Sale of live animals Terms & Conditions

When purchasing an animal from Ely Exotics Ltd you agree to the terms and conditions of sale.

Full and correct set ups must be in place before collection of the animal, enclosures must meet or exceed the standard set out in the October 2018 Animal welfare regulations with regards to size, heating and lighting.

Please talk to a member of staff for details and be aware they will require proof of set ups purchased elsewhere and have the right to refuse a sale

A thermostat must control all heated enclosures; otherwise the animal's safety is at risk – This alone will mean an instant refusal of sale.

We never knowingly sell sick animals and as such we offer a 48-hour guarantee for death or illness on livestock. This excludes: All, invertebrates, amphibians, chameleons and any highly specialised or wild caught reptilians.

Buying highly specialised or wild caught animals is risky as they require specific care, we cannot guarantee what happens to them after they leave our premises and as such cannot offer any guarantee on these types of animals

Animals collected by a third party, not arranged by us are not covered by our 48 hour guarantee.

If the animal dies within this time frame we will require the body to be frozen and returned along with an qualified exotic vets necropsy report stating actual cause of death (at your own expense).

In the case of Aquarium fish we will require the body to be returned along with a (Separate) water sample from your Aquarium for us to test, if water quality is poor the fish is not covered by our 48 hour guarantee.

If the fish is returned in the same pot as the water sample we cannot test it and again this would void the 48 hour guarantee.

We will not buy back an animal back because you have changed your mind, these are living creatures, if you are unsure - do not buy the animal! You must be 100% sure you are prepared to take on your new pet for its full life.

We cannot 100% guarantee the sex of any livestock, even if labelled as a specific sex. If the animal turns out to be the wrong sex outside the guarantee we cannot accept any liability.

Refusal of Sale of animal(s):

- The sale of animals will be refused if the purchaser doesn't have / cannot prove they have correct set up in place.
- The employee doesn't feel the prospective purchaser will give the animal the correct level of care.
- The purchaser is inebriated/ intoxicated or otherwise not fully in control of their mental faculties.
- The purchaser is under 16 years old or cannot prove their age. Anyone under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult/parent

The animals welfare is our highest priority, so please don't be offended when we ask questions, make a suggestion or refuse a sale.

Please note any Deposits used to reserve animals are non refundable.

How Reservations work with us;

- Between 1 day and a week, a minimum of 50% deposit is required with the balance paid on collection. If this needs to be extended for any reason the full amount would be payable at the end of the week.

If this isn't paid we reserve the right to put the animal back on display and any deposits paid will be lost.

- 1 week or longer – as a rule we wont hold animals longer than a fortnight as this is plenty of time to get housing ready. Anywhere between 1 and 2 weeks payment in full will be required at the beginning.
- All deposits and part payments made during hold time are Non-Refundable if you change your mind or your circumstances change meaning you cant collect.

Holding animals costs the business time and money but also holds up enclosures for new species coming in.
