

615 W LAFAYETTE

LOBBY

Formerly the Detroit News Building, every floor of 615 W. Lafayette has nods to its rich history as a news building, with hand-crafted sculptures and artifacts from printing pioneers.

Throughout the building's restoration, architects referred to historical pictures to bring back original appearances of the stone walls, plaster ceilings and a prominent hollow, metal globe light that shines from the center of the Lobby ceiling.
