AMAALA ANNOUNCES A WHO'S WHO OF INDUSTRY TITANS FOR ADVISORY BOARD

The Island

Riyadh – 11 February 2019 – AMAALA, the ultra-luxury development located along Saudi Arabia's northwest coast, has announced its Advisory Board. The first board meeting saw a veritable who's who of industry titans gather to share their visionary knowledge of health and wellness, sustainability and conservation, the arts and hospitality.

Nicholas Naples, Chief Executive Officer of AMAALA, said: "This is an unprecedented project built with sustainability and philanthropy at its core. From the ground up, we are creating an integrative approach to health, well-being and experiential luxury.

With the scale and ambition of AMAALA, the broad range of expertise and diversity of our Advisory Board will be imperative as we move forward as a business. An invaluable asset, their collective insight is helping us meet our ambitions to create a proposition that provides visitors with transformative personal journeys inspired by arts, wellness, and the purity of the Red Sea."

The ecology of the site demands exceptional sensitivity. The Master Plan will be developed in phases to support economic diversification while promoting cultural and ecological preservation.

AMAALA is a mesmerising proposition that is unique by all measures. It conjures Arabian adventure and rediscovery of wonder. The AMAALA Advisory Board bring their rich experience, best practices, and new ideas to the brand's three core pillars: arts and culture; wellness and sport; and sea, sun and, lifestyle.

Working to craft an experience that resonates well beyond a guest's stay, AMAALA's hospitality segment will be guided by global hospitality leaders:

- Antoine Corinthios, President, AGC Consulting LLC: The former President of Europe, Middle East and Asia for Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts, Antoine Corinthios is an established leader in hospitality with nearly 40 years of experience in the luxury sector across a broad range of international markets.
