APGC Junior Championship

History

The Asia-Pacific Junior Championship is conducted by the Asia-Pacific Golf Confederation. The inaugural event was held in 2015.

Mixed pairs from selected federations contest 18-holes fourball, 18-holes foursomes and 36-holes singles competition over three days. The combined total scores of the four rounds determine the winner of the APGC Junior Championship, while the leading male and female player are also recognised.
