NEW YORK 30'S COLLECTION

Art Deco and building a brave, new world

Art Deco continues to offer inspiration for designers and brands, and will remain a key direction for the coming seasons.

We are proud to present our new Trevira collection inspired by famous Art Deco buildings of the New York skyline. The sleek linear appearance, geometric ornamentation and the exquisite craftsmanship, rare and expensive materials of buildings such as the Rockefeller Center and Chrysler Building combine with fashion inspiration from the 20's and 30s Jazz Era of the decorative and exotic Ballet Russe.

Our collection is divided into two distinct groups: the geometric and stylised Art Deco theme and a contrasting constructed and industrial black-grey-scale story and inspiration from our weaving mill with the rhythm and beat of the textile machinery.

COLOURS

Our New York 30's colour palette is inspired from photos from 20's and 30's artist Georgia O'Keeffe's paintings, art deco interiors, jazz posters and black-and-white silent movies.

The colour palette has two facets:

- An industrial grey palette contrasting with a striking and bold Art Deco palette.
- A Graphic grey scale of Ebony, silver, ivory and chrome sit next to teal, gold, reddish brown and dark rouge noir colours with blue and warm wood tones.

FABRICS

Fabric Our Trevira collection is a treasury of inspiring fabrics; small and medium-scale geometric chenilles, decorative ornamental jacquards and tactile textures. Charleston-dress inspired fil-coupé fringes are presented alongside constructed grid-patterns and Wall Street -inspired weaves.

PATTERNS

Poster-style images, Ludwig Hohlwein, Rockwell Kent Art Nouveau paintings, Georgia O'Keeffe, Jazz-era designs all play a part in the repeating patterns of geometric stylised options across this Industrial constructed architecture of references and Art Deco opulent trevira collection.

- Geometric shapes are considered and stylised, as highlighted at Milan Design Week ideal for accent accessories such as cushions or feature pieces of upholstery.
- Considered designs entail more than one component, diamond motifs placed among ornaments. Metallic details to add a touch of glam to the overall look.
- Products feature varying line widths for simple, creative visual impact.
- Rhythmic striped designs play with dynamic colour combinations and add a sense of energy to the fabrics.
