Important Notice Regarding Your New License

The Minnesota Department of Commerce has partnered with Sircon to offer many licensing services on-line at www.pulseportal.com.

To access these on-line services, you must create a username and password. Open your internet browser and go to www.pulseportal.com. Select Minnesota from the State drop-down and then select the appropriate board (i.e. real estate, debt, appraiser, abstractor, or mortgage). Next, from the Select a service menu, choose Register for an Account, which takes you to the Register New User page. Enter your State ID and PIN number provided below and select Continue.

State 21036155 PIN: Qp6d6JgK

After you have successfully set-up your account, you may begin using the available on-line services. Please note, however, that you should frequently check the Department of Commerce's website for important notices regarding on-line services (e.g. submitting license applications and renewals). The Department's website address is www.commerce.state.mn.us.
