

The Future of AI in Business

According to the Forbes Advisor survey 2024, businesses are using AI across a wide range of areas. The most popular applications include customer service, with 56% of respondents using AI for this purpose, and cybersecurity and fraud management, adopted by 51% of businesses.

80%

A global study by Tata Consultancy Services revealed that 80% of senior business leaders have already deployed artificial intelligence (AI) to enhance existing revenue streams or create new ones.

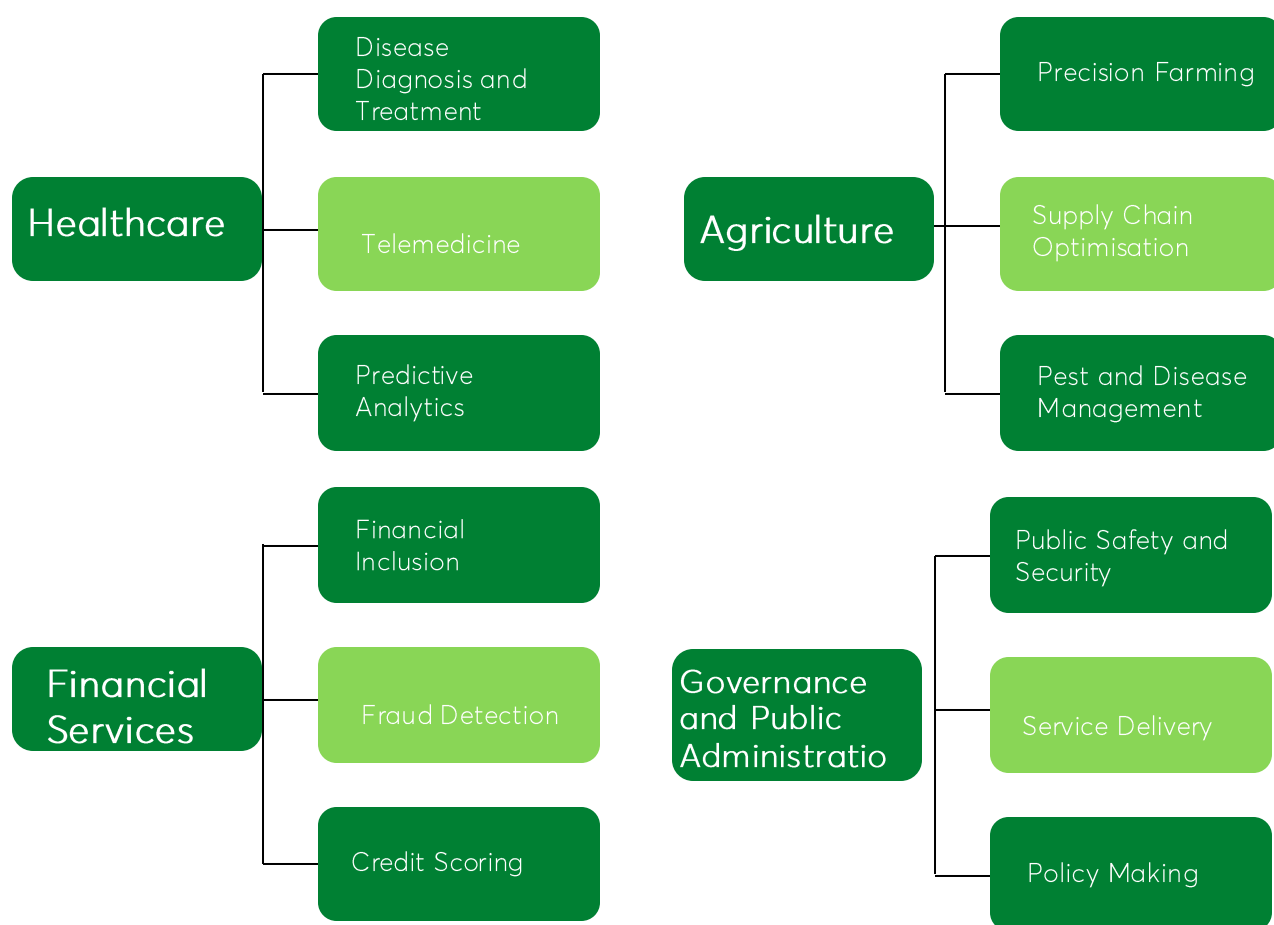

840 Million

The World Bank estimates that by 2025, Sub-Saharan Africa will have the world's fastest-growing workforce, with an estimated 840 million people entering the labor market by 2050.

100 Million

AI's development in Africa is attracting huge amounts of resources and funds, with Tunisian AI start-up InstaDeep "receiving $100m funding earlier in 2022."

Africa is home to over 2,400 AI organisations across diverse industries, with more than 75 actively leveraging AI technology. Here are highly productive ways that AI use cases can help businesses improve.

Experts predict that the AI boom could add $1.2 trillion to the African economy by 2030, increasing the continent's GDP by 5.6%.

At Spurt! we tackle the challenges facing small businesses and amplify them from local ventures into regional giants by leveraging the expertise of a pool of consultants.