2. HEALTH AND FITNESS REQUIREMENTS

It is the obligation of each Tour Member to ensure that he/she is in good physical, emotional and mental health prior to the tour, having regard to the destination and undertakings of the tour. Each Tour Member confirms that he/she has answered the questions on the Application Form or other requisite medical forms accurately and agrees to promptly inform Antipodeans Abroad if any of the information supplied becomes incorrect before the scheduled departure date of the tour. All Tour Members require medical clearance from a medically qualified General Practitioner, advising that they are fit to travel on the program, prior to departure. Antipodeans Abroad reserves the right to withdraw any Tour Members at any time if in its sole discretion, it deems the Tour Member's physical, emotional or mental health could compromise the Tour Member's safety or any other Tour Members' safety. In such circumstances, the Tour member will be treated as having cancelled his or her participation in the Tour.

3. DOCUMENTATION AND LEGAL COMPLIANCE

Each Tour Member is responsible for obtaining and having available the necessary documents including visas to enable him/her to participate in the tour and agrees to comply with all legislation, immigration, customs and foreign exchange regulations of the countries through which the tour shall pass.

4. INSURANCE

Antipodeans Abroad requires each Tour Member to have comprehensive travel insurance that includes emergency, casualty evacuation, compensation for loss or damage to certain property or possessions and public liability:

- (i) Comprehensive travel insurance is included in the total price of; School Expeditions, School Tours, Schoolies Unearthed and Language Immersion Programs. On occasion, Schools will choose to provide their own travel insurance instead of using Antipodeans Abroad's insurance. This will be outlined where applicable in the marketing material provided. Where this is the case, each tour member is responsible for purchasing their own comprehensive travel insurance to cover emergency, casualty evacuation, compensation for loss or damage to certain property or possessions and public liability
- (ii) Comprehensive travel insurance is not included in the total price of University Programs. Each tour member is therefore responsible for purchasing their own comprehensive travel insurance to cover emergency, casualty evacuation, compensation for loss or damage to certain property or possessions and public liability.

5. PRICES AND EXTRAS

The price quoted includes administration and travel arrangements both internal and external for tours with the following exceptions:

- (a) Each Tour Member is responsible for arrangement and payment of all his/her costs for inoculations, passports, visas and airport taxes where required.
- (b) Each Tour Member is responsible for providing his/her own prescribed medical requirements, personal equipment and clothing as advised and detailed under the appropriate sections of the tour information and any supplementary written communications or instructions sent to Tour Members.
- (c) Tour costs are based on ground costs, airfares (Program dependent) and exchange rates at the time of application and may be subject to fluctuations. Antipodeans Abroad endeavours to maintain its advertised price but reserves the right to increase this price without notice at any time up to and including the day of departure of any tour in the event of exchange rate fluctuations, increases in fuel costs, airport charges, airfares or increases in ground operator service fees.

6. CANCELLATION

Each Tour Member acknowledges that he/she has been given the opportunity to take out travel insurance that may cover cancellations in some but not all circumstances. For all cancellations the following fees apply per Tour Member:

- i) Prior to 120 days before departure – total loss of deposit and 75% of any subsequent payments due.
- ii) Less than 120 days prior to departure and after commencement of travel - total loss of tour cost including deposit.
- iii) If a refund is applicable, payment will be processed 4-8 weeks following written notification.

9. ALTERATIONS TO DESTINATIONS, ITINERARY, TOUR LEADER, ETC.

Where circumstances arise such that in Antipodeans Abroad's opinion it is necessary or advisable to make alterations to the destination or departure date of a tour and/or changes to itinerary, routes, length or dates of the tour, identity of the tour leader(s), including without limitation joining one tour with another, then Antipodeans Abroad shall be entitled to make any or all of such alterations and changes without prior notification to or consultation with the Tour Member.

In such circumstances, the Tour member will be treated as having cancelled his or her participation in the Tour.

12. LATE OR VARIED PAYMENTS

- by the very nature of an Antipodeans tour, they are more challenging and demanding with a commensurately higher level of risk compared with conventional holidays, and involve potential exposure to injury and possibly death; and
- in the countries and regions in which Antipodean's tours are undertaken, standards of accommodation, transport, health care, hygiene, safety and service provision generally are often not as high as those standards in the Tour Member's home country; and
- at some stages during the tour operational control of the tour may be in the hands of a third party and that the Tour Members right of action in regard to any shortcomings of that third party's performance will not be against Antipodeans; and
- the additional dangers and risks associated with the tour may include difficult and dangerous terrain; high altitude; extremes of weather, including sudden and unexpected changes; political instability; remoteness from normal medical services and from communications; and evacuation difficulties in the event of illness or injury; and
- the enjoyment and excitement of adventure travel is derived in part from the inherent dangers and risks associated with adventure travel and that those inherent dangers and risks are a reason why the Applicant wishes to undertake the adventure tour, and
- the Applicant has submitted their booking for the tour after giving due consideration of relevant travel information including, without limitation, any relevant information or advice given by the governments of Australia and New Zealand and that it is the Applicant's responsibility to acquaint themselves with that information or advice, for the above reasons the Applicant therefore accepts the inherent and increased dangers and risks associated with the proposed adventure tour and the accompanying risk of injury, death or property damage or loss.

16. INDEMNITY Each Tour Member and parent or guardian acknowledge that the enjoyment and excitement of the tour is derived in part by travel and activity involving risks beyond the safety of life in their home country. Each Tour Member and parent or guardian accepts all the inherent risks of the tour and all activities associated or ancillary thereto. By signing the booking form the Applicant or where the Applicant is under the age of 18 years his/her parent or legal guardian agrees to be bound by the conditions set out in this agreement. Each Tour Member and where the Tour Member is under the age of 18 years the parent or legal guardian of the Tour Member will at all times indemnify and keep indemnified Antipodeans Abroad, its employees and tour leaders against all liabilities incurred by any or all of Antipodeans Abroad, its employees, tour leaders and tour operators providing services on its behalf, the Tour Member and his/her parent or legal guardian by reason of any of the following:
