

PGE Residential EV Charging Pilot Program

Last updated: January 4, 2021

How to receive your PGE Residential EV Charging Pilot Program rebate

To receive your rebate, gather digital copies of the items on this checklist and email them to resevcharging@pgn.com. For any questions please visit our program page and click on the FAQs.

If submitting for the $500 Standard Installation rebate, please send:

- Product receipt, including date of purchase and amount paid
- Installation invoice (if electrician was used)
- Permits (if applicable)
- Photo of installed charger
- Photo of serial number and model number: this can be provided via the device nameplate at the back of the charger or a screenshot with the information from your EV charger app
- Photo of the inside of your home electric panel and back panel cover after installation

If submitting for the $1,000 Income-Eligible Installation rebate, please send:

- Product receipt, including date of purchase and amount paid
- Installation invoice (if electrician was used)
- Permits (if applicable)
- Photo of installed charger
- Photo of your serial number and model number: this can be provided via the device nameplate at the back of the charger or a screenshot with the information from your EV charger app
- Photo of the inside of your home electric panel and back panel cover after installation
- Income validation form and proof of income listed in the form

If submitting for the $50 bring your own charger (BYOC) rebate, please send:

- Photo of installed charger
- Photo of your serial number and model number: this can be provided via the device nameplate at the back of the charger or a screenshot with the information from your EV charger app
- Photo of the inside of your home electric panel and back panel cover after installation

