HAPPY CAT, INC. Press Release April 15, 2025

We represent the Board of Directors of Happy Cat, Inc. While we acknowledge the public allegations made by Ms. Arsenault my office on behalf of the Board of Directors of Happy Cat deny the allegations. It is important to clarify her role in relation to Happy Cat, Inc.

Ms. Arsenault serves as the Trustee of the Christopher Arsenault Irrevocable Trust of 2023. The sole asset within this Trust is the real property where the tragic fire occurred.

Happy Cat, Inc. is a New York State Not-for-Profit Corporation. By definition, a Not-for-Profit cannot be owned, or be an asset of any Trust, including the Christopher Arsenault Irrevocable Trust of 2023, nor can it be an asset of any third party. Consequently, Ms. Arsenault has no fiduciary relationship with, or duty to, this Not-for-Profit organization.

The Board of Directors of Happy Cat is acting in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws, and the Not-for-Profit Law of New York State. Its goal is to safeguard the sanctuary's assets and to continue to fulfill Christopher Arsenault's lifelong vision. The fundraising proceeds are safe and remain intact. While we admire Ms. Arsenault's desire to further her father's dream, her actions are detrimental to the mission of Happy Cat, Inc. and disruptive to the ongoing rescue process.

Sincerely Yours,

Steven W. Stutman, PLLC
