

WOMEN'S TASMAN CUP

AUSTRALIAN REPRESENTATIVES AND RECORDS

The Women's Tasman Cup between Australia and New Zealand is played alternately between in Australia and New Zealand in conjunction with the national amateur championship. Teams comprise of four players with the best three scores from the two qualifying rounds counting towards the team total.

From 2007 until 2012 teams consisted of four players contesting Foursomes and Singles Match Play.

Prior to 2007, the event was played every two years, and each team consisted of five players to play Foursomes and Singles match play.

During the 1930's women players crossed and re-crossed the Tasman to compete in tournaments in Australia and New Zealand. In order to stimulate this competition between the two countries, it was decided to purchase a cup jointly and thus the Tasman Cup came to being.

The Tasman Cup was first played at Victoria Golf Club, Melbourne in 1933. The event was played biennially between Australian & New Zealand Teams, alternatively in Australia and New Zealand.
