Version 1.3

Important information

Here's what you need to know when you buy anything on the VOXI website.

Your agreement with us

By ordering from us, you agree you've read and accepted the following terms:

- These buying online terms
- If you're purchasing a VOXI plan, the VOXI terms and conditions
- The terms related to the use of this site

Your status

If you're an individual who's placing an order, you must be a resident in the UK, to purchase any products or services from us.

Your order

When you order products and services from this site, we treat this as an offer from you to purchase such products and services. We may refuse to accept such orders for any number of reasons - such as a failure to meet credit check criteria, unavailability of products or services, product, or pricing errors.

On receipt of your order, we'll send you an email describing the products and services you've ordered. These communications confirm we've received your order, but don't represent any acceptance of your offer to purchase products or services from us. We're not legally obliged to provide the products and services to you during the offer process (before the contract is completed). The contract between you and us will only be completed when we dispatch the products to you. Any products or services on the same order which haven't been dispatched to you don't form part of that contract. For products purchased online and delivered to a Vodafone retail store (where the option to collect from a Vodafone retail store is available), the point of dispatch will be when you collect your product from the Vodafone retail store.

Price and payment

Prices for VOXI services are inclusive of VAT, if VAT applies. This VAT is remitted to HMRC. VOXI is a Consumer proposition for non-business use. As VAT invoices are only legally required to be issued to VAT registered business customers. Vodafone Ltd does not issue VAT invoices to VOXI customers.

Despite our efforts, sometimes information, discounts, promotions, e-vouchers and prices on this site may be incorrect. However, we do try to check these as part of our order processing - and if we spot an error, we'll contact you.

If you're purchasing products or services outright, payment will be debited from your card at the point of dispatch of the products or provision of the services to you. If we're unable to supply the products or services to you, we'll notify you and refund the relevant amounts if payment has been debited from your card.

If you're purchasing a product through PayPal Credit (either via Pay in 3 or monthly payments), please refer to PayPal's terms and conditions.

Availability and delivery

We try to provide you with availability information for products and services on this site. Delivery dates are estimates only and beyond what we say on such pages, we can't be more specific about availability and delivery dates.

As we process your order, we'll inform you if any products or services on your order turn out to be unavailable or delayed for any reason.
