediately preceding paragraph (a "Material Change") the Index Sponsor will give prior notice to Financial Product Investors that a Material Change is proposed. Details of the Material Change will then be available upon request to the Index Sponsor to allow Financial Product Investors to give any comments on the proposed Material Change.

The Index Sponsor is required to give at least ten Index Business Days' notice of a Material Change before making this, provided that it may reduce this notice period to not less than one Index Business Day in the case of a Material Change which is required to ensure that the Index may be fully hedged on an effective basis by or on behalf of any member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Modifications or adjustments which the Index Sponsor may make include, without limitation, amendments to the methodology, and substitution or removal of underlying Index Components from the Index, which, in each case, may have a negative impact on the performance of the Index.

Any comments from Financial Product Investors and the Index Sponsor's responses to these will be made accessible to Financial Product Investors upon request to the Index Sponsor, except where the comment provider has requested confidentiality. However any such comments and responses may not be available prior to the Material Change being made.

Subject as provided in the MS Benchmark Statement, if any modification or adjustment is made to the composition or calculation of the Index in accordance with Section 9.2 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process), the Index Sponsor will make such modifications or adjustments based on market conditions and other relevant factors as in the judgment of the Index Sponsor are necessary to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it is designed to represent.

9.4 Consequences of Fund Events

If the Index Sponsor determines that a Fund Event has occurred in respect of a Fund (a "Relevant Fund"), then the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply. Any such adjustments made in accordance with the foregoing may include adjustments to account for the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund instead of the Underlying Fund Price and, if relevant, an amount determined by the Index Sponsor in respect of interest (compounded on a daily basis) on the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund accrued at an overnight rate relating to the Index Currency selected by the Index Sponsor from (and including) the date on which any replacement of the Relevant Fund is effective.

Where it is required to determine a valuation of the Relevant Fund for the purposes of this Section 9.4 (Consequences of Fund Events) by reference to the Underlying Fund Price of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund, the Index Sponsor shall determine the mechanics for calculating such valuation of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund (which valuation may be zero) by reference to such sources as it considers appropriate including, but not limited to, the value that a third party on arms' length terms would be willing to pay for the transfer to it of such Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund (or the portion of a hypothetical derivative contract in so far as it relates to the Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund and does not take into account the creditworthiness of any party thereto).

10. Errors and Corrections

If:

- (i) any Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component or other variable, input or other parameter that is used to calculate the Index is subsequently changed or corrected and the change or correction is published by the relevant Index Component Price Source or other data source (as applicable); or
- (ii) the Index Calculation Agent identifies an error or omission in any of its calculations or determinations with respect to the Index Level in respect of any Index Business Day (including, without limitation, following an incorrect implementation of the methodology set out in this Description, an error in data entry, or a manual or system error),

then, in each case, the Index Sponsor may correct and restate any published Index Level in respect of any relevant Index Business Day (including, without limitation, a correction and restatement of the Index Level published for any relevant Index Business Day with retrospective effect) and/or each subsequent Index Business Day. Upon the occurrence of such event, the Index Calculation Agent shall inform the Index Sponsor and MSIP promptly.

The Index Sponsor will determine whether such error requires a change in the composition or calculation of the Index and, if so, the procedures under Section 9.2 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process) will apply.

11. Governance

Morgan Stanley has adopted the "Principles for Financial Benchmarks" published by the International Organization of Securities Commissions ("IOSCO") on 17 July 2013 (the "Principles") on a proportionate basis.

The Index and this Description have been approved in accordance with and are subject to the internal governance procedures implemented by Morgan Stanley in compliance with the Principles and managed by an internal oversight committee (the "Index Committee").

The functions of calculation and valuation of the Index on each Index Business Day, as described in this Description, are carried out by a separate team at Morgan Stanley which is organisationally independent from the Index Sponsor.

12. Discontinuation

Notwithstanding Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), the Index Sponsor may, in its sole discretion, after consultation with the Index Committee (except where, in the circumstances set out under (iii) below, such consultation is not possible), discontinue calculating and publishing the Index at any time upon the occurrence of any of the following:

- (i) as outlined in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), as the result of an Adjustment Event;
- (ii) the Index Sponsor and/or, where no successor to it is available in the determination of the Index Sponsor, the Index Calculation Agent terminates its index/strategy publication or calculation (as applicable) business;
- (iii) the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent is subject to a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or institutes or has instituted against it, by a regulator, supervisor or other similar official, a proceeding seeking a judgment of insolvency or bankruptcy or other similar;
- (iv) subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor determines that it shall no longer continue to publish the Index; and/or
- (v) the Index Sponsor determines in its sole and absolute discretion that the Index is or will be no longer representative of the economic reality it was intended to measure.

Upon any such discontinuance, the Index Sponsor will use commercially reasonable efforts to publicly announce such discontinuance as soon as is reasonably practicable prior to the effective date.

The Index Sponsor shall determine if a commercially reasonable alternative index, the sponsor of which is a member of the Morgan Stanley Group, is available for use as an alternative to the Index and, to the extent reasonably possible, it shall maintain the original Index in existence in order to facilitate an orderly transition to the alternative index.

OVERVIEW OF THE MS 16% RISK CONTROL ER INDEX LINKED TO EMERGING MARKETS EQUITY FUND

This section provides a narrative, non-technical explanation of the intended investment objective of the Index and its calculation methodology. The information in this section is by way of explanation of information appearing in the Index Rules. The Index is governed by the Index Rules and therefore a full understanding of the Index can only be achieved with a full reading of that section.

What is the Index?

The Index is a rules-based strategy denominated in SEK which aims to provide exposure to a weighted basket of one equity mutual fund, as described below (the "Basket"), whilst maintaining a volatility at or around 16% (the "Target Volatility"). To pursue this objective, the Index implements a daily "Risk Control Mechanism" which adjusts the exposure of the Index in response to the increases or decreases of the volatility of the Basket. When volatility increases, the Index reduces exposure to Basket and invests in a notional, non-interest bearing, cash investment. When the volatility decreases, the Index increases exposure to the Basket, up to a maximum exposure of 150%, and reduces its exposure to cash.

When the Index's exposure to the Basket is higher than 100%, the Index uses a "leveraged" exposure to the underlying funds. Leverage refers to the practice of using debt to amplify potential returns, by allocating more than 100% of the Index to the underlying funds. The maximum leverage the Index can employ is capped at 150%.

Does the Index represent a physical investment in the Basket?

The Index can be described as a "notional" investment in the Basket or as a "synthetic portfolio" as there is no actual asset held in respect of the Index. The Index simply reflects a strategy calculated using the value of a theoretical investment in each of the relevant components.

What does "Excess Return" mean?

The Index is construed as an "Excess Return" asset. This means that the level of the Index is determined net of costs, such as the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the notional assets that make up the Basket. In practical terms, an Excess Return investment represents the returns of a hypothetical investment in an asset, where such investment is funded with borrowed cash, thus incurring running interest. This is to be opposed to a Total Return investment which assumes that such investment is fully funded.

What does "Decrement" mean?

The Index is calculated by deducting a 1.00% per annum* percentage rate (the "Decrement") applied daily pro rata to the Index value. This deduction will impact negatively the performance of the Index over time, meaning that the Index annual performance would be on average 1.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without such deduction.

*Per annum refers to a period of 360 calendar days.

How does the Risk Control Mechanism Work?

The Index targets a volatility at or around 16% by allocating exposure to the Basket based on the realised volatility of the Basket itself. The target weight assigned by the Index to the Basket on any business day is the ratio of 16% to the realised volatility of the Basket. The realised volatility of the Basket is measured using its returns within a 20-business day period ending 2 days prior to the time of calculation.

The realised volatility is a measure of the magnitude of changes in price of a given financial instrument. When the Fund experiences higher volatility, it means greater changes in its price. In such environment, exposure to the Fund can produce unpredictable results. Volatility can anticipate both a decline or a rebound in the Fund. A "volatility target" mechanism aims to achieve a target volatility so that, as volatility increases beyond the target, the Index reduces exposure to the Fund. In practical terms, when exposure to the Fund is reduced, the level of the Index is less sensitive to the volatility of such Fund and therefore will suffer less from a decline in the performance of the Fund. A "volatility target" mechanism can however also hinder the ability to participate in any increase in the value of the Fund when high volatility is associated with underlying value increase.

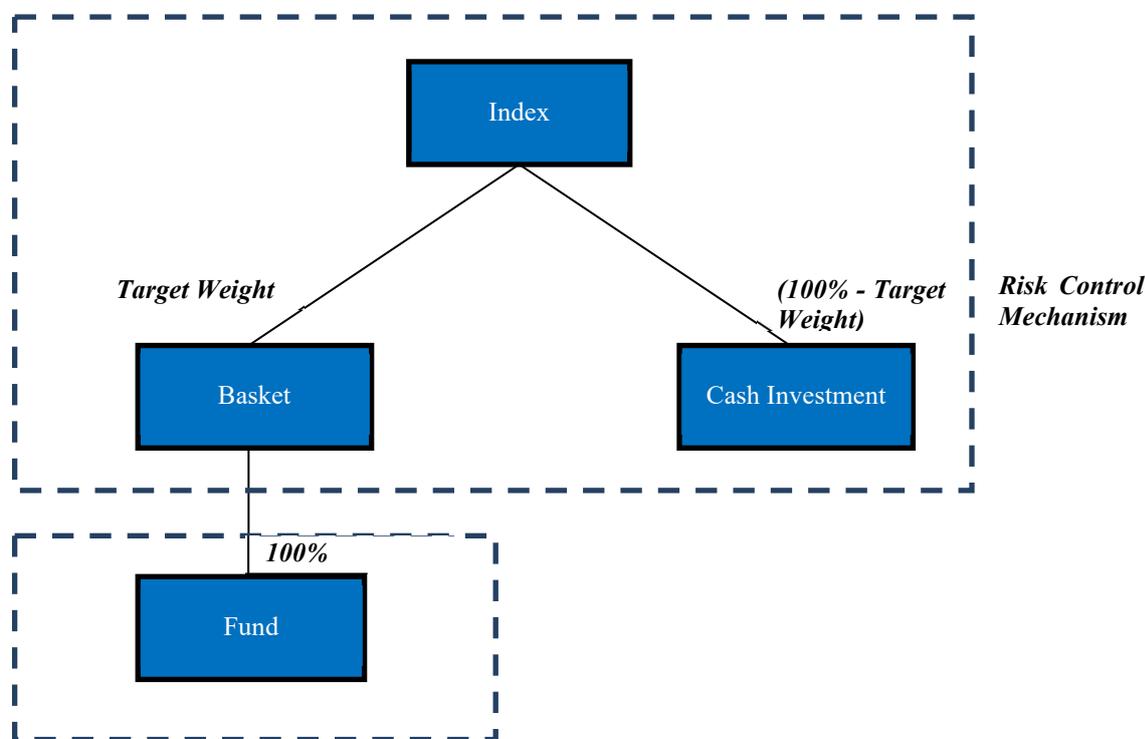

It should be highlighted that the minimum exposure to the Basket is 0% even when the Basket volatility has reached a level higher than the Target Volatility. As a result, exposure to the Basket cannot be negative.

Representation of the Index in Diagram

In the above diagram, the target weight represents the percentage weight assigned by the Index to the Basket which is determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

What impacts the level of the Index?

The main driver of the level of the Index is the performance of the underlying Funds. In general terms, if the Funds increase in value, the Index level will increase as well and vice versa proportionally to the allocation percentage assigned by the Index to such Funds as determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

However, the Index level is impacted by a number of other components as follows:

- The Index is determined by deducting the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the Funds that make up the Basket. This cost is represented by the Stockholm Interbank 3-month rate. The higher the borrowing rates, the lower the performance of the Index. In an environment where borrowing rates are significant, the Index may exhibit material underperformance when compared to a direct investment in the underlying Funds.

Description of the MS 16% Risk Control ER Index Linked to Emerging Markets Equity Fund

- The Index is calculated by deducting a 1.00% per annum decrement percentage rate, which is deducted daily pro rata. This means that the Index annual performance would be on average 1.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without such decrement.

2. Overview

This section provides an overview of a number of features of the Index. There are aspects of the Index to which this section does not refer. Prospective investors should read the entire Description, including (without limitation) the section "Risk Factors and Investment Considerations" under Risk Factor 9.8(i), before making any investment decision. Capitalised terms not otherwise defined shall have the meaning given to them elsewhere in this Description.

Summary

The Index aims to provide exposure to the Index Components and to maintain the volatility of the Index at a specified level through the use of the volatility target mechanism which adjusts the Effective Exposure if the predicted volatility of the Index exceeds the volatility target by a pre-specified trigger threshold.

An Index Level is calculated in relation to each Index Business Day by the Index Calculation Agent. This will be used in connection with one or more Financial Products issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Generally, only a Financial Product issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group is permitted to use or reference the Index (directly or indirectly) but other Financial Products issued or entered into by financial services providers other than members of the Morgan Stanley Group may be permitted to use or reference the Index with the consent of a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. A Financial Product Investor has no ownership or other rights to or in respect of Index Components in its capacity as a Financial Product Investor or any other assets which are from time to time comprised in the Index.

The Index references a "notional" or synthetic exposure to the Index Component and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership. The Index merely identifies the Index Component and a rules-based strategy, the performance of which is used as a reference point for calculating Index Levels.

This Section 2 (Overview) is subject to, and qualified by, the remainder of this Description.

3. Index Sponsor

The Index has been developed by Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc ("MSIP"). The Index is administered by the index sponsor or any successor thereto (the "Index Sponsor"). The initial Index Sponsor is MSIP.

The Index Sponsor controls the creation and operation of the Index administrative process, including all stages involved in the production and dissemination of the Index. The Index Sponsor also is responsible for the manner in which the Index is calculated and constructed, and is the final authority on the Index and the interpretation and application of this Description. Notwithstanding that the Index relies on information from third party sources, the Index Sponsor has primary responsibility for all aspects of the Index administration and determination process.

Although the Index Sponsor will obtain information for inclusion in or for use in the calculation of the Index from sources which the Index Sponsor considers reliable, the Index Sponsor will not independently verify such information and does not guarantee the accuracy and/or the completeness of the Index or any data included therein.

The Index Sponsor is not acting as a manager or an investment advisor in relation to the Index and has no relationship of agency or trust or any fiduciary duty to any person in respect of the Index and is not required to take the interests of any person into account in making any determination or calculation in relation to the Index.

The Index Sponsor makes no warranty or representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

No Financial Product is sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by MSIP or the Index Sponsor, and neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor makes any express or implied representations or warranties as to (a) the advisability of purchasing or assuming any risk in connection with any Financial Product, (b) the levels at which the Index stands at any particular time on any particular date, (c) the results to be obtained by the issuer or obligor of any Financial Product, or any Financial Product Investor, or any other person or entity from the use of the Index or any data included therein in connection with any licensed rights or for any other use or (d) any other matter. Neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor make any express or implied representations or warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose with respect to the Index or any data included therein.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, and without limiting any of the foregoing, in no event shall MSIP/ or the Index Sponsor have any liability (whether in negligence or otherwise) to any person for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, consequential or any other damages (including lost profits) even if notified of the possibility of such damages.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor accepts any legal liability to any person for publishing or not continuing to publish for any period of time any Index Level at any particular place or any particular time.

MSIP may in its sole and absolute discretion delegate and/or transfer any of its obligations and/or functions in relation to the administration and determination of the Index to one or more third parties as it deems appropriate from time to time. MSIP in exercising such right is not required to take into account the interests of any Financial Product Investors or transactions linked in whole or in part to the Index.

4. *Index Calculation Agent

The Index is calculated by MSIP (or any successor thereto) (the "Index Calculation Agent").

The Index Calculation Agent is responsible for compiling and calculating the Index pursuant to this Description. The Index Sponsor retains the discretion to terminate the appointment of the Index Calculation Agent and to appoint an alternative Index Calculation Agent.

Subject as provided by applicable law and regulation, the Index Calculation Agent expressly disclaims all liability for any inaccuracy in calculations and the publication of the Index, the information used for making adjustments to the Index and the actual adjustments, as well as for the quality, accuracy, timeliness or completeness of the information contained in the Index or this Description or for delays, omissions, interruptions in the delivery of the Index or information related to it. No liability to any person shall attach to the Index Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of any powers, duties or discretions.

The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

The Index Calculation Agent's calculations and determinations in relation to the Index shall be binding on all persons in the absence of manifest error. The term "manifest error" as used herein shall mean an error that is plain and obvious and can be identified from the results of the calculation or determination itself without (i) recourse to the underlying data or (ii) any application or re-application of any formulae. No person (whether a Financial Product Investor or otherwise) will be entitled to proceed (and shall be deemed to have agreed to waive proceedings) against the Index Calculation Agent in connection with any such calculations or determinations or any failure to make any calculations or determinations in relation to the Index.

For so long as the Index Calculation Agent constitutes and calculates the Index, the Index Calculation Agent does not accept any liability for loss or damage of any kind (including, without limitation, any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages (including loss of profits)) arising from the use of such information in any such calculation or determination. The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index itself and disclaims all warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or use with respect to the Index or any information in connection with it.

5. *Index Data

The Index is calculated on the basis of publicly available third party data. In particular, the Index will utilise the Index Component Value, the Index Funding Rate and the Funding Rate in respect of each

Index Component as published on the relevant Index Component Price Source in respect of such Index Component.

No assurance can be given that any such Index Component Values, Index Funding Rate or Funding Rate will be published on the relevant Index Component Price Source, on the Index Funding Rate Screen Page or on the Funding Rate Screen Page accurately, in a timely manner or at all and the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent have relied on, and will rely on, such Index Component Values and Funding Rate as they are published on the relevant Index Component Price Source or Funding Rate Screen Page. Neither the Index Sponsor nor the Index Calculation Agent has independently verified the information extracted from such sources and accepts no responsibility or liability in respect thereof.

6.8 Miscellaneous

Each Index Level shall be published by the Index Calculation Agent (rounded to two decimal places, with 0.005 being rounded upwards), as set out in Section 7 (Publication).

For the avoidance of doubt, the Index Level is tracked without rounding by the Index Calculation Agent, and all calculations in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) are based on the unrounded Index Level, while the rounded level is disseminated for publication.

The methodology described in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) is subject to the provisions set out in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions).

6.9 Index Live Date and Retrospective Calculations

The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent since the Index Live Date on a live basis.

Index performance in respect of the period from (and including) the Index Base Date to (but excluding) the Index Live Date (the "Back-test Period") has been simulated and is not actual performance. Accordingly the Index has been calculated retrospectively by the Index Calculation Agent on a hypothetical basis with the Index having an Index Level equal to the Initial Index Level on the Index Base Date.

The Index was launched by the Index Sponsor on the Index Live Date. The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent for the period from (and including) the Index Base Date. All prospective investors should be aware that any retrospective calculation of the Index means that no actual investment existed at any time during the period of the retrospective calculation and as such, the performance of the Index is purely hypothetical. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a guide to future performance.

The methodology and the strategy used for the calculation and retrospective calculation of the Index have been developed with the advantage of hindsight. In reality, it is not possible to invest with the advantage of hindsight and therefore past performance is purely theoretical.

The market conditions which existed during the Back-test Period are not necessarily representative of the market conditions which may exist in the future. In addition, the market conditions in the Back-test Period do not reflect the effect on the relevant markets of the launch of the Index and of the delivery of exposures to the Index through Financial Products, which may include any hedging by the provider or issuer of such Financial Products. Where the Index has been developed to identify and to monetise a particular opportunity in the relevant markets, it should be noted that corresponding investments made by market participants, including any hedging by the providers of Financial Products, may erode such an opportunity, and therefore the hypothetical Index performance in respect of the Back-test Period may overstate the actual performance of any Financial Product.

7. Publication

Subject to Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) below, the Index Calculation Agent will make available (i) the Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day as soon as reasonably practicable after 8 am London time (the "Index Publication Time") on the second Index Business Day immediately following such Index Business Day or where, in the sole discretion of the Index Calculation Agent, publication on such Index Business Day is not possible or practicable, the immediately following Index Business Day on the Bloomberg Page or such other source as the Index Sponsor may select from time to time at its reasonable discretion and (ii) details of any adjustments made to the Index as described in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) to Financial Product Investors.

Subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor accepts no liability to any person for any publication, suspension of publication or non-publication of the Index Level for any period or in any place.

Any publication described in this Section 7 (Publication) may be restricted, except as otherwise provided by law, by means determined as appropriate for such purpose by the Index Sponsor in its reasonable discretion including, without limitation, restricting access to a limited set of persons in accordance with arrangements agreed between MSIP and such persons.

- (vi) delay calculating and making available the Index Level until the next Index Business Day on which it determines that no Adjustment Event exists; and/or

(vii) cancel the Index and permanently cease to calculate the Index Level.

9.2 *Determinations made by the Index Sponsor in respect of Fund Potential Adjustment Events and Fund Events may have an adverse effect on the value of a Financial Product

Upon the determination by the Index Sponsor that a Fund Potential Adjustment Event has occurred, the Index Sponsor shall determine whether such Fund Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of the relevant Fund Interest and, if so, whether the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply, or if an Extraordinary Event has occurred the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply which may, in each case, adversely affect the Index Level and, therefore, the value of a Financial Product.

Fund Potential Adjustment Events include, amongst other things (a) a sub-division, consolidation or re-classification of Fund Interests, (b) an extraordinary dividend, (c) a repurchase by the relevant Fund of the relevant Fund Interests or (d) any event having a dilutive or concentrative effect on the value of the relevant Fund Interest. Fund Events include, amongst other things, (1) a nationalisation of the relevant Fund Interest, (2) the occurrence of one or fund insolvency events, (3) a breach of strategy by the relevant Fund and (4) a force majeure event in respect of the relevant Fund Interests.

9.3 *Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process

The Index is calculated on the basis of algorithmic formulas and therefore no discretion can be exercised by the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent in the calculation of the Index. The Index Sponsor will, subject as provided below, employ the methodology set out in this Description to calculate the Index. While the Index Sponsor currently employs this methodology, no assurance can be given that fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances will not arise that would, in the view of the Index Sponsor, necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description.

However, on occasion, there may be situations, outside the pre-defined adjustments and rebalances, which may make an adjustment of the methodology appropriate or necessary to ensure that the Index continues to achieve its objectives. These situations may include fiscal, market, regulatory, juridical, financial or, without limitation, any other circumstances that was not anticipated to occur when the Index was launched.

The Index Sponsor may decide that these situations necessitate or make desirable a modification or change to this Description. Any such decision will however be taken in a commercially reasonable manner and exclusively in order to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it was designed to represent in the sole determination of the Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent.

The Index Sponsor may make any amendment to this Description (a "Change") which in its determination is not material to Financial Product Investors, including if it is of a formal, minor or technical nature or to correct a manifest error. In this case the Index Sponsor is not required to consult with Financial Product Investors. Details of the Change will be made available by the Index Sponsor in accordance with Section 7 (Publication). For the purposes of determining the materiality of a Change, the Index Sponsor shall consider a change to be material if it may have a potentially material effect on any future level of the Index.

In relation to any Change to this Description other than as described in the immediately preceding paragraph (a "Material Change") the Index Sponsor will give prior notice to Financial Product Investors that a Material Change is proposed. Details of the Material Change will then be available upon request to the Index Sponsor to allow Financial Product Investors to give any comments on the proposed Material Change.

The Index Sponsor is required to give at least ten Index Business Days' notice of a Material Change before making this, provided that it may reduce this notice period to not less than one Index Business Day in the case of a Material Change which is required to ensure that the Index may be fully hedged on an effective basis by or on behalf of any member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Modifications or adjustments which the Index Sponsor may make include, without limitation, amendments to the methodology, and substitution or removal of underlying Index Components from the Index, which, in each case, may have a negative impact on the performance of the Index.

Any comments from Financial Product Investors and the Index Sponsor's responses to these will be made accessible to Financial Product Investors upon request to the Index Sponsor, except where the comment provider has requested confidentiality. However any such comments and responses may not be available prior to the Material Change being made.

Subject as provided in the MS Benchmark Statement, if any modification or adjustment is made to the composition or calculation of the Index in accordance with Section 9.3 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process), the Index Sponsor will make such modifications or adjustments based on market conditions and other relevant factors as in the judgment of the Index Sponsor are necessary to ensure that the Index continues to reflect, as closely as possible, the underlying economic interest it is designed to represent.

9.4 Consequences of Fund Events

If the Index Sponsor determines that a Fund Event has occurred in respect of a Fund (a "Relevant Fund"), then the procedures under Section 9.1 (Adjustment Events) will apply. Any such adjustments made in accordance with the foregoing may include adjustments to account for the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund instead of the Underlying Fund Price and, if relevant, an amount determined by the Index Sponsor in respect of interest (compounded on a daily basis) on the Removal Value of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund accrued at an overnight rate relating to the Index Currency selected by the Index Sponsor from (and including) the date on which any replacement of the Relevant Fund is effective.

Where it is required to determine a valuation of the Relevant Fund for the purposes of this Section 9.4 (Consequences of Fund Events) by reference to the Underlying Fund Price of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund, the Index Sponsor shall determine the mechanics for calculating such valuation of the Fund Interest in respect of such Relevant Fund (which valuation may be zero) by reference to such sources as it considers appropriate including, but not limited to, the value that a third party on arms' length terms would be willing to pay for the transfer to it of such Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund (or the portion of a hypothetical derivative contract in so far as it relates to the Fund Interest in respect of the Relevant Fund and does not take into account the creditworthiness of any party thereto).

10. Errors and Corrections

If:

- (i) any Index Component Value in respect of any Index Component or other variable, input or other parameter that is used to calculate the Index is subsequently changed or corrected and the change or correction is published by the relevant Index Component Price Source or other data source (as applicable); or
- (ii) the Index Calculation Agent identifies an error or omission in any of its calculations or determinations with respect to the Index Level in respect of any Index Business Day (including, without limitation, following an incorrect implementation of the methodology set out in this Description, an error in data entry, or a manual or system error),

then, in each case, the Index Sponsor may correct and restate any published Index Level in respect of any relevant Index Business Day (including, without limitation, a correction and restatement of the Index Level published for any relevant Index Business Day with retrospective effect) and/or each subsequent Index Business Day. Upon the occurrence of such event, the Index Calculation Agent shall inform the Index Sponsor and MSIP promptly.

The Index Sponsor will determine whether such error requires a change in the composition or calculation of the Index and, if so, the procedures under Section 9.3 (Adjustment procedures, notification and consultation process) will apply.

11. Governance

Morgan Stanley has adopted the "Principles for Financial Benchmarks" published by the International Organization of Securities Commissions ("IOSCO") on 17 July 2013 (the "Principles") on a proportionate basis.

The Index and this Description have been approved in accordance with and are subject to the internal governance procedures implemented by Morgan Stanley in compliance with the Principles and managed by an internal oversight committee (the "Index Committee").

The functions of calculation and valuation of the Index on each Index Business Day, as described in this Description, are carried out by a separate team at Morgan Stanley which is organisationally independent from the Index Sponsor.

The remuneration of the team which carries out the function of the Index Calculation Agent is not linked to the performance of the Index.

12. Discontinuation

Notwithstanding Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), the Index Sponsor may, in its sole discretion, after consultation with the Index Committee (except where, in the circumstances set out under (iii) below, such consultation is not possible), discontinue calculating and publishing the Index at any time upon the occurrence of any of the following:

- (i) as outlined in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions), as the result of an Adjustment Event;
- (ii) the Index Sponsor and/or, where no successor to it is available in the determination of the Index Sponsor, the Index Calculation Agent terminates its index/strategy publication or calculation (as applicable) business;
- (iii) the Index Sponsor and/or the Index Calculation Agent is subject to a voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up or institutes or has instituted against it, by a regulator, supervisor or other similar official, a proceeding seeking a judgment of insolvency or bankruptcy or other similar;
- (iv) subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor determines that it shall no longer continue to publish the Index; and/or
- (v) the Index Sponsor determines in its sole and absolute discretion that the Index is or will be no longer representative of the economic reality it was intended to measure.

Upon any such discontinuance, the Index Sponsor will use commercially reasonable efforts to publicly announce such discontinuance as soon as is reasonably practicable prior to the effective date.

The Index Sponsor shall determine if a commercially reasonable alternative index, the sponsor of which is a member of the Morgan Stanley Group, is available for use as an alternative to the Index and, to the extent reasonably possible, it shall maintain the original Index in existence in order to facilitate an orderly transition to the alternative index.

OVERVIEW OF THE MS GLOBAL EQUITY FUND 16% RISK CONTROL ER INDEX

This section provides a narrative, non-technical explanation of the intended investment objective of the Index and its calculation methodology. The information in this section is by way of explanation of information appearing in the Index Rules. The Index is governed by the Index Rules and therefore a full understanding of the Index can only be achieved with a full reading of that section.

What is the Index?

The Index is a rules-based strategy denominated in SEK which aims to provide exposure to an equally weighted basket of two equity mutual funds, as described below (the "Basket"), whilst maintaining a volatility at or around 16% (the "Target Volatility"). To pursue this objective, the Index implements a daily "Risk Control Mechanism" which adjusts the exposure of the Index in response to the increases or decreases of the volatility of the Basket. When volatility increases, the Index reduces exposure to Basket and invests in a notional, non-interest bearing, cash investment. When the volatility decreases, the Index increases exposure to the Basket, up to a maximum exposure of 150%, and reduces its exposure to cash.

When the Index's exposure to the Basket is higher than 100%, the Index uses a "leveraged" exposure to the underlying funds. Leverage refers to the practice of using debt to amplify potential returns, by allocating more than 100% of the Index to the underlying funds. The maximum leverage the Index can employ is capped at 150%.

The Basket is invested in each of the two underlying Funds with equal weighting (50%/50%). As the daily performance of each Fund fluctuates, the effective weight of each Fund within the Basket will vary from the weight it was originally assigned. As a result, the Basket operates at the end of each calendar month a re-weighting of the Funds to their original weights.

Does the Index represent a physical investment in the Basket?

The Index can be described as a "notional" investment in the Basket or as a "synthetic portfolio" as there is no actual asset held in respect of the Index. The Index simply reflects a strategy calculated using the value of a theoretical investment in each of the relevant components.

What does "Excess Return" mean?

The Index is construed as an "Excess Return" asset. This means that the level of the Index is determined net of costs, such as the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the notional assets that make up the Basket. In practical terms, an Excess Return investment represents the returns of a hypothetical investment in an asset, where such investment is funded with borrowed cash, thus incurring running interest. This is to be opposed to a Total Return investment which assumes that such investment is fully funded.

What does "Decrement" mean?

The Index is calculated by deducting a 2.00% per annum* percentage rate (the "Decrement") applied daily pro rata to the Index value. This deduction will impact negatively the performance of the Index over time, meaning that the Index annual performance would be on average 2.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without such deduction.

*Per annum refers to a period of 360 calendar days.

How does the Risk Control Mechanism Work?

The Index targets a volatility at or around 16% by allocating exposure to the Basket based on the realised volatility of the Basket itself. The target weight assigned by the Index to the Basket on any business day is the ratio of 16% to the realised volatility of the Basket. The realised volatility of the Basket is measured using its returns within a 20-business day period ending 2 days prior to the time of calculation.

The realised volatility is a measure of the magnitude of changes in price of a given financial instrument. When the Funds experience higher volatility, it means greater changes in their price. In such environment, exposure to the Funds can produce unpredictable results. Volatility can anticipate both a decline or a rebound in the Funds. A "volatility target" mechanism aims to achieve a target volatility so that, as volatility increases beyond the target, the Index reduces exposure to the Funds. In practical terms, when exposure to the Funds is reduced, the level of the Index is less sensitive to the volatility of such Funds and therefore will suffer less from a decline in the performance of the Funds. A "volatility target" mechanism can however also hinder the ability to participate in any increase in the value of the Fund when high volatility is associated with underlying value increase.

It should be highlighted that the minimum exposure to the Basket is 0% even when the Basket volatility has reached a level higher than the Target Volatility. As a result, exposure to the Basket cannot be negative.

Representation of the Index in Diagram

In the above diagram, the target weight represents the percentage weight assigned by the Index to the Basket which is determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

What impacts the level of the Index?

The main driver of the level of the Index is the performance of the underlying Funds. In general terms, if the Funds increase in value, the Index level will increase as well and vice versa proportionally to the allocation percentage assigned by the Index to such Funds as determined by the Risk Control Mechanism.

However, the Index level is impacted by a number of other components as follows:

- The Index is determined by deducting the cost of funding and/or borrowing a hypothetical investor would incur investing in the Funds that make up the Basket. This cost is represented by the Stockholm Interbank 3-month rate. The higher the borrowing rates, the lower the performance of the Index. In an environment where borrowing rates are significant, the Index may exhibit material underperformance when compared to a direct investment in the underlying Funds.
- The Index is calculated by deducting a 2.00% per annum decrement percentage rate, which is deducted daily pro rata. This means that the Index annual performance would be on average 2.00% lower than what it would otherwise be without such decrement.

2. Overview

This section provides an overview of a number of features of the Index. There are aspects of the Index to which this section does not refer. Prospective investors should read the entire Description, including (without limitation) the section "Risk Factors and Investment Considerations" under Risk Factor 9.8(i), before making any investment decision. Capitalised terms not otherwise defined shall have the meaning given to them elsewhere in this Description.

Summary

The Index aims to provide exposure to the Index Components and to maintain the volatility of the Index at a specified level through the use of the volatility target mechanism which adjusts the Effective Exposure if the predicted volatility of the Index exceeds the volatility target by a pre-specified trigger threshold.

An Index Level is calculated in relation to each Index Business Day by the Index Calculation Agent. This will be used in connection with one or more Financial Products issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. Generally, only a Financial Product issued or entered into by a member of the Morgan Stanley Group is permitted to use or reference the Index (directly or indirectly) but other Financial Products issued or entered into by financial services providers other than members of the Morgan Stanley Group may be permitted to use or reference the Index with the consent of a member of the Morgan Stanley Group. A Financial Product Investor has no ownership or other rights to or in respect of Index Components in its capacity as a Financial Product Investor or any other assets which are from time to time comprised in the Index.

The Index references a "notional" or synthetic exposure to the Index Component and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership. The Index merely identifies the Index Component and a rules-based strategy, the performance of which is used as a reference point for calculating Index Levels.

This Section 2 (Overview) is subject to, and qualified by, the remainder of this Description.

3. Index Sponsor

The Index has been developed by Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc ("MSIP"). The Index is administered by the index sponsor or any successor thereto (the "Index Sponsor"). The initial Index Sponsor is MSIP.

The Index Sponsor controls the creation and operation of the Index administrative process, including all stages involved in the production and dissemination of the Index. The Index Sponsor also is responsible for the manner in which the Index is calculated and constructed, and is the final authority on the Index and the interpretation and application of this Description. Notwithstanding that the Index relies on information from third party sources, the Index Sponsor has primary responsibility for all aspects of the Index administration and determination process.

Although the Index Sponsor will obtain information for inclusion in or for use in the calculation of the Index from sources which the Index Sponsor considers reliable, the Index Sponsor will not independently verify such information and does not guarantee the accuracy and/or the completeness of the Index or any data included therein.

The Index Sponsor is not acting as a manager or an investment advisor in relation to the Index and has no relationship of agency or trust or any fiduciary duty to any person in respect of the Index and is not required to take the interests of any person into account in making any determination or calculation in relation to the Index.

The Index Sponsor makes no warranty or representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

No Financial Product is sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by MSIP or the Index Sponsor, and neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor makes any express or implied representations or warranties as to (a) the advisability of purchasing or assuming any risk in connection with any Financial Product, (b) the levels at which the Index stands at any particular time on any particular date, (c) the results to be obtained by the issuer or obligor of any Financial Product, or any Financial Product Investor, or any other person or entity from the use of the Index or any data included therein in connection with any licensed rights or for any other use or (d) any other matter. Neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor make any express or implied representations or warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose with respect to the Index or any data included therein.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, and without limiting any of the foregoing, in no event shall MSIP/ or the Index Sponsor have any liability (whether in negligence or otherwise) to any person for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, consequential or any other damages (including lost profits) even if notified of the possibility of such damages.

Subject as provided by any applicable law or regulation, neither MSIP nor the Index Sponsor accepts any legal liability to any person for publishing or not continuing to publish for any period of time any Index Level at any particular place or any particular time.

MSIP may in its sole and absolute discretion delegate and/or transfer any of its obligations and/or functions in relation to the administration and determination of the Index to one or more third parties as it deems appropriate from time to time. MSIP in exercising such right is not required to take into account the interests of any Financial Product Investors or transactions linked in whole or in part to the Index.

4. *Index Calculation Agent

The Index is calculated by MSIP (or any successor thereto) (the "Index Calculation Agent").

The Index Calculation Agent is responsible for compiling and calculating the Index pursuant to this Description. The Index Sponsor retains the discretion to terminate the appointment of the Index Calculation Agent and to appoint an alternative Index Calculation Agent.

Subject as provided by applicable law and regulation, the Index Calculation Agent expressly disclaims all liability for any inaccuracy in calculations and the publication of the Index, the information used for making adjustments to the Index and the actual adjustments, as well as for the quality, accuracy, timeliness or completeness of the information contained in the Index or this Description or for delays, omissions, interruptions in the delivery of the Index or information related to it. No liability to any person shall attach to the Index Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of any powers, duties or discretions.

The Index Calculation Agent makes no representation (implied or otherwise) as to the performance of any Index Component and/or the Index.

The Index Calculation Agent's calculations and determinations in relation to the Index shall be binding on all persons in the absence of manifest error. The term "manifest error" as used herein shall mean an error that is plain and obvious and can be identified from the results of the calculation or determination itself without (i) recourse to the underlying data or (ii) any application or re-application of any formulae. No person (whether a Financial Product Investor or otherwise) will be entitled to proceed (and shall be deemed to have agreed to waive proceedings) against the Index Calculation Agent in connection with any such calculations or determinations or any failure to make any calculations or determinations in relation to the Index.

For so long as the Index Calculation Agent constitutes and calculates the Index, the Index Calculation Agent does not accept any liability for loss or damage of any kind (including, without limitation, any special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages (including loss of profits)) arising from the use of such information in any such calculation or determination. For the avoidance of doubt, the Index Level is tracked without rounding by the Index Calculation Agent, and all calculations in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) are based on the unrounded Index Level, while the rounded level is disseminated for publication.

The methodology described in this Section 6 (Calculation of the Index) is subject to the provisions set out in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions).

6.9 Index Live Date and Retrospective Calculations

The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent since the Index Live Date on a live basis.

Index performance in respect of the period from (and including) the Index Base Date to (but excluding) the Index Live Date (the "Back-test Period") has been simulated and is not actual performance. Accordingly the Index has been calculated retrospectively by the Index Calculation Agent on a hypothetical basis with the Index having an Index Level equal to the Initial Index Level on the Index Base Date.

The Index was launched by the Index Sponsor on the Index Live Date. The Index has been calculated by the Index Calculation Agent for the period from (and including) the Index Base Date. All prospective investors should be aware that any retrospective calculation of the Index means that no actual investment existed at any time during the period of the retrospective calculation and as such, the performance of the Index is purely hypothetical. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a guide to future performance.

The methodology and the strategy used for the calculation and retrospective calculation of the Index have been developed with the advantage of hindsight. In reality, it is not possible to invest with the advantage of hindsight and therefore past performance is purely theoretical.

The market conditions which existed during the Back-test Period are not necessarily representative of the market conditions which may exist in the future. In addition, the market conditions in the Back-test Period do not reflect the effect on the relevant markets of the launch of the Index and of the delivery of exposures to the Index through Financial Products, which may include any hedging by the provider or issuer of such Financial Products. Where the Index has been developed to identify and to monetise a particular opportunity in the relevant markets, it should be noted that corresponding investments made by market participants, including any hedging by the providers of Financial Products, may erode such an opportunity, and therefore the hypothetical Index performance in respect of the Back-test Period may overstate the actual performance of any Financial Product.

7. Publication

Subject to Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) below, the Index Calculation Agent will make available (i) the Index Level in respect of each Index Business Day as soon as reasonably practicable after 8 am London time (the "Index Publication Time") on the second Index Business Day immediately following such Index Business Day or where, in the sole discretion of the Index Calculation Agent, publication on such Index Business Day is not possible or practicable, the immediately following Index Business Day on the Bloomberg Page or such other source as the Index Sponsor may select from time to time at its reasonable discretion and (ii) details of any adjustments made to the Index as described in Section 10 (Adjustment and Disruption Provisions) to Financial Product Investors.

Subject as provided by applicable law or regulation, the Index Sponsor accepts no liability to any person for any publication, suspension of publication or non-publication of the Index Level for any period or in any place.

Any publication described in this Section 7 (Publication) may be restricted, except as otherwise provided by law, by means determined as appropriate for such purpose by the Index Sponsor in its reasonable discretion including, without limitation, restricting access to a limited set of persons in accordance with arrangements agreed between MSIP and such persons.
