

THE WILLS AUSTRALIAN LADIES' OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP 1974

Conducted by the Australian Ladies' Golf Union

Played at the Victoria Golf Club, Melbourne, Victoria, February 22nd-24th, 1974.

54 Holes Stroke Play, consisting of three single rounds of 18 holes played on Friday 22nd, Saturday 23rd and Sunday 24th February, 1974. After the first two rounds the leading 50 players plus ties played the final round. All interstate and international representatives in the A.L.G.U. Open Amateur Teams' Competition were included in the third round, irrespective of their position in the field.

The Australian Ladies' Open Championship is open to women golfers having in the case of amateur golfers a handicap not exceeding 6 strokes under the handicapping system of the A.L.G.U. at the time of entry. In the case of professional golfers, handicaps must be certified by the appropriate L.P.G.A. or L.G.U. as having a current standard of play equivalent to that specified for an amateur golfer. Total prize money divided between the professional players was $10,000.
