SCHEDULE 2

AMENDMENTS TO THE TAXATION OF SECURITIES

Section G.9 entitled "Taxation of Securities" set out on pages 369 to 479 of the Base Prospectus shall be amended as follows:

The first paragraph under the heading "Application of special bonds tax regime" in the sub-section entitled "Czech Republic Taxation" on page 413 of the Base Prospectus shall be updated as follows:

"In 2021, new Czech income tax rules for the taxation of bonds came into effect. According to these rules, income from bonds is classified and taxed strictly by reference to the Czech bonds regulations. However, these regulations do not consider securities to be bonds if the right to repayment of a certain amount, which is linked to such securities, depends even partially on the occurrence of a certain event. Therefore, except in cases ~~of a full capital protection ensuring that~~ where a holder's capital is not at risk i.e. a holder's investment is returned at redemption, settlement or maturity under all circumstances, it can be reasonably argued that this new tax regime does not cover instruments with complex payoff structures, such as the Securities. This Discussion assumes that the special bonds tax regime does not apply to the Securities."
