

School Expeditions & Tours Operations Manager

Operations Manager - Schools

Antipodeans run challenging overseas adventures for young people that truly shape who they become in the future. We work hand in hand with over 150 Australian and New Zealand schools, creating incredible international experiences for students and teachers alike.

Our ethos of Leadership, Resilience and Mindfulness is central to who we are and how we go about business. We truly believe that travel is one of the most vital learning experiences a young person can have on their way to adulthood.
