I. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAM

The following information constitutes a general description of the offering programme pursuant to Article 25(2)(b) of the Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/980 of 14 March 2019 as amended from time to time (the "Delegated Regulation") and does not claim to be exhaustive. Complete information about the Issuer and the offer of the Securities is therefore only available on the basis of the combination of (i) this Base Prospectus, including any supplements to this Base Prospectus and (ii) the respective final terms of the offer as drawn up in connection with the Securities (the "Final Terms") together with the summary for the individual issue (the "Issue Specific Summary").

1. Subject of this Base Prospectus

This Base Prospectus for Securities (issued in the form of Certificates or Notes) dated 19 December 2024 (the "Base Prospectus") has been drawn up in accordance with Article 8 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 as amended from time to time (the "Prospectus Regulation") in conjunction with Article 15 and Annexes 14 and 22 of the Delegated Regulation.

The information in this Base Prospectus is supplemented, corrected or clarified by way of future supplements under the conditions as laid out in Art. 23 of the Prospectus Regulation. Therefore, when investing in the Securities, an investor should take into account any supplements published on the websites www.gs.de/en and/or www.gsmarkets.nl/en and/or www.gsmarkets.fr/en under the sections "About", "Documents" and "Base Prospectus". If the Securities issued under this Base Prospectus relate to an offer to the public, investors who have already agreed to purchase or subscribe for the Securities before the supplement is published shall have the right, exercisable within three working days after the publication of the supplement, to withdraw their acceptances in accordance with Art. 23 (2) of the Prospectus Regulation. If the Securities are acquired or subscribed through a financial intermediary, that financial intermediary will assist investors in exercising their right to withdraw acceptances.

2. Information about the Issuer

The Issuer is a European company (Societas Europaea; abbr. SE) incorporated under the laws of Germany. It has its main seat in Frankfurt am Main, Germany.

3. Financial intermediaries

If and to the extent this is so expressed in the applicable Final Terms and provided that the Base Prospectus is still valid according to Article 12 of the Prospectus Regulation, the Issuer may consent to the use of the Base Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms for the subsequent resale or final placement of Securities by financial intermediaries in relation to the offer state(s) during the relevant offer period during which subsequent resale or final placement of the Securities can be made.

4. Information on the issued Securities

The Securities issued under this Base Prospectus are issued in the form of certificates or notes. The Securities have the characteristic such that they are issued at their nominal amount and/or calculation amount or at a discount or premium to their nominal amount and/or calculation amount as specified in the applicable Final Terms. The settlement amount is not determined by reference to an underlying.

In addition to the settlement amount, the Securities provide for coupons (except for Fixed Return Securities and Zero Coupon Securities) and may be issued with a fixed coupon, step rates, floating coupons, fixed to floating coupons or digital coupons. The coupon may be linked to a reference rate or an inflation index or may be determined on the basis of an index. Fixed Return Securities and Zero Coupon Securities do not provide for coupons.

5. Listing and trading

The Issuer may introduce or apply for admission of the Securities to one or more stock exchange(s) or multilateral trading system(s) or regulated or unregulated market(s), e.g. on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, the Stuttgart Stock Exchange or the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. The Issuer may also issue Securities which are not admitted to trading or listed on any market.

6. Public offer of securities under the programme

The Securities issued under this Base Prospectus may be publicly offered in the relevant offer states during the relevant offer period, as determined in the applicable Final Terms. The validity of this Base Prospectus expires twelve months after the approval of this Base Prospectus (23 December 2025). The obligation to supplement the Base Prospectus in the event of significant new factors, material mistakes or material inaccuracies does not apply when the Base Prospectus is no longer valid.

In the case of an offer period which exceeds the duration of the validity of the Base Prospectus, such public offer may be continued on the basis of one or more succeeding base prospectuses until the end of the respective offer period, to the extent such succeeding base prospectuses envisage a continuation of the public offer of the Securities. In this context, these Final Terms are, in each case, to be read in conjunction with the most recent Succeeding Base Prospectus.

7. Reasons for the offer

The proceeds from the Securities are used to hedge the payment obligations arising from the issuance of the Securities and for purposes of the Issuer's ordinary business activities (in any case the Issuer is free in the use of the proceeds of an issue of Securities).

8. Using the Base Prospectus in Switzerland

The Base Prospectus may be (i) registered in Switzerland with the reviewing body (Prüfstelle) SIX Exchange Regulation Ltd or another reviewing body approved by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA as a foreign prospectus that is also deemed to be approved in Switzerland pursuant to Article 54 para. 2 of the Swiss Federal Act on Financial Services ("Financial Services Act"; "FinSA") for inclusion on the list of approved prospectuses pursuant to Article 64 para. 5 FinSA, (ii) deposited with this reviewing body and (iii) published pursuant to Article 64 FinSA.

In accordance with Article 36 para. 4 lit. b FinSA, the Issuer consents, to the extent and under the conditions, if any, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, to the use of the Base Prospectus and the relevant Final Terms by any financial intermediary specified in the relevant Final Terms under "Consent to use of Prospectus" for publicly offering the Securities on the basis of and in accordance with the Base Prospectus and the relevant Final Terms.

The Securities do not constitute a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Swiss Federal Act on Collective Investment Schemes ("CISA"). The Securities are neither subject to the authorisation nor to the supervision by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority

FINMA and investors do not benefit from the specific investor protection provided under the CISA. Investors should be aware that they are exposed to the credit risk of the Issuer.

II. RISK FACTORS

The purchase of Securities of the Issuer is subject to risks.

Potential purchasers of Securities issued under this Base Prospectus should carefully consider the specific material risks relating to the securities and the Issuer described in this Base Prospectus prior to investing in the Securities, taking into account all other information contained in this Base Prospectus and the relevant Final Terms and all relevant supplements. Potential purchasers should also consider that the risks described may interact and thus be mutually reinforcing.

An investor in the Securities should be aware that he may lose all or part of his investment and should be aware in this context that the amounts received from or in connection with the Securities from the Issuer (e.g. as coupon and principal payments) or from third parties (e.g. as a purchase price upon disposal) may be less than his acquisition and follow-up costs. Acquisition costs include (i) the amount of capital to be paid in on the Securities or the purchase price for the Securities; and (ii) other costs incurred in connection with the purchase of the Securities (e.g. fees for financial intermediaries). Follow-up costs arise solely from holding the Securities (e.g. current custodian fees). This can result in a partial or complete loss for an investor.

These risk factors are presented in categories and sub-categories depending on their nature. In the case of several risks in a category and sub-category, the most material risk of each category and sub-category are mentioned first. The assessment of materiality of the risks has been made by the Issuer as of the date of this Base Prospectus on the basis of the probability of their occurrence and the expected magnitude of their negative impact. The magnitude of the negative impact of each of the below risk factors on the relevant Securities is described by reference to the magnitude of potential losses of the invested capital (including a potential total loss), the incurrence of additional costs in relation to the Securities or limitations of returns on the Securities. An assessment of the probability of the occurrence of risks and the magnitude of the negative impact also depends on the respective underlying (if stipulated in the Final Terms), relevant parameters with regard to the Securities set out in the applicable Final Terms and the circumstances existing as of the date of the relevant Final Terms.

1. Risk factors in connection with the Issuer

The risk factors relating to the Issuer contained on PDF pages 3 to 43 of the registration document of the Issuer dated 18 July 2024 approved by the German Federal Supervisory Authority (Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht; the "BaFin") (the "GSBE Registration Document 2024") are hereby incorporated by reference into this Base Prospectus.

2. Risk factors associated with the product structure of the Securities

In this category, the specific risks associated with the payout profile of each product structure are described. The risks resulting from the payout profile are set out separately with respect to each product structure. The risks in this category are classified according to their materiality based on the assessment of the Issuer. The most material risks are mentioned first.

2.1. Product No. 1. Risk factors applicable to Step Up & Step Down SecuritiesRisk of loss in the case of Step Up & Step Down Securities

In the case of Step Up & Step Down Securities the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is therefore limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Step Up & Step Down Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk of interest rate movements

During their term the Securities provide for a specific fixed coupon for the specific coupon periods which are specified at the time of issuance. However, it may also be possible that there will be no coupon for several coupon periods, if this is provided for in the relevant Final Terms. The Security Holder does not participate in an increase of market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Step Up & Step Down Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the term.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.2. Product No. 2. Risk factors applicable to Fixed Rate SecuritiesRisk of loss in the case of Securities with a fixed coupon

In the case of Securities with a fixed coupon, the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is accordingly limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Fixed Rate Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk of interest rate movements

The Securities provide during their term for a fixed coupon which is specified at the time of issuance. The Security Holder does not participate in an increase in market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Securities with a fixed coupon that the price of the Securities may decrease during the term.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.3. Product No. 3. Risk factors applicable to Floating Rate Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Floating Rate Securities

In the case of Floating Rate Securities the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is therefore limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments, if any. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Floating Rate Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk in relation to the coupon on the Securities

(a) Risk of uncertain interest yield

The amount of the coupon during the coupon periods with a floating coupon is dependent on the relevant floating coupon rate determined in respect of each coupon period. The floating coupon rate can be determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR), an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. of two swap rates and, as may the case, taking into account a margin or a coupon factor, respectively). If the floating coupon rate corresponds to the difference between two reference rates, it should be noted that the coupon is lower the more the difference between the two reference rates decreases. This can be the case in particular if (i) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a longer-term reference rate minus a shorter-term reference rate - a flatter or inverse interest curve is formed or (ii) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a shorter-term reference rate minus a longer-term reference rate - a steeper interest curve is formed.

If the performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index is unfavourable for the Security Holder, the coupon relevant for the calculation of the coupon amount may also be zero. This also applies in the event that the Securities provide for a minimum coupon, provided that the minimum coupon is zero. The Security Holder is therefore exposed to the risk of an uncertain interest yield.

(b) Risks related to the maximum coupon

Where the applicable Final Terms provide for a maximum coupon for one or more coupon periods, it is to be noted that the Security Holder ceases to benefit from any further performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index above a certain performance in the relevant coupon period.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.4. Product No. 4. Risk factors applicable to Floored Floater Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Floored Floater Securities

In the case of Floored Floater Securities, the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is accordingly limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments, if any. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Floored Floater Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk of uncertain interest yield

The amount of the coupon on Floored Floater Securities during the coupon periods is dependent on the relevant floating coupon rate determined in respect of each coupon period. The floating coupon rate can be determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR), an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. of two swap rates and, as may be the case, taking into account a margin or a coupon factor, respectively). If the floating coupon rate corresponds to the difference between two reference rates, it should be noted that the coupon is lower the more the difference between the two reference rates decreases. This can be the case in particular if (i) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a longer-term reference rate minus a shorter-term reference rate - a flatter or inverse interest curve is formed or (ii) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a shorter-term reference rate minus a longer-term reference rate - a steeper interest curve is formed.

If the performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index is unfavourable for the Security Holder, the relevant coupon for the calculation of the coupon amount may only be the minimum coupon. This also applies in the event that the Securities provide for a minimum coupon, provided that the minimum coupon is zero. The Security Holder is therefore exposed to the risk of an uncertain interest yield.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.5. Product No. 5. Risk factors applicable to Capped Floored Floater Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Capped Floored Floater Securities

In the case of Capped Floored Floater Securities, the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is accordingly limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments, if any. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Capped Floored Floater Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk of uncertain interest yield

The amount of the coupon on Capped Floored Floater Securities during the coupon periods is dependent on the relevant floating coupon rate determined in respect of each coupon period. The floating coupon rate can be determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR), an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. of two swap rates and, as may be the case, taking into account a margin or a coupon factor, respectively). If the floating coupon rate corresponds to the difference between two reference rates, it should be noted that the coupon is lower the more the difference between the two reference rates decreases. This can be the case in particular if (i) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a longer-term reference rate minus a shorter-term reference rate - a flatter or inverse interest curve is formed or (ii) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a shorter-term reference rate minus a longer-term reference rate - a steeper interest curve is formed.

If the performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index is unfavourable for the Security Holder, the relevant coupon for the calculation of the coupon amount may only be the minimum coupon. This also applies in the event that the Securities provide for a minimum coupon, provided that the minimum coupon is zero. The Security Holder is therefore exposed to the risk of an uncertain interest yield.

Risks related to the maximum coupon

Where the applicable Final Terms provide for a maximum coupon for one or more coupon periods, it is to be noted that the Security Holder ceases to benefit from any further performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index above a certain performance in the relevant coupon period.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.6. Product No. 6. Risk factors applicable to Floater Securities with Target Rate (TARN Securities)

Risk of loss in the case of Floater Securities with Target Rate

In the case of Floater Securities with Target Rate the Settlement Amount equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount at the end of the term. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is therefore limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments, if any. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Securities with a floating coupon may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk in relation to the coupon on the Securities

(a) Risk in relation to the Target Rate

The Securities provide for automatic settlement if a target coupon event occurs during the term, i.e. if the sum of certain coupons reaches or exceeds a target coupon specified in the relevant Final Terms. Since the occurrence of a target coupon event depends on the development of the underlying reference rate(s), there is uncertainty as to whether and when a target coupon event and, accordingly, an automatic settlement of the Securities will occur. In the event of an automatic settlement of the Securities, the Securities will only bear interest up to the date of the automatic settlement, i.e. the Security Holders are not entitled to any further income under the Securities. In addition, in the case of an automatic settlement, it must be taken into account that the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the amount to be paid by the Issuer in the event of automatic settlement on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

(b) Risk of interest rate movements

If the Securities provide for a fixed coupon for one or more coupon periods, it should be noted that the relevant fixed coupon rate is determined at the time of issuance. The Security Holder does not participate in an increase in market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the term.

(c) Risk of uncertain interest yield

The amount of the coupon during the coupon periods with a floating coupon is dependent on the relevant floating coupon rate determined in respect of each coupon period. The floating coupon rate can be determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR), an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. of two swap rates and, as may be the case, taking into account a margin or a coupon factor, respectively). If the floating coupon rate corresponds to the difference between two reference rates, it should be noted that the coupon is lower the more the difference between the two reference rates decreases. This can be the case in particular if (i) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a longer-term reference rate minus a shorter-term reference rate - a flatter or inverse interest curve is formed or (ii) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a shorter-term reference rate minus a longer-term reference rate - a steeper interest curve is formed.

If the performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index is unfavourable for the Security Holder, the relevant coupon for the calculation of the coupon amount may only be the minimum coupon. This also applies in the event that the Securities provide for a minimum coupon, provided that the minimum coupon is zero. The Security Holder is therefore exposed to the risk of an uncertain interest yield.

(d) Risks related to the maximum coupon

Where the applicable Final Terms provide for a maximum coupon for one or more Coupon Periods, it is to be noted that the Security Holder ceases to benefit from any further performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index above a certain performance in the relevant coupon period.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.7. Product No. 7. Risk factors applicable to Flex Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Flex Securities

In the case of Flex Securities, the Settlement Amount at the end of the term is the outstanding nominal amount and/or outstanding calculation amount. In addition, on the partial repayment date(s), the Security Holder shall receive in each case a partial nominal amount and/or partial calculation amount. The outstanding nominal amount and/or outstanding calculation amount on the Settlement Date and the partial nominal amount and/or partial calculation amount payable on the partial repayment date and/or the partial nominal amounts and/or partial calculation amounts payable on the partial repayment dates correspond in total to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

The risk of loss to the Security Holder is accordingly limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments, if any. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Flex Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount or below the outstanding nominal amount and/or outstanding calculation amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the outstanding nominal amount and/or outstanding calculation amount.

Risk in relation to the coupon on the Securities

(a) Risk of lower coupon due to partial repayments

Flex Securities provide for one or more partial repayments during their term. If a partial repayment is made in respect of the Securities, the outstanding nominal amount and/or outstanding calculation amount of the Securities, i.e. the portion of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount not yet repaid at the relevant time, will be reduced. Following a partial repayment, the relevant coupon amount for a coupon period will be calculated on the basis of the outstanding nominal amount and/or outstanding calculation amount of the securities on the first day of the relevant coupon period. In this respect, after a partial repayment, the coupon amount payable to the Security Holders per Security is reduced in case of a fixed coupon. Due to the decrease of the outstanding nominal amount and/or outstanding calculation amount, even if the coupon increases, the coupon amount per Security payable to the Security Holders for a coupon period after a partial repayment may be lower than the coupon amount for the previous coupon period.

(b) Risk of interest rate movements

If the Securities provide for a fixed coupon for one or more coupon periods, it should be noted that the relevant fixed coupon rate is determined at the time of issuance. The Security Holder does not participate in an increase in market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the term.

(c) Risk of uncertain interest yield

The amount of the coupon for the coupon periods which provide for a floating coupon is dependent on the relevant floating coupon rate determined in respect of each coupon period. The floating coupon rate can be determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR), an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. of two swap rates and, as may be the case, taking into account a margin or a coupon factor, respectively). If the floating coupon rate corresponds to the difference between two reference rates, it should be noted that the coupon is lower the more the difference between the two reference rates decreases. This can be the case in particular if (i) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a longer-term reference rate minus a shorter-term reference rate - a flatter or inverse interest curve is formed or (ii) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a shorter-term reference rate minus a longer-term reference rate - a steeper interest curve is formed.

If the performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index is unfavourable for the Security Holder, the relevant Coupon for the calculation of the Coupon Amount may only be the minimum coupon. This also applies in the event that the Securities provide for a minimum coupon, provided that the minimum coupon is zero. The Security Holder is therefore exposed to the risk of an uncertain interest yield.

(d) Risks related to the maximum coupon

Where the applicable Final Terms provide for a maximum coupon for one or more coupon periods, it is to be noted that the Security Holder ceases to benefit from any further performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index above a certain performance in the relevant coupon period.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.8. Product No. 8. Risk factors applicable to Digital Coupon Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Digital Coupon Securities

In the case of Digital Coupon Securities the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is therefore limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus one or more coupon payment(s). However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Digital Coupon Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk in relation to the coupon on the Securities

(a) Risk of interest rate movements

In the event that the Securities initially, i.e. during a potential fixed coupon period, provide for a fixed coupon determined at issuance, the Security Holder does not participate in an increase in market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Digital Coupon Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the fixed coupon period.

During the other and/or the subsequent coupon periods (i.e. during the Digital Coupon Period), the Securities provide for a specific fixed coupon for the specific coupon periods. The fixed coupons are specified at the time of issuance and depend on the performance of the reference rate and/or the reference rates and/or the inflation index and/or the index and will equal either the Digital Coupon Rate 1 or the Digital Coupon Rate 2 depending on whether a Digital Coupon Event has occurred (in which case the Coupon corresponds to Digital Coupon Rate 1) or not (in which case the Coupon corresponds to Digital Coupon Rate 2). However, it may also be possible that there will be no Coupon for several Coupon Periods, if a Digital Coupon Event has not occurred and it is provided for in the relevant Final Terms that the relevant Digital Coupon Rate 2 for the relevant Coupon Period is zero.

The Security Holder does not participate in an increase of market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Digital Coupon Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the term.

(b) Risk of uncertain interest yield

The amount of the coupon for a coupon period during the Digital Coupon Period is dependent on whether on a relevant Coupon Determination Date a Digital Coupon Event has occurred. The occurrence of a Digital Coupon Event depends on the performance of the reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR), an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)), the difference between two reference rates (e.g. of two swap rates) or an index, each in comparison to a coupon barrier allocated to the respective Coupon Period pre-determined in the applicable Final Terms.

If the performance of the reference rate(s), the inflation index or the index is unfavourable for the Security Holder and if a Digital Coupon Event does not occur, the relevant digital coupon for the calculation of the coupon amount will only be determined on the basis of the lower of the two coupon rates, i.e. the so-called Digital Coupon Rate 2. Where the applicable Final Terms provide for one or more Coupon Periods that the Digital Coupon Rate 2 is zero there will be no coupon for such coupon periods. This may also result in the Security Holder not receiving any interest for the entire term if a Digital Coupon Event not occurs on the relevant Coupon Determination Date and/or on none of the relevant Coupon Determination Dates. The Security Holder should note that even minor changes of the performance of reference rate(s), the inflation index or the index, may have an adverse effect on the coupon of the Securities. The Security Holder is therefore exposed to the risk of an uncertain interest yield.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.9. Product No. 9. Risk factors applicable to Fixed to Floating Rate Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Fixed to Floating Rate Securities

In the case of Fixed to Floating Rate Securities the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is therefore limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments, if any. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Fixed to Floating Rate Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk in relation to the coupon on the Securities

(a) Risk of interest rate movements

The Securities provide for a fixed coupon during the initial coupon period(s), i.e. the fixed coupon period, and it should be noted that the relevant fixed coupon rate is determined at the time of issuance. The Security Holder does not participate in an increase in market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Fixed to Floating Rate Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the fixed coupon period.

(b) Risk of uncertain interest yield

The amount of the coupon during the subsequent coupon periods (i.e. the floating coupon rate period) with a floating coupon is dependent on the relevant floating coupon rate determined in respect of each such coupon period. The floating coupon rate can be determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR), an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. of two swap rates and, as may be the case, taking into account a margin or a coupon factor, respectively). If the floating coupon rate corresponds to the difference between two reference rates, it should be noted that the coupon is lower the more the difference between the two reference rates decreases. This can be the case in particular if (i) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a longer-term reference rate minus a shorter-term reference rate - a flatter or inverse interest curve is formed or (ii) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a shorter-term reference rate minus a longer-term reference rate - a steeper interest curve is formed.

If the performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index is unfavourable for the Security Holder, the coupon relevant for the calculation of the coupon amount may also be zero. This also applies in the event that the Securities provide for a minimum coupon, provided that the minimum coupon is zero. The Security Holder is therefore exposed to the risk of an uncertain interest yield.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.10. Product No. 10. Risk factors applicable to Fixed to Floored Floating Rate Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Fixed to Floored Floating Rate Securities

In the case of Fixed to Floored Floating Rate Securities the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is therefore limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments, if any. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Fixed to Floored Floating Rate Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk in relation to the coupon on the Securities

(a) Risk of interest rate movements

The Securities provide for a fixed coupon during the initial coupon period and it should be noted that the relevant fixed coupon rate is determined at the time of issuance. The Security Holder does not participate in an increase in market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Fixed to Floored Floating Rate Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the term of the fixed coupon period.

(b) Risk of uncertain interest yield

The amount of the coupon during the subsequent coupon periods (i.e. the floating coupon rate period) with a floating coupon is dependent on the relevant floating coupon rate determined in respect of each such coupon period. The floating coupon rate can be determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR), an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. of two swap rates and, as may be the case, taking into account a margin or a coupon factor, respectively). If the floating coupon rate corresponds to the difference between two reference rates, it should be noted that the coupon is lower the more the difference between the two reference rates decreases. This can be the case in particular if (i) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a longer-term reference rate minus a shorter-term reference rate - a flatter or inverse interest curve is formed or (ii) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a shorter-term reference rate minus a longer-term reference rate - a steeper interest curve is formed.

If the performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index is unfavourable for the Security Holder, the coupon relevant for the calculation of the coupon amount may also be zero. This also applies in the event that the Securities provide for a minimum coupon, provided that the minimum coupon is zero. The Security Holder is therefore exposed to the risk of an uncertain interest yield.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.11. Product No. 11. Risk factors applicable to Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities

In the case of Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is therefore limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus coupon payments, if any. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Risk in relation to the coupon on the Securities

(a) Risk of interest rate movements

The Securities provide for a fixed coupon during the initial coupon period(s) and it should be noted that the relevant fixed coupon rate is determined at the time of issuance. The Security Holder does not participate in an increase in market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the term of the fixed coupon period.

(b) Risk of uncertain interest yield

The amount of the coupon during the subsequent coupon periods (i.e. the floating coupon rate period) with a floating coupon is dependent on the relevant floating coupon rate determined in respect of each such coupon period. The floating coupon rate can be determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR), an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. of two swap rates and, as may be the case, taking into account a margin or a coupon factor, respectively). If the floating coupon rate corresponds to the difference between two reference rates, it should be noted that the coupon is lower the more the difference between the two reference rates decreases. This can be the case in particular if (i) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a longer-term reference rate minus a shorter-term reference rate - a flatter or inverse interest curve is formed or (ii) - in the case that the floating coupon rate depends on the difference between a shorter-term reference rate minus a longer-term reference rate - a steeper interest curve is formed.

If the performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index is unfavourable for the Security Holder, the coupon relevant for the calculation of the coupon amount may also be zero. This also applies in the event that the Securities provide for a minimum coupon, provided that the minimum coupon is zero. The Security Holder is therefore exposed to the risk of an uncertain interest yield.

(c) Risks related to the maximum coupon

Where the applicable Final Terms provide for a maximum coupon for one or more coupon periods, it is to be noted that the Security Holder ceases to benefit from any further performance of the reference rate(s) and/or the inflation index above a certain performance in the relevant coupon period.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by an ordinary termination by the Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates. It should also be taken into account that in the case of a termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the Termination Amount to be paid by the Issuer

in the case of an ordinary termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

2.12. Product No. 12. Risk factors applicable to Fixed Return Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Fixed Return Securities

In the case of Fixed Return Securities the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals an amount higher compared to the Nominal Amount and/or Calculation Amount, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

The risk of loss to the Security Holder is therefore limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the Settlement Amount. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Fixed Return Securities may be traded during their term at a price below the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and/or Settlement Amount specified in the relevant Final Terms. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the specified Settlement Amount.

Risk of interest rate movements

Fixed Return Securities do not provide for a coupon during their term. Instead, the Securities provide that the amounts payable under the Securities, i.e. any Termination Amounts due in case of an ordinary termination or, otherwise, the Settlement Amount, are increasing.

Instead, if the Issuer exercises its ordinary termination right, the Security Holder receives a Termination Amount determined at the time of issue, or, if the issuer does not exercise its ordinary termination right during the term and the Securities are not otherwise terminated redeemed, a Settlement Amount determined at the time of issue.

The Security Holder does not participate in an increase in market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Fixed Return Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the term.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination or non-scheduled early repayment by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by the respective Issuer on the Optional Redemption Dates by ordinary termination. If the respective Issuer exercises its ordinary termination right on an Optional Redemption Date during the term of the Securities, the term of the Securities ends on such Optional Redemption Date and the Security Holder receives the Termination Amount specified in the relevant Final Terms that is allocated to such Optional Redemption Date. Since it is not foreseeable at the time of issue whether and when the respective Issuer will exercise the ordinary termination right during the term, the investor is exposed to the risk of uncertain yield under the Securities.

In case of a termination, it should be taken into account that the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the relevant amount on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

If the term of the Securities is terminated as a result of a non-scheduled early repayment, it should be taken into account, that the Security Holder will receive the Linearly Accreted Value, which will be below the Settlement Amount. Also in this case, the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk.

2.13. Product No. 13. Risk factors applicable to Zero Coupon Securities

Risk of loss in the case of Zero Coupon Securities

In the case of Zero Coupon Securities, the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount or, if applicable, a higher amount, as specified in the relevant Final Terms. The risk of loss to the Security Holder is accordingly limited to the difference between the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) and the relevant Settlement Amount. However, the Security Holder remains exposed to the risks of the Issuer, so the Security Holder may lose all the capital invested to purchase the Securities (including transaction costs incurred) on an insolvency of the Issuer. For this reason among others, Zero Coupon Securities may be traded during their term at a price below Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and/or the Settlement Amount specified in the relevant Final Terms. Security Holders may therefore not rely on being able to sell their purchased Securities at any time during the term at a price equal to or above the relevant Settlement Amount.

Risk of interest rate movements

The Securities do not provide during their term for a coupon and are typically issued at a discount in relation the Nominal Amount and/or Calculation Amount and/or in relation to the Settlement Amount specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Security Holder does not participate in an increase in market interest rates. In the case of increasing market interest rates, there is the risk with Zero Coupon Securities that the price of the Securities may decrease during the term. Security Holders should note that the price of Zero Coupon Securities is more volatile compared to other Securities with a fixed coupon, making them more sensitive to fluctuations in market interest rates.

Return and reinvestment risk in the case of an ordinary termination or non-scheduled early repayment by the Issuer

Security Holders should note that the term of the Securities can be ended by the respective Issuer. In such cases, the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk.

If the respective Issuer terminates the term of the Securities by an ordinary termination, it should be taken into account that the Security Holder will receive the Termination Amount to be paid by the respective Issuer. The Termination Amount may equal the Accreted Value or another amount as so specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Termination Amount which will be below the Settlement Amount.

If the Issuer terminates the term of the Securities by non-scheduled early repayment, it should be taken into account, that the Security Holder will receive the Accreted Value to be paid by the respective Issuer.

Both in the event of an ordinary termination and in the event of a non-scheduled early repayment, the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the relevant repayment amount on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

3. Risk factors in relation to Reference Rates, Indices and Inflation Indices

The Securities issued under the Base Prospectus may be linked to one or more Reference Rates, to an Index and/or to an Inflation Index. The specific material risks that arise from the fact that the coupon may be determined on the basis of an Index or may be linked to Reference Rates and/or Inflation Indices are described in this category. The risks in this category are classified according to their materiality based on the assessment of the Issuer. The most material risks are mentioned first.

3.1. Risks associated with the performance of Reference Rates

The performance of a reference rate is dependent on a variety of factors and, in the event of an adverse performance of these factors, this may have an adverse effect of the reference rates and, accordingly, may adversely affect the coupon amounts under the Securities and the value of the Securities.

The performance of reference rates is dependent upon a number of factors, including supply and demand on the international money markets, which are influenced by measures taken by governments and central banks, as well as by speculation and other macroeconomic factors.

In the case of a disadvantage performance of these factors this may have an adverse effect of the reference rates and, accordingly, may adversely affect the value of Security and in case of Securities which are linked to such a reference rate, the Coupon Amounts under the Securities.

3.2. Risk in connection with the regulation and reform of benchmarks

Due to the regulation and reform of benchmarks, there may be an adjustment or extraordinary termination of the Securities and this may have an adverse effect on the redemption of the Securities for Security Holders.

The reference rates and indices to which Securities issued under this Base Prospectus relate (such as Floating Rate Securities, Floored Floater Securities, Capped Floored Floater Securities, Floater Securities with Target Rate (TARN Securities), Floating Rate Flex Securities, Digital Coupon Securities, Fixed to Floating Rate Securities, Fixed to Floored Floating Rate Securities or Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities) are so-called benchmarks within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council on indices used as benchmarks in certain financial instruments and financial contracts, as amended (EU Regulation on indices used as benchmarks in certain financial instruments and financial contracts, "EU Benchmark Regulation").

According to the EU Benchmark Regulation, supervised entities may only use a benchmark if the benchmark or the administrator of the respective benchmark is entered in a register established and maintained by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") according to Article 36 of the EU Benchmark Regulation. For administrators domiciled outside the Union (so-called third country administrators) a transitional arrangement is provided for until 31 December 2025 (e.g. for ICE Benchmark Administration Limited as the administrator of the USD SOFR Swap Rate).

The EU Benchmark Regulation could have a significant adverse impact on Securities linked to a benchmark, including the following events:

- An reference rate which is a benchmark cannot be used as such or can only be used for a limited transitional period to be determined by the competent authority if the approval or registration of the Administrator is suspended or withdrawn or – in case of third country Administrators – (subject to applicable transitional provisions), does not comply with the conditions of equivalence or rather, until such a decision is taken, does not obtain recognition and does not receive the acceptance intended for such purposes;
- An Index which is a benchmark cannot be used as such or can only be used for a limited transitional period to be determined by the competent authority if the approval or registration of the Administrator is suspended or withdrawn or – in case of third country Administrators – (subject to applicable transitional provisions), does not comply with the conditions of equivalence or rather, until such a decision is taken, does not obtain recognition and does not receive the acceptance intended for such purposes; and
- The methodology or other terms of the benchmark could be changed in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmark Regulation. Such changes could reduce or increase the respective level of the benchmark or affect the volatility of the published level.

The EU Benchmark Regulation has led to increased regulatory control of benchmarks and may increase the costs and risks associated with the management of benchmarks or otherwise affect the setting of benchmarks and complying with such rules and requirements.

This may result in market participants not continuing to manage or participate in the process of establishing certain benchmarks or in changes to the rules and methodology according to which certain benchmarks are calculated. These factors may also result in the withdrawal of particular benchmarks.

In connection with the EU Benchmark Regulation, the European Money Markets Institute ("EMMI") received approval as administrator for EURIBOR from the Belgian Financial Services and Markets Authority as the competent authority in July 2019, after the methodology of EURIBOR was reformed and changed to a hybrid methodology. This takes into account current transaction data, historical data and modelled data based on expert estimates. The methodology now complies with the requirements of the EU Benchmark Regulation, including the best provisions aimed at ensuring the robustness and integrity of a benchmark. However, there is no certainty that the reformed EURIBOR will meet all legal requirements for its use in financial instruments (such as the securities) on a permanent basis. A discontinuation of EURIBOR may have adverse effects on the Coupon Amounts on Securities with a floating coupon rate linked to EURIBOR or the EURIBOR Swap Rate.

Against the background of the discontinuation of benchmarks or changes in the administration of benchmarks, Security Holders should note that a so-called Benchmark Event in relation to certain references rates envisaged under the Base Prospectus may occur according to the General Conditions. As a consequence, the affected reference rate (e.g. the EURIBOR or EURIBOR Swap Rate or the USD SOFR Swap Rate) may be replaced, the terms of the Securities may be adjusted, that there may be an early redemption or the Calculation Agent may make a discretionary valuation and that there may be other consequences for Securities linked to such benchmarks.

As a consequence, the EURIBOR may in particular be replaced, in particular, by a risk-free interest rate so that investors have to consider the associated risks (see below "II.3.5. Certain risks related to Risk Free Rates, such as SOFR, SONIA or €STR"). Any such consequences could have a material adverse effect on the value and return of such Securities.

3.3. Risks associated with Indices

The coupon amounts payable under Digital Coupon Securities may be dependent on the development of an Index. The specific material risks associated with Indices as Underlying are described in this sub-category. The risks in this sub-category are classified according to their materiality based on the assessment of the Issuer. The most material risks are mentioned first.

a) Risks in connection with the price of the relevant index

An adverse price development of the components of the Index may adversely affect the price development of the Index and, accordingly, the coupon amounts under the Securities and the value of the Securities.

Securities that are linked to an Index as Underlying are associated with risks for the Security Holders comparable to those of a direct investment in a comparable portfolio of asset classes underlying the respective Index, e.g. equity indices are comprised of a synthetic portfolio of shares. The development of the price of the Index depends on the individual index components of which the relevant Index is comprised. The development of the price of the individual index components depends on macroeconomic factors, such as interest rates and price levels on the capital markets, currency developments, political factors as well as, in the case of shares as index components, company-specific factors such as earnings position, market position, risk situation, shareholder structure and distribution policy. In the case of an adverse development of such macroeconomic factors this may adversely affect the price development of the index components and the Index as a whole and accordingly, the coupon amounts under the Securities and/or the value of the Securities.

b) Risks of loss of return of dividends

The Security Holder will principally not participate in dividends or other distributions paid on the Index components.

The rules governing the composition and calculation of the relevant Index might stipulate that dividends distributed on the Index components do not lead to a rise in the index level, for example, if it is a "price" index, which may lead to a decrease in the index level if all other circumstances remain the same. Security Holders of Securities in respect of which an Underlying is such type of Index, will not participate in dividends or other distributions paid on the Index components. Even if the rules of the relevant underlying Index provide that distributed dividends or other distributions of the components are reinvested in the Index and therefore result in raising its level, in some circumstances the dividends or other distributions may not be fully reinvested in such Index.

c) Risks related to the change in the composition, calculation or discontinuance of an Index

Changes in the composition or calculation or dissemination of an Index by the Index Sponsor may adversely affect the value of the Index and in turn the coupon amounts under the Securities and the value of the Securities.

The Index Sponsor of an Index can add, delete or substitute the components of such Index or make other methodological changes that could change the level of one or more components of the Index. The changing of components of any Index may adversely affect the level of such Index (e.g. a newly added company and/or component may perform significantly worse than the company and/or constituent it replaces), which in turn may adversely affect the value of the Index and/or the coupon amounts under the Securities and/or the value of the Securities.

The Index Sponsor of any such Index may also alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of such Index. The Index Sponsor of an Index will have no involvement in the offer and sale of the Securities and will have no obligation to any Security Holder. The Index Sponsor of an Index may take any actions in respect of such Index without regard to the interests of the Security Holder, and any of these actions could adversely affect the coupon amounts under the Securities and/or the value of the Securities.

3.4. Risks associated with Inflation Indices

The performance of an inflation index is subject to fluctuations and an adverse performance of an inflation index may have an adverse effect on the coupon amounts under and the value of the Securities. In particular, the coupon amount payable in a deflationary environment may be lower or may even be zero. Securities Holders should note that the General Conditions may provide for adjustment measures and, as the case may be, an early redemption, which may also have a material adverse effect on the value of the Securities and coupon amounts of such Securities.

Floating Rate Securities, Floored Floater Securities, Capped Floored Floater Securities, Floater Securities with Target Rate ((TARN Securities)), floating rate Flex Securities, Digital Coupon Securities, Fixed to Floating Rate Securities (if applicable Floored or Capped Floored), which may be issued under this Base Prospectus, may be linked to inflation indices to determine the coupon amounts payable under such Securities.

If the coupon amounts payable under the Securities are linked to such an inflation index (e.g., a consumer price index or other formulas expressing a measure of inflation), Security Holders are exposed to the risk that the performance of such inflation index may be subject to significant fluctuations. Such fluctuations may not correlate with other indices and may not correlate perfectly with the rate of inflation experienced the home jurisdiction of the Security Holder.

Security Holders should further note that the Floating Coupon Rate to be determined on the basis of the development of an inflation index may be based on a calculation which refers to an inflation index for a certain reference month which is several months prior to the Coupon Payment Date on the Securities. Therefore, there is the risk for the Security Holders that the relevant level of the inflation index could be substantially different from the level of inflation at the time of the Coupon Payment Date, which may have adverse effect on the value of the Securities and on the coupon amounts under the Securities.

Risks due to deflation

Security Holders should note the risk of deflation in connection with Securities linked to an inflation index. Coupon amounts payable under the Securities may be higher or lower for a coupon period to reflect changes in the relevant level of the relevant inflation index during the term of the Securities. In general, the coupon amounts will be higher in an inflationary environment and lower in a deflationary environment. Security Holders should take into account that the coupon amount payable in a deflationary environment may be lower or may even be zero.

Alternative determinations in relation to an inflation index

Security Holders should note that the General Conditions may provide for alternative valuations in relation to the relevant level of an inflation index, provided that certain events in relation to the inflation index provided for in the General Conditions occur. This may be the case if, for example, the level of the inflation index will no longer be published or announced or if the Inflation Index is materially changed or rebased (e.g. by changing the inflation index to a different base year).

Security Holders should therefore pay attention that that certain adjustment measures provided for in the General Conditions may be taken by the Issuer and/or the Calculation Agent in such cases, including a replacement of the inflation index, an adjustment of the terms of the Securities or a discretionary valuation of the Securities. Security Holders should take into account that the Calculation Agent may also direct the Issuer to early redeem the Securities if there is no suitable alternative inflation index available. Any such consequences could have a material adverse effect on the value and return of such Securities.

3.5. Certain risks related to Risk Free Rates, such as SOFR, SONIA or €STR

Securities, such as Floating Rate Securities, Floored Floater Securities and Capped Floored Floater Securities and Floater Securities with Target Rate (TARN Securities), Floating Rate Flex Securities, Digital Coupon Securities, Fixed to Floating Rate Securities (if applicable Floored or Capped Floored), issued under this Base Prospectus may refer the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR"), the Sterling Overnight Index Average ("SONIA") or the Euro Short-Term Rate ("€STR") or another risk free rate such as the Swiss Average Rate Overnight ("SARON") or the Tokyo Overnight Average Rate ("TONAR") (each, a "risk-free rate") as Reference Rate for the purpose of determining coupon amounts payable on such Securities. Holders of such Securities are exposed to risks due to the fact that the market continues to develop in relation to the adoption of such risk-free rates in bond markets as alternative reference rates for the relevant interbank offered rates (IBORs), including the following risks.

The market, or a significant part thereof, may adopt an application of the risk-free rates in the future that differs significantly from that applicable to Securities issued under this Base Prospectus. For example, while in the case of the Securities issued under this Base Prospectus the floating coupon (the Floating Coupon Rate) applicable to any interest period is determined by the Calculation Agent by compounding the daily rates of SOFR, SONIA or €STR (or another risk free rate) in arrears in accordance with the compounding formula set out the Conditions, in a growing number of securities issues recently seen in the bond markets the interest rate for each interest period is determined at the end of each interest period on the basis of an index published by the administrator of the relevant risk-free rate on the basis of an average of the relevant risk-free rate over a defined period. Also, while the General Conditions provide for a determination of the Floating Coupon Rate only at the end of each Interest Period, market participants and officially appointed working groups are working on the development of robust forward-looking term reference rates based on risk-free rates which seek to measure the market's forward expectation of the respective average risk-free rate over a designated term, thus allowing to determine the applicable coupon for a coupon period in advance. Any adoption of the use of risk-free rates as reference rates for bonds by capital markets, or a significant part thereof, diverging from that in the General Conditions may have a negative effect on the market price and liquidity of floating rate securities referencing SOFR, SONIA or €STR or another risk free rate issued under this Base Prospectus.

Similarly, while the floating rate securities referencing SOFR, SONIA or €STR or another risk free rate may use the "observation period shift method", another method is the so-called "look-back method" (the latter also often referred to as the "lag method"). The methods differ in the manner in which the daily rates of the relevant risk-free rate are weighted. While the "observation period shift method" weights the daily risk-free rates according to the relevant number of business days in a separate observation period that shadows the relevant Interest Period, the "look-back method" weights the daily risk-free rates according to the number of business days in the Interest Period. Capital markets seem to be developing a preference for the observation period shift method since this method has been adopted by administrators for the purpose of calculating indices for risk-free rates. Security Holder should therefore be aware that the divergence between the methodologies could result in reduced liquidity or increased volatility or could otherwise affect the market price of the Securities or impact any hedging or other financial arrangements that Security Holders may put in place in connection with any acquisition, holding or disposal of such Securities.

The adoption of risk-free rate in the securities markets may differ significantly from the adoption of risk-free rates in other financial markets and products. Security Holders should therefore consider how any mismatches between the application of the risk-free rates in the bond, loan or derivatives markets may impact any hedging or other financial arrangements which they may put into place in connection with the acquisition, holding or disposal of Securities referencing a risk-free rate and how such mismatches could otherwise expose them to a financial base risk in respect of their individual assets-liabilities structures.

Security Holders should note that interest on floating rate securities referencing SOFR, SONIA or €STR or another risk-free rate is only capable of being determined a few business days prior to the end of the relevant Coupon Period (as specified in the Final Terms). Security Holders are exposed to a risk that they may not be able to handle such Securities in their internal systems and in accordance with their normal processes. Also, potential buyers may be unable or unwilling to trade such Securities, which could adversely impact the market price or liquidity of such Securities.

3.6. Certain risks related to the USD SOFR Swap Rate

Floating Rate Securities, Floored Floater Securities, Capped Floored Floater Securities, Floater Securities with Target Rate ((TARN Securities)), floating rate Flex Securities, Digital Coupon Securities, Fixed to Floating Rate Securities (if applicable Floored or Capped Floored), which may be issued under this Base Prospectus, may be linked to the USD SOFR Swap Rate to determine the coupon amounts payable under such Securities. Holders are exposed to the risk that due to the limited historical information available, the future performance of the USD SOFR Swap Rate cannot be predicted.

The USD SOFR Swap Rate is a relatively new benchmark that was launched by ICE Benchmark Administration (IBA) on 8 November 2021 and is published by IBA since then. IBA began publication of the USD SOFR Swap Rate on 8 November 2021. As a result, there is limited historical information on which to evaluate the performance of this benchmark or on which to base a prediction as to its future performance, which may bear little or no relation to such limited information. The limited historical information is not necessarily indicative of the future performance of the USD SOFR Swap Rate or the value of any Securities, and any historical upward or downward trend in the level of the USD SOFR Swap Rate during any period is not an indication that the level of the benchmark is more or less likely to increase or decrease over the term any Securities referencing the USD SOFR Swap Rate. An investment in such Securities may involve more risk than investing in Securities linked to benchmarks or indices with established performance records, where a longer history of performance may be available so that the Security Holders have more information on which to base an investment decision.

The USD SOFR Swap Rate seeks to represent the annual fixed leg of an interest rate swap where the floating leg is based on a compounded average of the daily SOFR administered by the New York Fed (or any successor administrator) compounded in arrears for twelve months payable annually using standard market conventions, calculated on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed, with a year presumed to comprise 360 days. It is to be noted that the USD SOFR Swap Rate has been designed with respect to swap transactions referencing a rate that differs in significant respects from the rate referenced in the swap transactions with respect to which the former USD SOFR Swap Rate was designed. As a result, the interest rate on and value of the Securities may perform differently over time from the manner in which the interest rate and value of securities with comparable terms and provisions that were linked to previous swap rates would perform.

A lack of input data may impact the IBA's ability to calculate and publish the USD SOFR Swap Rate for one or more tenors. The input data for the USD SOFR Swap Rate is based on swaps referencing SOFR as the floating leg. The USD SOFR Swap Rate is dependent on receiving sufficient eligible input data, from the trading venue sources identified by IBA in accordance with the "Waterfall" methodology for each applicable USD SOFR Swap Rate tenor. The ability of the applicable trading venues to provide sufficient eligible input data in accordance with the Waterfall methodology depends on, among other things, there being a liquid market in swap contracts referencing SOFR on such trading venues, which in turn depends, among other things, on there being a liquid market in loans, floating rate notes and other financial contracts referencing SOFR. Because SOFR's use as a reference rate for financial contracts began relatively recently and the related market for SOFR-based swaps still is relatively new, there is limited information on which to assess potential future liquidity in SOFR-based swap markets or in the market for SOFR-based financial contracts more generally. If the market for SOFR-based swap contracts is not sufficiently liquid, or if the liquidity in such market proves to be volatile, this could result in the inability of IBA to calculate the USD SOFR Swap Rate on certain occasions, which could materially adversely affect the reliability of USD SOFR Swap Rate, and could adversely affect the return on and value of the Securities and the price at which the Security Holder is able to sell the Securities in the secondary market, if any. In addition, if SOFR does not maintain market acceptance for use as a reference rate for USD denominated financial contracts, uncertainty about SOFR may adversely affect the return on and the value and/or the coupon amounts of the Securities.

Further risks in connection with the USD SOFR Swap Rate:

- The information regarding the USD SOFR Swap Rate that IBA makes publicly available is limited.
- The USD SOFR Swap Rate may be modified or discontinued, which could adversely affect the return, value, coupon amounts, or market for the Securities.
- The secondary trading market for Securities referencing the USD SOFR Swap Rate may be limited.
- If a Benchmark Event is determined to have occurred with respect to the USD SOFR Swap Rate, the relevant successor rate may not be a suitable replacement for the USD SOFR Swap Rate (see above "II.3.2. Due to the regulation and reform of benchmarks, there may be an adjustment or extraordinary termination of the Securities and this may have an adverse effect on the redemption of the Securities for Security Holders").

4. Risk factors arising from the Condition of the Securities

In this category, investors will find a description of those specific material risk factor arising from the Conditions of the Securities. The risks in this category are classified according to their materiality based on the assessment of the Issuer. The most material risks are mentioned first whereby for the respective Securities only those risks are relevant that have the respective features mentioned.

4.1. Risks related to an extraordinary termination of the Securities

The Conditions of the Securities may provide for extraordinary termination by the Issuer in certain cases so that the Security Holder bears a risk of loss as the termination amount may be below the market price of the Securities. The Security Holder also bears the reinvestment risk in relation to the termination amount.

Under certain circumstances (e.g. if in case of a Benchmark Event or an Index Cessation Event (as defined in the General Condition) the determination of a Successor Reference Rate is not possible or, if the Securities are linked to an Inflation Index, an alternative inflation index cannot be determined) the Issuer may have an extraordinary termination right. If the coupon is determined on the basis of an index, an extraordinary termination is furthermore possible in the cases provided for in the applicable Conditions, for example in the case of disruptions of trading in the Underlying or in financial instruments linked to the Index (including the futures and lending market) or if an Additional Disruption Event or a Change in Law Event exists.

If the termination right is exercised, the Issuer will redeem the Securities at the termination amount which will generally equal the respective Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and/or the outstanding nominal amount and/or outstanding calculation amount which may be below the current market price of the Securities.

It should also be taken into account that in the case of an extraordinary termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of a termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

Security Holders should note that in the case of an exercise of the extraordinary termination right by the Issuer, they may no longer be able to sell the Securities on the secondary market or, if the Securities provide for an exercise right of the Security Holder, to exercise the Securities.

4.2. Risks related to an ordinary termination of the Securities

If the Conditions of the Securities provide for ordinary termination by the Issuer, the Security Holder bears a risk of loss as the termination amount may be below the market value of the Securities and the amount invested . The Security Holder also bears the reinvestment risk in relation to the termination amount.

The applicable Final Terms will indicate whether the Issuer may have a right to call the Securities prior to maturity at the option of the Issuer. If the Issuer redeems the Securities prior to maturity, a Security Holder is exposed to the risk that due to the termination and the associated early redemption its investment will have a lower than expected yield. The amount the Security Holder will receive in the case of an ordinary termination may be below the market value of the Securities and the amount invested.

It should also be taken into account that in the case of an ordinary termination the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of a termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

Security Holders should note that the Issuer may exercise its ordinary termination right in its reasonable discretion and is not subject to any commitments regarding the exercise of its termination right. The exercise of the termination right may occur on any termination notice date. The higher the volatility of the reference rate, the more likely it is that the Issuer will make use of its termination right.

In the case that the Securities provide for an ordinary termination right of the Issuer, Security Holders should not rely on being able to hold a position in the Securities for a longer time.

4.3. Risks related to a termination of the Securities in the course of corrections, supplement or modifications of the Conditions

In the course of corrections, supplement or modifications of provisions in the conditions of the Securities the Issuer and the Security Holder might have a right to terminate the Securities. In the case of an exercise of such termination right the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk in relation to the termination amount.

Security Holders should note that the Issuer has the right in certain cases specified in more detail in the Conditions to correct, supplement or modify provisions in the Issue Specific Terms and/or the Conditions, and the correction, supplement or modification of a provision in the Conditions may, if applicable, be detrimental for the Security Holder compared to the original provision, i.e. that information or provisions may be affected by the correction, change, or amendment, which are part of the factors determining the price of the Securities.

If due to the correction, supplement or modification of the provision the content or scope of the Issuer's performance obligations is changed in an unforeseeable and detrimental manner that is not foreseeable to the Security Holder, the Security Holder has the right to terminate the Securities within a period specified in more detail in the Conditions. The Security Holder does not have a termination right, if the correction, supplement or modification was foreseeable or is not disadvantageous for it.

If a correction, supplement or modification is not possible, the Issuer has in the case of German Securities the right to terminate the Securities without undue delay, if the preconditions for rescission in the sense of Sections 119 et seq. of the German Civil Code (BGB) exist vis-à-vis the Security Holders. Individual Security Holders are also entitled to terminate the Securities under these conditions. The Termination Amount to be paid in the case of a termination generally corresponds to the market price of a Security and the Conditions contain detailed rules for its determination. In order to reduce the effects of any price fluctuations immediately prior to the Termination Date on the determination of the Termination Amount, the market price generally corresponds to the arithmetic mean of the spot prices (Kassakurse) which were published at the Securities Exchange specified in the applicable Final Terms, provided that the Securities are listed. Calculating the average is disadvantageous for the Security Holder, if the spot price on the Business Day prior to the Termination Date is higher than the arithmetic mean.

The Security Holder may furthermore demand from the Issuer, subject to the conditions specified in the Conditions, the difference between the purchase price paid by the Security Holder when acquiring the Securities and a lower market price, to the extent that the Security Holder produces evidence thereof to the Principal Programme Agent. The reimbursement of transaction costs or of other fees, including any offering premium paid, may only be considered, however, in connection with a potential claim by the Security Holder for compensation of the negative interest (corresponding to Section 122 BGB).

In the case of a termination of the Securities by the Issuer or the Security Holder the Security Holder bears the reinvestment risk. This means that the Security Holder may only be able to reinvest the amount to be paid by the Issuer in the case of a termination on less favourable market terms than those existing when the Security was acquired.

5. Risk factors associated with the investment in the Securities

In this category, investors will find a description of those specific material risks that occur in connection with the investment in the Securities. The risks in this category are classified according to their materiality based on the assessment of the Issuer. The most material risks are mentioned first.

5.1. Risk in the case of a settlement of the Securities in a different currency than the currency of the account of the Security Holder

Security Holders bear an exchange rate risk if the account of the Security Holder is held in a currency different from the Settlement Currency of the Security.

A currency risk exists if the account of the Security Holder to which the Settlement Amount or any other amount owed is paid is managed in a currency different from the Settlement Currency of the Security as in this case the relevant Settlement Amount or any other amount owed is being converted into the currency of the account of the Security Holder. If the exchange rate used for the conversion is unfavourable, the amount transferred is reduced accordingly.

5.2. Risk related to the liquidity of the Securities

Security Holders bear the risk that the Securities cannot be sold at a specific time or at a specific price during their term.

Unless the rules of any stock exchange on which the Securities are listed and admitted to trading require the Issuer or any Goldman Sachs affiliate to provide liquidity in respect of such Securities, the Securities may have no liquidity or the market for such Securities may be limited and this may adversely impact their value or the ability of the Security Holder to dispose of them. Therefore, Security Holders may not be able to sell their Securities or, if they can, they may only be able to sell them at a price which is substantially less than the original purchase price.

The issue size set out in the applicable Final Terms corresponds to the maximum amount of the offered Securities, but does not give any indication as to the volume of the respective effectively issued Securities deposited with a central depository. This volume is determined by the market situation and may change during the term of the Securities. Security Holders should therefore note that no conclusions regarding the liquidity of the Securities on the secondary market are possible based on the issue size set out in the applicable Final Terms.

A secondary market is unlikely to develop and, even if a secondary market does develop, it is not possible to predict the price at which Securities will trade in such secondary market. Neither the Issuer nor any Goldman Sachs affiliate does commit or is under any obligation legal or otherwise to quote bid and ask prices for the Securities. If the Issuer or any Goldman Sachs affiliate does quote bid and ask prices for the Securities, it may cease to do so at any time without notice. If an electronic quoting system used by Goldman Sachs were to become partially or completely unavailable due to technical disruptions or market disruption, such a development would have a corresponding effect on the ability of investors to trade the Securities and Security Holders therefore bear the risk that in certain circumstances they will not be provided with a price for the Securities. Security Holders should therefore not assume that the Securities can be sold at a specific time or at a specific price during their term.

Neither the Issuer nor any Goldman Sachs affiliate has any obligation to provide any quotation of bid or ask price(s) for the Securities which is favourable to any Security Holder. Although application may be made for the Securities issued under the Base Prospectus to be admitted to trading on a stock exchange, there can be no assurance that such application will be accepted, that any particular Securities will be so admitted or that an active trading market will develop. In case of a listing or admission to trading of the Securities there is no obligation of the Issuer or of any Goldman Sachs affiliate to maintain a listing or admission to trading of the Securities during the term of the Securities. Accordingly, there can be no assurance as to the development or liquidity in any trading market for any particular Securities. Neither the Issuer assumes any responsibility for, nor makes any commitment to, any (potential) Security Holder for such development or liquidity of any trading market in such Securities.

5.3. Risk related to the pricing of the Securities

Security Holders bear the risk that the market price of the Securities may fluctuate significantly during the term of the Securities. The Security Holder may be dependent on the fact that Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE as a market maker will quote bid and ask prices for the Securities.

The pricing of the Securities is determined by several factors during their term. In addition to the term of the Securities and the amount of the coupon paid, if any, which may depend on the performance of the Reference Rate, the Index or the Inflation Index, in particular the solvency of the Issuer is relevant.

The Securities may be traded over the counter and, if stipulated in the applicable Final Terms, on a stock exchange throughout their term. If the Securities are listed on a stock exchange, the fact that such Securities are listed will not necessarily lead to greater liquidity which may adversely impact the value of the Securities or the ability of the Security Holder to dispose of them. If Securities are not listed or traded on any exchange, pricing information for such Securities may be more difficult to obtain and they may be more difficult to sell. In contrast to most other securities, the pricing of the Securities is not based on the principle of supply and demand, since the intention is for Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE as market maker to quote bid and ask prices for the Securities on a regular basis under normal market conditions. However Goldman Sachs does not commit and is under no obligation legal or otherwise to quote bid and ask prices for the Securities. If Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE does make a market for the Securities, investors should note that delays may occur during the price determination.

The price calculation by the market maker will be based on internal price calculation models, so that the theoretical value of the Securities will be determined on the basis of the value of the Reference Rate and/or the level of an Inflation Index and other variable parameters. During the term of the Securities, the market price of the Securities may also deviate from the development of the price of the Reference Rate and/or the level of an Inflation Index, since other factors, for example the correlations, volatilities and interest rate level, may influence the pricing and/or development of the price of the Securities.

As other market makers may not participate significantly in the secondary market for the Securities, the price at which Security Holders may be able to trade their Securities is likely to depend on the price, if any, at which Goldman Sachs is willing to buy the Securities. Therefore, Security Holders may not be able to sell their Securities or, if they can, they may only be able to sell them at a price which is substantially less than the original purchase price.

Securities are also subject to selling restrictions and purchaser representations and requirements and transfer restrictions that may limit the ability of investors to resell or transfer them. For these reasons, investors should not assume that a secondary market will exist for the Securities, and they should be prepared to hold their Securities until their scheduled maturity. The availability of any secondary market may be limited or non-existent and, if investors are able to sell their Securities, they may receive significantly less than they would otherwise receive by holding the Securities to their scheduled maturity.

Goldman Sachs may stop quoting products without prior notice for a number of reasons including, but not limited to, market disruptions in relation to the Reference Rate, Index or the Inflation Index, technical problems, regulatory restrictions or irregular market conditions. If an electronic quoting system used by Goldman Sachs were to become partially or completely unavailable due to technical disruptions or market disruption, such a development would have a corresponding effect on the ability of investors to trade the Securities and Security Holders therefore bear the risk that in certain circumstances they will not be provided with a price for the Securities.

Security Holders should therefore not assume that the Securities can be sold at a specific time or at a specific price during their term.

5.4. Risks associated with inflation

Security Holders bear the risk that the real yield on an investment in the Securities will be reduced, zero or even negative.

Inflation is the general increase in prices and fall in the purchasing value of money over time. Due to the impact of inflation, the same amount of money will buy fewer goods and services over time. The higher the rate of inflation, the lower the real yield on a Security will be. If the inflation rate is equal to or greater than the yield under a Security, the real yield a holder of such Security will achieve will be zero or even negative. Accordingly, inflation may have a negative effect on the value of and return on the Securities, and Security Holders should consider the potential impact of inflation (including if the rate of inflation is anticipated to rise over the term of the Securities) before purchasing Securities.

If the Conditions of the relevant Securities provide that the Settlement Amount at the end of the term equals the Nominal Amount and/or Calculation Amount and/or Partial Nominal Amount and/or Partial Calculation Amount, such will not provide any protection from the effect of inflation over time and it may still be the case that the yield on such Securities adjusted for inflation could be zero or even negative.

5.5. Risks in the case of Securities cleared through CREST

Security Holders bear the risk that the enforcement of rights in relation to the Securities cleared through CREST depends on the rules of the relevant clearing system in or through which the Underlying Securities are held.

The Securities to which such CDIs relate (such Securities being "Underlying Securities") (as distinct from the CDIs representing indirect interests in such Underlying Securities) will be held in an account with a custodian. The custodian will hold the Underlying Securities through the relevant Clearing System. Rights in the Underlying Securities will be held through custodial and depositary links through the relevant Clearing System. The legal title to the Underlying Securities or to interests in the Underlying Securities will depend on the rules of the relevant Clearing System in or through which the Underlying Securities are held.

Rights in respect of the Underlying Securities cannot be enforced by holders of CDIs except indirectly through the CREST Depository and CREST International Nominees Limited (the "CREST Nominee") who in turn can enforce rights indirectly through the intermediary depositaries and custodians described above. The enforcement of rights in respect of the Underlying Securities will therefore be subject to the local law of the relevant intermediary. These arrangements could result in an elimination or reduction in the payments that otherwise would have been made in respect of the Underlying Securities in the event of any insolvency or liquidation of the relevant intermediary, in particular where the Underlying Securities held in clearing systems are not held in special purpose accounts and are fungible with other securities held in the same accounts on behalf of other customers of the relevant intermediaries.

If a matter arises that requires a vote of Security Holders, the Issuer may make arrangements to permit the holders of CDIs to instruct the CREST Depository to exercise the voting rights of the CREST Nominee in respect of the Underlying Securities. However, there is no guarantee that it will be possible to put such voting arrangements in place for holders of CDIs. Holders of CDIs will be bound by the arrangements between the Issuer, CREST, the relevant Clearing System, all provisions of the CREST Deed Poll and by all provisions of or prescribed pursuant to the CREST International Manual (April 2008) issued by CREST and as amended, modified, varied or supplemented from time to time (the "CREST Manual") and the CREST Rules (contained in the CREST Manual) applicable to the CREST International Settlement Links Service. Holders of CDIs must comply in full with all obligations imposed on them by such provisions.

Investors in CDIs should note that the provisions of the CREST Deed Poll, the CREST Manual and the CREST Rules contain indemnities, warranties, representations and undertakings to be given by holders of CDIs and limitations on the liability of the CREST Depository as Issuer of the CDIs. Holders of CDIs may incur liabilities resulting from a breach of any such indemnities, warranties, representations and undertakings in excess of the money invested by them. As a result, the rights of and returns received by holders of CDIs may differ from those of holders of the Securities which are not represented by CDIs.

Investors in CDIs should note that holders of CDIs may be required to pay fees, charges, costs and expenses to the CREST Depository in connection with the use of the CREST International Settlement Links Service. These will include the fees and expenses charged by the CREST Depository in respect of the provision of services by it under the CREST Deed Poll and any taxes, duties, charges, costs or expenses which may be or become payable in connection with the holding of the Underlying Securities through the CREST International Settlement Links Service.

Investors in CDIs should note that none of the Issuer or any Agent will have any responsibility for the performance by any intermediaries or their respective direct or indirect participants or accountholders acting in connection with CDIs or for the respective obligations of such intermediaries, participants or accountholders under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

None of the Issuer or any Agent makes any representation or warranty as to the tax consequences of an investment in CDIs and/or the tax consequences of the acquisition, holding, transfer or disposal of CDIs by any investor (including, without limitation, whether any stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax, excise, severance, sales, use, transfer, documentary or any other similar tax, duty or charge may be imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by any government, applicable tax authority or jurisdiction on the acquisition, holding, transfer or disposal of CDIs by any investor). The tax consequences for each investor in CDIs can be different. Therefore, investors and counterparties should consider consulting with their tax advisers as to their specific consequences, including, in particular, whether United Kingdom stamp duty reserve tax will be payable on transfers of CDIs in uncertificated form within CREST.

An amount for or on account of United Kingdom income tax may have to be withheld on payments in respect of Underlying Securities to which CDIs relate which constitute interest for United Kingdom tax purposes, certain annual payments and certain manufactured payments, in each case subject to the availability of exemptions or reliefs or subject to any direction to the contrary from HM Revenue & Customs in respect of such relief as may be available under an applicable double taxation treaty.

In addition, persons in the United Kingdom may be required to provide certain information to HM Revenue & Customs about payments derived from securities (whether income or capital), certain payments of interest (including the amount payable on the redemption of a deeply discounted security) and certain securities transactions. In certain circumstances, such information may be exchanged with tax authorities in other countries.

6. Risks factors associated with tax and regulation of the Securities

In this category, investors will find a description of the specific material risks associated with the tax assessment of the securities or the regulation of Goldman Sachs. The risks in this category are classified according to their materiality based on the assessment of the Issuer. The most material risks are mentioned first.

6.1. Risks due to changes in tax law

Security Holders bear the risk of loss due to the tax treatment of the Securities. In addition, the tax assessment of the Securities may change. This may have a significant adverse effect on the price and redemption of the Securities and the payment under the Securities.

In the event of a tax deduction or withholding tax, the Security Holder may be forced to realise losses. This is the case if the amount to be paid by the Issuer for each Security is less than the amount of the capital invested to purchase the Security.

Tax law and practice are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Such a change may result in a change in the tax assessment of the Securities issued or offered under the Base Prospectus compared to the view which the Security Holder had at the time of purchase. Security Holders therefore bear the risk that they may incorrectly assess the taxation of income from the purchase of the Securities. However, it is also possible that the taxation of income from the purchase of the Securities may change to the disadvantage of the Security Holders.

6.2. Risks relating to the Potential Failure of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc., the Issuer or any of its affiliates and consequences under the U.S. Special Resolution Regimes

A potential failure of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. ("GSG") or a company affiliated with GSG and measures taken in accordance with the U.S. Resolution Regimes may also affect the Issuer.

In the fall of 2017 the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency issued rules ("QFC Stay Rules") designed to improve the resolvability and resilience of U.S. globally systemically important banking organizations ("G-SIBs"), such as GSG and its subsidiaries, and the U.S. operations of foreign G-SIBs, by mitigating the risk of destabilizing closeouts of qualified financial contracts ("QFCs") in resolution. Certain of the Securities may qualify as QFCs.

The QFC Stay Rules seek to eliminate impediments to the orderly resolution of a G-SIB both in a scenario where resolution proceedings are instituted by the U.S. regulatory authorities under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act ("FDI Act") or the Orderly Liquidation Authority under Title II of the Dodd Frank Act ("OLA") (together, the "U.S. Special Resolution Regimes") as well as in a scenario where the G-SIB is resolved under ordinary insolvency proceedings, for example, under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. The QFC Stay Rules (i) require an express contractual recognition that QFCs subject to the QFC Stay Rules will be subject to the statutory stay-and-transfer provisions of the U.S. Special Resolution Regimes and (ii) prohibit QFCs subject to the QFC Stay Rules from having (x) cross-default rights against the party in the G-SIB group based on any parent or other affiliate becoming subject to insolvency proceedings and (y) restrictions on the transfer of related credit enhancements (including guarantees) issued by an affiliate following the affiliate's entry into insolvency proceedings. The terms and conditions of the Securities do not provide any cross-default rights and conform to the recognition, transfer and other requirements of the QFC Stay Rules as described below.

Acknowledgment of U.S. Special Resolution Regimes

The Securities contain explicit contractual recognition that in the event the Issuer becomes subject to a proceeding under the FDI Act or OLA, the transfer of the Securities and any interest and obligation in or under the Securities, from the Issuer will be effective to the same extent as the transfer would be effective under such U.S. Special Resolution Regimes. In addition, the Securities contain an express contractual recognition that in the event the Issuer, or any of its affiliates, including GSG, becomes subject to a proceeding under a U.S. Special Resolution Regimes, default rights against the Issuer with respect to the Securities are permitted to be exercised to no greater extent than such default rights could be exercised under such U.S. Special Resolution Regimes. Default rights for such purposes include the right of a party to a QFC to terminate, liquidate or accelerate the QFC or demand payment or delivery thereunder, or exercise certain other rights.

Under current law, the Issuer, as a non-U.S. entity, is not itself eligible to be placed into proceedings under the U.S. Special Resolution Regimes. However, GSG could be placed into proceedings under OLA, if certain determinations are made by the applicable U.S. regulatory authorities. GSG's resolution under OLA could have an impact on the Issuer as a direct subsidiary of GSG.

Investors should be aware that the taking of resolution measures against GSG or any of its subsidiaries, including GSBE, or even the suggestion of the potential taking of resolution measures could have a material adverse effect on the rights of Security Holders, and could lead to a loss of some or all of the investment. Security Holders may not be able to anticipate the exercise of any resolution measures and will have very limited rights to challenge such measures.

7. Risk factors associated with conflicts of interest between Goldman Sachs and Security Holders

The Issuer may enter into transactions or undertake transactions in their general business operations which are contrary to the interests of the Security Holders which do not take these into account. In this category, investors will find a description of those specific material risks in connection with conflicts of interest between Goldman Sachs and Security Holders. The risks in this category are classified according to their materiality based on the assessment of the Issuer. The most material risks are mentioned first.

7.1. Conflicts of interest in connection with the determination of purchase prices

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may pursue interests in setting the Margin that conflict with the interests of the Security Holders.

The purchase price of the Securities may, where appropriate in addition to fixed issue surcharges, management fees or other fees, contain surcharges that are not transparent to the Security Holder on the initial mathematical "fair" price of the Securities (the "Margin"), which adversely affects the profit of the Security Holders. This Margin is determined by the Issuer at its reasonable discretion and may differ from the premiums charged by different issuers for comparable securities.

The distribution margin includes expenses for fees such as distribution bonuses which the Issuer collects and passes on to distribution partners. The Security Holders bear the risk that the distribution margin adversely affects the profit of the Security Holders.

The sales bonuses are passed on to the sales partners and may result in conflicts of interest at the level of the sales partner to the detriment of the Security Holder because this could create an incentive for the sales partner to sell products with a higher sales bonus preferentially to its customers.

7.2. Conflicts of interest in connection with commission payments

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may pursue interests in setting commissions that conflict with the interests of the Security Holders.

It must be noted that the selling price of the Securities may contain commissions charged by the Market Maker for the issue or which may be passed on by the Market Maker to distribution partners in whole or in part as consideration for distribution activities. This may lead to a difference between the fair price of the Security and the bid and ask prices quoted by the Market Maker, which is usually higher at the beginning of trading in the Securities and is reduced over time. Commissions that may be contained therein have a negative effect on the Security Holder's ability to generate earnings. It must furthermore be considered that the payment of these commissions to distribution partners may lead to conflicts of interest for the detriment of the Security Holder, since this could provide an incentive for the distribution partner to prefer selling products with higher commissions to its clients. Security Holders should therefore inquire with their house bank or their financial advisor about the existence of such conflicts of interest. Information about the amount of commission payments by the Issuer are found under "Other Information" in the Final Terms, as the case may be.

7.3. Conflicts of interest in connection with the Market Making by Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may pursue interests in Market Making that conflict with the interests of the Security Holders.

Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE (the "Market Maker") intends to quote bid and ask prices for the Securities of an issue on a regular basis under normal market conditions, however Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE does not commit and is under no obligation legal or otherwise to quote bid and ask prices for the Securities of an issue. If the Market Maker does make a market for the Securities, Security Holders should note that delays may occur during the price determination, which may for example result from Market Disruptions or system problems. Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE will in its function as Market Maker take the directly opposite economic position to the Security Holder immediately with or immediately after the trade and will either offset, hedge, or hold this position. This may also occur, for example, by entering short positions.

In detail, the procedures are as follows: if a trade is concluded at a bid or ask price quoted by the Market Maker, the Market Maker regularly incurs a risk position immediately after the trade that is directly opposite to the position taken by the Security Holder through the trade. The Goldman Sachs Group will bundle the risk positions resulting from these trades and, if appropriate, offset compensating trading positions against each other.

It must furthermore be considered that the bid and ask prices quoted by the Market Maker for the Securities are calculated based on internal price models, which are used by the Market Maker and other traders, and which determine the fair price of the Securities taking into account various factors affecting the price. The circumstances based on which the Market Maker determines the bid and ask prices quoted on the secondary market in particular include the fair price of the Securities, which depends, inter alia, on the market interest rates, as well as the spread between bid and ask prices aimed for by the Market Maker (the so-called "Bid-Ask Spread"), which the Market Maker determines depending on supply and demand for the Securities and based on revenue considerations. In addition, an originally charged offering premium and any fees or costs to be deducted from the Settlement Amount at the time of maturity of the Securities such as commissions, transaction fees, administration fees, or comparable fees are regularly taken into account. The pricing on the secondary market is furthermore affected by a Margin contained in the sale price of the Securities.

The prices quoted by the Market Maker may accordingly differ significantly at the relevant time from the fair price or the price of the Securities to be expected economically due to the aforementioned factors. Furthermore, the Market Maker may change the method based on which it determines the quoted prices at any time, e.g. by taking into account the applicable interest rate premium for notes of the Issuer compared to the risk free interest rate (Credit Spread) or by increasing or reducing the Bid-Ask Spread. Any such deviation from the fair price of the Securities may cause the bid and ask prices quoted by other security traders for the Securities to differ significantly (both upwards and downward) from the bid and ask prices quoted by the Market Maker.

7.4. Conflicts of interest relating to the various functions of Goldman Sachs in connection with the issue

The Issuer and its affiliated companies may, in exercising their functions, for example as issue agent, Calculation Agent or Paying and/or Administration Agent, pursue interests which conflict with the interests of the Security Holders.

The Issuer and other companies of Goldman Sachs may where appropriate carry out various functions in connection with the offer and the sale of the Securities, for example as issue agent, Calculation Agent, Paying and/or Administration Agent. It is furthermore also possible that companies of Goldman Sachs act as counterparty in hedging transactions in connection with the obligations of the Issuer under the Securities or as Market Maker (see also under "II.7.3. Conflicts of interest in connection with the market making by Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE" or under "Other Information" in the Final Terms). Due to the various functions and the obligations resulting from them in each case, conflicts of interest may arise both among the relevant companies of Goldman Sachs and between them and the Security Holders. It must be considered in particular in connection with the function as Calculation Agent, e.g. with respect to the determination of the market price, the exchange rate or the delivery amount, that conflicts of interest may occur, since the Calculation Agent has the right in certain cases that are specified in the Conditions to make certain determinations in its reasonable discretion, which are binding for the Issuer and Security Holders. Such determinations may have a negative effect on the price of the Securities and be correspondingly disadvantageous for the Security Holder.

7.5. Interests of third parties involved in the issue

The Issuer may involve cooperation partners and external advisors in the issuance of Securities that pursue their own interests in the course of their activity that may conflict with or do not take into account the interests of the Security Holders what may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities.

The Issuer can involve cooperation partners and external advisors in the issuance of Securities. It is possible that these cooperation partners and advisors may pursue their own interests in the course of their activity that may conflict with or do not take into account the interests of the Security Holders. Therefore, the activities of the cooperation partners and external advisors may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities.

1.2 Description of the Securities

The Securities issued by Goldman Sachs Bank Europe SE provide for a par value and/or calculation amount (the "Nominal" and/or "Calculation Amount"), which is specified in Part A – Product specific terms of the applicable Final Terms.

The Securities may be issued at par value (par = 100% of the Nominal) and/or at the Calculation Amount, below or above par value. Below or above par means that when a new Security is issued, a discount ("Disagio") or premium ("Agio") is set by which the Issue Price is lower and/or higher than the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount. It should be noted that the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount may not necessarily equal the fair market value of the Security.

In addition, interest is paid on the Securities (except for Fixed Return Securities and Zero Coupon Securities).

The mechanism of the respective Securities is further described in the section "III.2 Explanation of mechanism of Securities" below.

This Base Prospectus, including the Issue Specific Terms, contains options or placeholders which, depending on the product and issue, are applicable or will be completed. They are marked by square brackets "[]" or placeholders "●". They will be specified or completed in the Final Terms at the time of issue.

1.3 Applicable law

The form and content of the Securities and all rights and obligations of the Issuer and of the Security Holders will be governed by, and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of Germany and/or the laws of England and Wales, as set out for each series of Securities in the applicable Final Terms.

In the case of Securities governed by the laws of Germany (the "German Securities") pursuant to the Final Terms, Frankfurt am Main shall be the place of performance of the Securities governed by the laws of Germany. In the aforementioned cases, Frankfurt am Main is the exclusive place of jurisdiction for all lawsuits against the Issuer.

In the case of Securities governed by the laws of England and Wales (the "English Securities") pursuant to the Final Terms the courts of England are to have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with the Securities (including a dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Securities).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in respect of both German Securities represented by global bearer note and English Securities (a) Finnish law and jurisdiction will be applicable with regard to the registration of any such Securities in Euroclear Finland Oy, the Finnish Central Securities Depository Ltd. German Securities issued by the Issuer will, save as set out below, be represented by a permanent global bearer note (the "Global Bearer Note") or be issued in accordance with the German Electronic Securities Act (Gesetz über elektronische Wertpapiere) ("eWpG") as electronic securities within the meaning of section 4 (2) eWpG in the form of central register securities ("Electronic Securities").

If the German Securities are represented by a Global Bearer Note, this Global Bearer Note will be deposited with the applicable Clearing System. Each Global Bearer Note representing the Securities (or any amount thereof) of a relevant Series will set out therein the applicable Issue Specific Terms, as replicated in the applicable Final Terms, and the General Conditions (including the Index Linked Provisions, if applicable). If permitted under the law applicable in relation to the registration, each Global Bearer Note will only make reference to the applicable Issue Specific Terms, as replicated in the applicable Final Terms, and the General Conditions (including the Index Linked Provisions, if applicable) and as a consequence the applicable Issue Specific Terms and the General Conditions will not be replicated in therein. No German Securities will be issued in definitive form.

If the German Securities are issued by the Issuer in the form of Electronic Securities, the Issuer will effect a registration in an electronic securities register (section 4(1) eWpG) instead of issuing a Global Bearer Note. The Electronic Securities shall be made out to bearer and shall be entered in the central register (within the meaning of sections 7 and 12 eWpG) maintained by the registrar entity in collective registration with a central securities depository as the registered holder pursuant to section 3 (1) eWpG. The applicable Issue Specific Terms, as replicated in the applicable Final Terms, and the General Conditions (including the Index Linked Provisions, if applicable) will be recorded in such central register. Such central register will be maintained by Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main, Mergenthalerallee 61, 65760 Eschborn ("Clearstream Frankfurt") or another registrar entity as specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms.

The registered holder of the Electronic Securities within the meaning of section 3 (1) in connection with section 8 (1) no. 1 eWpG (collective registration) is Clearstream Frankfurt as registrar entity in its function as central securities depository or another registrar entity as may be specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms. The registrar entity as registered holder will administer the collective registration on a fiduciary basis for the beneficiary holders, i.e. the Security Holders (the "Beneficiaries" within the meaning of the eWpG).

Electronic Securities in collective registration are deemed to be collective securities holdings. The beneficiaries of the registered rights with the same content are considered to be co-owners by fractions of the registered Electronic Security. The respective share is determined by the nominal amount of the rights taken in collective registration for the beneficiary. As long as the Electronic Securities are in the form of central register securities, a registrar entity shall always be appointed in accordance with the requirements of the eWpG. Changes of the registrar entity, including a replacement by another registrar entity, shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the eWpG applicable at the relevant time or the rules of the registrar entity; they shall be announced in accordance with the provisions of the General Conditions. The Security Holder has no right to individual registration in the central register. The Issuer assumes no responsibility and no liability for the proper maintenance of the central register by the registrar entity, which has its own statutory liability for the maintenance of the register pursuant to the eWpG.

In addition, pursuant to section 6 (3) eWpG, the Issuer may at any time and without the consent of the Security Holders replace Securities issued by means of a Global Bearer Note by a central register security with the same content if:

1. the central register security is registered in a central register kept at a central securities depository,
2. a central securities depository is registered as the holder of the central register security, and
3. this is not (a) excluded in the General Conditions or (b) made conditional on the consent of the beneficiaries.

Upon registration of the central registry security, the Global Bearer Note shall become invalid. If the Issuer replaces Securities represented by a Global Bearer Note with Electronic Securities, it shall make the replacement known to the Security Holders in accordance with the General Conditions.

English Securities issued by the Issuer will, save as set out below, be represented by a registered global note (the "Global ICSD Registered Note") deposited with, and registered in the name of a nominee for, a common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream Luxembourg (the "ICSDs" and each an "ICSD"). Each Global ICSD Registered Note representing the Securities (or any amount thereof) of a relevant Series will set out therein the applicable Issue Specific Terms, as replicated in the applicable Final Terms, and the General Conditions (including the Index Linked Provisions, if applicable). If permitted under the law applicable in relation to the registration, each Global ICSD Registered Note will only make reference to the applicable Issue Specific Terms, as replicated in the applicable Final Terms, and the General Conditions (including the Index Linked Provisions, if applicable) and as a consequence the applicable Issue Specific Terms and the General Conditions will not be replicated in therein.

No English Securities will be issued in definitive form. The persons for the time being appearing in the books of any ICSD as the holder of a particular number or Nominal and/or Calculation Amount of such Securities shall be treated as the holder thereof and as the person entitled to exercise the rights represented by the relevant Securities for all purposes other than with respect to the payment of the Settlement Amount or any interest in respect of such number or Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, as the case may be, of such Securities, for which purpose the nominee for the common depository shall be treated as the holder of such number or Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, as the case may be, of such Securities in accordance with, and subject to the terms of the relevant registered global note.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, German Securities and English Securities may, in addition, also be issued by the Issuer and registered with:

- (i) Euroclear Finland in the Euroclear Finland System ("Euroclear Finland Registered Securities") and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with Finnish Regulations;
- (ii) Euroclear Sweden ("Euroclear Sweden Registered Securities") and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with the SFIA Act (as defined in Section 2 of the General Conditions);
- (iii) Euroclear Netherlands ("Euroclear Netherlands Registered Securities") and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with Euroclear Netherlands Rules (as defined in Section 2 of the General Conditions);
- (iv) Euroclear France ("Euroclear France Registered Securities") in accordance with Euroclear France Rules (as defined in Section 2 of the General Conditions); and
- (v) VPS ("VPS Registered Securities") and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with the NFIA Act (as defined in Section 2 of the General Conditions); in each case, as specified in the applicable Final Terms.

Euroclear Finland Registered Securities will be registered with Euroclear Finland and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with applicable Finnish regulations. The person for the time being shown in the register of Euroclear Finland shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer, the Agents, Euroclear Finland and all other persons dealing with such person as the holder thereof and as the person entitled to exercise the rights represented thereby notwithstanding any notice to the contrary.

Euroclear Sweden Registered Securities will be registered with Euroclear Sweden and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with applicable Swedish legislation. The person for the time being shown in the register of Euroclear Sweden shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer, the Agents, Euroclear Sweden and all other persons dealing with such person as the holder thereof and as the person entitled to exercise the rights represented thereby notwithstanding any notice to the contrary.

VPS Registered Securities will be registered with VPS and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with applicable Norwegian law. The person for the time being shown in the register of VPS shall, in accordance with the rules of VPS, be treated for all purposes by the Issuer, the Agents, VPS and all other persons dealing with such person as the holder thereof and as the person entitled to exercise the rights represented thereby notwithstanding any notice to the contrary.

Euroclear Netherlands Registered Securities will be registered with Euroclear Netherlands and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with applicable Dutch legislation. The person for the time being shown in the register of Euroclear Netherlands shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer, the Agents, Euroclear Netherlands and all other persons dealing with such person as the holder thereof and as the person entitled to exercise the rights represented thereby notwithstanding any notice to the contrary.

Euroclear France Registered Securities will be in dematerialized bearer form inscribed in the books of Euroclear France which shall credit the accounts of the Euroclear France Accountholders. The person for the time being shown in the books of the relevant Euroclear France Accountholder shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer, the Agents, Euroclear France and all other persons dealing with such person as the holder thereof and as the person entitled to exercise the rights represented thereby notwithstanding any notice to the contrary.

If specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms, investors may hold indirect interests in the Securities (such Securities being "Underlying Securities") through CREST by holding CDIs. In the case of Securities cleared through CREST, investors will hold indirect interests in the Securities through CREST by holding dematerialised depository interests ("CDIs"). CDIs represent indirect interests in the Securities to which they relate and holders of CDIs will not be the legal owners of the Securities. CDIs are independent securities constituted under English law, held and settled through CREST, which will be issued by CREST Depository Limited or any successor thereto (the "CREST Depository") pursuant to the global deed poll dated 25 June 2001 (as subsequently modified, supplemented and/or restated) (the "CREST Deed Poll").

Following the delivery of the Underlying Securities into a relevant Clearing System permitted in the CREST Manual, indirect interests in Underlying Securities may be delivered, held and settled in CREST by means of the creation of dematerialised CDIs representing indirect interests in the relevant Underlying Securities. Interests in the Underlying Securities will be credited to the CREST Nominee's account with Euroclear and the CREST Nominee will hold such interests as nominee for the CREST Depository which will issue CDIs to the relevant CREST participants.

Transfers of interests in Underlying Securities by the CREST Nominee to a participant of the relevant Clearing System will be effected by cancellation of the CDIs and transfer of an interest in such Underlying Securities to the account of the relevant participant with the relevant Clearing System. It is expected that the CDIs will have the same securities identification number as the ISIN of the Underlying Securities and will not require a separate listing on a recognised stock exchange.

Additional general information with respect to CDIs can be found in the CREST Deed Poll, the CREST Manual and the CREST Rules, copies of which are available from Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited at 33 Cannon Street, London EC4M 5SB or by calling +442078490000 or from the Euroclear UK & Ireland Limited website at www.euroclear.com/site/public/EUI.

1.6 Description of the rights attached to the Securities

The right to demand payment of the Settlement Amount under the Securities is specified in Section 1 of the General Conditions. The right to demand a Coupon Amount, if any, is specified in Section 3 of the General Conditions. The Issuer may have the right under Section 3 of the General Conditions to terminate the Securities if a Reference Rate or an Inflation Index ceases to exist and/or a successor Reference Rate or an appropriate alternative inflation index (as the case may be) does not exist.

A description of any market disruptions and any consequences of market disruptions linked to Indices as Underlying are specified in the Index Linked Provisions annexed to the General Conditions.

The adjustment rules with relation to events concerning Indices as Underlying are specified in the Index Linked Provisions annexed to the General Conditions.

The applicable Final Terms may provide for an ordinary termination right of the Issuer which is described in Section 4 of the General Conditions. In the case of a termination by the Issuer, the term of the Securities ends prior to maturity and the Security Holder will receive the Settlement Amount or, if provided for in the applicable Final Terms, the Termination Amount in the case of an ordinary termination as set out in the relevant Final Terms.

Section 4 of the General Conditions provides for the right of the Issuer to adjust the terms of the Securities or, as the case may be, to terminate the Securities following the occurrence of a Change in Law Event. In the case of a termination by the Issuer, the term of the Securities ends prior to maturity and the Security Holder will receive the Non-Scheduled Early Repayment Amount which equals the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and/or the outstanding nominal amount and/or outstanding calculation amount.

1.7 Information about the reference rate, the index and/or the inflation index

A description of the Reference Rate, the Index and/or the Inflation Index is contained under "Other Information" in the relevant Final Terms.

The source of information regarding information about the past and future performance and volatility of the Reference Rate and/or the Inflation Index, the Index is specified under "Other Information" in the relevant Final Terms, and if such information is available free of charge or not.

Where the applicable Final Terms specify the Underlying to be an index and if such index is provided by a legal entity or a natural person acting in association with, or on behalf of, the Issuer and where the administrator of the index is not included in the public register maintained by ESMA under article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation the Issuer makes the following statements:

- the complete set of rules of the index and information on the performance of the index are freely accessible on the Issuer's or the Index Sponsor's website; and

1.8 Classification and Ranking of the Securities

The classification and ranking of the Securities are set out in Section 1 of the General Conditions.

1.9 Resolutions in respect of the issue of the Securities

The establishment of the Base Prospectus as well as the issue of Securities thereunder have been authorised in the proper manner by the relevant bodies of the Issuer on 3 November 2023. No internal resolutions will be adopted by the Issuer in relation to single issues under the Base Prospectus.

1.10 Reasons for the offer and use of proceeds from the sale of the Securities

The proceeds from the Securities are used to hedge the payment obligations arising from the issuance of the Securities and for purposes of the Issuer's ordinary business activities (in any case the Issuer is free in the use of the proceeds of an issue of Securities).

1.11 Conditions of the offer and Issue Date of the Securities

The offer of Securities under this Base Prospectus is not subject to any conditions. The Final Terms must be read in conjunction with the Base Prospectus and its supplement(s) (if any). The Securities will be offered initially either at the start of the direct selling or at the beginning of the subscription period.

The specified issue size corresponds to the maximum amount of the offered Securities, but permits no conclusion about the volume of the respective effectively issued Securities deposited with a central depository.

Details of all individual conditions of the offer, the issue date, the start of offer and the start of a subscription period, if any (including any minimum and/or maximum amount of the subscription amount or details on any conditions under which the Issuer will not issue the Securities) regarding a specific issue will be set out under "Conditions of the offer and Issue Date of the Securities" under "Other Information" in the applicable Final Terms.

1.12 Pricing of the Securities and factors influencing the price of the Securities

The Issue Price of the Securities is set by the Issuer by taking into account several price relevant factors, including the current coupon and other product-specific criteria.

Furthermore, the Issue Price may include an issue premium which is intended to cover commissions for the Issuer or other ancillary costs arising in connection with the issue and hedging of the respective Securities.

The Issue Price is set out in the applicable Final Terms, and any further prices of the Securities are determined at the Issuer's reasonable discretion according to market conditions.

Any costs and disbursements incurred by a Security Holder in connection with a secondary purchase of the Securities are beyond the control of the Issuer.

1.13 Listing and trading

The Issuer may introduce or apply for admission of the Securities to one or more stock exchange(s) or multilateral trading system(s) or regulated or unregulated market(s), e.g. on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, the Stuttgart Stock Exchange or the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. The Issuer may also issue Securities which are not admitted to trading or listed on any market.

Securities of the same class may have been admitted to trading on the same or another market already.

Information in relation to an intended listing will be set out in the applicable Final Terms. Furthermore, information concerning a public offer attaching to the issue of the Securities will be set out in the applicable Final Terms, if any.

In the case of admission to trading and/or listing, the applicable Final Terms will contain the Minimum Trading Number, if any.

Goldman Sachs intends to quote bid and ask prices for the Securities of an issue on a regular basis under normal market conditions. However, Goldman Sachs does not commit and is under no obligation legal or otherwise to quote bid and ask prices for the Securities of an issue.

1.14 Issue Price, Fees and Commissions

The applicable Final Terms will specify the Issue Price and, if applicable, the type and amount of fees and/or commissions paid by the Issuer to third parties.

The Issuer will not charge the subscriber or purchaser any costs over and above the Issue Price or the purchase price.

1.15 Indication of Yield

If the Securities are Step Up & Step Down Securities, Fixed Rate Securities, fixed rate Flex Securities, Fixed Return Securities or Zero Coupon Securities information on the yield can be found in the applicable Final Terms. The yield will be calculated from the Issue Date to the Settlement Date on the basis of the Issue Price and does not consider custodian fees, transaction fees or other ancillary costs. In the case of other Securities, i.e. Floating Rate Securities, Floored Floater Securities, Capped Floored Floater Securities and Floater Securities with Target Rate (TARN Securities), Digital Coupon Securities and Fixed to Floating Securities (with Cap and/or Floor, if applicable) it should be noted that the Coupon is not fixed at the beginning of the term and no information on the expected yield can be provided.

For the calculation of the individual yield over the entire term, the Security Holder must take into account the price originally paid, the Settlement Amount, the amount and time of any interest payments, the term of the Securities and the individual transaction costs.

1.16 Publication of post-issuance information

Except for the notices referred to in the Conditions, the Issuer does not intend to publish any post-issuance information unless the Final Terms provide otherwise.

2. Explanation of mechanism of Securities

2.1 Product No. 1. Explanation of mechanism of Step Up & Step Down Securities

In the case of Step Up & Step Down Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount equal to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, subject to a termination of the Securities.

In addition, the Security Holder receives on the Coupon Payment Date(s) a Coupon Amount which is determined on the basis of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and the coupon (referred to as the Fixed Step Rate) specified in the Final Terms for the respective coupon period in the Fixed Step Rate Period. In the case of Step Up & Step Down Securities, the coupon is fixed at the beginning of the term of the Securities, but may have different levels for the respective coupon periods. For example, Step Up & Step Down Securities may provide for increasing (step up) or decreasing (step down) rates. However, it is also possible for the coupon to be both, increasing and decreasing.

It is also possible that there will be no coupon for several coupon periods.

In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

2.2 Product No. 2. Explanation of mechanism of Fixed Rate Securities

In the case of Fixed Rate Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount equal to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, subject to a termination of the Securities.

In addition, the Security Holder receives on the Coupon Payment Date(s) a Coupon Amount which is determined on the basis of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and the coupon, i.e. the Fixed Coupon Rate specified in the Final Terms.

In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

2.3 Product No. 3. Explanation of mechanism of Floating Rate Securities

In the case of Floating Rate Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount equal to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, subject to a termination of the Securities.

Furthermore, the Securities have the characteristic such that the Security Holder may receive a Coupon Amount on the Coupon Payment Date(s), which is determined on the basis of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and the Floating Coupon Rate (taking into account a coupon day count fraction, if applicable). The Floating Coupon Rate may, for example, be based on a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR) an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates (in each case taking into account, as applicable, a Margin or a Coupon Factor as specified in the applicable Final Terms)).

In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

2.4 Product No. 4. Explanation of mechanism of Floored Floater Securities

In the case of Floored Floater Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount equal to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, subject to a termination of the Securities.

Furthermore, the Securities have the characteristic such that the Security Holder may receive a Coupon Amount on the Coupon Payment Date(s), which is determined on the basis of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and the Floating Coupon Rate (taking into account a coupon day count fraction, if applicable). The Floating Coupon Rate may, for example, be based on a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR) or an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates

(in each case taking into account, as applicable, a Margin or a Coupon Factor as specified in the applicable Final Terms)).

Floored Floater Securities are further characterized by the fact that the Floating Coupon Rate is at least equal to the Minimum Coupon (Floor).

In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

2.5 Product No. 5. Explanation of mechanism of Capped Floored Floater Securities

Capped Floored Floater Securities have a fixed term. The Security Holder receives the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount on the Settlement Date, subject to a termination of the Securities.

Furthermore, the Securities have the characteristic such that the Security Holder may receive a Coupon Amount on the Coupon Payment Date(s), which is determined on the basis of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and the Floating Coupon Rate (taking into account a coupon day count fraction, if applicable). The Floating Coupon Rate may, for example, be based on a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR) or an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates (in each case taking into account, as applicable, a Margin or a Coupon Factor as specified in the applicable Final Terms)).

Capped Floored Floater Securities are further characterised by the fact that the Floating Coupon Rate is at least equal to the Minimum Coupon (Floor) and does not exceed the Maximum Coupon (Cap).

It may also be possible, if provided in the relevant Final Terms, that the Maximum Coupon (Cap) is not applicable during the entire term of the Capped Floored Floater Securities, but only for certain coupon periods.

In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

2.6 Product No. 6. Explanation of mechanism of Floater Securities with Target Rate (TARN Securities)

In the case of Floater Securities with Target Rate, subject to a termination of the Securities and subject to the occurrence of a Target Coupon Event on the Settlement Date, the Security Holder receives the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

Furthermore, the Securities have the characteristic such that the Security Holder may receive a Coupon Amount on each Coupon Payment Date(s) which is determined on the basis of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and a coupon (taking into account a day count fraction, if applicable). The Coupon Amount can be determined on the basis of a fixed coupon (the Fixed Coupon Rate) or on the basis of a floating coupon (the Floating Coupon Rate). In addition, it is also possible for a Security to provide that the Coupon Amount is determined on the basis of the Fixed Coupon Rate during certain coupon periods and on the basis of the Floating Coupon Rate during other coupon periods.

If the Coupon Amount is based on the Floating Coupon Rate such Floating Coupon Rate is calculated and/or determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR) or an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or on the basis of the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates (in each case taking into account, as applicable, a Margin or a Coupon Factor as specified in the applicable Final Terms)). In this respect, the relevant Final Terms may also provide that the Floating Coupon Rate for one or more coupon periods shall be at least equal to a Minimum Coupon (Floor) and will not exceed the Maximum Coupon (Cap).

In addition, the applicable Final Terms may provide that if the sum of all coupons and/or the Coupon Amounts of the preceding coupon periods plus the coupon and/or the Coupon Amount for the last coupon period is below the so-called Global Floor, the coupon for the last coupon period will be determined in a way that the sum of all coupons including the coupon for the last coupon period corresponds in total to the Global Floor specified in the applicable Final Terms. The Global Floor specified as such in the Final Terms may, for example, correspond to the difference between the Target Coupon and the sum of the Coupons or Coupon Amounts of previous coupon period.

Floater Securities with Target Rate are further characterised by the fact that the term of the Securities is automatically terminated early if a Target Coupon Event has occurred on a Target Coupon Observation Date. The relevant Target Coupon Event will be further specified in the relevant Final Terms and will occur, for example, if the Coupon Amounts paid or payable on a Target Coupon Observation Date equal or exceed the Target Coupon Amount specified in the relevant Final Terms. In the event of the occurrence of a Target Coupon Event, the Security Holder receives on the relevant Automatic Settlement Date which is prior to the Settlement Date, the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount plus any coupon accrued up to that date. The Security Holder is not entitled to demand any further coupon payments for future Coupon Payment Dates.

2.7 Product No. 7. Explanation of mechanism of Flex Securities

In the case of Flex Securities, subject to a termination of the Securities, the Security Holder receives a one or more partial repayments with respect to Nominal and/or Calculation Amount during the term of the Securities. The date(s) for the partial repayments, i.e. the Partial Repayment Date(s) as well as the Partial Nominal Amounts and/or Partial Calculation Amounts to be paid on the respective Partial Repayment Date will be specified in the relevant Final Terms. If a partial repayment has been made in respect of the Securities, the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount of the Securities is reduced. The portion of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount of the Securities that has not yet been repaid at the respective date is referred to as the Outstanding Nominal Amount and/or Outstanding Calculation Amount. The final settlement of the Securities on the Settlement Date will be at the amount outstanding on the Settlement Date, the Outstanding Nominal Amount and/or Outstanding Calculation Amount. In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will likewise at least equal the amount outstanding on the Optional Redemption Date, the Outstanding Nominal Amount and/or Outstanding Calculation Amount.

Furthermore, the Securities have the characteristic such that the Security Holder may receive a Coupon Amount on each Coupon Payment Date(s) which is determined on the basis of the Outstanding Nominal Amount and/or Outstanding Calculation Amount for the respective coupon period and a coupon (taking into account a coupon day count fraction, if applicable).

The Coupon Amount can be determined on the basis of a fixed coupon (the Fixed Coupon Rate) or on the basis of a floating coupon (the Floating Coupon Rate). In addition, it is also possible for a Security to provide that the Coupon Amount is determined on the basis of the Fixed Coupon Rate during certain coupon periods and on the basis of the Floating Coupon Rate during other coupon periods.

If the Coupon Amount is based on the Floating Coupon Rate this Floating Coupon Rate is calculated and/or determined on the basis of a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR reference rate) or an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or on the basis of the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates (in each case taking into account, as applicable, a Margin or a Coupon Factor as specified in the applicable Final Terms)). In this respect, the relevant Final Terms may also provide that the Floating Coupon Rate for one or more coupon period shall be at least equal to a Minimum Coupon (Floor) and will not exceed a Maximum Coupon (Cap).

2.8 Product No. 8. Explanation of mechanism of Digital Coupon Securities

In the case of Digital Coupon Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount equal to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, subject to a termination of the Securities.

Furthermore, the Securities have the characteristic such that the Security Holder may receive a Coupon Amount on each Coupon Payment Date(s) which is determined on the basis of the Nominal Amount and/or Calculation Amount for the respective coupon period and a coupon rate (taking into account a coupon day count fraction, if applicable). In case the applicable Final Terms provide for a Fixed Coupon Period, the Security Holder receives on the Coupon Payment Date(s) falling within the Fixed Coupon Period a Coupon Amount which is determined on the basis of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and a fixed coupon, i.e. the Fixed Coupon Rate specified in the Final Terms. The coupon payment is independent of the performance of the relevant reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR reference rate), the inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)), the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates) or the index. During the Digital Coupon Period, the Coupon Amount is determined on the basis of the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and either the Digital Coupon Rate 1 or the Digital Coupon Rate 2 (each specified in the Final Terms) depending on whether on a relevant Coupon Determination Date a Digital Coupon Event has occurred. If a Digital Coupon Event has occurred, the coupon for the respective coupon period will be the Digital Coupon Rate 1. If a Digital Coupon Event has not occurred, the coupon of the respective coupon period will be the Digital Coupon Rate 2. The relevant Digital Coupon Event will be further specified in the relevant Final Terms and will occur, for example, if the reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR reference rate), the inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)), the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates) or the index will be equal or exceed a certain coupon barrier and specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Furthermore, the Securities may have the characteristic, that the relevant digital coupons (i.e. the Digital Coupon Rate 1 and the Digital Coupon Rate 2) may have different levels for the respective coupon periods. In this connection, Security Holders should note that the applicable Final Terms may provide for one or more Coupon Periods that the Digital Coupon Rate 2 is zero, so that if no Digital Coupon Rate Event occurs on the relevant Coupon Determination Date, no coupon will be paid for the relevant Coupon Period(s). This may also result in the Security Holder not receiving any interest for the entire term if a Digital Coupon Event not occurs on the relevant Coupon Determination Date and/or on none of the relevant Coupon Determination Dates.

In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

2.9 Product No. 9. Explanation of mechanism of Fixed to Floating Rate Securities

In the case of Fixed to Floating Rate Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount equal to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, subject to a termination of the Securities.

Furthermore, the Securities have the characteristic that the Coupon Amount is determined on the basis of the Fixed Coupon Rate during certain coupon periods and on the basis of the Floating Coupon Rate during other coupon periods. The Floating Coupon Rate may, for example, be based on a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR) an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates (in each case taking into account, as applicable, a Margin or a Coupon Factor as specified in the applicable Final Terms)).

In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

2.10 Product No. 10. Explanation of mechanism of Fixed to Floored Floating Rate Securities

In the case of Fixed to Floored Floating Rate Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount equal to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, subject to a termination of the Securities.

Furthermore, the Securities have the characteristic that the Coupon Amount is determined on the basis of the Fixed Coupon Rate during certain coupon periods and on the basis of the Floating Coupon Rate during other coupon periods. The Floating Coupon Rate may, for example, be based on a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR) an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates (in each case taking into account, as applicable, a Margin or a Coupon Factor as specified in the applicable Final Terms)).

Fixed to Floored Floating Rate Securities are further characterized by the fact that the Floating Coupon Rate is at least equal to the Minimum Coupon (Floor).

In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

2.11 Product No. 11. Explanation of mechanism of Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities

In the case of Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount equal to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, subject to a termination of the Securities.

Furthermore, the Securities have the characteristic that the Coupon Amount is determined on the basis of the Fixed Coupon Rate during certain coupon periods and on the basis of the Floating Coupon Rate during other coupon periods. The Floating Coupon Rate may, for example, be based on a reference rate (e.g. EURIBOR) an inflation index (e.g. the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)) or the difference between two reference rates (e.g. difference between two swap rates (in each case taking into account, as applicable, a Margin or a Coupon Factor as specified in the applicable Final Terms)).

Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities are further characterised by the fact that the Floating Coupon Rate is at least equal to the Minimum Coupon (Floor) and does not exceed the Maximum Coupon (Cap).

It may also be possible, if provided in the relevant Final Terms, that the Maximum Coupon (Cap) is not applicable during the entire term of the Fixed to Capped Floored Floating Rate Securities, but only for certain coupon periods.

In case of any termination of the Securities, the Termination Amount will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount.

2.12 Product No. 12. Explanation of mechanism of Fixed Return Securities

In the case of Fixed Return Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount, subject to an ordinary termination or a non-scheduled early repayment of the Securities. The Settlement Amount equals a higher amount compared to the Nominal Amount and/or Calculation Amount, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

If the Issuer exercises its ordinary termination right on an Optional Redemption Date during the term of the Securities, the term of the Securities ends on such Optional Redemption Date and the Security Holder receives the Termination Amount specified in the relevant Final Terms that is allocated to such Optional Redemption Date. The amount payable under the Securities (i.e. any Termination Amounts due in case of an ordinary termination or, otherwise, the Settlement Amount) increases as the term of the Securities increases.

In case of a non-scheduled early repayment, the Security Holder will receive the Linearly Accreted Value, which will at least equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount, which will be below the Settlement Amount.

2.13 Product No. 13. Explanation of mechanism of Zero Coupon Securities

In the case of Zero Coupon Securities, the Security Holder receives at maturity a Settlement Amount equal to the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount or, if applicable, a higher amount, subject to a termination of the Securities.

The Securities do not provide during their term for a coupon, but are typically issued at a discount in relation to the Nominal Amount and/or Calculation Amount and/or the Settlement Amount . Instead of ongoing coupon payments, the difference between the purchase price and the relevant Settlement Amount will constitute the income.

In case of a non-scheduled early repayment, the Security Holder will receive the so-called Accreted Value. The Accreted Value is calculated on the basis of the Zero Coupon Security Reference Price plus interest calculated on the basis of the Accrual Yield, as further specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Accreted Value will at least equal the Issue Price, but will be below the Settlement Amount.

In case the term of the Securities is terminated by ordinary termination, the Security Holder will receive the Termination Amount which may equal the Accreted Value. The Accreted Value will at least equal the Issue Price, but will be below the Settlement Amount.

IV. GENERAL CONDITIONS

Introduction

The following "General Conditions" of the Securities must be read in their entirety, together with Part A – Product specific terms and Part B – General terms of the section entitled "Issue Specific Terms" of the applicable Final Terms (the "Issue Specific Terms") of the relevant Series of Securities which supplement and complete the General Conditions.

The General Conditions may be completed by the additional provisions in relation to the relevant index (the "Index Linked Provisions") set out in the Annex to the General Conditions. The Issue Specific Terms will specify in Part B – General terms whether the Index Linked Provisions apply to the relevant Series of Securities and complete the General Conditions.

Issue Specific Terms and General Conditions (including the Index Linked Provisions, if applicable) together constitute the "Conditions" of the relevant Series of Securities. Terms not otherwise defined in these General Conditions shall have the meaning given in the applicable Issue Specific Terms or, as the case may be, the applicable Final Terms.

The applicable Final Terms for each Series of Securities will specify whether the governing law of the relevant Series is English law ("English Securities") or German law ("German Securities"). Certain of the provisions of these General Conditions apply only to English Securities or, as the case may be, German Securities which are bearer notes pursuant to Section 793 of the German Civil Code (BGB), in each case, as set out in these General Conditions below.

German Securities issued by the Issuer will, save as set out below, be represented by a permanent global bearer note (the "Global Bearer Note") or be issued in accordance with the German Electronic Securities Act (Gesetz über elektronische Wertpapiere) ("eWpG") as electronic securities within the meaning of section 4 (2) eWpG in the form of central register securities (the "Electronic Securities").

If the German Securities will be represented by a Global Bearer Note, this Global Bearer Note will be deposited with the applicable Clearing System. Each Global Bearer Note representing the Securities (or any amount thereof) of a relevant Series will indicate the number of Securities as specified in the applicable Final Terms and set out therein or incorporate by reference therein (subject to the law applicable in relation to the registration) the applicable Issue Specific Terms, as replicated in the applicable Final Terms, and the General Conditions (including the Index Linked Provisions, if applicable). A replacement of the Securities represented by the Global Bearer Note by Electronic Securities with identical content is possible at any time and without the consent of the Security Holders in accordance with section 6 (3) eWpG. If the Issuer replaces Securities represented by a Global Bearer Note with Electronic Securities, it shall make the replacement known to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 of the General Conditions.

In case of German Securities issued by the Issuer as Electronic Securities, these Electronic Securities will be entered in a central register (the "Central Register") by way of collective registration. Clearstream Banking AG, Frankfurt am Main, Mergenthalerallee 61, 65760 Eschborn ("Clearstream Frankfurt") and/or another registrar entity as may be specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms will maintain the Central Register as registrar entity ("Registrar Entity"). The Registrar Entity is registered as the registered holder according to section 3 Abs. 1 eWpG for the Electronic Securities. The applicable Issue Specific Terms, as replicated in the applicable Final Terms, and the General Conditions (including the Index Linked Provisions, if applicable) will be recorded in such Central Register. The Registrar Entity will administer the collective registration as registered holder on a fiduciary basis for the Security Holders. The Security Holder has no right to individual registration in the Central Register.

English Securities issued by the Issuer will, save as set out below, be represented by a registered global note (the "Global ICSD Registered Note") deposited with, and registered in the name of a nominee for, a common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream Luxembourg (the "ICSDs" and each an "ICSD"). Each Global ICSD Registered Note representing the Securities (or any amount thereof) of a relevant Series will indicate the number of Securities as specified in the applicable Final Terms and set out therein or incorporate by reference therein (subject to the law applicable in relation to the registration) the applicable Issue Specific Terms, as replicated in the applicable Final Terms, and the General Conditions (including the Index Linked Provisions, if applicable).

German Securities with a Global Bearer Note and English Securities may, in addition, also be issued by the Issuer and registered with:

- (a) Euroclear Finland in the Euroclear Finland System ("Euroclear Finland Registered Securities") and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with Finnish Regulations;
- (b) Euroclear Sweden ("Euroclear Sweden Registered Securities") and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with the SFIA Act (as defined in Section 2 of these General Conditions); and
- (c) VPS ("VPS Registered Securities") and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with the NFIA Act (as defined in Section 2 of these General Conditions), in each case, as specified in the applicable Issue Specific Terms. "Nordic Registered Securities" means Euroclear Sweden Registered Securities, VPS Registered Securities and Euroclear Finland Registered Securities.

German Securities with a Global Bearer Note and English Securities may, in addition, also be issued by the Issuer and registered with Nederlands Centraal Instituut voor Giraal Effectenverkeer B.V. ("Euroclear Netherlands Registered Securities") and issued in uncertificated and dematerialized book-entry form in accordance with the Euroclear Netherlands Rules (as defined in Section 2 of these General Conditions).

German Securities with a Global Bearer Note and English Securities may, in addition, also be issued by the Issuer and inscribed in the books of Euroclear France ("Euroclear France Registered Securities") and in dematerialized bearer form in accordance with the French Monetary and Financial Code.

No Securities will be issued to Security Holders in definitive form.

The English Securities are constituted by, and have the benefit of, a deed of covenant, the date of which will be set out in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms (as amended and restated or supplemented from time to time, the "Deed of Covenant"). German Securities which also constitute Nordic Registered Securities or Euroclear Netherlands Registered Securities and English Securities are issued pursuant to, and subject to the benefit of, a Programme Agreement, (as amended and restated or supplemented from time to time, the "Programme Agreement") or, as the case may be, an agency agreement (as amended and restated or supplemented from time to time, the "Agency Agreement"), in each case, as specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms.

In relation to German Securities which are specified in the applicable Issue Specific Terms to be listed and admitted to trading on an Italian regulated market or any Italian multilateral trading facility (the "Italian Listed Securities") (to the extent required by the rules of the relevant regulated market or multilateral trading facility), reference (if any) to "discretion" or "sole discretion" or "absolute discretion" shall be replaced by reference to "reasonable discretion as defined under § 315 or § 317 respectively of the German Civil Code (BGB)" and any determination by the Calculation Agent (or any other Agent(s)) shall be done with "reasonable discretion as defined under § 315 or § 317 respectively of the German Civil Code (BGB)".

- references to a U.S. Government Securities Business Day were references to a New York Business Day; and

If the Calculation Agent determines, in its reasonable discretion, that in the case of an Index Cessation Event (SOFR), it is not possible to determine a Reference Rate and the Calculation Agent has directed the Issuer to redeem the Securities, the Issuer shall, within one month following the occurrence of the relevant event, give notice to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions designating the termination date (the "Termination Date"). On the Termination Date, the Issuer shall redeem all, but not some only, of the Securities and it shall pay an amount equal to the Termination Amount (which will equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount), together with interest accrued to this date (if any), to each Security Holder in respect of each Security held by it. Payment of the Termination Amount will be made in such manner as shall be notified to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions.

(c) SONIA

If SONIA is specified to apply in Part B (general terms) of the Issue Specific Terms as applicable "Reference Rate", the following applies:

- (ii) The Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period is equal to the Compounded Daily SONIA. "Compounded Daily SONIA" means the rate of return of a daily compound interest investment (with the rate of daily SONIA rate as reference rate for the calculation of interest) calculated by the Calculation Agent on the relevant Coupon Determination Date in accordance with the following formula (and the resulting percentage will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards to 0.00001):

where:

"i" is a series of whole numbers from one to d_0 , each representing the relevant London Business Day in chronological order from, and including, the first London Business Day in the relevant Observation Period;

" d_0 ", for any Observation Period, is the number of London Business Days in the relevant Observation Period;

"Observation Period" means, in respect of a coupon period, the period from, and including, the date falling "p" London Business Days prior to the first day of the relevant coupon period and ending on, and including, the date falling "p" London Business Days prior to the last day of such Coupon Period (or, if earlier, before the early repayment date);

"SONIA_i" means, for any London Business Day "i", the SONIA Reference Rate for such London Business Day "i";

"SONIA Reference Rate" means, in respect of any London Business Day, a reference rate equal to the rate of daily SONIA for such London Business Day as provided by the administrator of SONIA to authorised distributors and as then published on the Screen Page or, if the Screen Page is unavailable, as otherwise published by such authorised distributors (on the London Business Day immediately following such London Business Day);

"p" means the observation period shift which comprises the number of London Business Days specified in the Final Terms (provided that "p" shall not be less than 5, unless the Calculation Agent has agreed to a shorter observation period shift);

" n_i ", for any London Business Day "i", means the number of calendar days from, and including, such London Business Day "i" up to, but excluding, the following London Business Day; and

"d" is the number of calendar days in the relevant Observation Period.

- (i) If the SONIA Reference Rate for of any London Business Day is not available on the Screen Page as specified in item (i) above and has not otherwise been published by the relevant authorised distributors, the following applies:
- (A) In this case, the SONIA Reference Rate will be replaced by a rate equal to the sum of (x) the Bank of England's Bank Rate prevailing at close of business on such London Business Day, plus (y) the mean of the spread of the SONIA Reference Rate to the Bank of England's Bank Rate over the previous five days on which a SONIA Reference Rate has been published, excluding the highest spread (or, if there is more than one highest spread, one only of those highest spreads) and lowest spread (or, if there is more than one lowest spread, one only of those lowest spreads) to the Bank of England Bank Rate. Notwithstanding the subparagraph above, in the event the Bank of England publishes guidance as to (x) how the SONIA Reference Rate is to be determined or (y) any rate that is to replace the SONIA Reference Rate, the Calculation Agent will consult with the Issuer and will, upon direction given by the Issuer (who will give such direction only to the extent reasonable practicable), follow such guidance in order to determine the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period for so long as the SONIA Reference Rate is not available on the Screen Page and has not otherwise been published by the authorised distributors.
- (B) In the event that the SONIA Reference Rate cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant Coupon Period will be that determined at the last preceding Coupon Determination Date. If there is no such preceding Coupon Determination Date, the Reference Rate will be the rate which would have been applicable to the first Coupon Period had the Securities been in issue for a period equal in duration to the scheduled first Coupon Period but ending on, and excluding, the Coupon Commencement Date.

If the Calculation Agent determines, in its reasonable discretion, it is not possible to determine the Reference Rate and the Calculation Agent has directed the Issuer to redeem the Securities, the Issuer shall, within one month following the occurrence of the relevant event, give notice to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions designating the termination date (the "Termination Date"). On the Termination Date, the Issuer shall redeem all, but not some only, of the Securities and it shall pay an amount equal to the Termination Amount (which will equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount), together with interest accrued to this date (if any), to each Security Holder in respect of each Security held by it. Payment of the Termination Amount will be made in such manner as shall be notified to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions.

- (d) €STR

If €STR is specified to apply in Part B (general terms) of the Issue Specific Terms as applicable "Reference Rate", the following applies:

- (i) The Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period is equal to the Compounded Daily €STR. "Compounded Daily €STR" means the rate of return of a daily compound interest investment (with the rate of daily €STR as the reference rate for the calculation of interest) calculated by the Calculation Agent on the relevant Coupon Determination Date in accordance with the following formula (and the resulting percentage will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one ten-thousandth of a percentage point, with 0.00005 being rounded upwards to 0.0001):

$$\left[\prod_{i=1}^{d_0} \left(1 + \frac{\text{€STR}_i \times n_i}{360} \right) - 1 \right] \times \frac{360}{d}$$

where:

"i" is a series of whole numbers from one to d_0 , each representing the relevant TARGET Business Day in chronological order from, and including, the first TARGET Business Day in the relevant Observation Period;

" d_0 ", for any Observation Period, is the number of TARGET Business Days in the relevant Observation Period;

"Observation Period" means, in respect of a coupon period, the period from, and including, the date falling "p" TARGET Business Days prior to the first day of the relevant coupon period and ending on, and including, the date falling "p" TARGET Business Days prior to the last day of such coupon period (or, if earlier, before the early repayment date);

"€STR_i" means, for any TARGET Business Day "i", the €STR Reference Rate for such TARGET Business Day "i";

"€STR Reference Rate" means, in respect of any TARGET Business Day, a reference rate equal to the rate of daily €STR for such TARGET Business Day as provided by the European Central Bank, as administrator of €STR (or any successor administrator), on the Website (€STR), in each case on or about 9:00 a.m., Central European Time, on the TARGET Business Day immediately following such TARGET Business Day (or at any amended time determined by the administrator of €STR in accordance with the €STR methodology);

"p" means the observation period shift which comprises the number of TARGET Business Days specified in the Final Terms (provided that "p" shall not be less than 5, unless the Calculation Agent has agreed to a shorter observation period shift);

" n_i ", for any TARGET Business Day "i", means the number of calendar days from, and including, such TARGET Business Day "i" up to, but excluding, the following TARGET Business Day; and

"d" is the number of calendar days in the relevant Observation Period.

- (ii) If the €STR Reference Rate for any TARGET Business Day does not appear as specified in item (i) and if not both an Index Cessation Event (€STR) and an Index Cessation Effective Date (€STR) have occurred, the €STR Reference Rate for such TARGET Business Day is the rate equal to the rate of €STR for the last TARGET Business Day for which such rate was published on the Website (€STR).
- (iii) If the €STR Reference Rate for any TARGET Business Day does not appear as specified in item (i) and if both an Index Cessation Event (€STR) and an Index Cessation Effective Date (€STR) have occurred, the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period will be determined as follows (with the proviso that the provisions in item (i) on the calculation of Compounded Daily €STR will apply mutatis mutandis):
 - (A) The reference rate for each TARGET Business Day on or after such Index Cessation Effective Date (€STR) will be determined as if references to €STR were references to the Recommended Fallback Rate (€STR).
 - (B) If no Recommended Fallback Rate (€STR) has been recommended before the end of the first TARGET Business Day following the date on which the Index Cessation Event (€STR) occurred, then the reference rate for each TARGET Business Day on or after such Index Cessation Effective Date (€STR) will be determined as if references to €STR were references to the EDFR plus the arithmetic mean of the daily difference between the €STR Reference Rate and the EDFR for each of the 30 TARGET Business Days immediately preceding the date on which the Index Cessation Event (€STR) occurred.
 - (C) If in relation to the Recommended Fallback Rate (€STR) both an Index Cessation Event (Recommended Rate (€STR)) and an Index Cessation Effective Date (Recommended Rate (€STR)) subsequently occur, then the reference rate for each TARGET Business Day on or after such Index Cessation Effective Date (Recommended Rate (€STR)) will be determined as if references to €STR were references to the EDFR plus the arithmetic mean of the daily difference between the €STR Reference Rate and the EDFR for each of the 30 TARGET Business Days immediately preceding the date on which the Index Cessation Event (Recommended Rate (€STR)) occurred.
 - (D) In the event that the Reference Rate cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period will be that determined at the last preceding Coupon Determination Date. If there is no such preceding Coupon Determination Date, the Reference Rate will be the rate which would have been applicable to the first coupon period had the Securities been in issue for a period equal in duration to the scheduled first coupon period but ending on, and excluding, the Coupon Commencement Date.

If the Calculation Agent determines, in its reasonable discretion, it is not possible to determine the Reference Rate and the Calculation Agent has directed the Issuer to redeem the Securities, the Issuer shall, within one month following the occurrence of the relevant event, give notice to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions designating the termination date (the "Termination Date"). On the Termination Date, the Issuer shall redeem all, but not some only, of the Securities and it shall pay an amount equal to the Termination Amount (which will equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount), together with interest accrued to this date (if any), to each Security Holder in respect of each Security held by it. Payment of the Termination Amount will be made in such manner as shall be notified to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions.

(e) Swap Rate (EURIBOR)

If Swap Rate (EURIBOR) is specified to apply in Part B (general terms) of the Issue Specific Terms as applicable "Reference Rate", the following applies:

- (i) The Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period is equal to the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) which appears on the Screen Page on or about 11:00 a.m. (Frankfurt time) on the Coupon Determination Date.
- (ii) If the Screen Page is not available or if the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) does not appear on the Screen Page as at the time indicated in item (i) and if no Benchmark Event has occurred in relation to the Swap Rate (EURIBOR), then the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period will be determined as follows:
 - (A) If, by 11:15 a.m. (Frankfurt time) (or the amended publication time for the Swap Rate (EURIBOR), if any, as specified by the administrator of the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) in the benchmark methodology applicable to the Swap Rate (EURIBOR)) on the first day of the relevant coupon period, the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) for the relevant Coupon Determination Date has not been published on the Screen Page, then the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period will be the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) for the relevant Coupon Determination Date, as provided by the administrator of the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) and published by an authorised distributor or by the administrator of the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) itself.
 - (B) If, by 3:00 p.m. (Frankfurt time) (or four hours after the amended publication time for the Swap Rate (EURIBOR)) on the first day of the relevant Reset Period, neither the administrator of the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) nor an authorised distributor has provided or published the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) for the relevant Coupon Determination Date, then the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period will be a rate formally recommended for use as of the relevant Coupon Determination Date by the administrator of the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) or, if no such rate is available, a rate formally recommended for use as of the relevant Coupon Determination Date by the supervisor which is responsible for supervising the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) or the administrator of the Swap Rate (EURIBOR).

- (C) If the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions by the time specified in paragraph (B) on the first day of the relevant coupon period, the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period shall be the rate or the arithmetic mean of the rates of the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) on the Screen Page, as described above, on the last day preceding the Coupon Determination Date on which the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) appeared on the Screen Page.
- (iii) If the Screen Page is not available or if the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) does not appear on the Screen Page as at the time indicated in item (i) and if a Benchmark Event has occurred in relation to the Swap Rate (EURIBOR), then the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant coupon period will be determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with provisions in Section 3 (5).
- (f) Swap Rate (USD SOFR)

If Swap Rate (USD SOFR) is specified to apply in Part B (general terms) of the Issue Specific Terms as applicable "Reference Rate", the following applies:

- (i) The Reference Rate applicable to the relevant Coupon Period is equal to the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) which appears on the Screen Page on or about 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the Coupon Determination Date.
- (ii) If the Screen Page is not available or if the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) does not appear on the Screen Page as at the time indicated in item (i) and if no Benchmark Event has occurred in relation to the Swap Rate (USD SOFR), then the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant Coupon Period will be determined as follows:
- (A) If, by the publication time indicated in item (i) (or the amended publication time for the Reference Rate, if any, as specified by the administrator of the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) in the benchmark methodology applicable to the Swap Rate (USD SOFR)) the Screen Page is not available or the relevant Swap Rate (USD SOFR) is not displayed thereon or any successor screen page, the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) for the relevant Coupon Determination Date, then the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant Coupon Period will be a rate formally recommended for use as of the relevant Coupon Determination Date by the administrator of the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) or, if no such rate is available, a rate formally recommended for use as of the relevant Coupon Determination Date by the supervisor which is responsible for supervising the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) or the administrator of the Swap Rate (USD SOFR).
- (B) If the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant Coupon Period cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions by the time specified in paragraph (B) on the first day of the relevant Coupon Period , the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant Coupon Period shall be the rate or the arithmetic mean of the rates of the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) on the Screen Page, as described above, on the last day preceding the Coupon Determination Date on which the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) appeared on the Screen Page

- (iii) If the Screen Page is not available or if the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) does not appear on the Screen Page as at the time indicated in item (i) and if a Benchmark Event has occurred in relation to the Swap Rate (USD SOFR), then the Reference Rate applicable to the relevant Coupon Period will be determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with provisions in Section 3 (5).

(5) Consequences of a Benchmark Event

If the Calculation Agent has determined, in its reasonable discretion, that a Benchmark Event has occurred in relation to the EURIBOR, the Swap Rate (EURIBOR) (and/or the interest rate used as reference rate to determine the variable payments under the Swap Rate (EURIBOR)) or the Swap Rate (USD SOFR) (and/or the interest rate used as reference rate to determine the variable payments under the Swap Rate (USD SOFR)) it is notwithstanding the provisions entitled,

- (i) if a successor reference rate has been determined for the respective Reference Rate by a public announcement issued by the administrator of the respective Reference Rate, the competent central bank or a regulatory and/or supervisory authority or a successor administrator, to set such Reference Rate as the successor reference rate (the "Successor Reference Rate") and to use it instead of the respective Reference Rate on the relevant Coupon Determination Date and on any subsequent Coupon Determination Date for the Securities;
- (ii) if a Successor Reference Rate has not been determined by such announcement, to set as the Successor Reference Rate a rate which is comparable to the respective Reference Rate at its reasonable discretion and taking into account market practices (the "Successor Reference Rate") and to use such Successor Reference Rate on the relevant Coupon Determination Date and any subsequent Coupon Determination Date for the Securities, where, if the Calculation Agent determines that an appropriate rate exists which is generally accepted in the financial sector as the Successor Reference Rate for the respective rate, it will set such rate as the Successor Reference Rate for the Securities and will use that Successor Reference Rate for the Securities on the relevant Coupon Determination Date and any subsequent Coupon Determination Date.

provided that, in the event that a Successor Reference Rate is determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to subparagraphs (i) or (ii) above, the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine in its reasonable discretion the method for periodically determining the amount of the Successor Reference Rate and, if necessary, to make adjustments to the provisions of these provisions with respect to the calculation of the Successor Reference Rate and the interest applicable to the Security in general (including an adjustment of the coupon periods, the coupon calculation and the time at which the relevant rate of the Reference Rate is determined), provided that only such adjustments are made that do not result in an economic disadvantage to the Security Holder compared to the provisions prior to the occurrence of the Benchmark Event. The determination of a Successor Reference Rate and any adjustments to these provisions pursuant to the preceding paragraphs as well as the respective effective dates thereof shall be announced by the Calculation Agent in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions.

If the Calculation Agent determines, in its reasonable discretion, that in the case of a Benchmark Event, it is not possible to determine a Successor Reference Rate and the Calculation Agent has directed the Issuer to redeem the Securities, the Issuer shall, within one month following the occurrence of the relevant event, give notice to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions designating the termination date (the "Termination Date"). On the Termination Date, the Issuer shall redeem all, but not some only, of the Securities and it shall pay an amount equal to the Termination Amount (which will equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount), together with interest accrued to this date (if any), to each Security Holder in respect of each Security held by it. Payment of the Termination Amount will be made in such manner as shall be notified to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions.

(6) Inflation Index

If an Inflation Index is specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms of the relevant Issue Specific Conditions, the following shall apply:

- (i) The Relevant Level for the determination of the Inflation Factor for the relevant Coupon Period shall be the Relevant Level of the Inflation Index displayed on the Screen Page up to or on the relevant Coupon Determination Date.
- (ii) Subject to subparagraph (iii), if any Relevant Level in respect of any Coupon Determination Date has not been published or announced by the relevant Coupon Determination Date, the Calculation Agent shall determine a substitute level ("Substitute Level") by using the following methodology:
 - A. if applicable, the Calculation Agent will take the same action to determine the Substitute Level for the relevant Coupon Determination Date as that taken by the Related Bond Calculation Agent pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Related Bond (if any); and
 - B. if A. does not result in a Substitute Level for the relevant Coupon Determination Date for any reason, then the Calculation Agent shall determine the Substitute Level as the product of (i) the Base Level and (ii) the quotient of the Latest Level divided by the Reference Level.

If a Relevant Level is published or announced at any time after the relevant Coupon Determination Date, such Relevant Level will not be used in any calculations in respect of such relevant Coupon Determination Date. The Substitute Level so determined pursuant to this subparagraph (ii) will be the definitive level of the Inflation Index for that Reference Month (subject to subparagraph (iii) below).

- (iii) If (a) a level of the Inflation Index (whether or not used for any calculation on a Coupon Determination Date) has not been published or announced for a period of two consecutive months or (b) the Inflation Index Sponsor announces that it will no longer continue to publish or announce the Inflation Index, then, in each case, the Calculation Agent shall determine a successor inflation index (the "Successor Inflation Index") (in lieu of any previously applicable Inflation Index) for a Coupon Determination Date for the purpose of the Securities by using the following methodology:
- A. if at any time (other than after the determination by the Calculation Agent that there is no appropriate alternative inflation index in accordance with subparagraph (iv)), a successor index has been designated by the Related Bond Calculation Agent pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Related Bond (if applicable), such successor index shall be deemed a "Successor Inflation Index" for the purposes of such Coupon Determination Date and all subsequent Coupon Determination Dates in relation to the Securities, notwithstanding that any other Successor Inflation Index may previously have been determined under subparagraphs B., C. and D. below; or
 - B. if a Successor Inflation Index has not been determined under subparagraph A. above (and there has been no determination by the Calculation Agent that there is no appropriate alternative inflation index in accordance with subparagraph (iv) below), and a notice has been given or an announcement has been made by an Inflation Index Sponsor, specifying that the Inflation Index will be superseded by a replacement inflation index specified by the Inflation Index Sponsor, and the Calculation Agent determines that such replacement inflation index is calculated using the same or substantially similar formula or method of calculation as used in the calculation of the previously applicable Inflation Index, then such replacement inflation index shall be deemed the Successor Inflation Index from the date that such replacement Inflation Index comes into effect; or
 - C. if a Successor Inflation Index has not been determined under subparagraphs A. or B. above (and there has been no determination by the Calculation Agent that there is no appropriate alternative inflation index in accordance with subparagraph (iv)), the Calculation Agent shall ask five leading independent dealers to state what the replacement inflation index for the Inflation Index should be. If between four and five responses are received, and of those four or five responses, three or more leading independent dealers state the same inflation index, that inflation index will be deemed the "Successor Inflation Index". If three responses are received, and two or more leading independent dealers state the same inflation index, that inflation index will be deemed the "Successor Inflation Index" in respect of the Securities from the date such inflation index is deemed the "Successor Inflation Index". If fewer than three responses are received, the "Successor Inflation Index" will be determined under subparagraph D. below; or

- D. if a Successor Inflation Index has not been determined under subparagraphs A-C above by such Coupon Determination Date, the Calculation Agent will, in its reasonable discretion, determine an appropriate alternative inflation index for such Coupon Determination Date, and such inflation index will be deemed a "Successor Inflation Index" (from the date, such inflation index is deemed to be the "Successor Inflation Index").
- (iv) If the Calculation Agent determines, in its reasonable discretion, that there is no appropriate alternative inflation index and the Calculation Agent has directed the Issuer to redeem the Securities, the Issuer shall, within one month following such determination, give notice to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions designating the termination date (the "Termination Date"). On the Termination Date, the Issuer shall redeem all, but not some only, of the Securities and it shall pay an amount equal to the Termination Amount (which will equal the Nominal and/or Calculation Amount), together with interest accrued to this date (if any), to each Security Holder in respect of each Security held by it. Payment of the Termination Amount will be made in such manner as shall be notified to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions.
- (v) If the Calculation Agent determines that the Inflation Index has been or will be rebased at any time, the Inflation Index as so rebased (the "Rebased Inflation Index") will be used for purposes of determining the level of the Inflation Index from the date of such rebasing; provided, however, that the Calculation Agent shall make adjustments as are made by the Related Bond Calculation Agent pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Related Bond, if any, to the levels of the Rebased Inflation Index so that the Rebased Inflation Index levels reflect the same rate of inflation as the Inflation Index before it was rebased. If there is no Related Bond, the Calculation Agent shall make adjustments in its reasonable discretion to the levels of the Rebased Inflation Index so that the Rebased Inflation Index levels reflect the same rate of inflation as the Inflation Index before it was rebased. Any such rebasing shall not affect any prior payments made under the Securities.

- (vi) In respect of each Coupon Determination Date, if, on or prior to such Coupon Determination Date, the Inflation Index Sponsor for the Inflation Index announces that it will make a material change to the Inflation Index then the Calculation Agent shall make any such adjustments to the Inflation Index consistent with adjustments made to the Related Bond, if any, or, if there is no Related Bond, only those adjustments necessary for the modified Inflation Index to continue as the Inflation Index. In addition, the Calculation Agent may, but shall not be obliged to, make such adjustments that it determines (in its reasonable discretion) to be appropriate to any variable, calculation methodology, valuation, settlement, payment terms or any other terms or conditions in respect of the Securities.
- (vii) In respect of each Coupon Determination Date, if, within 30 days of publication and in any event prior to such Coupon Determination Date, the Calculation Agent determines that the Inflation Index Sponsor has corrected the level of the Inflation Index to remedy a manifest error in its original publication, the Calculation Agent will determine the amount that is payable as a result of that correction and, to the extent necessary, will adjust any relevant terms of the Securities to account for any such correction, as the Calculation Agent, in its reasonable discretion, determines appropriate.

(7) Accrual of Coupon

Coupon Amounts shall cease to be payable from (and including) the Coupon Cessation Date. Other than the payment of the Coupon Amount as aforesaid, no periodic amount is payable under or pursuant to the Conditions. If the Issuer fails to make any payment in respect of the Securities when due in whole or in part, interest will accrue on the amount due but unpaid from the due date for payment (and including) to the date of actual payment (and excluding) at the rate for default interest established by Section 288(1) German Civil Code (BGB).

(8) Determination and notification of the Floating Coupon Rate

If "Floating Coupon" or "Fixed to Floating Coupon" is specified to apply in Part B (general terms) of the Issue Specific Terms, the Calculation Agent will determine the Floating Coupon Rate applicable to the relevant Coupon Period on each Coupon Determination Date and calculate the amount of Coupon Amount for the relevant Coupon Period.

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the foregoing by the Calculation Agent will, in the absence of manifest error, be binding upon the Issuer and the Security Holders.

(9) Definitions

"Alternative SOFR Time" means the relevant time specified as such in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms.

"Base Level" means the level of the Inflation Index (excluding any "flash" estimates) published or announced by the Inflation Index Sponsor in respect of the month which is 12 calendar months prior to the month for which the Substitute Level is being determined.

"Benchmark Event" means, in respect of a Relevant Benchmark, the occurrence or existence, as determined by the Calculation Agent, of any of the following events in respect of such Relevant Benchmark:

 - (ii) the Relevant Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Relevant Benchmark is not included in an official register; or
 - (iii) the Relevant Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Relevant Benchmark does not fulfil any legal or regulatory requirement applicable to the Securities or the Relevant Benchmark, in each case, as required under any applicable law or regulation in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to perform its or their respective obligations in respect of the Securities. For the avoidance of doubt, a Non-Approval Event shall not occur if the Relevant Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Relevant Benchmark is not included in an official register because its authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval is suspended if, at the time of such suspension, the continued provision and use of the Relevant Benchmark is permitted in respect of the Securities under the applicable law or regulation during the period of such suspension;

- (b) a "Rejection Event", being the relevant competent authority or other relevant official body rejects or refuses any application for authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, an equivalence decision, approval or inclusion in any official register which, in each case, is required in relation to the Relevant Benchmark or the administrator of the Relevant Benchmark under any applicable law or regulation for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to perform its or their respective obligations in respect of the Securities; or
- (c) a "Suspension/Withdrawal Event", being any of the following:

- (i) the relevant competent authority or other relevant official body suspends or withdraws any authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval in relation to the Relevant Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Relevant Benchmark which is required under any applicable law or regulation in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to perform its or their respective obligations in respect of the Securities; or
- (ii) the Relevant Benchmark or the administrator or sponsor of the Relevant Benchmark is removed from any official register where inclusion in such register is required under any applicable law or regulation in order for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to perform its or their respective obligations in respect of the Securities.

For the avoidance of doubt, a Suspension/Withdrawal Event shall not occur if such authorisation, registration, recognition, endorsement, equivalence decision or approval is suspended or where inclusion in any official register is withdrawn if, at the time of such suspension or withdrawal, the continued provision and use of the Relevant Benchmark is permitted in respect of the Securities under the applicable law or regulation during the period of such suspension or withdrawal; or

- (d) "Cessation Event" means, in respect of any Securities and a Relevant Benchmark, the occurrence or existence, as determined by the Calculation Agent, of one or more of the following events:
 - (i) the bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or the institution of analogous proceedings to any of the foregoing (as determined by the Calculation Agent) of the administrator of the Relevant Benchmark provided that, at that time, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Relevant Benchmark;
 - (ii) the administrator of the Relevant Benchmark has ceased or will cease to provide the Relevant Benchmark permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at that time, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the Relevant Benchmark;
 - (iii) the Relevant Benchmark has been or will be permanently or indefinitely discontinued;
 - (iv) an announcement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Relevant Benchmark announcing that the Relevant Benchmark may no longer be used; or
 - (v) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the Relevant Benchmark announcing that the Relevant Benchmark is no longer representative of the market or economic reality that it is intended to measure (a "Non-Representativeness Event").

$$\text{Coupon Amount} = \text{Nominal and/or Calculation Amount and/or Outstanding Nominal Amount and/or Outstanding Calculation Amount} \times \text{Coupon} \times (\text{if specified in the applicable Issue Specific Terms}) \text{ Coupon Day Count Fraction}$$

Each Coupon Amount will be rounded to the nearest two decimal places in the Settlement Currency, with 0.005 being rounded upwards.

"Coupon Barrier" has the meaning given to it in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms.

"Coupon Cessation Date" has the meaning given to it in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms.

- (d) all measures, conditions, and steps that have to be initiated, fulfilled, and carried out (including obtaining necessary consents), in order to ensure that the Securities constitute lawful, effective, and binding obligations of the New Issuer, have been initiated, fulfilled, and carried out and the Securities are legally valid and effective without restrictions.

(2) Substitution of Issuer for English Securities

In respect of English Securities the following provisions apply:

The Issuer is entitled at any time, without the consent of the Security Holders, to substitute the Issuer with another company (the "New Issuer") in respect of all its obligations under or in relation to any Series of Securities, provided that:

Section 8

To the extent that required by law, or exchange regulations or if the Issuer otherwise considers it practical and helpful to Security Holders, announcements will be made, subject to paragraph (2) and (6) of this Section, in addition in a newspaper of general circulation in the Offer States. Any such announcement will be deemed to have been made on the date of first publication of such announcement.

(2) Notice via Clearing System

The Issuer has, in respect of any Securities (which are not represented by a Global ICSD Registered Note), the right, in addition to the publication of a notice pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Section to deliver a notice to the relevant Clearing System for communication by the Clearing System to the Security Holders. Even if the notice is communicated by the relevant Clearing System the first publication pursuant to paragraph (1) sentence 3 remains decisive for the time of effectiveness of the notice.

The Issuer has the right in respect of any English Securities represented by a Global ICSD Registered Note, in lieu of the publication of a notice pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Section, to deliver to the ICSDs a notice for communication to the Security Holders in accordance with the customary rules of the ICSDs. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the holders of beneficial interests in the Global ICSD Registered Note on the day immediately following the day on which such notice was given to the ICSDs.

(3) Luxembourg Stock Exchange Publication

If and for so long as any Securities are listed on the official list of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, notices to the relevant Security Holders will be published, in addition to the requirements of paragraph (1) and (2) of this Section, on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's website, www.luxse.com.

(4) London Stock Exchange Publication

In relation to Securities admitted to the official list of the Financial Services Authority and to trading on the London Stock Exchange's Regulated Market, all notices to Security Holders will be valid if published in one daily newspaper of general circulation in the United Kingdom (expected to be the Financial Times).

(5) Italian Stock Exchange Publication

If and for so long as the Securities are listed on the Italian Stock Exchange and the rules of the exchange so require, notices to the Security Holders will be published on the Italian Stock Exchange's website, www.borsaitaliana.it.

(6) Nordic Registered Securities

In respect of Euroclear Sweden Registered Securities, the Issuer may either publish information and notices in at least one Swedish daily newspaper with nationwide coverage in the Kingdom of Sweden or send such information and notices to the Swedish Paying Agent who (at the expense of the Issuer) will, as soon as reasonably possible, publish the information and notices in at least one Swedish daily newspaper with nationwide coverage in the Kingdom of Sweden. Notwithstanding any confidentiality obligations, the Issuer shall be entitled to obtain information (including information on Euroclear Sweden Security Holders) from the Euroclear Sweden Register, and Euroclear Sweden shall be entitled to provide such information to the Issuer and to the Swedish Paying Agent, respectively.

In respect of VPS Registered Securities, the Issuer may either publish information and notices in at least one Norwegian daily newspaper with nationwide coverage in the Kingdom of Norway or send such information and notices to the Norwegian Paying Agent who (at the expense of the Issuer) will, as soon as reasonably possible, publish the information and notices in at least one Norwegian daily newspaper with nationwide coverage in the Kingdom of Norway. In respect of Euroclear Finland Registered Securities, the Issuer may either publish information and notices in at least one Finnish daily newspaper with nationwide coverage in the Republic of Finland or send such information and notices to the Finnish Paying Agent who (at the expense of the Issuer) will as soon as reasonably possible, publish the information and notices in at least one Finnish daily newspaper with nationwide coverage in the Republic of Finland. Notwithstanding any confidentiality obligations, the Issuer shall be entitled to obtain information (including information on Euroclear Finland Security Holders) from the Euroclear Finland Register, and Euroclear Finland shall be entitled to provide such information to the Issuer and to the Finnish Paying Agent, respectively.

Section 10 (Modifications)

(1) Modifications in the case of German Securities

In respect of German Securities the following provisions apply:

- (a) The Issuer has the right and, if the correction is advantageous for the Security Holder, the obligation after becoming aware thereof to correct obvious spelling and calculation errors in the Issue Specific Terms without the consent of the Security Holders regarding the determination of the Settlement Amount. An error is obvious if it is recognisable to an investor with knowledge of the applicable type of Securities, particularly taking into account the Issue Price and the other factors that determine the value of the Security. In order to determine the obviousness and the applicable understanding of a knowledgeable investor, the Issuer may involve an expert. Corrections to the Issue Specific Terms are published in accordance with Section 9 of the General Conditions.
- (b) The Issuer has the right to modify any contradictory provisions in the Conditions without the consent of the Security Holders. The modification may only serve to clarify the contradiction and not affect any other changes to the Conditions. The Issuer furthermore has the right to supplement incomplete provisions in the Conditions without the consent of the Security Holders. The supplement may serve only to complete the provision and may not affect any other changes to the Conditions. Modifications pursuant to sentence 1 and supplements pursuant to sentence 3 are permitted only if they are reasonable for the Security Holder taking into account the economic purpose of the Conditions, particularly if they do not have a material adverse effect on the interests of the Security Holders. Modifications or supplements to the Conditions are published in accordance with Section 9 of the General Conditions.

- (c) In the case of a correction pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) or modification or supplement pursuant to sub-paragraph (b), the Security Holder may terminate the Securities within four weeks after the notification of the correction or modification or supplement with immediate effect by written notice of termination to the Principal Programme Agent, if as a consequence of the correction or modification or supplement, the content or scope of the Issuer's performance obligations changes in a manner that is not foreseeable to the Security Holder and detrimental to it. The Issuer will inform the Security Holder in the notification pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) regarding the possible termination right including the election right of the Security Holder regarding the Termination Amount. The termination date for the purposes of this sub-paragraph (c) (the "Correction Termination Date") is the date on which the Principal Programme Agent receives the termination notice. An effective exercise of the termination by the Security Holder requires receipt of a duly executed termination statement containing the following information: (i) name of the Security Holder, (ii) designation and number of Securities to be terminated, and (iii) designation of a suitable bank account to which the Termination Amount is to be credited.
- (d) To the extent that a correction pursuant to sub-paragraph (a) or modification or supplement pursuant to sub-paragraph (b) is not possible, both the Issuer and each Security Holder may terminate the Securities, if the preconditions for rescission in accordance with Sections 119 et seq. German Civil Code (BGB) exist vis-à-vis the respective Security Holders or vis-à-vis the Issuer. The Issuer may terminate all but not some only of the Securities by notification in accordance with Section 9 of the General Conditions to the Security Holders; the termination must contain information about the Security Holder's election right regarding the Termination Amount. The Security Holder may terminate the Securities vis-à-vis the Issuer by delivery to the Principal Programme Agent of its termination notice; regarding the content of the termination notice, the rule in paragraph (3) sentence 4 applies. The termination by a Security Holder does not have any effect vis-à-vis the other Security Holders. The Termination Date for purposes of this sub-paragraph (d) (the "Error Termination Date") is, in the case of a termination by the Issuer, the date on which the notification is given or, in the case of a termination by the Security Holder, the date on which the Principal Programme Agent receives the termination notice. The termination must occur without undue delay once the party entitled to terminate has become aware of the reason for termination.
- (e) In the case of an effective termination pursuant to sub-paragraph (c) or sub-paragraph (d), the Issuer will pay a Termination Amount to the Security Holders. The Termination Amount equals either (i) the most recently determined market price of a Security (as defined below) determined by the Calculation Agent or

(ii) upon request of the Security Holder, the purchase price paid by the Security Holder when acquiring the Security, if the Security Holder produces evidence thereof to the Principal Programme Agent. If the Securities are listed, the Market Price (the "Market Price") of the Securities corresponds to the arithmetic mean of the cash settlement prices (Kassakurse), which were published on the three (3) Business Days immediately preceding the Correction Termination Date or the Error Termination Date (each a "Termination Date") at the "Securities Exchange" set out in the applicable Issue Specific Terms. If no cash settlement prices were published on all three (3) Business Days, the Market Price corresponds to an amount, which is determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion taking into account the market conditions existing on the Business Day immediately prior to the Termination Date. If the Securities are not listed, the Market Price (the "Market Price") of the Securities corresponds to an amount, which is determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion taking into account the market conditions existing on the Business Day immediately prior to the Correction Termination Date or the Error Termination Date (each a "Termination Date"). In relation to Italian Listed Securities (to the extent required by the relevant regulated market and/or multilateral trading facility), the Termination Amount (to the extent specified in the Conditions) shall not be adjusted to account fully for any reasonable expenses and costs of the Issuer and/or its affiliates, including those relating to the unwinding of any underlying and/or related hedging and funding arrangements, as determined by the Calculation Agent. The Issuer will transfer the Termination Amount within three (3) Business Days after the Termination Date to the Clearing System for credit to the accounts of the depositors of the Securities or in the case of a termination by the Security Holder to the account stated in the termination notice. If the Security Holder requests repayment of the purchase price after the Termination Date, the balance (the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the Market Price) is transferred thereafter. The requirements of Section 2 of the General Conditions concerning the payment terms apply accordingly. On payment of the Termination Amount, all rights of the Security Holders arising from the terminated Securities cease to have effect. This does not affect any claims by the Security Holder for compensation of any negative interest pursuant to Section 122 paragraph 1 BGB, unless these claims are excluded due to the Security Holder's knowledge or grossly negligent ignorance of the reason for termination in accordance with Section 122 paragraph 2 BGB.

- (f) In case of German Securities with a Global Bearer Note, the Issuer shall be deemed, in the case of modifications under the foregoing provisions of this Section 10 of the General Conditions, to have the legal authority vis-à-vis the relevant Clearing System to make the necessary corrections or modifications or supplements to Conditions set out in the Global Bearer Note.

In case of German Securities issued as Electronic Securities, the Issuer shall be deemed, in the case of modifications under the foregoing provisions of this Section 10 of the General Conditions, to have the legal authority vis-à-vis the Registrar Entity to make the necessary corrections or modifications or supplements to the recorded Conditions and, if applicable, to the record the register details in accordance with section 13 (1) eWpG.

(2) Modifications in the case of English Securities

In respect of English Securities the following provisions apply:

(a) Modifications

In the case of English Securities, the Programme Agreement, the Agency Agreement, the Deed of Covenant and the Conditions may be amended by the Issuer with the approval of the Calculation Agent but without the consent of the Security Holders if, in the reasonable opinion of the Issuer and the Calculation Agent, the amendment (i) is of a formal, minor or technical nature, (ii) is made to correct a manifest or proven error or omission, or (iii) will not materially and adversely affect the interests of the Security Holders of the relevant Series as a class.

(b) Meetings of Security Holders

The Programme Agreement and the Agency Agreement contain provisions for convening meetings of Security Holders to consider matters relating to the relevant Securities, including the modification of any provision of the General Conditions relating to a Series of Securities with the consent of the Issuer. Only Security Holders of outstanding Securities of the applicable Series (as defined in the Programme Agreement or, as the case may be, the Agency Agreement) will be eligible to participate in a meeting of Security Holders of that Series. Such a meeting shall be convened by the Issuer upon the request in writing of the relevant Security Holders holding not less than one-tenth of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Securities of that Series. The quorum at any meeting convened to vote on a resolution will be one or more persons holding or representing more than half of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Securities of that Series or, at any adjourned meeting, one or more persons holding or representing not less than one quarter of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Securities of the relevant Series. Any resolution duly passed at any such meeting shall be binding on all the Security Holders of the applicable Series, whether present or not.

(c) Written resolution

A resolution in writing signed or electronically approved using the systems and procedures in place from time to time of an ICSD by or on behalf of all Security Holders of a relevant Series who for the time being are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Security Holders of the relevant Series will take effect as if it were a resolution passed at a meeting of such Security Holders of the relevant Series. Such a resolution in writing may be contained in one document or several documents in the same form, each signed by or on behalf of one or more Security

Holders of the relevant Series or may be in the form of SWIFT or other electronic instructions as permitted by the rules and procedures of the relevant ICSD.

Section 11
(Governing Law, Place of Jurisdiction)

(1) Securities governed by German law

The form and content of German Securities and all rights and obligations set out in the Conditions, and any related non-contractual obligations, will, subject to Section 11 (3) of the General Conditions, be governed by, and construed in every respect in accordance with the laws of Germany.

Frankfurt am Main shall be the place of performance of the German Securities. Frankfurt am Main will, in addition, be the place of jurisdiction for all lawsuits or other proceedings from or in connection with the German Securities for merchants, legal persons under public law, or special assets (Sondervermögen) under public law, and person without a general place of jurisdiction in Germany. In the aforementioned cases, Frankfurt am Main is the exclusive place of jurisdiction for all lawsuits against the Issuer.

(2) Securities governed by English law

English Securities and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the English Securities are, subject to Section 11 (3) of the General Conditions, governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law.

No person shall have any right to enforce any term or condition of the English Securities under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, but this does not affect any right or remedy of any person which exists or is available apart from that Act.

The courts of England are to have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with the English Securities (including a dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the English Securities).

If any of the provisions of the Conditions is or becomes invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. By purchasing any Securities, each Security Holder will be deemed to have agreed, in the circumstances referred to in this Section 12, to attempt to substitute, in accordance with Section 12 of the General Conditions, for any invalid or unenforceable provision a valid or enforceable provision which achieves to the greatest extent possible the same effect as would have been achieved by the invalid or unenforceable provision.

Section 13

Annex to the General Conditions – Index Linked Provisions

1. Consequences of Non-Scheduled Trading Days or Disrupted Days

1.1 Single Index and Reference Dates

Where the Index Linked Securities are specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms to relate to a single Index, and if the Calculation Agent determines that any Scheduled Reference Date in respect of such Index is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day, then the Reference Date for such Index shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day that the Calculation Agent determines is not a Disrupted Day in respect of such Index, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption in respect of such Index immediately following such Scheduled Reference Date is a Disrupted Day for such Index. In that case:

- (a) the Scheduled Trading Day which falls such number of Scheduled Trading Days equal to the Maximum Days of Disruption after the relevant Scheduled Reference Date shall be deemed to be the Reference Date for such Index, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for such Index; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall, in its reasonable discretion, determine the Underlying Price on that Scheduled Trading Day in accordance with the formula for and method of, calculating the relevant Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day, using the Relevant Values, and such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall be deemed to be the Underlying Price for such Index in respect of the relevant Reference Date,

provided that:

- (c) if the consequence of "No Adjustment" is specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms, then each Reference Date for the relevant Index shall be the Scheduled Reference Date, notwithstanding the fact that any Scheduled Reference Date is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day for such Index, and the Calculation Agent shall, in its reasonable discretion, determine the Underlying Price on any such Reference Date in accordance with the formula for and method of, calculating such Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of such Reference Date, using the Relevant Values and, such determination by the Calculation Agent shall be deemed to be the Underlying Price for such Index in respect of the relevant Reference Date.

1.2 Single Index and Averaging Reference Dates

Where the Index Linked Securities are specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms relate to a single Index, and, if the Calculation Agent determines that any Scheduled Averaging Reference Date in respect of such Index is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day and, if in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms the consequence specified is:

- (a) "Omission", then such Scheduled Averaging Reference Date will be deemed not to be a relevant Averaging Reference Date, provided that, if through the operation of this provision there would not be any Averaging Reference Dates, then the Averaging Reference Date for such Index shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day following the final Scheduled Averaging Reference Date that the Calculation Agent determines is not a Disrupted Day in respect of such Index, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption in respect of such Index immediately following such final Scheduled Averaging Reference Date is a Disrupted Day for such Index. In that case:

- (i) the Scheduled Trading Day which falls such number of Scheduled Trading Days equal to the Maximum Days of Disruption after the relevant Scheduled Averaging Reference Date shall be deemed to be the Averaging Reference Date for such Index, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for such Index; and
 - (ii) the Calculation Agent shall, in its reasonable discretion, determine the Underlying Price on that Scheduled Trading Day in accordance with the formula for and method of, calculating the relevant Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day, using the Relevant Values, and, in respect of such Index, such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (ii) shall be deemed to be the Underlying Price in respect of the relevant Averaging Reference Date.
- (b) "Postponement", then the relevant Averaging Reference Date for such Index shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day following such Scheduled Averaging Reference Date that the Calculation Agent determines is not a Disrupted Day for such Index, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption in respect of such Index immediately following such Scheduled Averaging Reference Date is a Disrupted Day for such Index. In that case:
- (i) the Scheduled Trading Day which falls such number of Scheduled Trading Days equal to the Maximum Days of Disruption after the relevant Scheduled Averaging Reference Date shall be deemed to be the Averaging Reference Date for such Index, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for such Index; and
 - (ii) the Calculation Agent shall, in its reasonable discretion, determine the Underlying Price on that Scheduled Trading Day in accordance with the formula for and method of, calculating the relevant Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day, using the Relevant Values, and, in respect of such Index, such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (ii) shall be deemed to be the Underlying Price in respect of the relevant Averaging Reference Date. For the avoidance of doubt, an Averaging Reference Date determined in accordance with this Index Linked Provision 1.2 in respect of a Scheduled Averaging Reference Date may fall on the same day that another Averaging Reference Date in respect of another Scheduled Averaging Reference Date falls, whether or not such latter Averaging Reference Date was also determined in accordance with this Index Linked Provision 1.2;

- (c) "Modified Postponement", then the relevant Averaging Reference Date shall be the first succeeding Valid Date. If the first succeeding Valid Date has not occurred as of the relevant Valuation Time on the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following such Scheduled Averaging Reference Date that, but for the occurrence of another Averaging Reference Date or a Disrupted Day for such Index, would have been the relevant Averaging Reference Date, then:
- (i) the Scheduled Trading Day which falls such number of Scheduled Trading Days equal to the Maximum Days of Disruption after the relevant Scheduled Averaging Reference Date shall be deemed to be the Averaging Reference Date for such Index, notwithstanding the fact that such day is already an Averaging Reference Date or is a Disrupted Day for such Index; and
 - (ii) the Calculation Agent shall, in its reasonable discretion, determine the Underlying Price on that Scheduled Trading Day in accordance with the formula for and method of, calculating such Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day, using the Relevant Values, and, in respect of such Index, such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this paragraph (ii) shall be deemed to be the Underlying Price in respect of the relevant Averaging Reference Date,

provided that:

- (d) if the consequence of "No Adjustment" is specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms, then each Averaging Reference Date for the relevant Index shall be the Scheduled Averaging Reference Date, notwithstanding the fact that any such Scheduled Averaging Reference Date is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day for such Index, and the Calculation Agent shall, in its reasonable discretion, determine the Underlying Price on any such Averaging Reference Date in accordance with the formula for and method of, calculating such Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of such Averaging Reference Date, using the Relevant Values, and, in respect of such Index, such determination by the Calculation Agent shall be deemed to be the Underlying Price in respect of the relevant Averaging Reference Date;
- (e) if the Calculation Agent determines that any Scheduled Averaging Reference Date is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day in respect of such Index and, Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms do not specify the consequence, then "Postponement" will apply.

2. Fallback Valuation Date

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Index Linked Provisions, if a Fallback Valuation Date is specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms to be applicable to any Reference Date or Averaging Reference Date (any such date being, for the purposes of this Index Linked Provision 2, a "Relevant Date") for an Index, and if, following adjustment of such Relevant Date pursuant to Index Linked Provision 1 (Consequences of Non-Scheduled Trading Days or Disrupted Days) above (for the purposes of this Index Linked Provision 2, an "Affected Index") the Relevant Date would otherwise fall after the specified Fallback Valuation Date in respect of such Affected Index, then such Fallback Valuation Date shall be deemed to be such Relevant Date for such Affected Index.

If such Fallback Valuation Date is not a Scheduled Trading Day or is a Disrupted Day in respect of such Affected Index, as the case may be, then the Calculation Agent shall, in its reasonable discretion, determine the Underlying Price of such Affected Index as of the relevant Valuation Time on such Fallback Valuation Date in accordance with the formula for, and method of, calculating such Affected Index last in effect prior to the occurrence of the first Disrupted Day, using the Relevant Values, and in respect of such Affected Index, such determination by the Calculation Agent pursuant to this Index Linked Provision 2 shall be deemed to be the Underlying Price at the relevant Valuation Time in respect of the relevant Reference Date or Averaging Reference Date.

3. Adjustments

3.1 Successor Index Sponsor or Successor Index

If an Index is (i) not calculated and announced by the Index Sponsor but is calculated and announced by a successor index sponsor acceptable to the Calculation Agent (a "Successor Index Sponsor") or (ii) replaced by a successor index using, in the determination of the Calculation Agent acting in its reasonable discretion, the same or a substantially similar formula for, and method of, calculation of such Index, then in each case such index (the "Successor Index") will be deemed to be the Index.

If any of the events set out in (i) or (ii) above has occurred, but the Calculation Agent has not identified, acting in its reasonable discretion, a Successor Index Sponsor or Successor Index, as applicable, then the occurrence of any such event shall constitute either an Index Modification or Index Cancellation, as applicable, and the provisions of Index Linked Provision 3.2 (Occurrence of an Index Adjustment Event) shall apply accordingly, mutatis mutandis.

3.2 Occurrence of an Index Adjustment Event

If the Calculation Agent determines in respect of an Index that, (i) on or prior to any Reference Date or Averaging Reference Date, the relevant Index Sponsor or Successor Index Sponsor, if applicable, has made or announced that it will make a material change in the formula for, or the method of, calculating a relevant Index, or in any other way materially modifies such Index (other than a modification prescribed in that formula or method to maintain such Index in the event of changes in the Components, capitalisation and/or other routine events) (an "Index Modification"), or permanently cancels a relevant Index or the Index may no longer be used as a consequence of new regulatory provisions and no Successor Index exists as at the date of such cancellation (an "Index Cancellation"), or (ii) on any Reference Date or Averaging Reference Date the Index Sponsor or Successor Index Sponsor, if applicable, fails to calculate and announce a relevant Index (an "Index Disruption", and together with Index Modification and Index Cancellation, each an "Index Adjustment Event") (provided that, in respect of a Multi-Exchange Index, the Calculation Agent may, in its reasonable discretion, determine that such event instead results in the occurrence of a Disrupted Day), or (iii) on or prior to any Reference Date or other relevant date, an Administrator/ Benchmark Event Date has occurred in respect of a relevant Index, then

- (a) the Calculation Agent shall, in its reasonable discretion, determine if such Index Adjustment Event has a material effect on the Index Linked Securities and, if so, shall calculate the relevant Underlying Price using, in lieu of a published level for that Index, the level for such Index as at the Valuation Time on that Reference Date or Averaging Reference Date, as the case may be, as, in its reasonable discretion, the Calculation Agent so determines in accordance with the formula for, and method of, calculating such Index last in effect prior to the relevant Index Adjustment Event, but using only those Components that comprised such Index immediately prior to such Index Adjustment Event (i.e. excluding Components that have since ceased to be listed on the relevant Exchange), provided that if the Calculation Agent determines in its reasonable discretion that no adjustment it could make under this paragraph Index Linked Provision 3.2 would produce a commercially reasonable result, it may direct the Issuer to redeem the Index Linked Securities under Index Linked Provision 3.4 (Early Redemption) below; or
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine if such Index Adjustment Event has a material effect on the Index Linked Securities, and, if so, the Calculation Agent may rebase the Index Linked Securities against another index, selected by the Calculation Agent to be reasonably comparable to the relevant Index, and, following such rebasing, the Calculation Agent will make such adjustment(s) that it determines in its reasonable discretion to be appropriate, if any, to any variable, calculation methodology, valuation, settlement, payment terms or any other terms of the Index Linked Securities to account for such rebasing; or
- (c) following each adjustment to the exercise, settlement, payment, or other terms of options or futures contracts on the Index traded on any Options Exchange, the Calculation Agent will make the appropriate adjustments, if any, to any one or more of the terms of the Index Linked Securities, including without limitation, any variable or term relevant to the settlement or payment under the Index Linked Securities, as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate in its reasonable discretion, such adjustment will be effective as of the date determined by the Calculation Agent to be the effective date of the corresponding adjustment made by the Options Exchange. If options or futures contracts on the Index are not traded on the Options Exchange, the Calculation Agent will make such adjustment, if any, to any one or more of the terms of such Index Linked Securities, including without limitation, any variable or term relevant to the settlement or payment under such Index Linked Securities, as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate in its reasonable discretion, with reference to the rules of and precedents (if any) set by the Options Exchange, to account for any event that, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, would have given rise to an adjustment by the Options Exchange if such options or futures contracts were so traded;

provided that if:

- (i) it (I) is or would be unlawful at any time under any applicable law or regulation; or (II) would contravene any applicable licensing requirements for the Calculation Agent, to perform the actions prescribed in paragraphs (a), (a) or (c) above (or it would be unlawful or would contravene those licensing requirements if a determination were to be made at such time); or

- (ii) the Calculation Agent determines in its reasonable discretion that none of paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) above, as is applicable, would achieve a commercially reasonable result for the Issuer, the Calculation Agent or the Security Holders, it may direct the Issuer to redeem the Index Linked Securities in accordance with Index Linked Provision 3.4 (Early Redemption) below.

3.3 Occurrence of an Additional Disruption Event

If the Calculation Agent has determined, in its reasonable discretion, that any Additional Disruption Event specified as applicable in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms has occurred, it may direct the Issuer to redeem the Index Linked Securities in accordance with Index Linked Provision 3.4 (Early Redemption) below.

3.4 Early Redemption

If following the occurrence of any of the relevant events listed in Index Linked Provisions 3.1, 3.2 or 3.3 (Adjustments) above, the Calculation Agent has directed the Issuer to redeem the Index Linked Securities, the Issuer shall, within one month following the occurrence of the relevant event, give notice to Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions designating a termination date (the "Termination Date"). On the Termination Date, the Issuer shall redeem all, but not some only, of the Index Linked Securities and it shall pay an amount equal to the Termination Amount to each Security Holder in respect of each Index Linked Security held by it. Payment of the Termination Amount will be made in such manner as shall be notified to the Security Holders in accordance with Section 9 (Notices) of the General Conditions.

4. Correction of Underlying Price

If Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms specify that "Correction of Underlying Price" shall be applicable for an Index, then, in the event that any Underlying Price published by the Index Sponsor on any date which is utilised for any calculation or determination is subsequently corrected and the correction is published by the Index Sponsor within one Settlement Cycle after the original publication, the Calculation Agent will determine the amount that is payable or deliverable as a result of that correction, and, to the extent necessary, will adjust any relevant terms of the Index Linked Securities to account for such correction, provided that, if a Correction Cut-off Date is applicable for a relevant Index for any relevant date, corrections published after such Correction Cut-off Date will be disregarded by the Calculation Agent for the purposes of determining or calculating any relevant amount, and/or whether any event specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms has occurred.

5. Index Disclaimer

The Issuer agrees and acknowledges and, by purchasing the Index Linked Securities, each Security Holder is deemed to acknowledge and agree, in respect of such Index, that the Index Linked Securities are not sponsored, endorsed, sold, or promoted by the Index or the Index

Sponsor and no Index Sponsor makes any representation whatsoever, whether express or implied, either as to the results to be obtained from the use of the Index and/or the levels at which the Index stands at any particular time on any particular date or otherwise. No Index or Index Sponsor shall be liable (whether in negligence or otherwise) to any person for any error in the Index and the Index Sponsor is under no obligation to advise any person of any error therein. No Index Sponsor is making any representation whatsoever, whether express or implied, as to the advisability of purchasing or assuming any risk in connection with the Index Linked Securities. The Issuer shall have no liability to the Security Holders for any act or failure to act by the Index Sponsor in connection with the calculation, adjustment, or maintenance of the Index. Except as disclosed prior to the Issue Date specified in Part B (general terms) of the applicable Issue Specific Terms, none of the Issuer the Calculation Agent or any of their respective affiliates has any affiliation with or control over the Index or Index Sponsor or any control over the computation, composition, or dissemination of the relevant Index. Accordingly, no representation, warranty, or undertaking (express or implied) is made and no responsibility is accepted by the Issuer, its affiliates or the Calculation Agent as to the accuracy, completeness, and timeliness of information concerning the Index.

VIII. TAXATION

Tax Warning

The tax legislation of the Member State of the investor and of the Member State of incorporation of the Issuer may affect the income generated by the Securities.

Each potential investor should seek advice from a representative of the tax advisory profession with respect to the tax implication of acquiring, holding and selling the Securities.

United States Tax Considerations

The following is a summary of the principal United States federal income and estate tax consequences to a United States alien holder of Securities. A United States alien holder is a beneficial owner of a Security that is, for United States federal income tax purposes:

- a non-resident alien individual;
- a foreign corporation;
- a foreign partnership; or
- an estate or trust that in either case is not subject to United States federal income tax on a net income basis on income or gain from a Security that does not hold the Security in connection with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States.

The discussion herein does not apply to any holder of Securities that is not a United States alien holder.

A holder of Securities should consult its tax advisor concerning the consequences of owning Securities in its particular circumstances under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and the laws of any other taxing jurisdiction.

Except as described below under "Foreign Account Tax Compliance Withholding" and "Information Reporting and Backup Withholding", payments and amounts realised in respect of such Securities will generally not be subject to United States income tax, withholding tax or estate tax.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Withholding

FATCA could impose a withholding tax of 30 per cent. on payments on Securities paid to a holder of Securities or any non-U.S. person or entity that receives such income (a "non-U.S. payee") on its behalf, unless the holder and each non-U.S. payee in the payment chain complies with the applicable information reporting, account identification, withholding, certification and other FATCA-related requirements. However, this withholding tax will generally not apply to Securities unless they are treated as giving rise to "foreign passthru payments" and are issued after the date that is six months after the U.S. Treasury Department issues final regulations defining what constitutes "foreign passthru payments". In addition, such withholding will not apply to payments made before the date that is two years after the date on which final regulations defining the term "foreign passthru payment" are enacted. There are currently no rules regarding what constitutes a "foreign passthru payment" and there is no guidance as to when the defining regulations would be issued.

In addition, it is possible that the IRS could assert that Securities should be deemed to be wholly or partially reissued for U.S. federal tax purposes if (a) an underlying asset, position, index or basket containing the foregoing, that is referenced by the Securities, is modified, adjusted or discontinued, or (b) there is a substitution of the issuer of the Securities. It is therefore possible that a holder that acquires Securities before the date mentioned under (i) in the immediately preceding paragraph, could nevertheless be subject to FATCA withholding in the future if the IRS successfully asserts that the Securities are deemed to be wholly or partially reissued for U.S. federal income tax purposes after such date.

Even if this withholding tax were to apply to payments on any Securities, in the case of a payee that is a non-U.S. financial institution (for example, a clearing system, custodian, nominee or broker), withholding generally will not be imposed if the financial institution complies with the requirements imposed by FATCA to collect and report (to the U.S. or another relevant taxing authority) substantial information regarding such institution's U.S. account holders (which would include some account holders that are non-U.S. entities but have U.S. owners). Other payees, including individuals, may be required to provide proof of tax residence or waivers of confidentiality laws and/or, in the case of non-U.S. entities, certification or information relating to their U.S. ownership. Under this withholding regime, withholding may be imposed at any point in a chain of payments if the payee is not compliant. A chain may work as follows, for example: The payment is transferred through a paying agent to a clearing system, the clearing system makes a payment to each of the clearing system's participants, and finally the clearing system participant makes a payment to a non-U.S. bank or broker through which a United States alien holder holds the Securities, who credits the payment to the holder's account. Accordingly, if a holder of Securities receives payments through a chain that includes one or more non-U.S. payees, such as a non-U.S. bank or broker, the payment could be subject to withholding if, for example, the non-U.S. bank or broker through which the holder holds the Securities fails to comply with the FATCA requirements and is subject to withholding. This would be the case even if the holder would not otherwise have been directly subject to withholding.

A number of countries have entered into, and other countries are expected to enter into, agreements with the U.S. to facilitate the type of information reporting required under FATCA. While the existence of such agreements will not eliminate the risk that Securities will be subject to the withholding described above, these agreements are expected to reduce the risk of the withholding for investors in (or investors that indirectly hold Securities through financial institutions in) those countries. The U.S. has entered into such agreements with Germany. Under these agreements, a financial institution that is resident in Germany (as applicable) and meets the requirements of the agreement will not be subject to the withholding described above on payments it receives and generally will not be required to withhold from non-U.S. source income payments that it makes, including payments on the Securities.

The Issuer will not pay any additional amounts in respect of this withholding tax, so if this withholding applies, a holder of Securities will receive less than the amount that it would have otherwise received.

Depending on the circumstances of a holder of Securities, in the event the Issuer is required to withhold any amounts in respect of this withholding tax, a holder may be entitled to a refund or credit in respect of some or all of this withholding. However, even if a holder is entitled to have any such withholding refunded, the required procedures could be cumbersome and significantly delay its receipt of any withheld amounts. Holders of Securities should consult their own tax advisors regarding FATCA. A holder should also consult the bank or broker through which it would hold the Securities about the likelihood that payments to it (for credit to the holder's account) may become subject to withholding in the payment chain.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Payment of the proceeds from the sale of Securities effected at a United States office of a broker will not be subject to backup withholding and information reporting provided that:

- (1) the broker does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the holder is a United States person and it has furnished to the broker:
 - (a) an appropriate IRS Form W-8 or an acceptable substitute form certifying, under penalties of perjury, that it is not a United States person; or
 - (b) other documentation upon which the broker may rely to treat the payment as made to a person who is not a United States person in accordance with United States Treasury regulations; or
- (2) the holder otherwise establishes an exemption.

If a holder of Securities fails to establish an exemption and the broker does not possess adequate documentation of its status as a person who is not a United States person, the payments may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding. However, backup withholding will not apply with respect to payments made to an offshore account maintained by a holder unless the broker has actual knowledge that it is a United States person.

In general, payment of the proceeds from the sale of Securities effected at a foreign office of a broker will not be subject to information reporting or backup withholding. However, a sale effected at a foreign office of a broker will be subject to information reporting and backup withholding if:

- (1) the proceeds are transferred to an account maintained by the holder in the United States;
- (2) the payment of proceeds or the confirmation of the sale is mailed to the holder at a United States address; or
- (3) the sale has some other specified connection with the United States as provided in United States Treasury regulations;

unless the broker does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the holder is a United States person and the documentation requirements described above (relating to a sale of Securities effected at a United States office of a broker) are met or the holder otherwise establishes an exemption.

In addition, payment of the proceeds from the sale of Securities effected at a foreign office of a broker will be subject to information reporting, but not backup withholding, if the broker is:

- (1) a United States person;
- (2) a controlled foreign corporation for United States tax purposes;

Therefore, any action that would constitute a public offering of the Securities or distribution of any offering materials in relation to the Securities (even if it is done on a private one-on-one basis) is prohibited without previous registration with the SIV. Relevant regulation does not distinguish between activities made on-shore or off-shore. Consequently, the restrictions will apply, and licensing requirements will be triggered whether a public offer is made in or into Paraguay.

The Securities are not registered before the Superintendency of Securities of the Republic of Paraguay, and are not regulated by Paraguayan authorities, and as such, they do not benefit from the tax regimes currently in force, nor are they guaranteed by any Paraguayan public or private entity. You acknowledge that the Securities and financial products offered herein were issued

Peru

The Securities and the information contained in this document (and any related offering document) have not been, and will not be, registered with or approved by the Superintendencia del Mercado de Valores ("SMV") and cannot be offered or sold in Peru, except if (i) the Securities are previously registered with the SMV or (ii) such offering qualifies as a private offering under the securities laws and regulations of Peru. The Peruvian securities laws establish, among other things, that an offer directed exclusively to institutional investors (as defined under Peruvian law) qualifies as a private offering. The Securities acquired by institutional investors in Peru cannot be transferred to a third party unless such transfer is made to another institutional investor or the Securities have been previously registered with the SMV.

In making an investment decision, institutional investors (as defined under Peruvian law) must rely on their own examination of the terms of the offering of the Securities to determine their ability to invest in the Securities. No offer or invitation to subscribe for or sell the Securities or beneficial interests therein can be made in Peru except in compliance with the securities laws thereof.

This document and any other offering materials relating to the offer of the Securities are being supplied to those Peruvian investors who have expressly requested them. Such materials may not be distributed to any person or entity other than the intended recipients.

Poland

In addition to provisions applicable to the "Public Offer Selling Restrictions under the Prospectus Regulation" above, the following applies:

With respect to the offer, delivery, advertisement or sale of Securities no approval has been sought or obtained from the Polish Financial Supervision Authority (Komisja Nadzoru Finansowego) and the offer, delivery, advertisement or sale of Securities was not notified to the Polish Financial Supervision Authority (Komisja Nadzoru Finansowego).

Any offer, delivery, advertisement or sale of the Securities or distribution of copies of the Base Prospectus, any Final Terms or any other document relating to the Securities to the public in Poland must be made in accordance with:

- (a) the Prospectus Regulation;
- (b) the Polish Act on Public Offers and Conditions of Introducing Financial Instruments to Organised Trading and on Public Companies of 29 July 2005 (as amended) ("Act on Public Offers");
- (c) the Polish Act on Trading in Financial Instruments of 29 July 2005 (as amended); and

- (d) any other applicable laws and regulations or requirement imposed by the Polish Financial Supervision Authority (Komisja Nadzoru Finansowego) or other Polish authority.

In particular, according to Article 3 Section 1(a) of the Act on Public Offers, an offer of securities to the public referred to in Article 1 Section 4(b) of the Prospectus Regulation, in the case of which the number of persons to whom it is directed together with the number of persons to whom public offers referred to in Article 1 Section 4(b) of Prospectus Regulation were directed, of the same type of securities, carried out over the past 12 months, exceeds 149, requires that an information memorandum referred to in Article 38b of the Polish Act on Public Offers shall be submitted to the Polish Financial Supervision Authority's (Komisja Nadzoru Finansowego) and published.

The provision under Article 3 Section 1(a) of the Act on Public Offers is not applicable if the offer is directed solely to the holders of the same type of securities of the same issuer or to entities which were offered the issuer's securities by way of exchanging receivables from the redemption of the previously issued securities of the issuer.

Moreover, according to the Act on Public Offers, advertisements of an offer of securities to the public referred to in Article 1 Section 4(b) of the Prospectus Regulation may only be disseminated to less than 150 persons in the territory of one Member State and cannot be made available to an unknown recipient.

If, pursuant to the provisions of the Prospectus Regulation, it is not required to make the prospectus available, the advertisements should be consistent with the information included in the information memorandum or any other document required under the Act on Public Offers or the Prospectus Regulation, made available to the public, or with information which should be included in the memorandum or in the document pursuant to the provisions of the Act on Public Offers, the Prospectus Regulation and delegated and implementing acts issued on the basis thereof, if the information memorandum or such document have not yet been made available to the public, and they cannot mislead investors in respect of the issuer's situation and the assessment of the securities.

Portugal

For selling restrictions in respect of Portugal, please see "Public Offer Selling Restrictions under the Prospectus Regulation" above.

Romania

The Base Prospectus has not been subject to the approval of the Romanian Financial Supervisory Authority ("ASF") or any other competent Romanian authority. In addition to the cases described in the section headed "Public Offer Selling Restrictions under the Prospectus Regulation" above, in which the Securities may be offered to the public in a Member State (including Romania), the Securities may be offered in observance of the following cumulative conditions:

Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS IN THE KINGDOM OF SAUDI ARABIA

This Base Prospectus may not be distributed in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia except to such persons as are permitted under the Rules on the Offer of Securities and Continuing Obligations issued by the Capital Market Authority of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (the "CMA").

The CMA does not make any representation as to the accuracy or completeness of the Base Prospectus, and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever for any loss arising from, or incurred in reliance upon, any part of the Base Prospectus. Prospective purchasers of the Securities offered hereby should conduct their own due diligence on the accuracy of the information relating to the securities. If you do not understand the contents of the Base Prospectus, you should consult an authorised financial advisor.

Each private placement offering document used in advertising an offer of Securities must prominently include the above paragraph.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE AND TRANSFER AND SELLING RESTRICTIONS

No action has been or will be taken in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia that would permit a public offering of the Securities. Any investor in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia or who is a Saudi person (a "Saudi Investor") who acquires any Securities pursuant to any offering should note that the offer of Securities is a private placement under Article 8 or Article 9 or Article 10, or Article 11 of the "Rules on the Offer of Securities and Continuing Obligations" as issued by the Board of the CMA pursuant to its resolution number 3-123-2017 dated 9/4/1439H corresponding to 27/12/2017G amended by Resolution of the Board of the CMA number 3-6-2024 dated 05/07/1445H corresponding to 17/01/2024G (the "KSA Regulations") being conducted, for the purposes of Article 10 of the KSA Regulations, through a Capital Market Institution licensed by the CMA to carry on the securities activity of arranging and following a notification to the CMA under Article 10 the KSA Regulations.

The Securities may thus not be advertised, offered or sold to any person in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia other than to "Institutional clients" and "Qualified client" under Article 8(a)(1) of the KSA Regulations or by way of a limited offer under Article 9 of the KSA Regulations. Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that any offer of Securities will comply with the KSA Regulations.

Each Dealer has represented and/or agreed (as applicable), and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and/or agree (as applicable), that any offer of Securities made by it to a Saudi Investor will be made in compliance with Article 10 and either Article 8(a)(1) or Article 9 of the KSA Regulations.

Each offer of Securities shall not therefore constitute a "public offer" pursuant to the KSA Regulations, but is subject to the restrictions on secondary market activity under Article 14 of the KSA Regulations. Any Saudi Investor who has acquired Securities pursuant to a private placement under Article 10, or Article 9 or is an Exempt offer under Article 6 of the KSA Regulations may not offer or sell those Securities to any person unless the offer or sale is made through a Capital Market Institution appropriately licensed by the CMA and where one of the following requirements is met:

- (a) price to be paid for the securities in any one transaction does not exceed two hundred thousand SAR; or
- (b) the securities are offered or sold to an "institutional client" and "qualified client".

All the above restrictions shall cease to apply upon approval of listing on the Saudi Stock Exchange of securities of the same class as the Securities that are subject to such restrictions.

If the requirement in paragraph (a) above cannot be fulfilled because the price of the Securities being offered or sold to the transferee has increased since the date of the original private placement, the transferor may offer or sell the Securities to the transferee if their purchase price during the period of the original private placement did not exceed two hundred thousand SAR or an equivalent amount. If this requirement cannot be fulfilled, a Saudi Investor may offer or sell the Securities if he sells his entire holding of such Securities to one person.

All the above provisions shall apply to all subsequent transferees of such Securities.
