Dear AKINOLA ISRAEL AKINLEYE,

Thank you for your interest in working in Canada. After careful review of your work permit application and supporting documentation under the Temporary Foreign Worker Program, I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) and Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations (IRPR). I am refusing your application on the following grounds:

- I am not satisfied that you will leave Canada at the end of your stay as required by paragraph 200(1)(b) of the IRPR (<https://laws.justice.gc.ca/eng/regulations/SOR-2002-227/section-200.html>). I am refusing your application because you have not established that you will leave Canada, based on the following factors:
  - The purpose of your visit to Canada is not consistent with a temporary stay given the details you have provided in your application.
  - You do not have significant family ties outside Canada.

To get help with understanding your temporary resident application refusal and what you can do next, visit: <https://www.cic.gc.ca/visit-visiter/en/refusal-visa-application>.

Next Steps:

- If you decide to apply again, know that:
  - your new application will be assessed on its own merits,
  - you must resubmit a new application and all relevant supporting documents and pay a new temporary resident application fee, and
  - your new application may be refused unless it is supported by new or different information that would satisfy the officer that you meet all application requirements.
