

2019 Environmental Stewardship Grants

Organization	Purpose	Amount
1000 Friends of Oregon	To support stewardship practices and planning projects aimed at helping the community adapt to climate change impact.	$5,000
Association of Northwest Steelheaders	To support programs that help improve fish passage, water management and the integration of wild broodstock into hatcheries.	$1,500
Clackamas River Basin Council	To support educational activities that involve youth and adults helping preserve and promote a healthy Clackamas watershed.	$5,000
Columbia Land Trust	To support the Backyard Habitat Certification Program that provides urban residents in the Portland metro area with technical assistance and resources to restore natural habitat in their backyards.	$7,500
Crooked River Watershed Council	To support programs that help improve water quality in the Crooked River Watershed.	$5,000
Deschutes Land Trust	To support projects that will protect and improve stream habitat along the Deschutes River.	$5,000
Deschutes River Conservancy	To support programs that improve fish and wildlife habitat in the Deschutes River.	$5,000
Ecology in the Classroom and Outdoors	To support ecology enrichment programs for elementary students in the Portland metro area.	$5,000
Forest Park Conservancy	To support the Greater Forest Park Conservation Initiative, which is aimed at enhancing native habitat and connectivity in the greater Forest Park ecosystem and improving the trails in Forest Park to protect local streams.	$10,000
Friends of Trees	To support 2018-19 planting season, helping plant the right tree in the right place.	$20,000
Human Access Project	To support projects that help improve stream habitat along the Willamette River.	$5,000
Johnson Creek Watershed Council	To support programs focused on improving conditions for salmon and other aquatic life, as well as water quality.	$5,000

Lower Columbia River Estuary	To support Streamside Stewardship program that helps build environmental leadership by connecting students and community members to their local natural area.	$5,000
Oregon Wildlife Foundation	To help protect fish and improve habitat in the Deschutes River basin and the greater Portland metropolitan area.	$5,000
Portland Audubon	To support the Wildlife Care Center, which gives injured and orphaned native animals a second chance at life in the wild.	$1,500
SOLVE	To support SOLVE IT for Earth Day, helping cleanup illegal dumpsites across the state.	$30,000
Trout Unlimited, Clackamas River Chapter	To support annual Youth Conservation and Fly Fishing Camp on the Clackamas River.	$5,000
Trout Unlimited, Deschutes River Chapter	To support programs that educate students, volunteers, and recreationists as future stewards and leaders for the Metolius River.	$2,000
Turtle Ridge	To support the Wildlife Center, which cares for sick, injured, and orphaned wildlife with the goal of releasing them back into the environment.	$1,500
Western Rivers Conservancy	To support efforts for permanently protecting 136-acres of fish and wildlife habitat along the Willamette River.	$5,000
Wetlands Conservancy	To support projects aimed at enhancing wetlands in the Mt. Scott and Kellogg Creek watersheds.	$5,000
World Salmon Council	To support Salmon Watch, which educates students about watershed conservation and environmental stewardship.	$5,000
Total:		$144,000