

History & Australian Representatives – Queen Sirikit Cup

History

The Queen Sirikit Cup is recognised as the official women’s tournament in The Asia-Pacific.

The Queen Sirikit Cup is a silver handcrafted masterpiece donated by Her Majesty the Queen of Thailand in 1979 to Mom Kob Kaew Abhakara, then the President of Thailand Ladies Golf Association. The Queen gave her royal consent to have the cup named after her own name as the perpetual challenge cup for the Team Champion. An exact replica of the cup is presented to the team winner each year.

Thailand Ladies Golf Association hosted the inaugural Championship at Navataneer Golf Course in February 1979.

The championship is hosted annually on a rotation basis among 14 invited member countries with the objectives to promote the standard of ladies’ golf in the region and to promote goodwill and friendship among participating teams.

Each country is represented by 2-3 national team players who compete in the 54-holes stroke play over three rounds. The best two scores are counted each round as the team’s score. The winning team is determined by the lowest combined gross scores over the three rounds.
