Hiking Trail Map

Lake Simtustus Hiking Trail

This trail offers many great views of Lake Simtustus and the Cascade Mountains. From either end, steep climbs of about ¼-mile lead to the top of the ridgeline where the trail flattens out and continues along an old railroad bed. Be advised there are still steep, rocky sections located along this route.

Access: Trailheads are located just north of the Pelton Park Office and at the Day Use Area across from the Pelton Park Store.

Length: 1.86 miles one-way

Duration: Approximately 2 hours to complete

Difficulty: Moderate to Difficult — steep and loose rock on both ends of trail. Not recommended for bikes or horses.

Elevation: Approximately 2,150 feet at highest point
