

Reservable Group Day Use Areas

Updated 7-22-2021

Timber Park

30878 NW Evergreen Way | Estacada, OR 97023

Description: This day-use park is our closest to Portland and Salem, it is great for disc golf and picnicking. Situated along Estacada Lake above River Mill Dam, there's shoreline for fishing and paddling, as well as ball fields for organizing sporting events. Two picnic shelters, which can accommodate 75 people each, may be reserved for gatherings. There is also a small nature play area for all ages.

Picnic Shelter 1 & 2

Amenities (each)

- 2 charcoal BBQs
- Shelter 1 has 12 picnic tables
- Shelter 2 has 10 picnic tables
- Parking and restrooms nearby

Accommodates: 75 people per shelter

Fees: $60/day for each shelter + $8 reservation fee

Season: Year-round

Disc Golf Course

This tournament-quality course offers a decently challenging 21 holes among tall fir trees, open fields and dense brush. Moderate elevation changes and a good mix of open and tight holes. This is also the oldest 18+ hole course in Oregon.

Fees, Exclusive Use: (50+ people.) $180/day + $8 reservation fee

Fees, Open Use: $60/day + $8 reservation fee

Season: Year-round

Athletic Field & East Field

Fees: $60/day per field + $8 reservation fee

Season: Year-round

Reservations

Phone: Parks Information line at 503-630-8515 or the Timber Park Office at 503-630-5120.

Email: Download a Day Use Permit Application from portlandgeneral.com/parks and email it to pgeparks@pgn.com

Trojan Park

71760 Columbia River Highway | Rainier, OR 97048

Description: Trojan Park is a delightful day-use park with facilities for picnicking, hiking, biking, fishing, paddling and even disc golf. The 75-acre park includes a stocked lake, multi-use trails and a large sports playing field. The park, near the site of the former Trojan Nuclear Power Plant, has individual picnic tables as well as facilities for groups: two shelter complexes, each with two reservable sections. Electric stoves, sinks, water and electrical outlets are provided.

North and South Picnic Shelters

Amenities (each)

- 4 electric burners each half
- 1 sink each half
- Water, hose bib, electrical outlets
- South Shelter charcoal grills
 - Side 1: 3 // Side 2: 2
- North Shelter charcoal grills
 - Side 1 & 2: 3 each
- Parking at each shelter
- Restroom at each shelter

Accommodates: 150 people per full shelter (75 per half)

Fees, ½ of North or South: $60/day + $8 reservation fee

Fees, Full Shelter: $120/day + $16 reservation fee

Season: Saturday of Memorial Day to Labor Day. Open F/S/S after Labor Day until end of September.

Disc Golf Course

Scenic, challenging par 55 course that plays 18 holes around the cooling ponds of the de-commissioned Trojan Point Nuclear Facility. This is one of the only courses in the Pacific NW to feature extensive water hazards, with 11 holes playing over or adjacent to water.

Fees, Exclusive Use: (50+ people.) $180/day + $8 reservation fee

Fees, Open Use: $60/day + $8 reservation fee

Season: Open year-round. Picnic shelters, flush restrooms close October to Memorial Day Weekend.

Reservations

Phone: Parks Information line at 503-630-8515

Email: Download a Day Use Permit Application from portlandgeneral.com/parks and email it to pgeparks@pgn.com

Promontory Park

40600 E. Highway 224 | Estacada, OR 97023

Description: Promontory Park is a family-friendly destination in the Portland area. This alcohol-free park on the North Fork Reservoir of the Clackamas River has 36 campsites. It also has a reservable group shelter and a pond dedicated to anglers ages 17 and younger. The marina offers boat, kayak and stand-up paddleboard rentals, a store, a fishing pier and boat launches. There is a speed limit of 10 mph on the upper part of the reservoir. Nearby is the Wild and Scenic Upper Clackamas River, one of the best whitewater paddling rivers in Oregon; and the Mt. Hood National Forest, a mecca for hikers, cyclists, anglers and nature enthusiasts.

Kitchen Shelter

Amenities

- 12 electric burners
- 2 sinks
- Large charcoal grill
- 8 picnic tables
- Interior fireplace
- Outside fire pit
- Firewood available at Promontory Office, $5 a bundle
- Restrooms nearby
- Parking nearby with at least one ADA space

Special Rules: Alcohol is prohibited at Promontory Park.

Accommodates: 75 people

Fees: $60/day + $8 reservation fee

Season: Friday of Memorial Day Weekend to second Saturday in September.

Reservations

Phone: Parks Information line at 503-630-8515 or the Promontory Park Office at 503-630-7229.

Email: Download a Day Use Permit Application from portlandgeneral.com/parks and email it to pgeparks@pgn.com

Round Butte Overlook Park

44.601, -121.275 | SW Riverview Rd | Madras, OR 97741

Description: Round Butte Overlook Park is a scenic day-use area on the rim of the Deschutes River canyon. The highlight of the park is the observatory, where you can take in views of Lake Billy Chinook, Lake Simtustus and Round Butte Dam. It's also a great spot to view wildlife. Displays tell of the area's fish, wildlife, geology and history. The leisurely one-mile-long Round Butte Overlook Trail features vistas of Mount Jefferson and Mount Hood. The park also offers picnicking and a reservable group area.

Picnic Area

Amenities

- Small cooking area with 4 electric burners
- Sink with running water and hose bib
- (2) GFI outlets, (6) GFI outlets on light poles
- (2) 20' mounted picnic tables, (13) 6' wooden picnic tables, (1) 6' mounted picnic table
- Sand volleyball court
- Horse shoe pits
- Parking nearby
- Restrooms nearby in the observatory

Accommodates: Up to 200 people

Fees: $60/day + $8 reservation fee

Season: Saturday of Memorial Day weekend to Labor Day weekend. Closed on M/T/W. Open F/S/S only after Labor Day until end of September.

Reservations

Phone: Parks Information line at 503-630-8515 or the Pelton Park Office at 541-325-5292.

Email: Download a Day Use Permit Application from portlandgeneral.com/parks and email it to pgeparks@pgn.com

Trout Creek Ranch*

(For educational and environmental organizations)

(Gated trailhead coordinates) | 44.802, -121.065 | NE Coleman Rd | Gateway, OR 97741

Description: Trout Creek Ranch was first homesteaded in the 1890's, with its primary use being sheep ranching. The property was actively grazed until 1993. PGE purchased the property in 2000 and manages its wildlife and fisheries resources. Completed habitat enhancement projects include flood plain reconnection, rehabilitation of old farmed fields and noxious weed treatments. Approximately 30% of the summer steelhead run of the Deschutes River system is produced in the Trout Creek Watershed. The ranch and surrounding area are home to mule deer, Rocky Mountain elk, bobcat and cougar. Numerous birds and small mammals also call the ranch home.

Picnic Area

Amenities

- Covered lean-to area
- Grassy park area
- Spigot with non-potable water
- GFI outlets
- 4 picnic tables
- Small onsite parking
- Restrooms

Accommodates: Up to 50 people

Fees: Waived for educational or environmental organizations

Season: February through September, with seasonal nesting closures as applicable for raptors.

Reservations

Phone: Parks Information line at 503-630-8515 or the Pelton Park Office at 541-325-5292.

Email: Download a Day Use Permit Application from portlandgeneral.com/parks and email it to pgeparks@pgn.com

 Trout Creek Ranch's facilities are only available for reservations to educational and environmental organizations for qualifying educational activities.*