

History & Honour Roll –

Australian Men’s Senior Amateur Championship

History

The Australian Men’s Senior Amateur Championship was first played in 1981, over 36-holes qualifying with the leading 32 players qualifying for elimination match play.

From 2004 onwards, the event has been contested over 54-holes stroke play. Players must be 55 years and over to be eligible for the Championship.

2021 will mark the first year event has been combined with the Australian Women’s Senior Amateur to feature men and women playing on the same course at the same time.

Tony Gresham (NSW), Trevor Wood (NSW), Rodney Barltrop (NZL) and Stefan Albinski (NSW) have all won the championship three times each.
